Six Sigma Strategy

AU engineering students partner with ASK Chemicals

ALFRED STATION—A group of Alfred University engineering students is partnering with ASK Chemicals on a Lean Six Sigma Project that will help improve efficiency and promote operational safety compliance at the Alfred Station manufacturing facility.

The six students in Amanda Jadwin's Manufacturing Statistics class visited ASK Chemical on Monday, Feb. 11. The tour of the facility kicked off the Lean Six Sigma project that is expected to run through the end of the spring semester.

Jadwin, project manager at the Center for Advanced Ceramics Technology (CACT) at Alfred University, said this is the first time the Manufacturing Statistics class, with the outcome of Six Sigma training, has been offered at the University.

Six Sigma methodology is the implementation of a measurement-based strategy that focuses on process improvement and variation reduction. Lean Six Sigma emphasizes cutting out unnecessary and wasteful steps in the creation of a product so that only steps that directly add value to the product are taken.

Developed by Motorola in the 1980s, Six Sigma has since been implemented in thousands of organizations, from manufacturing, to business and finance, to food service and medical. Six Sigma methodologies aim reduce costs and increase savings by reduce waste and defects; identify recurring problems with processes; and improve quality and productivity.

ASK Chemicals' facility in Alfred Station, the metal filtration arm of ASK Chemicals, manufactures custom ceramic filters and employs 90 personnel. Jadwin said representatives from ASK Chemicals contacted the CACT in January, about a week before classes were scheduled to start, inquiring about the Six Sigma program. "I suggested the partnership as a real-world experience for my students," said Jadwin.

As part of its Lean Six Sigma project at ASK Chemicals, students will create a project charter; perform process mapping exercises; compile data into reportable metrics (charts/graphs); identify waste and methods to reduce waste; and conduct a failure mode effects analysis. The class will give a group presentation to ASK Chemicals personnel in which it will propose improvement opportunities that can be incorporated into their manufacturing processes.

"Ideally, the students will visit the ASK facility weekly, discuss their observations regularly in the classroom and develop recommendations for process improvements," Jadwin said. "We will meet with the management team at ASK and present our findings at the end of the semester."

To complete these tasks the class is structured to include hands-on time at ASK Chemicals and in-class lectures. The final exam for this course will be the Six Sigma Yellow Belt Certification Exam through the International Association of Six Sigma Certification.

Students, all seniors, participating in the project are: Matthew Eisenhauer (renewable energy engineering); Justin Smith and Daniel Wiener (mechanical engineering); Ian Chedzoy and Ryan Fowler (ceramic engineering); and Lucas Laing (materials science and engineering).

Steve Pilgrim, professor of materials science and engineering in the Inamori School of Engineering, is taking Jad-win's class to earn Six Sigma certification and is also taking part in the project at ASK Chemicals.

"This (Six Sigma certification) is something students can include on their resumes," Jadwin said. "They will stand apart from graduates of other schools who don't have access to training in process improvement."

Gabrielle Gaustad, dean of Alfred University's Inamori School of Engineering, praised Jadwin's efforts to provide students an opportunity to partner with industry to gain real-world experience.

"I am thrilled to have CACT Project Manager Jadwin offering this unique course to our engineering students," Gaustad said. "It highlights the School of Engineering's key objective of having industrially relevant curriculum that provides hands-on experiences to our students."

OBITUARIES

J. Thomas Fuoco, 57, Allegany County Assistant District Attorney

J. THOMAS FUOCO

Assistant District Attorney
WELLSVILLE – J. Thomas “Tom” Fuoco, 57, with his family at his side, went home to Heaven on Monday (Feb. 17, 2020.)

Mr. Fuoco was born on Jan. 6, 1963 in Syracuse to Felice and JoeAnna (Milbyer) Fuoco. He was a 1980 graduate of Nottingham High School in Syracuse. He attended Houghton College, received his MBA from Eastern University and attended Rutgers University where he received his Juris Doctorate. On August 25, 1990 Tom married the love of his life, Ceceila K. Kibble, who survives.

Tom’s entire career was devoted to law and he was most recently employed by Allegany County, serving as an Assistant District Attorney for seven years.

Along with his wife of 29 years and his parents, Tom is survived by his sons Anthony (Stephanie Moline) Fuoco and Tyler Fuoco, both of Wellsville; a brother, Joseph Fuoco of Boston Mass., sisters Teresa Ray of Delray, Fla., and Lynell (Tim) Cooley of Raleigh, N.C.; his mother-in-law, Anna J. Kibble of Smethport, Pa., a brother-in-law, David (Susan) Kibble of Smethport, Pa., and sisters-in-law, Colette (Brian) Henry of Smethport and Celeste (Rudy) Jaimes of Tipton, Mich., as well as many nieces nephews and cousins.

Also surviving Tom is his band of brothers known as “FFL” or Friends for Life: Sean Flynn of Boston, Mass., Ron Mita of Los Angeles, Calif., David DeSalvia of Syracuse, Christopher Weiss, also of Syracuse, Robert E.

Long, Jr. of Portland, Ore., Luke Cico of Nashua, N.H., and Peter Macero of Boston, Mass. These men forged a special relationship in high school and have maintained it with daily group texts, numerous phone conversations, and several annual gatherings. Their devotion to one another has been phenomenal and Tom was ever grateful for this amazing group of men.

Tom was an ardent follower of Jesus Christ. Everything he did was about bringing glory to the Lord whom he loved. Tom demonstrated this frequently by selflessly giving a listening ear or a helping hand. He was known for putting others ahead of himself, without regard to their station in life. Beneath his quiet demeanor, Tom had a fighting spirit that helped him through many health challenges as well as allowing him to serve so well in his profession.

Tom was a wonderful husband and father, devoted to providing a loving and nurturing home for his family. His sons admired Tom’s strength of character from which he taught them a way of life that includes caring for others and striving for excellence themselves.

Visitation will be held on Thursday (Feb. 27) from 2-4 and 6-8 at Baker-Swan Funeral Home in Wellsville. The funeral service will be held on Friday (Feb. 28) at 11 a.m. at the Gospel Fellowship Church in Belmont with Pastor Dan Kenyon, of Wellsville Bible Church where Tom attended, and Pastor Marc Chamberlain, a family friend, officiating. Burial will follow at Fairmont Cemetery in Smethport, Pa. Online condolences may be offered at www.baker-swan.com.

In lieu of flowers, the Fuoco family asks that you give the gift of life by signing up to be an organ donor. It is with deep gratitude that the Fuoco’s remember that more than a decade ago, someone else donated his heart to Tom, which in turn gave Tom’s family twelve unanticipated and blessed years with him.

