ACF Elects Vice-Prexy

Donald Dreyer '44, has been elected vice-president of the Alfred Christian Fellowship. He is to complete the unexpired term of Bill Woods ex-'43, who has been called to the Service.

THEME OF LENT—LORD'S PRAYER

The University Church Services during Lent are being built around the theme of the Lord's Prayer. This Sunday the sermon will deal with the topic "As We Forgive".

Anderson Gives Demonstration

Prof. B. H. Anderson of the floriculture department gave a flower demonstration at the Presbyterian Church in Hornell, Friday night. Barbara Kenyon, Kathryn Kirchoff, Mary Anna Ordway, and Shirley Wigen, floriculture seniors, assisted him in making various flower arrangements.

The demonstration centered mainly around the principles of flower arrangement as to right and wrong in flower combinations and placement. Ideas were given on home arrangements of flowers that anyone might grow in their own gardens.

A fifth wedding anniversary display was made up of a wooden salad bowl filled with buff stock, and purple iris and mingled with wooden spoons and forks. Other designs were created with gladiolas, white stock and red carnations, sweet peas, and iris. The make-up of corsages was also demonstrated.

SPEAKS ON HEALTH

Dr. Harold Boraas spoke to the Bryant Parent Teacher group, Wednesday, on the subject of the "Importance of Mental Health". This talk was one of a series concerning the "Safeguarding of Our Human Resources."

11 Co-eds To Be Voted On

Final voting for the St. Pat's Festival Queen will take place in the Ag-Tech and University assemblies this Thursday. The winning candidate, whose identity will be kept secret until the night of the Formal Ball, will be crowned Queen at the St. Pat's Festival.

The eleven candidates whose pictures appear in this issue are: Margaret Ames '43, Sigma Chi Nu; Margaret A. Aylor '43, Pi Alpha Pi; Eloise Bassett '42, Pi Alpha Pi; Helen I. Crawford '42, Sigma Chi Nu; Ailsa Johnstone '43, Theta Theta Chi; Lee M. Linhoff '43, Theta Theta Chi; Sally Jane Morris '42, Sigma Chi Nu; Helen Nelson '43; Alice Schryver '42, Sigma Chi Nu; Elizabeth Stangl '42, Theta Theta Chi; and Myra Whitney '42, Theta Theta Chi.

St. Pat's Queen will be coronated with appropriate ceremony at the Formal Ball. The ten other candidates will act as her attendants in the most stately pageant of the year.

T. A. Parish To Lecture

Continuing the guidance program to high school seniors started several years ago, T. A. Parish, of the Ag-Tech Social Science Department, will visit over 5,000 students in about 120 schools during the next ten weeks, according to Director Paul B. Orvis.

"Mr. Parish will discuss higher education with particular reference to opportunities in the various State-supported normal schools, colleges and institutes," Director Orvis stated.

In addition to urging students to complete their high school program, Mr. Parish will stress particularly the occupational outlets and training programs during the present emergency, he said.

Considerable information has been gathered on defense training programs such as the trade courses in welding, and machine shop at the Institute and emergency technical training which includes the radio technician training at Alfred, Bath, Corning, Jamestown, Olean, Salamanca and Wellsville.

Keramos Initiates 3 New Members

Three new members were initiated into Keramos, national honorary engineering fraternity, at a meeting held Sunday night at Kappa Psi.

New members are Gil Mohr, Eric Falcao and Arthur Cohen '42.

Following the initiation ceremony, a report was given by Lawrence Bickford '42, concerning the souvenir programs which the fraternity is making for the St. Pat's Festival.

Talks on experiences in ceramic industry were given by Seward Wooley '42, Burt Baker '42, and David Arment '42.

Senators Re-elected To Ag-Tech Senate

Senators Budd Adams, representing Theta Gamma, and Marie Ingals, representing the Independents, were re-elected to the Ag-Tech Student Senate for the year of 1942-'43, Friday, in a general freshman election.

New electees for next year are Edward Kasner, Beta Tau Beta; Fred Lane, Kappa Delta Sigma; and Francis Doty, Independents.

Elections this year were conducted on the basis of equal representation from each organized group rather than proportionate representation from classes.

Attends Convention

Dean M. E. Holmes attended the A. S. T. M. Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, last week, serving as chairman of the Refractories Committee on Definitions.

He also attended the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Ceramic Association of New York at Buffalo, serving as Secretary-Treasurer of that organization.

Student Senate Bill Returned For Revision

The resolution for revising the present Student Life Committee which was presented in the Senate meeting two weeks ago was returned to its originators for revision at the Senate meeting last Wednesday in Physics Hall.

At the Senate meeting which was attended by about 35 students it was decided that the proposed bill has aroused many questions and that it needed "polishing up" before being discussed further. It was stated that the exact powers of the proposed committee are not at all clearly defined in the present bill.

