Introduction

Continued growth of the University program and the realization that basic information and regulations pertinent to "student life" should be compiled for use by students and faculty resulted in the development of this Handbook.

Administrative committees, with faculty and student members review and revise the regulations, keeping in mind the aims and objectives of the University, demonstrated capacity of the students to exercise personal responsibility, and the needs of community living.

Students are responsible for a knowledge of all University regulations governing student conduct.

From the President's Desk

Long before the present talk about "student power", Alfred had a tradition of student involvement in University policy-making. In fact, Alfred was one of the first institutions to involve students in the selection of a President. A student committee interviewed each of the candidates, including me, for the tenth Presidency. Similarly, two students served on the recent Search Committee for a Provost (Vice-President for Academic Affairs). It was partly because of the student enthusiasm for Dr. J. D. Barton, Jr., that he was selected for this important post effective July 1, 1968.

In the spring of 1967, President Emeritus Drake appointed a twenty-four man committee to draft a statement on student rights and responsibilities. Twelve members of the committee were students; the remaining members were divided among administration, faculty, and trustees. Thus students were the dominant element in shaping a policy statement that we hope to have operative during 1968-1969.

A five-man committee (three professors and two students) is now exploring the concept of a "minimester" or short term during which the student would take only one course, or do independent study. Under this scheme, many students would be able to study in Madrid, San Francisco, or elsewhere in the world. If the faculty eventually approve a field term, it will be the most significant calendar change and academic development in the University's history. Students will have had a major voice in this exciting change.

Students also serve on a variety of key committees, where they have equal votes with their faculty, administrative, and sometimes even trustee colleagues—for example, the Cultural Programs, Student Conduct, and Student Life Committees. The Student Senate disburses funds to recognized student organizations. The President's Student Advisory Council serves as a channel of communication between the central administration and the student body.

Recently the Associated Women Students recommended to the Campus Student Life Committee that we rescind the regulation forbidding women to visit men's off-campus apartments. After this recommendation had been approved by the Student Life Committee and by the Administrative Council, a select group of students were invited to meet with the Trustee Student Life Committee. This dialogue was so constructive that the trustee committee voted to permit female visitation to men's off-campus apartments effective this fall.

At the annual meeting of the full Board of Trustees last June, the luncheon featured a student panel on "The Modern Student: What He Thinks and Why." This was the first of what we hope will be frequent opportunities for direct interchange of views between students and trustees.

Ultimately of course, the final decisions on policy must be made by the administration working in harmony with the faculty and under the authority delegated by the Board of Trustees. But it is inevitable that constructive and responsible student participation in the policy-making process will influence the nature of policy, as such participation has done in the past.

Clearly, then, you freshmen will be asked as you mature in the next few years, to help plan Alfred's future. That is quite a responsibility to anticipate. You would be wise to stock up intellectually for the assignment. You should also prepare yourself to listen respectfully to the conflicting views of others, and to scrupulously respect the civil liberties of those with whom you disagree. Only within such a democratic framework can we make Alfred a distinctive institution.

Leland Miles

Alfred University Traditions

The friendly "hello" among students and with the townspeople has long been a custom of Alfredians. While on campus, students soon become acquainted with the other customs and traditions unique to the University.

DAVIS MEMORIAL CARILLON, adjacent to Howell Hall, honors Booth Colwell Davis, former University president, and his wife. Of the 43 bells, some date from 1674. Daily vesper concerts are held at 5 P.M. every school day and at 2 P.M. on Sundays, by student, staff, and community carillonneurs.

CHARTER DAY and the OPENING COLLEGE CONVOCATION commemorate the chartering of Alfred University in 1857. Held in October, it is the first occasion of seniors appearing in caps and gowns.

HOMECOMING affords an opportunity for alumni returning to campus to relive student days, attend a varsity football game, and a variety of social functions.

ST. PAT'S FESTIVAL uniquely honors St. Patrick, patron saint of the ceramic engineers. St. Pat's Board sponsors the festivities which include a jazz concert, College of Ceramics open house and exhibits, and the highlight of the weekend, St. Pat's Ball.

HONORS CONVOCATION recognizes student scholastic attainment. The senior achieving the highest academic index for four years is recognized as are members of the various scholastic honor organizations, top ranking students in each class, in addition to other academic awards.

MOVING-UP DAY marks the moving up of each class and honors the graduating seniors. Newly elected student officers are presented at the Assembly, honorary societies tap new members and awards are given to outstanding students in extracurricular activities. The pushball game and step-singing contests are memorable events.

FRESHMAN PARENTS WEEKEND in the fall is sponsored during the first semester for parents of freshmen.

PARENTS WEEKEND in the spring brings many parents to the campus in May and events center around activities which foster closer relationships among faculty, students and parents. A ROTC Review, Footlight Club production, meetings with the faculty and Parents Association luncheon are a few of the many scheduled events on this annual weekend.