ALFRED—William “Bill” S. Dibrell, 72, of 96 South Main St., Alfred, died Thursday afternoon, Feb. 13, 2020 at Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, following a sudden worsening of an illness.

Born in Corpus Christi, TX on Sept. 17, 1947, he was the son of Aquilla Gibbs “A.G.” Dibrell II and Martha (Crowley) Dibrell.

SIDE UP

By ELLEN SHULTZ

Dreaming of Florida sandy beaches

[Editor's Note: Like most of the recipes she shared with our readers over the past couple of decades, Ellen Shultz's Sunny Side Up columns are worth repeating.]

Last week I used a recipe from a Florida friend and this week I was looking in the Fix-It and Forget-It Cookbook that was recommended to me by another Florida friend. There seems to be a pattern here, perhaps motivated by looking out the window at yet another snowfall and reaming of sandy beaches.

Here is the result of perusing the cookbook. This is a hearty dish that is easy to make. It's so nice to come home to your dinner waiting for you and your house full of delicious odors.

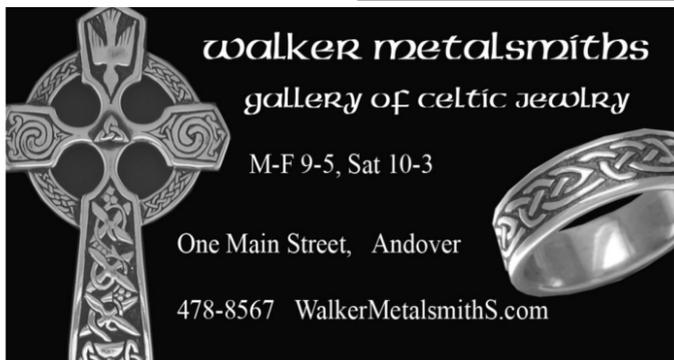

Chickenetti

1 c. chicken broth 1/4 c. green peppers, chopped
16 oz. pkg. spaghetti, cooked 1/2 c. diced celery
4-6 c. cubed, cooked chicken 1/2 tsp. pepper
1 can (10 oz.) mushroom soup 1 med. onion, grated
1 c. water 1/2 lb. American cheese, cubed

Put chicken broth in slow cooker; add spaghetti and chicken. In large bowl combine soup and water until smooth. Stir in remaining ingredients, then pour into slow cooker. Cover and cook on low 2-3 hours. Serves 10.

(I used chicken thighs and made half the recipe, but I used the whole cup of chicken broth and put the spaghetti in uncooked. I also didn't add the cheese and instead added a can of chopped green chilies for extra flavor. I let it cook 4-5 hours.

Experiment in socialism

(Posted on Facebook, author unknown)

An economics professor at a local college made a statement that he had never failed a single student before, but had recently failed an entire class. That class had insisted that Obama's socialism worked and that no one would be poor and no one would be rich, a great equalizer.

The professor then said, "OK, we will have an experiment in this class on Obama's plan". All grades will be averaged and everyone will receive the same grade so no one will fail and no one will receive an A.... (substituting grades for dollars - something closer to home and more readily understood by all).

After the first test, the grades were averaged and everyone got a B. The students who studied hard were upset and the students who studied little were happy. As the second test rolled around, the students who studied little had studied even less and the ones who studied hard decided they wanted a free ride too so they studied little.

The second test average was a D! No one was happy.

When the 3rd test rolled around, the average was an F.

As the tests proceeded, the scores never increased as bickering, blame and name-calling all resulted in hard feelings and no one would study for the benefit of anyone else.

To their great surprise, ALL FAILED and the professor told them that socialism would also ultimately fail because when the reward is great, the effort to succeed is great, but when government takes all the reward away, no one will try or want to succeed. Could not be any simpler than that. (Please pass this on) These are possibly the 5 best sentences you'll ever read and all applicable to this experiment:

1. You cannot legislate the poor into prosperity by legislating the wealthy out of prosperity.
2. What one person receives without working for, another person must work for without receiving.
3. The government cannot give to anybody anything that the government does not first take from somebody else.
4. You cannot multiply wealth by dividing it!
5. When half of the people get the idea that they do not have to work because the other half is going to take care of them, and when the other half gets the idea that it does no good to work because somebody else is going to get what they work for, that is the beginning of the end of any nation.

Letters to the Editor

Stop overthinking things

Dear Editor,

As primary season gets underway one thing is constant in the minds of Democrats: who can beat Trump. This is leading to lots of hand-wringing and overthinking. Let me propose a solution: stop thinking so much. Primaries are for following your heart. General elections are for following your head.

In the last election everyone predicted Jeb Bush would be the nominee. Logically, it made the most sense. Yet it became clear very early on that he didn't excite people. There's a video of Jeb attempting to inspire people at an event, pausing where he expected applause and, upon not receiving any, imploring his audience to "please clap".

Yikes! People clearly weren't passionate about him. You know who people were passionate about? Trump. He energized people and made them want to support him. And they did. What's the takeaway for Democrats?

Stop overthinking. The election is 9 months away. So much can happen between now and then that attempting to strategically choose a candidate is a fool's errand. Support the one who inspires you, whose vision of America you want to live in. It's only with passionate voters that a candidate can succeed and defeat Trump. Cold, calculating logic won't save us. Passionate, inspired involvement will.

Coming Of (Old) Age

Leap Day this year will come and go
And hardly anyone will know
That someone's 18th birthday came,
A someone whom I shall not name...
But a real bro—from my childhood home—
Not a fake one, like in last week's poem.

Looked up to him as sage and scholar;
Of course, I had to—he was taller.
And now that he's "of age", I'll say...
Still look to him to show the way—
No, not the way to nursing homes,
But ways to write sarcastic poems!

Quite frankly, we'd like you to subscribe to the Sun!

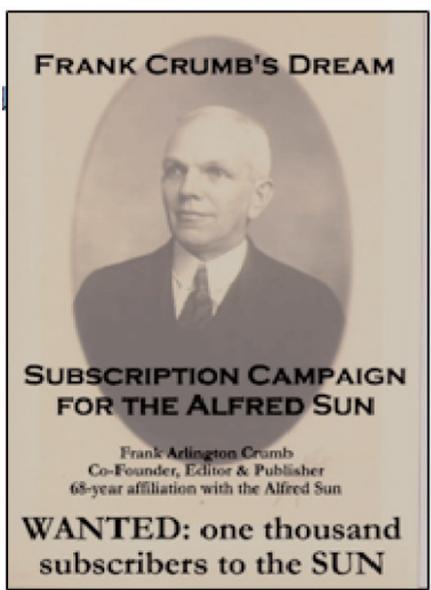

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Alfred Sun that said, "Wanted, one thousand subscribers to the Sun."