It was suggested that some provision should be made in the bill whereby all organizations are required to submit petitions for their social dates early in the year so that a better social calendar could be set up. Senator Robert Todd pointed out that such a plan had been tried with the present committee but the committee had failed to get the necessary cooperation.

Senator Reader replied that the organizations would be forced to get their schedules in or they would not be able to have any social functions.

A motion made by Senator Arthur Petri to adopt the recent resolution of the faculty was passed by the Senate. Discussion followed as to what might be done in line of national defense. Senator Todd suggested that possibly Social Hall could be kept open on Friday nights from 8:00-11:30 and a small fee be charged to purchase defense stamps and bonds to be used later for a war scholarship fund. A suggestion was heard from one of the visitors to eliminate corsages for St. Pat's and other social functions and instead buy defense bonds and stamps and turn these over to the scholarship fund. Senators Petri, Hall, Reader and Todd were put on a committee to investigate these plans further.

Senator Douglas Beals moved to appoint a committee to investigate Senior athletic awards. Senators Beals, Pettit and Austin were named to the committee.

Five dollars was appropriated to Eta Mu Alpha to be used for lettering shingles.

A.C.F. To Sponsor Fire Side Discussion Group

The Alfred Christian Fellowship is sponsoring the first of a series of faculty fire-side groups this Sunday at the home of Professor Roland L. Warren.

Arnold Johnson '42, Chairman of the Campus Relations Commission, stated that these groups are an attempt to provide more frequent, informal contacts with faculty members. Groups will be arranged in response to the interests of any student to discuss any subject with any of the faculty.

Inquires about the fire-side groups can be made of Arnold Johnson or at the Chaplain's office.

A. C. F. SPONSORS CONCERT

A special Holy Week Concert will be presented on Wednesday evening, April 1, by the University Church Choir under the sponsorship of A. C. F. There will be special solos and duets, and many anthems will be arranged in a choral service of worship.

TO READ LATIN PLAY

The Latin Club will read parts of a Latin Play at its regular meeting tonight at Theta Theta Chi at 8:00 o'clock.

Music at the St. Pat's Formal Ball will be supplied by Bob Chester and his famous orchestra, featuring the vocals of Betty Bradley, Gene Howard, and the new Bob Chester Quartet.

Featured instrumentalist with the band is trumpeter Cy Baker. Chester has broadcasted over all the major networks. In addition, he has starred on several commercial shows including the Fitch Bandwagon and Coca Cola's "Spotlight Bands".

The three-act play to be presented at the variety show on Friday afternoon will be the comedy "What a Life" presented by the Bolivar High School Junior-Senior cast. The play concerns the troubles and triumphs of Henry Aldrich, famous character of screen and radio.

St. Pat will come to town Thursday, after assembly, and make his traditional speech. It is customary for him to enter town in some unique manner. Last year he arrived as a corpse in the hearse.

Thursday afternoon, "The Three Guys" of the Hotel Sherwood in Hornell will play at the tea dance in the Ceramic Lounge at three o'clock.

Thursday night, the fraternities will hold dinners and open house for visitors, chaperons, and dates.

Band To Give Program Thurs.

The Alfred University Band will be featured at the first combined Ag-Tech and University assembly of the year, Thursday at 11 o'clock in Alumni Hall. Both Ag-Tech and University students are members of the band.

Under the direction of Fred Kaplowitz '44, the band has been holding special rehearsals in preparation for this appearance.

Since its organization this fall, the band has played at all major athletic events of the season.

New uniforms were purchased by the college early this year. Funds were raised for this by a $300 drive last April and by contributions from the University.

Ag-Tech Juniors Leave School

Nine Farm Machinery juniors will leave the Ag-Tech Institute this week under the three-year plan of training according to Director Paul B. Orvis. This is a month earlier than usual as a result of the intensified program in effect which will end the school year in April instead of June.

"Many of them are going into defense work for the vacation, W. C. Hinkle said, "although some are returning to their home farms."

According to the three-year plan, the men will return to school next fall to complete their training.

Members of the group are: Frank Boccaccio, Frank Cande, Paul Lewis, Warren Miller, Walter Moshier, Charles McNair, Lawrence Romance, Fred Schoonmaker and Lloyd Sipple.

Ladies Glee Club Goes On Tour Mon.

The Ladies Glee Club will open the spring series of trips and concerts Monday, when they will present three concerts at Jasper, Troupsburg and Woodhull High School assemblies.

