'81 Grad Alternate Official for Sunday's Super Bowl XLVI

Bill Schuster, a veteran National Football League umpire, is among five officials listed as alternates for Sunday's game in Indianapolis, IN, between the New York Giants and New England Patriots.

Schuster is in his 12th season as an NFL umpire. A member of referee Gene Steratore's officiating crew, Schuster was umpire for the AFC Divisional playoff game between the Patriots and Denver Broncos on Jan. 14.

Schuster graduated from Alfred in 1981 with a bachelor's degree in business. He played four seasons (1976-79) for the Saxon football team, during which he was a two-time All-American wide receiver who once held the school record for career receptions. An assistant coach on the 1981 team that earned the school's first-ever NCAA playoff appearance, Schuster was elected into the AU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003. His younger brother, Bob, was an All-American quarterback who played for AU from 1977-80.

A native and resident of Livonia, NY, Schuster is owner of the William Schuster Insurance Agency in Livonia.

W.I.L.D. Winter in the Woods/Horse to Home

Don't hide from winter: come out and enjoy it! Join W.I.L.D. About Alfred on Saturday, Feb. 4 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Equestrian Center for the official opening of the new winter trails.

This beginner-friendly trail system loops around the barn, woods and hayfields and connects to Foster Lake. The Forest People will have cross-country skis and snowshoes to loan and a shuttle will be provided back and forth from Powell to the equestrian center. (If there's no snow - we'll still hike!) Hot chocolate and snacks will be available.

At dusk, all are welcome for a rugged nighttime snowshoe hike led by Mark McFadden from the Equestrian Center back down to campus; be sure to bring your flashlight.

This event is free and brought to you by W.I.L.D. About Alfred.

Talk By Manuel Delanda

"Symbolic and Material Culture:
The Place of Craft in the Philosophy of Matter"

Date: Tuesday, Feb. 14

Time: 5:20 p.m.

Location: Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall

Cost to Attend: Free/Open to Public

Co-Sponsors: Division of Expanded Media/Office of the Dean, School of Art and Design/ Division of Ceramic Arts/ Division of Art History/ Office of the Dean, Inamori School of Engineering/

Interdisciplinary Art Program within the Division of Human Studies, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences/ Digital Media & Animation Department at Alfred State College/ School of Architecture, Management, and Engineering Technology at Alfred State College

Manuel DeLanda is one of the most original thinkers writing today. His work focuses on diverse fields such as economics, nonlinear dynamics, chaos theory, geology, architecture, self-organizing autonomous systems, artificial intelligence, artificial life, and the history of science.

After studying art in the 1970s, DeLanda became known as an independent filmmaker. His underground 8mm and 16mm films, circulating internationally, were inspired by critical theory and philosophy.

In the 1980s, he focused on programming, writing computer software, and producing computer-based art. After being introduced to the work of Gilles Deleuze, Manuel DeLanda saw new creative potential in philosophical texts, becoming one of the representatives of the 'new materialism'.

Manuel DeLanda's published books include War in the Age of Intelligent Machines (1991), A Thousand Years of Nonlinear History (1997), Intensive Science and Virtual Philosophy (2002), New Philosophy of Society: Assemblage Theory and Social Complexity (2006), Deleuze: History and Science (2010). His most recent book is Philosophy & Simulation: The Emergence of Synthetic Reason (2011).