That goal suggested by Sun co-founder and legendary Editor and Publisher Frank A. Crumb, was met before the new millennium. But now we'd like to keep the dream alive. We have a vision of adding 100 new subscribers in 2020. That's what we call "perfect vision."

During Frank Crumb's Dream Campaign, we offer new subscribers 13 months for the year's subscription price of $40. That's $60 off the news stand price. And you'll read hometown news and interesting stories found nowhere else!

If you would like to help keep Frank Crumb's Dream alive, send your name and address or that of a loved one with check payable to "Alfred Sun" to: Frank Crumb's Dream, c/o Alfred Sun, P.O. Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802. We thank you and Frank thanks you!

ALFRED UNIVERSITY RILEY LECTURE

Acclaimed filmmaker to lecture March 18

ALFRED—Acclaimed filmmaker Roxy Toporowych will deliver the 25th annual Riley Lecture in Women's Studies on Wednesday, March 18, at Alfred University.

The lecture, titled "Lights, Camera, Revolution!: Award-Winning Filmmaker Roxy Toporowych's Ukrainian Love Story" will be held at 5:30 p.m. in Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall. The Riley Lecture is sponsored each year by the Women's and Gender Studies Program at Alfred University.

Toporowych wrote and directed "Julia Blue," a love story set in modern day, post-revolutionary Ukraine involving Julia, an idealistic student activist, and a wounded soldier fresh from the warfront. Toporowych went to the Ukraine in 2014 on a 10-month Fulbright grant to film a documentary about the country's children. She wound up visiting soldiers in a local hospital, an experience that inspired her to write "Julia Blue," her first feature film.

The film, produced in 2018, won the jury prize for best narrative feature at the 2018 Anchorage International Film Festival. It was named Best Foreign Film at the 2019 Long Beach International Film Festival and 2019 Mystic Film Festival. For her work on "Julia Blue," Toporowych won the jury awards as best director at the 2018 Woodstock Film Festival and at the 2019 Sonoma International Film Festival.

A graduate of New York University's Tisch School of the Arts, Toporowych has worked in film and television production for more than 15 years. Her credits include "Captain America: The Winter Soldier," "A Most Violent Year," "The Other Guys," "Saturday Night Live" and Marvel's "The Punisher" Seasons 1 and 2. In 2016, she was the recipient of the Calvin Klein Live the Dream grant for emerging female directors.

A reception, with hors d'oeuvres and refreshments, will be held following the lecture. The following evening, Thursday, March 19, at 7 p.m., "Julia Blue" will be screened in Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center. Toporowych will be on hand to discuss the film and answer questions.

Each year, Alfred University hosts the Elizabeth Hallenbeck Riley and Charles P. Riley Lectureship in Women's Studies. Charles Riley '35 and Elizabeth Hallenbeck Riley '36 were Alfred University graduates. Elizabeth was a local activist involved in women's rights issues. Their daughters, Pamela Riley Osborn '62, Patricia A. Riley '65, and Melissa Riley generously sponsor the lecture series in memory of their parents. The Riley sisters' gift is a completion of the memorial Charles Riley had planned for his wife but had not completed before his death.

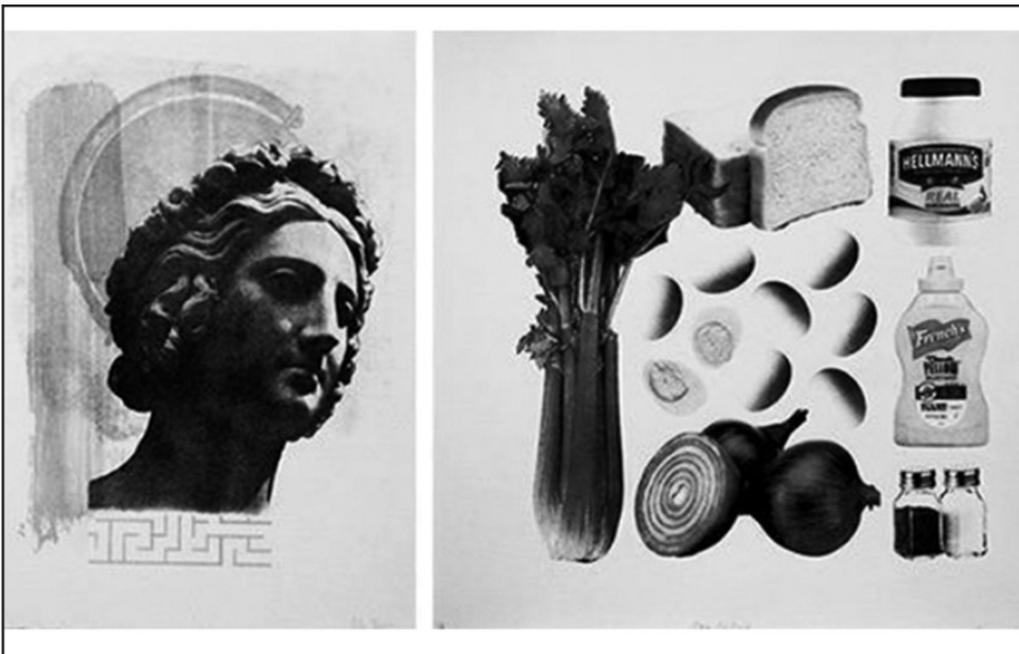

At the inaugural lecture in April 1996, Dr. Karen Porter, former director of the Women's and Gender Studies Program, noted that the lectureship "validates the work of women's studies. It reaffirms our sense of community, and it helps make that community visible."

The Riley Lecture Series sustains and nurtures faculty and student interest in Women's Studies by bringing accomplished women scholars and professionals to campus each year. The Riley Lecture preserves the interdisciplinary nature of women's studies by bringing scholars and professionals from a variety of disciplines to campus to give a lecture and participate in one or more women's studies classes.

Five AU students earn prizes at national printmaking contest

ALFRED—Five Alfred University students were among the top performers at the recent printmaking competition that included entrants from across the country.

The students earned prizes at the Fifth Annual New Impressions Printmaking Competition. Entries were submitted between April 20 and Dec. 31, 2019; winners were notified in January.

The competition, juried by a panel of influential printmakers, was sponsored by printmaking paper manufacturer Speedball.

Prize-winning Alfred University students were: Emily Martin, senior from Lancaster, first place in the screen print category, honorable mention in etching; Chloe Strang, junior from Skaneateles, first place in lithography; Katherine Kisiel, sophomore from Gansevoort, second and third place in relief woodcuts category; Julia Lauer, sophomore from Palo Alto, CA, second place in screen print category; and Emma Koehn, senior from Webster, second place in etching.