The ensemble on this trip will be: Helene Belovsky '44, Barbara Bloss '44, Emma Burdick '45, Esther Burdick '45, Betty J. Curry '42, Helen Dreher '45, Jean Gardner '45, Mary L. Jeffrey '44, Louise Kenyon '42, Margaret Knight '45, Evelyn Mathews '44, Frederica Miller '45, Dorothy Robbins '45, Kathryn Swanson '45, Betty J. VanGorder '45, Margaret P. Let's Quit Talking

The warning issued by Price Administrator Leon Henderson, Friday, stating that family cars may be stripped of their tires to keep essential vehicles going must re-emphasize to all civilians that a victorious war is going to mean unlimited sacrifices. Conservation of essential products for war use is not enough for civilians to do to insure victory, however.

Last week the faculty passed a resolution that faculty and students alike realize a full sense of their responsibilities as American citizens and practice as well as preach economy in these perilous times. At its meeting Wednesday night, the Student Senate voted to adopt and support this resolution. Plans were also discussed whereby a beginning toward a War Scholarship Fund might be made by "Defense Nights" at Social Hall.

The thoughts and intentions of both groups are highly commendable. The question now is, will something more than talk be the result of these declarations. It is evident that there is desire among the faculty and student groups to participate effectively in furthering the nation's war efforts. Perhaps what is lacking is a leader or an organizer who can get things started. As has been suggested, the students can curtail expenditures for social affairs and invest the extra money in defense bonds. Perhaps, the faculty can follow a similar line. Defense Stamp teas or bridge parties might be practical.

If we are going to remove the stigma that "Alfred doesn't know there is a war going on," we shall have to quit talking and act instead.

Student Government

Let's discuss student government. Let's do it sensibly, thoroughly and objectively. Why couldn't we arrange to have a round-table forum, similar to the one conducted in assembly on war?—It might be held some Wednesday night instead of having a regular Student Senate meeting. On the panel we could have both students and faculty. In this way, we could get a complete picture quickly and a basis for constructive thinking and planning could be laid. In addition to discussion by the panel, questions from the floor could be answered. In this way faculty and students could learn each other's viewpoints.

A Student Senate committee submitted a proposition for certain changes in the Student Life Committee. The Senate has tried to work constructively and wisely on this plan. In the interest of a happy and well-organized campus, perhaps the Senate could arrange such a program.

Any workable solution to the Student Senate proposition will have to have complete student and faculty support. This seems to be a good way to achieve the desired goal most easily.

Anton Drexler

Quietly and rather insignificantly came the death of Anton Drexler, founder of Nazi Party, last week in Munich. Drexler's name was not listed in the official party register nor was it to be found in the German "Who's Who". He was a Munich locksmith during World War I, opposed trade unions and believed that Germany would be ruined by international finance if it did not become mighty.

In March, 1918, he gathered 40 Germans into a Munich beer hall, and formed the Committee of Independent Workmen. By the next year, the group had come to be called the German Workers' Party and Hitler was admitted as the seventh member. By 1920, Hitler was beginning to replace Drexler as leader of the again-named party, National Socialist German Workers' Party. In 1925, Drexler made a clean break with the party he had organized and set a rival party which soon expired.

The development of National Socialism would have come even if the "simple workmen of little importance" had never lived or organized the German Workmen's Party in 1918, but perhaps, the death of the founder of this movement may serve as a symbol. May the death of the movement soon follow the death of its founder.

Most persons dance to the music of Glenn Miller and his band, but at Moulton Hall, Kent State University women's dormitory, the girls do reducing exercises.

Each night from 10:30 to 11 o'clock, the girls take off pounds in time to Miller's dance music. The "musical reducing half hour" is a popular feature of the dormitory's activities.

The Fiat Lux welcomes its readers to express their opinions on various issues through its columns. Readers who have criticisms or suggestions or are in disagreement with any matter which is printed in the paper are urged to express themselves in a clear, concise fashion. All letters must be signed, but the signatures of the writers will be withheld, if the writers so desire.

Editor, Fiat Lux:

I regret that I was unable to be at the Faculty meeting at which the resolution concerning student entertainments was passed. Perhaps I may be permitted to express a belated opinion.

I feel that the publication of this resolution, at this time, is inopportune. A month ago, I should have been highly in favor of the resolution and a month hence I shall again be in favor of it. The point involved is, of course, the St. Pat Festival. Since the first of February, I have been counseling members of the St. Pat's Board to cut down on expenses. I even tried to enforce my advice by refusing the preliminary financial support they needed, unless a lower priced orchestra was hired. However, there was no publicly voiced faculty or student support to my counsel at that time, when it might have done some good. The members of the St. Pat's Board, quite naturally, have taken this silence of the majority as tacit approval and have proceeded with their plans to the extent of making contracts. Now that they have committed themselves financially and can not withdraw, public disapproval may result in their having an expensive program on their hands with diminished chances of carrying it through successfully.

I feel that it is unfair to allow the students of the St. Pat's Board to get so deeply involved before voicing our disapproval. I can not but feel that we, both Faculty and Students, are responsible for letting the program get thus far advanced and that we should not let them down now.

