Paul Vecchio

ALFRED, NY Alfred University Director of Athletics Paul Vecchio has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo.

As a volunteer board member, Vecchio will represent Alfred University and the Community Foundation's Southern Tier region.

The Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo is a charitable organization dedicated to improving lives in Western New York. Areas of focus of the organization include: improving educational achievement for students living in low-income households; increasing racial/ethnic equity; enhancing and leveraging significant natural resources; and strengthening the region as a center for architecture, the arts and culture.

"Paul will be a great board member," commented Kathy Woughter, vice president of Student Affairs at Alfred University. "His enthusiasm for student well-being, and his empathy for people who aren't born with tons of privilege and financial security, will be great for the Foundation. I am glad to have Alfred University represented through Paul's participation."