Winning students were awarded cash prizes toward Speedball products. The total winnings were also doubled and given in the form of products to the Alfred University Division of Expanded Media. In all, the five competitors earned $2,500 for the Division of Expanded Media.

Winning pieces will be featured at the Sawtooth School of Visual Arts Gallery in Winston-Salem, NC, and at the Speedball Booth of the 2020 Southern Graphics Conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico, April 1-4.

This is the second straight year Martin and Lauer have won prizes in the New Impressions Printmaking Competition. Last year, Martin took first place in the monotype/monoprint category, and Lauer placed third in the relief printing category.

Ken Luk, Bernardo Marcondes Rodrigues and Darien Lamem 'Afternoon of Brazilian Choro' on tap

ALFRED—An Afternoon of Brazilian Choro will be presented at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 1 in Susan Howell Hall with performances by Alfred University guitar faculty Ken Luk on the bandolim (Brazilian mandolin) and guest artists Bernardo Marcondes Rodrigues (guitar) and Darien Lamem (pandeiro). Originated in 19th century Rio de Janeiro, choro is a popular instrumental music genre from Brazil. ## Nutrition in a Nutshell

By MARIA ADAM
Nutritional Therapy Practitioner and Alfred Sun Columnist

Thriving Recipe: Momma's Pizza Crust

This is a classic recipe in my family! It has evolved over the years by swapping out some healthier flour for bleached, enriched white flour. In middle school my family got unbleached white flour. In highschool, we transitioned to whole wheat flour.

Then, we learned the benefits of sprouted flour. Sprouted flour is a traditional method that breaks down the starch content in a grain and also makes it easier to digest. When I went through my nutritional training, it confirmed that sprouted flour, if you tolerate grain and gluten, is the most nourishing way to go!

I pulled out this recipe to feed a crowd last week. Even though the sprouted flour is hearty and nourishing, the pizza wasn't heavy. Everyone was delighted to enjoy such comfort food that was also healthy! It is a definite win-win.

Ingredients:

- 1 Tbsp Yeast
- 1 Cup warm water
- 1 tsp honey
- 2 1/2 Cups Sprouted Flour
- 2 Tbsp melted coconut oil

- 1 tsp Himalayan salt
- 1/4 tsp. Cayenne pepper
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- 1 tsp basil
- 1/2 tsp oregano

Instructions:

Combine yeast, water and honey. Allow to sit for about 10 minutes, until bubbly.

Add the oil to the yeast mixture

Combine 2 Cups flour, salt and spices in a big bowl. Add yeast mixture. Add remaining 1/2 Cup of flour.

Press onto your favorite pizza stone or baking dish.

Bake at 450 °F for 10 minutes. Add cheese and favorite toppings and bake for the final 5 minutes.

Cool for 5 minutes before slicing and serving.

ALFRED STATE COLLEGE

Archery team brings home eight medals from Nationals

ALFRED—The Alfred State Archery Team recently competed in the 51st USA Archery Indoor Nationals in Lancaster, PA, returning home with eight medals and one archer sitting in national contention for an individual championship.

The Indoor Nationals are held at 13 regional venues over a three-day weekend throughout the United States. At the Pennsylvania site, the team swept the podium in both the men's compound and men's hunter classes. Women's hunter class archer Chloe Miles, veterinary technology, Canisteo, took first place, and men's Olympic recurve archer Ethan Frederick, criminal justice, Baldwinsville, took third place.

In men's compound, Nathan Summerville, mechanical engineering technology, Fulton; Jacob Houseknecht, culinary arts, Candor; and Dylan Krise, surveying engineering technology, Gillett, PA, finished first through third, respectively. The trio of Jay Lawrence, surveying and geomatics engineering technology, Fort Ann; Jacob Patanella, mechanical engineering technology, Churchville; and Simon Bond, mechanical engineering technology, Orchard Park, went top to third in their own podium sweep for men's hunter class.

So far, 10 of the 13 regional sites have completed their competitions and reported their scoring. The top eight archers from each collegiate class qualify for the USA Archery National Indoor Final held in Louisville, KY, a format that includes head-to-head, single elimination that results in crowning individual national champions. Sophomore Jay Lawrence, currently positioned in fourth place in the national scoring, is among the top eight and awaiting the results from the final three venues.

Coach Greg Sammons was proud of the team, noting, "This is the single biggest haul of medals we've brought home from one event. We will be closely watching the three remaining venues as archer Jay Lawrence prepares himself for the Indoor Final in Louisville."

Alfred State Archery competes in the USA Archery Collegiate Archery Program and the next collegiate event will be the Eastern Regionals (outdoor target) hosted at James Madison University on April 24-26. Before that collegiate tournament, the team will participate in regional events such as the ASA Winter CanAm Classic, an indoor 3D event in Syracuse.

DUMP THE BUMP 30TH ANNIVERSARY

The story of a Bump the Dump aficionado

In April 2020, Concerned Citizens of Allegany County will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the “Bump the Dump” protest, a multi-year citizen action that prevented the establishment of a nuclear waste dump. This extraordinary episode in our history was ultimately argued and won in US Supreme Court. In taking a stand against the dangers of radioactive contamination on environmental and human health, thousands of regular folks have become folk heroes. We invite you to learn more about them.

“All the neat people in Allegany”

By KATHRYN ROSS

Jessica Hutchison was raised in North Carolina, but that hasn't stopped her from finding a home in Allegany County and getting more than comfortable with the county's most important fight – the Bump the Dump protest.

Hutchison is so interested in the protest that for several months she has been creating a series of interviews with the people who opposed the dump and the people who proposed the dump. The interviews can be seen on the Concerned Citizens of Allegany County's YouTube page.

Shortly after moving here in 2010 Hutchison said she was browsing the Alfred State College library when she discovered Tom Peterson's book, “Linked Arms”. The book chronicles the story of the Bump the Dump movement.

“I remember reading it and thinking ‘Wow, why did no one tell me about this before!’ Shortly after that I found ‘My Name is Allegany County’ on YouTube and I was hooked on the story,” she recalled.

What may have piqued her

While filming an interview Jessica Hutchison dons a tri-corn hat that saw most of the protests when it was worn by Sue Beckhorn, songstress and aleader of the movement.

interest was learning that the county had successfully prohibited the state from contaminating the land with a nuclear waste dump.

She explained, “I got my undergraduate degree in Environmental Soil Science from North Carolina State University in Raleigh and my master's from the University of Georgia. During my master's degree, I studied the movement of chromium through soil. Since that time, I've always been interested in contaminated soils and how they should be cleaned up.”

After reading Peterson's book and viewing “My Name Is Allegany County” Hutchison started showing the video to her students and then talking with them about how soil is used to dispose of wastes.