Let us give our hearty backing to this group, who may now be in trouble because of our tardy expression of sentiment, and after the Festival is over, let us by all means, give our full support to lowering the costs of entertainments.

Signed,
C. R. AMBERG

Beyond The Valley

by George Hyams

When Tom Mooney died in San Francisco last Friday, the New York Times said, "He had no great or engaging qualities. He just happened to be innocent."

Mooney fought the injustice that sent him behind bars for twenty-two years. Only a few labor men and a few liberals fought at his side at the beginning. Later he drew to his support such men as Woodrow Wilson, James Walsh, Herbert Hoover, and many others. He did not stop protesting his innocence; he did not stop writing and fighting through all those years. And yet the Times dismisses him quite easily. We do not profess to know of what material great or engaging qualities are made, but we wonder how many men are made of stern enough stuff to battle for so long a time.

"He just happened to be innocent," said the paper and it is right. The chief witnesses against him later admitted that they perjured themselves. Their testimony plus the desire of California's Public Utilities to get this active and thornlike labor leader out of the picture were sufficient to get a conviction. He was convicted because he was a radical and a labor organizer. Those were the crimes that kept him in jail for twenty-two years. It would have been a surrender, a loss of face to free him. So Governor after Governor refused him a pardon after investigations galore proved the injustice of his conviction.

The Preparedness Day bombing of 1916 was a terrible thing, but the crime against Tom Mooney was even greater. And yet how many of the papers that cried out against the bombing in stirring phrases, lifted their voices above a whisper to get Tom Mooney out of jail. Along with those who put him there, they must share the guilt for leaving him there.

The Times finished off by saying, "We can hope that the Mooney case will never be duplicated." But the Times and papers like it did little to prevent the injustice from continuing for twenty-two years. They did not cry out, "Free this man; for while he stays behind bars justice and democracy are being mocked." No, they reserved themselves for smug editorial obituaries when Mooney died. They can hope from now until Dooomsday that such cases will not be duplicated, but so long as their smug attitude continues they are inevitable.

IN THE SOCIAL SWIM

By Mary Walker

Sorority pledges are feted this week at dances, previous to the approaching all-college St. Pat's Festival which brings social life on campus to a grand climax. Independents in both schools hold a joint party, Klan holds open house, and Lambda Chi starts entertainment for the sororities.

Games and novelty dances, such as Cinderella dances, broom dances, and number dances, followed by social dancing and songs provided fun and merriment for University and Ag-Tech Independents Saturday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at Social Hall. Refreshments of cookies, doughnuts, and chocolate milk were served. Faculty guests included Prof. and Mrs. John E. Whitcraft. Arthur Petri '42, was in charge of the dance.

Pi Alpha Pi honors pledges at its annual pledge dance at Social Hall from 8 to 12 o'clock Saturday evening. Dress will be semi-formal.

Faculty guests will be Prof. and Mrs. Leland Williams, Miss Nelle Saunders, Mrs. Ramon Reynolds, and Prof. and Mrs. Harold McGraw. Mary Johnston '43, is chairman of the dance, assisted by Regina Wright '43, Marjorie Russell '42, Mary Walker '43, and Beverly Leng '43.

Klan held open house Saturday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. Music was by the house sound system and punch and cookies were served as refreshments.

Faculty guests were Prof. and Mrs. John Reed Spicer and Dr. and Mrs. Roland Warren.

Fraternity guests included Roger Marks from Lambda Chi and Burrill Friedman from Kappa Nu, and Guy Rindone from Kappa Psi.

Sigma Chi will hold its pledge dance Saturday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock at South Hall. The Palmer sound system will furnish music for dancing. Prof. and Mrs. David Weaver, Dr. and Mrs. K. O. Myrvaagnes, Dr. W. Mower, and Mrs. Mildred McDermott will be faculty guests.

Sally Jane Morris '42, is chairman assisted by Margaret Gibbo '44 and Jane Sennett '42.

Theta Chi pledges will be honored at an informal dance Saturday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock at the house. Music will be by the house sound system.

Guests among the faculty will be Prof. and Mrs. John E. Whitcraft, Prof. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Floyd, Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers, and Miss Erma Hewitt.

Chairman Ailsa Johnstone '43, will be assisted by Lee Linhoff '43, Janet Secor '44, and Betsy Burns '44.

The marriage of Mary Zude ex-'43, of Pi Alpha Pi to Louis Raynor '42, of Delta Sigma Phi took place Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Reynolds of 18 Reynolds street.

The bride wore a chartreuse crepe dress, brown coat, and matching brown accessories, and had a corsage of yellow and brown orchids. She was attended by Ruth Evans '40, who was dressed in brown crepe and wore a corsage of talisman roses. Brayton Schwarting of West Hampton was best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Currie McLeod. The couple took a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home on West University street.