SPRING WEEKENDS are planned by the fraternities and sororities, marking the close of the social activities of the year. Picnics and dinner dances highlight these social weekends.

... regulations and policies

GENERAL UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

1. Attendance at the University is a privilege and not a right. The University reserves the right, and the student concedes to the University the right to require the withdrawal of any student at any time for any reason deemed sufficient to it, and no reason for requiring such withdrawal need be given.
2. The traditions and principles of the University prohibit any conduct in violation of law or out of harmony with the standards of good society.
3. The University has the authority to enforce its social regulations at these times: while school is in session and during the vacation and/or recess period while the student is within the Village of Alfred or on campus.
4. The University reserves the right to cancel any course if registration for it does not justify continuance.
5. The University also reserves the right at any time to make changes deemed advisable in the rules and regulations and in the tuition and fees.
6. The University has general supervision of all student housing. Students may reside only in residences that have University approval.
7. Resident freshmen may not have or operate motor vehicles either on campus or in the Village of Alfred for the academic year. All permitted student motor vehicles must be registered with the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds and a $5.00 fee paid at the time of registration for classes. Cars brought to Alfred later in the school year must be registered immediately. Registration is for the academic year or remaining portion thereof. Commuters from outside the village and students living in University dormitories will be assigned to definite parking areas. Students living in the village may not park on campus during regulated parking hours, and no student may drive to classes unless he is physically handicapped.

The owner of an unregistered vehicle will surrender the license plates for a period of one month.

8. Students who wish to marry and continue in the University must notify the Personnel Deans in advance of the marriage, and present evidence of the parents' knowledge or consent. The University reserves the right to require the withdrawal of a student who marries secretly.
9. Alcoholic beverages are served at special social functions in Ade Hall and the Campus Center. The possession of, or consuming of alcoholic beverages in University buildings or on University grounds is prohibited except in the above instances.
10. Hazing in any form is prohibited by the University and the laws of New York State.

ATTENDANCE

Regular class attendance is required for all freshmen, sophomores, and students on condition. The individual faculty member may grant to all juniors, seniors, and special students in good standing permission to absent themselves from his classes.

It is understood that the individual instructor may revoke or deny this permission at any time.

It is also understood that in all instances attendance is required at Founders Day Convocation, Honors Convocation, and other all-University programs.

APPROVAL OF NEW ORGANIZATIONS

1. A written request for the formation of a new organization is presented to the Personnel Deans. Permission may be granted or denied by them.
2. The Personnel Deans may refer the request to the Student (Personnel) Life Committee for consideration. The committee may deny the request or make positive recommendations for the formation of the organization to the President of the University.

COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

This Committee has jurisdiction over all cases of academic dishonesty, which is defined as any unauthorized use of books or notes during any test or examination; possession or knowledge of an examination prior to its administration; giving or receiving aid by a student during the examination; or presenting as his own, in fulfillment of an assignment to be written outside of class, work done in whole or in part by another person. The Committee is composed of the Dean of the College, the faculty advisor, the Personnel Deans, president of the Student Senate, and president of the Associated Women Students.

COMMITTEE ON STUDENT CONDUCT

The Committee on Student Conduct has jurisdiction over disciplinary cases involving violation of Alfred University regulations or public laws.

The Committee is composed of the Academic Dean, advisor of the student, Personnel Deans, a faculty member, president of Student Senate and the Associated Women Students, and two students at large. Each member has a vote.

The student's case is presented to the Committee in writing. The charge is read to the Committee in the presence of the student. The student is then asked to give appropriate testimony concerning his case and the Committee may ask questions to clarify the presentation. The student may present witnesses in his behalf. After the student has been given every opportunity to present his statements, he is excused from the meeting while the Committee deliberates and reaches a decision. All decisions regarding dismissal are reviewed by the President. A student may appeal to the Committee for reconsideration of his case within 48 hours if new evidence pertinent to the case is produced.

The Committee may administer any of the following penalties:

1. Warning
2. Reprimand
3. Disciplinary Probation
4. Dismissal
5. Indefinite suspension

There are cases where the welfare of the student involved will require action by the administrative officers of the University.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION

Situations have occurred when there has been extreme deviant behavior or flagrant violations of proper conduct by Alfred University students. In emergency situations of this nature, the power of immediate temporary suspension is vested in the Dean of Students and his Staff.

Where this action is necessary, a committee composed of the Academic Deans of the student involved (or the Chairman of the department in which the student is enrolled), the Dean of Students or the Associate Dean of Students, and one ranking member of the student body, will convene to discuss the charges and review the penalty. This committee will meet within twenty-four hours of the incident. The defendant shall appear before this committee.