Hutchison soon became involved with the Concerned Citizens of Allegany County, the group that led the dump fight in the late 1980s. They are planning to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the conclusion of the fight this April. Hutchison's interviews are to be part of that celebration.

But why is this young professional so interested in an event that took place almost 20 years before she arrived in the county? She explains, “I have often wondered this myself, as have many others. I think that when ‘bump-the-dumpers’ first meet me, they think I'm a little crazy because I treat them a little like celebrities. I'm not sure exactly what I find so compelling about this story, but I think it's because I've always liked stories about an underdog. Allegany County was such a “Rudy” of that time. In a world where we often feel small and helpless, this story reminds me that people have the power to band together and get something accomplished. It gives me hope on glum days. The academic part of my brain is also fascinated with discovering how the people here were able to accomplish such a feat that is not often repeated.”

“I think it's amazing how well prepared the people of Allegany were,” she said. “I've pored over documents from the Siting Commission (New York State Low-Level Waste Siting Commission) in the archives of Alfred University and Alfred State College. Within those documents are thousands of hand-written notes from “bump-the-dumpers” analyzing the information, making notes to themselves on things to look up, etc. I cannot agree with some of the siting commission members' assessments that the people of Allegany County didn't understand the science behind the dump. It is very apparent to me how well prepared everyone was, from strategy to non-violent training, science to politics, etc.”

After meeting many of the people who were involved in the dump fight and hearing their stories, Hutchison became concerned.

“As I was helping to plan the 30th anniversary of the protest, I started worrying that many of the stories I heard from the people involved would be lost over time. That's what prompted me to start the oral history project.”

“The response so far has been amazing, and I currently have about 20 people waiting to be interviewed. I hope to continue the project as long as interest remains. Each interview is full of surprises. To quote the BANDITS: “It was right about then, that I started to see, all the neat people, in Allegany.”

“I look forward to each and every interview. I was very excited to complete an interview with Dick Wood (former member of the Siting Commission). Having multiple perspectives on the event is important to understanding it as much as I can without having been part of it. I have not been able to get in touch with any law enforcement involved. I would be very interested in interviewing one of the state troopers, for example,” she said.

Through the interviews Hutchison has found out things few people know such as the members Siting Commission wore bullet-proof vests to the Belfast meeting on the urging of the state police. And that some people in the county were very upset when the horses were brought out at Caneadea.

While those who have seen the interviews say Hutchison is doing a great job, the hardest part of the process is letting go of her need for perfection.

“This event is so important to me and I feel it is my contribution to memorialize it, so, I feel a lot of pressure to portray people in an appropriate way and make good quality video with pictures and footage from that period. However, I'm not a very “techy” person, so I have had many moments where my computer almost ended up in a ravine,” she admits.

Hutchison and her husband Phil Schroeder moved here in 2010 to teach at Alfred State College and to be closer to extended family. Both teach in the department of Agriculture and Veterinary Technology. Her job puts her in touch with local farmers.

“I'm not a local,” she said, “but I've met a lot of people in ten years and I've never felt more connected to an area than I do with Allegany County.”

About the Author: A native of Wellsville, Kathryn Ross has been a journalist in Allegany County since 1984 and was among those reporters who followed the Bump the Dump protest in its entirety, traveling with the protesters around the state. She is an Alfred University alumna.

5 Reasons To Get A Jump On Filing Your Taxes

Filing your income tax return is an easy task to put off until a later time. If you are like most people, you often wait until just before the April 15 deadline to get the job done. This year, considering giving yourself a head start. Here are five ways getting a jump on tax filing could benefit you:

#1 – If you have a refund coming, you'll collect it sooner. This may be the best reason to get your tax filing done now. If you expect to earn a refund when you file your tax return, you may get your money sooner. In the past, refunds have typically been processed faster in the early weeks of filing season when the volume of returns are lower. Why not get the money that's owed to you as soon as you can?

#2 – If you owe money, you can wait to pay it. If you are concerned that once you complete your tax return you will owe additional taxes, you can still wait until the April 15 filing deadline to make your payment. By preparing your return early, you'll know in advance what your cash needs will be by the due date. However, be aware that if you forget to make your payment by the deadline, you may end up owing interest and penalties.

#3 – You will have a better grasp of your 2019 expenses. If you plan to itemize deductions, the sooner you start your return the more time you have to gather the necessary records. Those who wait until the last minute to file too often find themselves scrambling to pull together their financial documents or forget about potential deductible expenses or reportable income. By taking more time to double-check your potential deductions, you may reduce your final tax bill or receive a larger refund.

#4 – You may get more time and attention from your tax preparer. As the tax filing deadline approaches, tax preparers are often overrun with demands from their clients who waited until the last minute to get their taxes done. Your preparer may have more time to help make sure you've covered all of your bases if you work with them well in advance of the deadline.

#5 – The risk of identity theft is reduced. A more common crime in recent years has involved the filing of fraudulent tax returns. Scammers may be looking to collect a tax refund utilizing your Social Security number. If you file early, you'll already have your tax return on record and it will alert tax agencies that a second, phony return has been filed in your name.

Starting your tax work now can also make the process less stressful. Begin gathering your income and expense records and contact your tax advisor.

ALLEGANY COUNTY
This is Allegany County:
Rated poor in all New York State;
Low in income and resources;
Gaining little population.
Here in isolation living,
Knowing of the great world's tumult
Only as we read and listen.
But we are not unimportant:
One-tenth of the ones who dwell here
Come to our three colleges.
Others, too, are going elsewhere
For their higher education.
Thus, our product is an army
Well-equipped to serve the nation.
We could wish that this small county
Represented a fair sampling
Of our whole beloved country,
Peace and quiet are our portion;
Clean, the air that we enjoy.

Legislation sponsored by Senator Jess J. Present (R-C Bemus Point) to create a multi-municipality sewer project passed the New York State Senate recently. Present's bill would establish the Alfred, Almond, Hornellsville Sewer Authority to supply sewer treatment and collection services for the area comprised of both the towns and villages of Alfred and Almond and a portion of the town of Hornellsville. This legislation is a key element to a regional approach to foster economic development in Allegany County," Senator Present said, "and does much more than provide for increased efficiency in sewage treatment." For example, the New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred has a worldwide reputation for teaching and research in the field of ceramics," Present stated, "and provides a solid foundation and springboard to expand Southern Tier economic opportunities. In order to attract the ceramics industry to locate research and manufacturing facilities in the area, sewage treatment capacity must be updated and developed." Senator Present's bill is the outgrowth of extensive efforts spearheaded by the Canisteo Valley Regional Planning Board which is comprised of local officials, private individuals and representatives from the College of Ceramics. "This project will create many new and needed jobs and bring economic growth to Allegany County," Senator Present said, "and I am pleased to have been a part of this innovative effort. The sewer project and its many benefits are a tremendous example of what can be accomplished when State and local governments cooperate in support of a common goal."