Rodney Penny '45, was recently pledged to Klan Alpine fraternity.

Honorary members of Pi Alpha were entertained at a buffet supper at the house Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

Lambda Chi will play host to Sigma Chi Nu, Thursday evening, for a buffet supper and social hour. It will be the first of three such programs to which each of the sororities will be invited. Faculty guests will be Mrs. Dora K. Degen, Mr. George Bunnell, Dr. and Mrs. G. Stewart Nease, and Mrs. Mildred McDermott.

Dean and Mrs. Alfred E. Whitford were dinner guests at Kappa Psi last Sunday.

Rodney Burns '45, Richard Gordon '45, and Robert Groat '45, were pledged to Lambda Chi Alpha at a service held last week.

Fred Kaplowitz '44 was initiated into Kappa Nu last week.

Guests at Lambda Chi for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. DeForest W. Truman, Jeanne Glnther '45, and Marjorie Muenzenmaier '45.

Martin Dykeman '39, was a guest at Kappa Psi last week-end.

James Lynch '41, and Gerald Gregory ex-'42, were week-end guests at Lambda Chi.

Norman Ruderman '43 and Knowlton Farr '44 were dinner guests at Greene Hall last Sunday.

Theta Gamma held its pledge dance at the house from 8:00 to 12:00, Saturday night.

Faculty guests were Prof. and Mrs. T. A. Parish, Prof. and Mrs. K. B. Floyd and Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Foster.

Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served. Maxim Bobinski, Robert Leigh, Frank Triglilio and Luther Johnston were on the social committee.

Arthur Powell '43 was elected president of Kappa Nu Fraternity in elections held Sunday.

Other officers elected were Burrill Friedman '43, vice-president; Frank Klein '44, secretary; Fred Kaplowitz '44, treasurer; Frank Klein '44, social chairman.

College Town

By Al Sax

While Rome burned, Nero fiddled, but while Lambda Chi burned, Stan Langworthy stood on the porch of the house and shouted to passers-by, "I heard the siren; where's the fire?"

Undoubtedly, the Fiat is the best paper in town and we really are proud of it. But sometimes it makes mistakes, rather, puns on letters. One story in last week's issue carried the headline "Fenton Leads Greenie Win Over Allegheny". That was good news, but when the reader hit line six he learned that the game had suddenly gone to Allegheny.

For an ordinary person to explain the sudden change of hands for the St. Pat's Ball would be a difficult task. But for such a talented personage as Joe Chait, with his polished manners, it was nothing at all. In fact, he even proved that Bob Chester's is really a better outfit than Shep Fields'. Chait's rise to oratorical fame gives us food for thought about who St. Pat might be, but who can tell what the mystic 13 has planned for this year's dust?

Upon first notice of the white markings on all the store windows it seemed that some pranksters were at work. However, closer scrutinization of the odd looking characteristics showed that it was French. And the explanation given is that it is French Week and therefore, anything goes. Maybe if we officially call the last week in October, "Hallow'en Week" kids will be able to have their fun without being cursed at.

The ads that were found in the mail during the week reminded me of a student who last year bought a set of store teeth from the United States Dental Co., Milwaukee. The cost was $7.95 and included a 60-day guarantee. Not having enjoyed substantial food for some time, he immediately ordered a steak at one of our local restaurants. The next day he returned the set of teeth to the company and asked them to put two front teeth back in place.

Not only are sick people not afraid to go to the Infirmary any more, they look forward to a visit there. And even after they recover they continue to come back. . . But seriously, in appreciation for a swell staff we tip our hats to McDermott, King and Tucker. Here's how!

The town has hired people to clean the sidewalks, and they've completed the job on many streets. But, it was a waste of money because everyone in town is still walking in the road. Several motorists have threatened to take to the sidewalks if the pedestrians don't get off the road.

"Private Lives" Read By Reading Club

"Private Lives," a sparkling comedy by Noel Coward, was the subject of reading and discussion by the Reading Club at its meeting last Sunday night.

The program was under the chairmanship of Bernard Bloom '44, and the play was read with the following cast: Victor Prynnee, George Hyams '43, Louise, Ruth Neubert '45, Sibyl Chase, Miss Ruth Greene, Amanda Prynnee, Joan Arnold '42, Elyot Chase, Bernard Bloom '44.

When this play was presented on Broadway a few years ago, Mr. Coward himself co-starred with Gertrude Lawrence played the leads.

the war on Germany's production and predicted further raids.

The German press called the air raid an act of "barbarism" and a "cowardly attack".

Another grim note was sounded in the United States this week when word was sent out that the Jacob Jones had been sunk off the coast of New Jersey. Two hits were scored against the destroyer built just too late to take part in World War I. Of an estimated crew of 145 officers and men only eleven were rescued.

