

Alfred University volleyball team takes fourth place at Elmira Tournament

9/10/05

ELMIRA, NY The Alfred University volleyball team placed fourth of six teams competing at the Elmira College Tournament Friday and Saturday. After a loss to Elmira Friday, AU (2-7, 0-0 Empire 8) defeated Goucher 3-0 (30-19, 30-25, 30-24) Saturday morning. The Lady Saxons then faced eventual tournament champ Geneseo and lost 3-0 (30-25, 30-22, 30-28) to move to the third/place match against Hamilton. Against Hamilton Saturday afternoon, AU fell in four games (30-28, 28-30, 31-29, 30-24). Against Goucher, senior Catherine Rieck (Walworth, NY/Gananda) had 11 kills and three aces; senior Deen Genzardi (Oneonta, NY/Unatego) had 29 assists; and senior Beth Sanger (Greece, NY/Greece Arcadia) had 15 digs. Against Geneseo, Rieck had seven kills; Genzardi had 18 assists; Sanger had four aces; and Sanger, Genzardi and junior Corrine Wakeman (Marcellus, NY/Marcellus), each had 10 digs. Against Hamilton, Rieck had 14 kills; Wakeman 23 digs; Genzardi 25 assists; and junior Sarah Berry (Mora, MN/Mora) three solo blocks. On Friday, the Saxons lost to Elmira, 3-0 (30-24, 30-21, 32-30) in the tournament's first round. Rieck led the Lady Saxons with eight kills. Genzardi had 10 assists and four aces. Sanger had 14 digs, while Berry added four solo blocks. Sanger was named to the all-tournament team. The Saxons are in action next on Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 7 p.m. at Brockport.