The Union University Church, celebrating Scout Sunday Feb. 5, recognized George Harris for his dedication to Boy Scout Troop 19. George served as an assistant scoutmaster from 1987 to 1989 and as Scoutmaster from 1989 to December 1994. The Union University Church has been the chartered organization for Troop 19 for 23 years. At the charter presentation at the church, George was given a plaque from the church, recognizing his many years of service to Troop 19...

Dr. Melvin H. Bernstein, 80, of Alfred Station, died suddenly Thursday, Feb. 16, 1995 at his home on East Valley Road. He was born April 12, 1914, in Bronx, NY, son of Harry M. and Esther Goodman Bernstein. He was married June 24, 1974 in Danbury, Conn. To the former Barbara Schneckeburger, who survives. He came to Alfred from New York City in 1949, after completing his doctorate following 3 years of Air Force duty in World War II and had resided in the Town of Alfred for the past 46 years. Melvin earned his B.A. at the City College of New York in 1936. He earned his M.A. in 1941 and the Ph.D. degree in 1951, both from New York University. Mel taught American Literature, Literary Criticism, Chaucer, Methods of teaching English for student teachers and short novel courses at Alfred University from 1949 until his retirement in 1979. He continued to teach for several years after his retirement... Survivors in addition to his wife, include a daughter, Harriet Spleth, of Swampscott, MA; stepchildren, Erion (John) Clark of Hornell and Kier Dirlam of Salamanca; 3 grandchildren, Erica Smith, Barbara Smith and Robert Clark. He was predeceased by his first wife, Mae Bellows, who died in November 1968...

Notes from Palmiter Hill (By Rev. Albert N. Rogers) The Alfred church was filled as friends and colleagues gathered to say farewell to Dr. Melvin Bernstein who died last week. His wisdom and his sense of humor will long be remembered as well as his skill in teaching... Another memorial service filled the church the day before as Rev. Laurie DeMott led the congregation in tribute to Dorothy Odle, widow of the late S. Gene Odle, who died in 1990. She was a valued member of the Union University Church... Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Stephan called on us last Sunday. They are going to live in northern Wisconsin where they have friends, and stopped here to visit his sister, Mrs. Donna Rogers. He served as minister of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church before going to Marlboro, NJ for a few years... I had the misfortune of allowing my hearing aid to go through the laundry and a replacement cost me more than the original. Let that be a lesson to me!... A young visitor at our house enjoyed the marble game which our boys spent much time with in their younger years. A combination of wooden channels cleverly joined together at alternate ends lead marbles back and forth until they reach a flat round board on the floor. Our boys loved to see the different colored marbles follow one another turning left and right as they progressed down to the floor base. A bell meant to ring when the marbles reach the bottom has long been lost, but the back and forth motion still fascinates boys. [Editor's Note: I fondly recall watching marbles roll through the wooden channels when I was a young visitor on Palmiter Hill. It was mesmerizing and most entertaining!]

He and his family were among the founding members of Alfred Friends Meeting (Quakers) and Rye Friends Meeting in New York State... On his retirement from Brandeis, the Warrens moved back to the Alfred area, as they had planned when leaving Alfred several decades earlier, taking up residence in Andover...

To say that Alfred native Flora Gill is making a fashion statement would be an understatement. Gill, daughter of John and Andrea Gill of Alfred, together with Parsons School of Design classmate Alexa Adams just three-and-a-half years ago founded their "Ohne Titel" (German for "No Title") fashion design firm. Their designs are drawing rave reviews from the fashion critics. The New York Times listed their firm among its "Nifty Fifty" of up-and-coming talent...

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, February 27

Few men, let alone former Presidents, are as active in their later years as was John Quincy Adams. On this day in 1844, not only was he a 77-year-old congressman, he was chairman of the American Bible Society--and had been for a number of years. To that group, he said:

"The Bible carries with it the history of the creation, the fall and redemption of man, and discloses to him, in the infant born at Bethlehem, the Legislator and Saviour of the world."

Zoe Balinsky led the Eagles with 10 points. Lauren Kelly and Logan Brown each had nine points. Avery Libordi had eight points and Ryleigh Ormsby and Mirra Robbers each had a pair.

The Lady Eagles have a strong defense and gave the offense a boost in the 2nd half by outscoring the Panthers 28-9 for the win. The Lady Eagles close the regular season 6-12 and look forward to sectionals.

Swain Ski Patrol Open House Sunday, March 1

SWAIN—The phrase "bluebird day" is rarely used outside the jargon of the snow sports world. As the ski season comes into full bloom, skiers at Swain have been enjoying bright, "bluebird" days, with clear skies, sun on the snow and milder temperatures.

The current forecast for the Swain Ski Patrol Open House this coming Sunday, March 1 is "mostly cloudy" with temperatures in the 20s. Still very good skiing conditions.

Skiers and snowboarders do not have to wait until there has been an accident to get to know the Swain Ski Patrol. On Sunday March 1, Ski Patrol is hosting an open house that includes a free one day lift pass and lunch. Hours are 10 to 2 each day.

Many of the best skiers on the hill belong to the National Ski Patrol. This esteemed national organization was formed in the 1930s to provide safety and first aid for the recreational ski industry.