On March 4, 1933, President Roosevelt entered St. John's Episcopal Church in Washington for a short prayer before he went to the White House to live. The prayer then was for help to a nation in the hands of depression.

On the ninth anniversary of his inaugural day, President Roosevelt again attended services held at this Church, sitting in pew 55. The prayer this time was for the Army and the Navy of a nation at war.

Trigilio Breaks 200 Mark In Basketball Scoring As He Ends Collegiate Career

First Athlete in 11 Years to Exceed Two Century Mark; Netted 214 Points

It is a rare feat for a great athlete to bow out of the picture by bringing his career to a smashing climax. Frank "Pike" Trigilio accomplished this in his last home appearance as a varsity competitor by chalking up 23 points against the University of Buffalo to better the 200 point mark by two points.

It was the first time in 11 years that an Alfred player had reached the two century mark. For measure Pike added 12 more in his last game against Hartwick, to bring his total to 214. This achievement seems even more impressive, since he played on a team that met with only fair success, winning 7 out of 17.

Has Consistency

By his consistency, Pike showed early that this was to be a banner year for him. He beat Pratt Institute and Allegheny almost single-handedly by scoring 31 and 29 points respectively. It took an exceptional opponent to keep him from scoring in the double figures. He was no "basket hanger," but earned his points the hard way, fast cuts and deadly set shots his specialty. In addition to being a big point getter, he was a tenacious defensive man and never failed to play a fighting, aggressive floor game.

Statistically, in 17 games, he threw 91 field goals and 32 fouls for a total of 214 points or an average of 12.46 per game. Trigilio's play was rewarded last week as he gained a forward's berth on the third team of the Western New York All-Stars, where he was in competition with the stars of Canisius and Niagara.

Showed Versatility

But Pike was more than a basketball star. For versatility and all-round ability, he ranks with Bo Johnson as one of the greatest athletes ever turned out by Alfred. For two years he was the football team's high scorer. In the past season, he personally scored 8 touchdowns and was on the throwing end of 3 more. He lacked the blinding speed of Johnson but made up for it in terrific driving power. As a passer and punter, he ranked with the best. His beautiful leading and spot passes to Jolley constituted a major threat in the Alfred attack.

Although he never has had a chance to prove it here, they say that he is as good on the diamond as he is on the gridiron and court, pitching a fast ball that is reminiscent of Bobby Feller's.

Is Softball Pitcher

He is also an ace as a softball pitcher as some here who have tried to hit him will testify. It is with a keen sense of regret that Alfred sport fans will no longer see him in action—and the coaches feel the same way—but Pike Trigilio and his deeds will not soon be forgotten.

Brick Bows To Defeat As Pi Alpha's Team Wins

Pi Alpha, 16; Brick II, 10. Such was the story the score book told after the first interhouse basketball game between Pi Alpha and the Brick II team last Tuesday evening.

High scorer of the evening was "Lindy" Polan who chalked-up nine points for Pi Alpha. In the second half of the game Ginny Repert of the Brick team got her eye on the basket and pulled up her team's score, but the opponents had too much of a head start.

MADE TRIP TO CLEVELAND.

Greene Wins Tri-State Wrestling Championship

Coach Alex Yunevich took his three best grapplers out to the Tri-State wrestling matches in Cleveland over the week-end and returned with a champion, a second place man, and a fourth place man.

Mike Greene became the Tri-State heavyweight champion when he defeated Slyker, undefeated in ten straight matches, by a 10-5 count last Saturday night. The 215 pound Ohio University matman was considered one of the best wrestlers in the Middle West and his defeat is probably the brightest spot on Mike's wrestling career.

Before meeting Slyker in the finals, Mike had to defeat Parson of Wayneburg, and Porosky, last year's champion from Kent State. He met the 250 pound Parson on Friday afternoon and pinned him in 1:10. On Friday night he returned to the ring to meet the vaunted Porosky, fourth ranking wrestler in the country, and pinned him in four minutes.

Frenchy LeBlanc finished second in the 128 pound division, and Royce Luce fourth in the 136 pound division.

In his first match LeBlanc decisively Bonito of Finley College by a 6-0 count. In his second match he scored a big upset by pinning Incovia of Kent State in 4:05. Before meeting Frenchy, Incovia was predicted to go to the finals. In the finals the national champion Jennings of Michigan State, whose picture recently appeared in Life magazine, proved too much for Frenchy and pinned him in 5:25.

Coach Yunevich expressed the belief that all three men outdid themselves and, on the whole, he was thoroughly satisfied with the results.

There were eighty participants in the matches from West Virginia, New York, Ohio, Michigan, and Pennsylvania. Where team scores were considered Alfred beat out, among others, St. Lawrence, Finley, and Case, the teams which defeated the Saxons in dual matches.

By winning the heavyweight championship at the Tri-State matches, Mike Greene has gained national recognition in wrestling circles.

