

Alum debuts solo exhibition

4/17/13

Steven Young Lee, AU Class of 2004, opened a solo show titled “red, blue and white” at Greenwich House Pottery&s Jane Hartsook Gallery in New York City with an artist reception in early April. The exhibit consists of a series of ceramic pieces exploring the formation of individual realities and identities. Lee is currently the resident artist director of the Archie Bray Foundation in Helena, MT as well as maintaining an active studio presence in functional and sculptural ceramics.