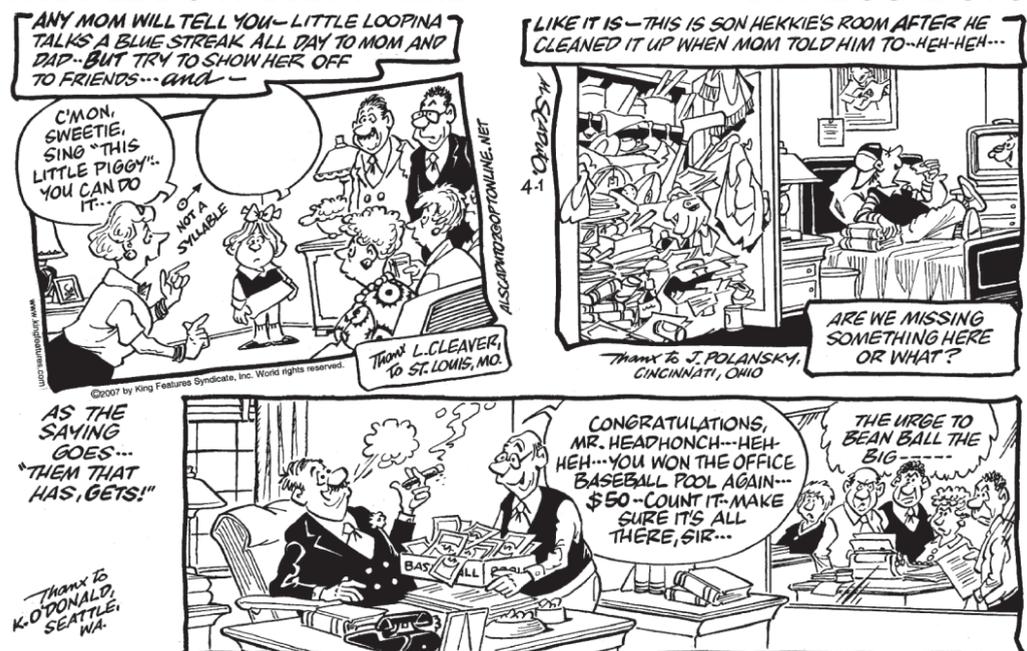

The Swain Ski Patrol is seeking new members. Participation in the open house is by no means an obligation to join Ski Patrol. It is a chance for skiers and snow boarders to have a look close up as to what the men and women in the red coats do.

Space is limited for the open house. Participants are asked to pre-register by emailing membership@swainskipatrol.org or calling membership coordinator Steve Walker at 607-382-3195.

ALFRED UNIVERSITY SPORTS

AU s'women third overall, men third in E8

The Alfred University women's swimming & diving team finished third overall and within its conference during the final day of the Allegheny Empire Swimming & Diving Championships as the Saxons defeated all six of the AMCC schools, making it an Empire 8 1-2-3 sweep.

"Awesome night! We had solid times to start the night, but things got exciting quickly when the team created a great atmosphere for the swimmers in finals by being loud and animated," Head Coach Brian Striker '00 said. "Our momentum started when [Justin] Chadima, [Bryan] Rafoth and [Andrew] Yates went 1-2-3 in their heat and then Caitlin [Behr] did the same thing in the 100 freestyles. That trend continued in the backstroke and breaststrokes. Both teams placed really well and made it a really interesting meet as we competed for top spots. I'm really proud of the women for picking up the third place overall."

Lauren Serotta (Niskayuna) picked up her second championship title and All-Empire 8 First Team Honors as she won the 200-yard backstroke in 2:07.55, besting her prelim time by almost four seconds. The second half of the dynamic duo, Rachel Flaherty (Middlebury, CT/Pomperaug) was in the running of top swimmers in the backstroke event as she swam a 2:15.82, better her time from prelims by almost two seconds and just barely being edged out of fourth place by almost half a second.

The next event in the pool resulted in an exciting finish for the Saxons as Amanda Guariglia (Valley Stream South) came from behind to tie for fourth place in the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:34.24. The women's 400-yard freestyle relay team of Caitlin Behr (Long Beach Island, NJ/Southern Regional), Guariglia, Ivy Valley (Lancaster) and Serotta finished third with a time of 3:47.36 to not only secure their team's spot in the final score list, but to also help boost Alfred State College to its first conference championship since joining Division III, vaulting them past Penn State-Behrend.

In the men's competition, AU finished third in the Empire 8 and fourth overall during the first Allegheny Empire Swimming & Diving Championships on Saturday.

The Saxons were led by the one-two finish of senior Andy Edmister (Belmont/Genesee Valley Central) and first-year Phillip Volaski (Poughquag/Arlington) in the 200-yard backstroke. Both entered the Championship Finals seeded one spot below their finishes as the both got out to great starts and held the lead over the rest of the pack, with Edmister registering his final collegiate backstroke time of 1:50.92, falling short of an AU school record and Volaski hitting a time of 1:52.12. Both Colin Schultz (Spencerport) and Noah Koltenuk (Danville, PA) had sixth place finishes on the day as Koltenuk picked up the first in the 1,650-yard freestyle. Koltenuk led the majority of the race until the other racers caught up and passed his time of 16:38.69. Schultz swam a 2:12.77 in the 200-yard breaststroke for his sixth place finish and was followed by teammate, Justin Jarmer (Flagstaff, AZ/Northland Preparatory Academy) in eighth place with a time of 2:16.73.

The 400-yard freestyle relay team of Edmister, Ryan Brown (Olean), Vincent Tamplain (Luling, LA/Hahnville) and Volaski finished sixth to wrap up the season with a time of 3:16.75.

Basketball season ends

In basketball, the Saxon men shot the lights out in a 101-62 win at Houghton to finish the season 11-14 overall, 5-9 in E8 play.

The women made it a sweep, defeating their hosts, 64-60, to finish their season with a three-game E8 win streak to finish 8-17 overall, 4-10 in Empire 8 Conference play.

Connor Pingitore (Amsterdam/Broadalbin-Perth) was 5 for 13 on the weekend and collected his 100th career hit.

Andrew Santobuono (Franklin/Unatego) picked up his second win of the season with six innings of work. He allowed six hits and two earned runs while striking out three. AJ Gartland (Irondequoit) was tough out of the pen as he earned a save and struck out eight in 4.1 innings of relief.

HITS AND MISSES:

It was off to Raymond James Stadium in Tampa on Saturday past to take in the XFL home opener for the Tampa Bay Vipers as they were hosting the Houston Roughnecks. Took in the game with fellow A-A grad, Jake Taft at the home of the Tampa Bay Bucs in the NFL. Beautiful afternoon after a chilly Friday and the fans were into it from the start. Not NFL caliber play by any means, but not too shabby either. The Vipers, with their Oregon Ducks colors, need a real QB if they are going to salvage this inaugural season. Houston has a solid signal-caller in PJ Walker from Temple and the Indy Colts practice squad. He was the difference in the contest as Houston won, 34-27 to stay unbeaten at (3-0) while the Vipers slink to (0-3). The XFL has some different rules than the NFL and some should be adapted by veteran league. Scores after TD's for starters as there are no PAT's by kicking but 1-2-3 points available from the 2-5-10 yard lines, respectively. Down by 17-points late? Two TD's, two 3-point conversions and you win! The kickoffs are unique as no one moves until the receiver actually catches the ball. Kicking for the Vipers is Andrew Franks from RPI and lately of the Miami Dolphins. Fun afternoon, helped by nice weather and a pretty decent football game. Mr. Timmer in Maryland and unable to join us, Jamie Bennett ... the former "Mayor of St. Pete's" is now a fan of the LA Wildcats instead the USSR, 4-3 in the hockey semi-finals before grabbing the gold medal two days later. The USSR team was considered the best in the world at that time and Team USA was comprised of college kids from various schools across the land. The victory is one of the biggest upsets in sports, all-time and is still talked about today. I've been to the small arena at the Olympic Center with Jason Larson and it brings chills just walking into the place knowing the history. Now known as the Herb Brooks Arena. A-A grads Cutter, "Hilly," Jake and Savo were in Lake Placid for those 1980 Olympics, although not at the hockey game, as they celebrated in the village that evening with other happy fans ... paced by Savo! A couple of years back, 3-4 of the USA players were at Frontier Field in Rochester for an autograph signing session. Didn't get in line for that but was able to take some photos pretty close up. Have been up to Lake Placid the last 4-5 years running, maybe more and always a great time there. Daughter Lauren has run the LP Half-Marathon thrice, once hooking up with former Geneseo soccer teammate, Eileen (Coyle) Blumenauber. That race ends on the famed outside oval of the Olympics. Other times we were joined by Meg "Pam" Verdino of Geneseo soccer and Jess (Herbst) Benway from Webster Schroeder/UVM. And the past two July 4th weeks have been spent in LP, with "Quinn the character" keeping us entertained.