Saxons Win 7, Lose 10 In '41-'42 Season

Victories in their last three games enabled the Saxon basketball team to stop a losing season from becoming a disastrous one; the wins over Allegheny, Buffalo and Hartwick, bringing the totals for the season to seven victories against ten defeats. Last year's totals were five wins against eleven losses.

The Minnickmen chalked up 747 points on their 17 opponents while yielding 776, or an average of 43.94 points per game against 45.64.

Dry Bits of Sports' Tips

By Ray Dry

The varsity basketball season has closed but your duty as a sports' fan will not be complete unless you see one of the intra-mural playoff games this week. Although these games may lack some of the shooting accuracy by the varsity men, the fighting spirit which goes with them is enough to produce a close battle.

In order to keep some form of intra-mural sport functioning throughout the year, Coach Minnick has made plans for competition in volleyball this year. Teams are to be turned in by Friday. Since it is something new at Alfred, many are inclined to believe that volleyball is too dead a game to produce any spirit. Such is far from being true as they will realize after they start competing.

It is the Dodgers once again who provide the life in the baseball circle. This time they have as competitors the heretofore lowly, humble Phillies. The latter refused to allow the Dodgers to use their training camp for a practice session so the Daffy ones promptly cancelled their exhibition games with the Phils. The names Gerry Nugent, head-office man of the Phillies, used to describe MacPhail were very vivid.

For those of us who find fault with everyone when we have to get up for those eight o'clocks: Joe Louis cannot get used to sleeping late since he's joined the army. Instead, he gets up at 5:30, and irritates his sleeping mates by making them arise, too. What we can't understand is why they take so much from Joe? It seems funny that none of them has put the Buck Private in his place—or does it?

140 Volunteer Blood for Possible Army, Navy Needs

One hundred forty students, faculty members and townspeople volunteered blood donations when the American Red Cross Mobile Blood Procurement Unit from Rochester visited Alfred University, on Monday, March 2.

Out of this number, only 15 were rejected; 13 could not be taken because of lack of time; 112 donations were accepted.

Burdick Directed

The blood procurement at Alfred was sponsored by the hygiene class under the direction of Dr. H. O. Burdick, head of the department of biology, and assisted by T. A. Parish of the Ag-Tech Institute.

The American Red Cross is sponsoring 17 such mobile units; the Rochester unit is the second in the amount of blood collected in New York State and third in the United States. A unit consists usually of a supervising physician, four nurses, one nurses' aide, and one technician, besides the motor corp. With the unit at Alfred also were three staff assistants, two in the motor corp and two shipping clerks.

The unit was in charge of Dr. Herbert Brown, Jr., nurses were in charge of Mrs. Edward A. Custer, nurses were Miss Kathryn McPhee, Mrs. Alice Hodgson, Mrs. Helen Goldsmith; nurses' aide was Mrs. Norman Carroll; technician was Miss Beatrice Alger. Mrs. Edward Nugent was captain of the aides; Mrs. Marietta Pryor, motor corps; Mrs. Henry Hayes, staff assistant; Mrs. Ralph Peters, staff assistant. Canteen helpers included Miss Elizabeth Good, Mrs. Donald Hallauer; shipping clerks were Lee Johnson and Herbert Gardner. All the above were from Rochester.

Alfred workers included Mrs. Ramon Reynolds, Mrs. Jessie Ferguson, Mrs. Frank Stillman, Mrs. G. S. Nease, Mrs. Dana Peck, Mrs. Joseph Seidl, Miss Miriam Shaw, Mrs. George Thorngate, Mrs. Nathan Tucker and Mrs. Hattie Crandall.

Food for the donors was supplied by the local chapter of the American Red Cross.

Those who volunteered are: Janet Austin, Anthony de Angelo, Richard Allen, Bud Adams, John Baker, Esther Burdick, Emma Burdick, H. O. Burdick, Stuart Davis, Gordon Sanford, Robert Burdick, Bernard Coburn, William Boccacchio, Fort Burdham, Leon Baumer, Barbara Bloss, Haldred Breckon, Thelma Gardner, David Clarke, Sherman Watson, Mona Cottrell, Cora Carter, Warren Case, Lawrence Coleman, William Cottrell, Betty Curry.

And Raymond Dry, Elizabeth Day, Doris Dascomb, Mary Jane McAllister, Eric Falcon, Wilfred Eaton, Howard Pink, Audrey Fisher, Marion Fosdick, Eleanor Chapin, Alfred Goble, David Gardner, William Genné, Mary Glading, Kenneth May, Raymond Hall.

French Week Ended With Banquet Thur.

The Saint Charlemagne Banquet, named in honor of that French King's great interest in learning, climaxed the French Week activities of 1942. This banquet, typically French in food, conversation, and atmosphere, is an annual tradition, which was held Thursday night, in the Coffee Shop at 7 o'clock.