If the suspension is upheld, the President of the University shall be notified before separation of the student from the University is effected.

CONDITION, SUSPENSION, DISMISSAL

A student whose index at the end of any semester falls below the minimum semester standard will be placed "on condition." Further, a student who has a low cumulative index, or low grades in critical prerequisite courses, may also be placed "on condition." A student "on condition" may, or may not, be permitted to participate. The students "on condition" are urged to take full advantage of all in certain co-curricular activities or to carry a full curricular load. University advisory sources available to them.

A student "on condition" who fails to attain the required semester index or fails to meet other specified academic requirements may be suspended for one or two semesters. However, any student "on condition" who is unable or unwilling to improve his academic standing significantly will be dismissed.

A student suspended for academic reasons may be granted the opportunity to return on a conditional basis. A written request for readmission must be made to the academic dean at least two months before the anticipated return.

FINANCIAL

No student will be graduated or receive a transcript or grade report if he is delinquent in meeting financial obligations due the University or any University organization. At the discretion of the Dean of Students, this regulation may be applied to any financial obligations due non-university individuals or organizations.

PARKING

Students must register their cars, pay a $5.00 annual fee and abide by the parking regulations which are in effect from September 15 to June 1, holidays included. Permission to have a car at Alfred for any short period must be secured from the Personnel Deans. Students may not drive to classes unless physically handicapped.

USE OF UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS

Reservations for rooms and facilities for meetings and special events must be made well in advance of the scheduled date by contacting the office handling reservations for the location desired.

Applications for use of Men's Gym, Campus Center, South Hall Gym, Ade Hall, Howell Hall, Allen Lab Lecture Room, Meyers Hall

Room 34 and Alumni Hall may be secured from Mr. Ohstrom at the Campus Center.

WITHDRAWAL

A student who is obliged for any reason to withdraw from the University during the academic year will first consult with the Dean of Students or the Associate Dean of Students. Students who plan to withdraw at the end of either semester are required to consult with the Dean of Students or Associate Dean of Students. Initiating the withdrawal in this manner is primarily for proper guidance but is also necessary if the student is to receive refunds that are due. A student who withdraws during the summer must notify the Dean of Students or the Associate Dean of Students on or before July 1 if the $50.00 advance deposit is to be refunded.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES IN ADE HALL

A refreshment table will be set up by the sponsoring organization to serve alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages (each type to be clearly marked) and assorted foods. Alcoholic beverages will be served upon presentation of the student's I. D. card to a member of the sponsoring organization designated to check I. D. cards. Students and guests under 18 years of age will not be served alcoholic beverages.

During the function, the following regulations are to be observed:

1. The registration of the social function requires that all details pertinent to the function including chaperones and hours for serving alcoholic beverages be approved by the Dean of Students' office. A member of the Dean of Students' staff will attend the function.
2. Alfred University students will be held responsible for the conduct of their guests.
3. The sponsoring organization will assume responsibility for maintaining order.
4. Irresponsible behavior by students and/or guests will be considered cause for immediate dismissal from the social function and referral to the Dean of Students.
5. Drinking will be confined to the specified social area within the building.
6. Any function at which alcoholic beverages are served shall be under the direct supervision of one or more faculty or staff advisors of the sponsoring organization. A private outside caterer will be responsible for preparation of drinks, for checking the ages of students, and for monitoring alcoholic consumption.

7. Chaperones are guests of the host organization and as such are responsible only for general deportment just as in the case of non-alcoholic parties.
8. Drinking at social functions will be limited to those beverages which are pre-determined by the sponsoring organization.
9. At the termination of serving hours, any remaining punch or mixed drinks and opened bottles of alcoholic beverages will be disposed of promptly. This shall be supervised by the faculty advisor or representative of the Dean of Students' staff.

GUIDELINES OF CONDUCT

So that students may be aware of their responsibility under this plan, the following violations will be referred to the Committee on Student Conduct:

1. Falsifying age.
2. Providing alcoholic beverages for persons under 18 years of age.
3. Drinking beverages which are not pre-determined by the sponsoring organization, i.e. bringing in beverages from the outside.
4. Drinking in unspecified areas (outside of building).
5. Irresponsible behavior and poor social decorum by a student or guest.

The Alfred University student will be held responsible for the action of his (her) guest.

Normally, the penalty for any of the violations listed above will be immediate temporary suspension from the University.

This implementation plan for special social function at Ade Hall does not alter the University policy of possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages in other University buildings or on University grounds.

STATEMENT ON THE USE OF ILLICIT DRUGS

Because of the potential danger of unprescribed drugs, narcotics, and hallucinogenic substances, Alfred University disapproves the use, possession, and/or sale of these drugs and narcotics.