The "Miracle on Ice" at Lake Placid.

John Beilein has stepped down as the head coach of the (sad) Cleveland Cavaliers of the NBA after a successful college run at various schools. When he left the Michigan Wolverines for the Cavs, it was a head-scratcher, to me. Yes, he'd make lots of money, but figure he was doing ok before that. Why go to the Cavs for your first NBA stint and at age 67? Very little talent on that roster. Beilein has strong WNY coaching roots as he was at Erie CC in the NJCAA ranks, Nazareth in D3 ball, over to D2 LeMoyne and then at Canisius College. Then it was off to Richmond (100-53) and West Virginia (104-60) before landing in Michigan (278-150). A great college coach who went to a weak NBA team. Guessing he'll be back in the NCAA ranks, if he desires to do so, maybe as early as next season.

The Division III basketball playoffs will be underway this week, conference action first, with the NCAA's right around the corner. In the Empire Eight, Nazareth will host the four-team men's grouping this weekend at Kidera Gymnasium as they'll play The Sages while SJ Fisher and Utica tangle in the other semi-final. The winner of the E8 gets an automatic NCAA berth. Alfred finished sixth in E8 play and overall at (11-14) after winning this championship last year at the McLane Center.

In the Liberty League for men's hoops, RPI and Hobart are 1-2 and get first-round league byes. #3 Ithaca will host St. Lawrence as Coach Murphy's Union squad will take on Vassar at home. The Dutchmen went (15-9/12-6) this season. St.

Lawrence, RIT, Clarkson and Skidmore were all (6-12) in league play this year. What happened to RIT? Also, Bard was a "nifty" (0-24) this season. Egads.

Brockport rules the SUNYAC's in men's basketball as the 25th-ranked Golden Eagles will host the conference semi-finals and finals. First though, Coach Minton's team at Oneonta and Coach Spanbauer's troops will travel to Oswego in first-round games. Plattsburgh (minus Tom Curle) finished a sad seventh in the conference this year.

In the men's basketball rankings of last week, undefeated Swarthmore (24-0) still was at the top as Nebraska Wesleyan (21-2) was sixth, Middlebury (Griffin Kornaker) was in at #14 and Brockport entered the rankings in 25th. Receiving votes was RPI.

The NESCAC women's basketball tournament should be "crazy" as three league teams are ranked in the top six in the nation! Tufts (24-0), Bowdoin and Amherst were ranked 1-5-6 last week. Receiving votes in the national D3 poll were Ithaca and William Peace from Raleigh, NC.

And talk about tough conference tournaments, how about the Pac-12 for women! Last week, Oregon was ranked #3, Stanford was fourth, UCLA was in the #8 slot, Arizona was 11th, Oregon State #15 and Arizona State was 21st. Those collisions just to get out of the Pac-12.

The Bonnies are looking pretty solid in A-10 play off a big win over Richmond, 75-71 at the Reilly Center in Olean. Bona (18-9/10-4) is now tied for third in the conference with Richmond and just one game back of Rhode Island. Nationally ranked Dayton paces the conference with an unbeaten league slate. St. Bonaventure plays Duquesne and La Salle this week in men's b-ball. Guessing the "Traveling Sports Fan" was at the game on Saturday. Not sure if he saw Obie there again?

Have enjoyed reading the "50-25-10 Years Ago" page in this paper the past few weeks and in particular, the results from the Alfred-Almond Church League basketball. Knew the late Tim Giedlin was a high-scorer then along with names like Jeff "Eyes" Calkins, Big Nev, The Janitor of this paper and (of course) the "Two-handed Dunker" ... the Big O, Oscar! Some fabled A-A hoop names there. ESPN has announced that they will have a two-person crew for Sunday Night Baseball as Jessica Mendoza is out. That leaves Matt Vasgersian and A-Rod. Could do without Alex Rodriguez as well.

ESPN has not announced yet their plans for the MNF crew and one can only hope that Booger McFarland is gone! Does Tony Romo slide into that spot? Guessing he stays at CBS, so no.

Time for MLB Commissioner, Rob Manfred to step to the plate and take away the "piece of metal" (his words) from the cheating 2017 Houston Astros.

And what is up with the New York Yankees pitching staff ... again? James Paxton is out with back issues, Luis Severino has arm problems (ongoing) and the clown known as Domingo German is on the suspended list due to domestic violence. Personally would've loved seeing NY cut ties with German but someone else, like the BoSox, would've probably grabbed him and haunted the Yanks for years to come.

And ex-Boston slugger, Big Papi thinks pitcher Mike Fiers is a snitch for his role in blowing the whistle on the cheating Astros? Guess he thinks what they did is "ok!"

If you ever have a chance to sign-up for the Optical/Amino cable system ... don't!

The Alfred-Almond alumni banquet will be held July 18th at Alfred State College. Class of '70 ... drop me an email to have on file!

Was watching some PGA golf over the weekend past, a WGC event on a very crowded 2020 schedule, as Justin Thomas (-15) was leading heading into Sunday. Jordan Spieth (+4) was a mere 19-strokes behind him. With big events coming up like the Arnold Palmer Invitational, The Players and the Masters, hoping he can find his form of a few years back.

March is almost here and time for a busy month for me in Florida. Alfred Saxons softball, Genesee CC baseball, golf in The Villages with Ron & "Ronald," a spring training game with Pat Atwell, the Valspar golf tournament with Taft, a Kings-Magic basketball game with Taft-Scum-Frank, Pirates-Rays baseball (twice), Yanks-Rays baseball plus the Molokai golf leagues and hoping to golf with Coach Mac plus Bob Baker. Then, the "Class of '79" gathering at the end of the month. And, probably some other items in there! Whew.
