

Vocal students set Sunday program of fall performances

11/05/14

The Alfred University (AU) Fall Student Vocal Recital will be held on Sunday Nov. 16, 2014 at 3 p.m., upstairs in Susan Howell Hall. The program is free and open to the public.

The concert will feature vocal students taught by Rebecca Weaver, adjunct instructor of voice at AU and director of music and arts at the Hornell YMCA. Laurel Buckwalter, music specialist in the Performing Arts Division and University carillonneur, will accompany the singers on piano.

Weaver is completing doctoral studies at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester.

Buckwalter earned a bachelor of music degree from Houghton College and a master of science degree in education from AU.