The New York State Penal Law states that "A person is guilty of criminal possession of a dangerous drug in fourth degree when he knowingly and unlawfully possesses a dangerous drug." From a legal standpoint, marijuana is presently considered a dangerous drug. Possession or use of marijuana or other drugs is classed as a misdemeanor punishable by one year imprisonment, $500 fine, or both. The sale of marijuana or other drugs is classed as a felony punishable by imprisonment up to fifteen years. (References: N. Y. State Penal Code 200-1, N. Y. State Public Health Law 3301-38).

Because of the above, the University will report to police authorities any violation of Federal or State narcotic laws by any member of the University community.

The use and possession of mind-altering drugs may have disrupting consequences that interfere with the intellectual spirit and general welfare of the University. Therefore, involvement with drugs, drug users, or sellers will subject members of the University community to the judgment of the University independent of action taken by civil authorities, with the possible consequence of permanent separation from the University.

POLICY ON DEMONSTRATIONS

Effective January 1, 1968

The University cherishes the right of individual students or student groups to dissent and to demonstrate, provided such demonstrations do not disrupt normal campus activities, or infringe on the rights of others. In fact, the University is proud that some students care enough about world issues that they feel compelled in conscience publicly to proclaim their views.

On the other hand, the University cannot condone student or faculty groups which, under the banner of free speech, proceed to violate the freedom of speech, choice, assembly, or movement of other individuals or groups. In short, responsible dissent carries with it a sensitivity for the civil rights of others, and a recognition that other students have a right to dissent from the dissenters.

Accordingly, the University will in any given instance take whatever steps it deems necessary to (1) protect the right of any group to demonstrate and publicly proclaim any lawful view, however unpopular; (2) protect the freedom of speech, assembly, and movement of any group which is the object of demonstrations.

To achieve the foregoing ends, demonstrating groups will be expected to adhere to the following guidelines: (1) reasonable access to and exit from any office or building must be maintained; (2) physical harassment and verbal abuse are to be avoided; (3) demonstrators must keep at a sufficient distance to assure reasonable privacy for the student job-seeker who wishes to discuss his personal career plans with a recruiter; (4) demonstrators must avoid crowding so close to the object of protest that breach of the peace is risked or encouraged; (5) demonstrators must not attempt to force the cancellation of an event sponsored by a University office or by a faculty or student group; (6) care must be taken to avoid disrupting classes or other educational activities; (7) where an invited speaker is the object of protest, students and faculty may demonstrate outside the building where the lecture will take place. Demonstrators who wish to enter the building must do so as members of the audience; as such, they must leave all signs outside and must give the speaker a respectful hearing; (8) groups who wish to demonstrate must inform the Dean of Students' Office, 48 hours in advance of the locale of the demonstration and the object of intended protest. Leaders of intended demonstrations are free to confer in advance with Dean of Students' staff, in order to minimize the possibility of breaking the stated guidelines.

In the instance of any given demonstration, the judgment as to whether the guidelines are being observed will be made on the spot by the Dean of Students or his designate, not by the demonstrators or by those being demonstrated against.

If at the time of the actual demonstration the Dean of Students or his designate judges that the above guidelines are being breached, he will courteously request the demonstrators to bring their procedures into accord with the guidelines. Under such circumstances, demonstrators will be expected to comply immediately. (If they view the request as unreasonable, they may appeal later to the President for a ruling.) Should the demonstrators decline to follow the Dean's request, they will be immediately suspended pending a group hearing within twenty-four hours.

The review board for this hearing will consist of one member of the Dean of Students' staff (not the dean who suspended the students), one academic dean, the faculty chairman of the Student Life Committee, the chairman of the University Faculty Council, and the president of the Student Senate. The chairman of the Student Life Committee will serve as chairman of the review board. At the judgment of the chairman, the proceedings may be limited to one hour. Both the review board and the suspended students may bring to the hearing a maximum of three witnesses and/or advisors. The only relevant issue at this hearing will be: Did the suspended students follow or decline to follow the dean's request that they modify their demonstration procedures? If the hearing upholds the suspension, the students will be separated forthwith. Similar procedures will apply to faculty who decline to follow the stated guidelines.

Police will not be called onto the campus unless there is clear danger to life or to property, or unless non-Alfred University groups disrupt University operations and fail to comply with the stated guidelines when requested.

Alma Mater

Nestled away 'mid the Empire State hills,
    'Neath the watch-care of sentinel pinès,
Where the murmuring song of the brook hums along,
    And the favoring sun ever shines;
In a valley so fair where the forest trees share
    Dominion o'er hillside and glen,
Stands the pioneer college of Western New York—
    Alfred, the mother of men.

CHORUS

Hail to thee Alfred, thou guide of our youth,
    Sweet, benign mother, all hail!
Sing out thy anthems of duty and truth;
    May thy clear ringing music ne'er fail.