The members of the club and the invited guests: M. Ernest Guy, Dr. Poppelbaum, Miss Helen Thomas, Mrs. Madeleine Burdick and Professor Elbert Ringo, were present.

According to the custom, those who have received "A's" for their first semester's work in French, spoke on some subject about French Louisiana, which was the theme of this year's French Week. The speakers were: Josie Procopio '42, mistress of ceremonies; Eunice Reniff '44, Evelyn Stevens '43, Lois Creighton '43, Rachel Peterson '42, Audrey Place '42, and Alice Lundy '42.

The French Club wishes to extend its appreciation to Miss Hazel Humphreys, Miss Elsie Binns, Miss Bertha Coats, Miss Ruth Greene, Prof. Ray Wingate, and to the townspeople for their cooperation.

Variety Offered by ATI Greenhouse Corsages

It is never too early to begin thinking about St. Pat's, but don't wait too long to think about the corsages that have to be ordered.

"This year the Ag-Tech greenhouse will have every kind and every variety of flower available," says Prof. B. H. Anderson. "For the best selection," he said, "get your orders in several days before the big event so special attention may be given to them."

Intramural Games To Be Continued

Playoffs in the Fraternity end of the intra-mural basketball league failed to produce any winner last week, as the three tied teams, Delta Sig, Theta Gamma, and Kappa Delta, each split two games to necessitate another playoff. Meanwhile, the Bartlett Index Boys annexed the Non-Fraternity title with their 27-17 victory over Booger Hall.

Kappa Delta tasted defeat for the second time at the hands of Delta Sig last Monday night, as they weakened in the second half to lose 35-24. The game was fairly even during the first half, Delta Sigma leading 14-11. During the third quarter, the Sigs held their Ag-Tech opponents scoreless. Kappa Delta came to life in the final period to score 13 points, but these were not enough to halt the green wave of Delta Sig.

Last Tuesday night, the Sigs showed a complete reversal in form, as they fell victims to Theta Gamma by a 33-23 margin. Led by Sipple and Dilliston, the Theta Gamma boys completely outclassed the sloppy-playing of the University Fraternity.

Kappa Delta humbled its ever powerful rivals Theta Gamma, Wednesday, to the tune of 32 to 19. This combination of teams presented a hard-fought battle but one which developed into a very one-sided affair.

Kappa Delta took the lead at the outset and was never headed by the opposition. In the first period the "Delt" netted 4 points while Theta Gamma failed to make any. Each team threw in 5 counters in the second stanza. The half ended 9 to 5 with Kappa Delta on top.

In the last quarter both teams went

Girls Unable To Attend Syracuse Playday-Snow

Alfred women were unable to attend the long-awaited Syracuse Playday, Saturday, because of the icy condition of the roads. The conclusion not to go was reached Friday afternoon after Miss Creighton had consulted several informed persons about the roads.

By this time the teams had been chosen to go and had gone through extensive practice in preparation.

on a scoring spree, Kappa Delt netting 17 points to Theta Gamma's 10. Tiny Aylsworth was high man of the evening with 12 points.

The next playoff of the inter-fraternity cage tournament will take place sometime next week in the college gym.

Priority Lists, Rocket Prices Affect Production

The Production Crew for the coming Footlight Club and Theta Alpha Phi production of "Liliom" was announced by Professor C. D. Smith III, to be as follows:

Designer Arthur Crapsey '42
Stage Manager Frank Snyder '43
Construction Manager
Albert Regenbrecht '43
Lighting Designer .. Norman Emdin '42
Switchboard Charles Taylor '43
Sound Marguerite Carlson '42
Costumes Betty Curry '42
Properties Mary Walker '43
Make-Up Muriel Strong '43
Promoter Mary Johnston '43
Audrey Place '42

Priority lists and sky-rocketing costs are affecting stage materials necessary, such as muslin, copper, wires, paints, and blue-print paper. The production, however, has been skillfully and economically designed and the staff is capable of making satisfactory adjustments with the ingenuity expected of the stage.

Designer Arthur Crapsey '42 has completed his designs for the "Liliom" sets. They are a fusion of fantasy and realism and will make use of several features such as scrim, that transparent material employed for the first time here with such excellent affects in "The Devil and Daniel Webster" and "Air Raid" and wagons to facilitate shifting of scenery. Parts of the sets will be built on the wagons and pushed off and on when needed.

After Professor Smith worked out the ground plans for the set after several conferences with the designer, Mr. Crapsey, from studying the script and interpreting functionally the play from the actor's viewpoint planned the elevations and general lay-out. Together with detailed construction drawings, these layouts will be blue-printed for use by departments of production. These designs will be exhibited at the time of production.

Ben Post '45, has been added to the cast of "Liliom" during the past week.
