From the Editor . . .

It's Up to You . . .

At this time we would like to acquaint the FIAT readers with what we believe to be two fundamental purposes of a newspaper: to convey the news and to present opinions.

The first step involved in conveying the news is, of course, to have access to the relevant data. The "covering" or finding of the news is the primary job of the staff members. There are three general sources from which the news is secured—faculty, the administration, and the student body. Many problems are involved in the reportink of the news, the solution of which depends, to a large part, upon the cooperation of the campus body.

The next step, one of paramount importance in maintaining the first function of the newspaper, is the presentation of the news—in a clear, objective and impartial manner. This latter function is under sole jurisdiction of the FIAT staff.

The second function of the newspaper is to present opinion. Editorials and letters to the editor are the main vehicles by which opinion is brought before the campus body.

Editorials are written by the editors . . . It is here that we comment on the news and view material which we consider to be of importance to the campus body. The stand of the newspaper on various issues will be clearly denoted in this column.

Opinions of the student body are expressed in letters to the editor. These letters reflect the personal views of the authors—they do not constitute any editorial comment on the part of the FIAT. All letters must be signed but the name of the writer may be withheld from publication upon request.

It must be remembered that in the publishing of opinion, as in other matters, we can only print what we have in our possession. It is obvious that various perspectives on an issue can be printed in the newspaper under one condition; that they have been presented to the FIAT.

May we again state the two main functions of a newspaper: to convey the news and to present opinion. In both cases we attempt to present all sides of the issues. However, this can only be accomplished if the information is available to us.

It's up to you . . .

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In several issues I have read the letters to the Editor concerning the pros and cons of compulsory military training and its place on the Alfred Campus. Now I feel it is my turn to speak.

For all its faults and errors in training, College is the natural selection point for training officers and leaders for the American Army. Most of you who are members of this group will probably serve only six months, the rest the two years.

Regardless of the time spent, you will all be allowed the privileges of an officer, and a "gentleman." Remember this, Children, and quit complaining. Not all of us have been this fortunate.

As an American citizen you owe this to your Country. Others I seem to recall have paid a heavier price, some the heaviest of all.

In order for a country such as our own to continue to flourish we must sacrifice a few small freedoms in order to retain the majority of our other freedoms. Don't let the dignity of our Armed Services be degraded by pseudo-intellectualism.

AU Student Senate Sponsors 'College Orientation Seminar'

Students from 45 high schools within a 40 mile radius attended a College Orientation Seminar sponsored here by the Student Senate last Friday. Invitations were sent to schools from Geneseo, south to Coudersport, Pa., and from Corning, west to Olean.

After registration and a brief opening talk at Howell Hall, those attending were divided into five interest groups: science and mathematics, nursing, engineering, economics and business, and liberal arts. A university student majoring in each area of study then conducted the interested group on a tour of the appropriate class or laboratory.

The program closed with panel discussion held at Howell Hall with the student guides answering questions which arose in regard to five main topics: academic differences student-faculty relations, extra-curricular activities, orientation week, and dorm life.

The purpose of the program as stated by Nancy Cashimere, past president, and William Dusetti, chairman of the Student Responsibility Committee, was to enable high school seniors to "find answers to questions concerning their field of study," and to aid juniors "in the selection of schools and fields of study" and to point out to sophomores the possibilities and advantages of a college education.

In basketball, four former lettermen will receive certificates. They are juniors Roger Ohstrom and Archie Bresnick, sophomore Warren Sutton, and Senior Gary Girmindl. Four sophomores will receive varsity 'A' sweaters. They are Joe McLarney, Howie Palmer, Jim Warner, and Joel Moskowitz. Moskowitz is being honored for his work as assistant manager. 1962 numeral sweaters will be awarded to freshmen Joe Green and Steve Steinberg.

Relay Team Third, Finnerty Fifth, at Quantico Meet

Alfred's sprint medley team placed third in their event and Frank Finnerty placed fifth in the half-mile run of the Quantico Marine Relays last Friday at Butler Stadium, in Quantico, Virginia.

The medley team composed of Finnerty, Larry Sweet, Don Ulmer, and Steve Kelley finished behind North Carolina State College and St. Joseph's (Pa.) in Division II of the event. North Carolina's winning time was 3:29.6, a meet record. The former mark was 3:35.4, set by St. Joseph's in 1956.

Finnerty started off strong in the half-mile as he and Tom Murphy of the New York A.C., led the field to the head of the backstretch. Murphy made his bid at this point, and blazed to the tape ahead of the pack. His clocking of 1:56.1 cut 2.4 seconds from the meet mark that he set last year. Finnerty, after his torrid pace, faded to fifth.

ald, Ray Perkins, Phil Redstone, Howie Siegel, Dave Skolsky, Paul Trivelpiece, Terry Williams, and Duke Stanton. Other recipients are sophomore Ed Post, Ray Pardon, and Al Everson. Pardon and Everson were J. V. Assistant Managers.

Norman Hecht, who worked as Manager-Trainer last season, was named as next year's Trainer. Joel Moskowitz will become Varsity Manager and Al Everson will be manager of the frosh squad.

Five former wrestling lettermen will receive certificates. They are: juniors Jim Tenzel, Dennis Kohler, Larry Wander, sophomore Herman Lederberg, and senior Lyle Wiedeman. John Gutierrez and Dave Frey will be awarded freshman numeral sweaters.

Athletic Director James A. McLane announced at the meeting that there will be freshman football and basketball teams next year. It is likely that the frosh will also field wrestling and cross-country teams.

Next year's sports schedule reveals some new and attractive innovation. The Saxon quintet will play Syracuse at Syracuse. They will also participate in the Upsala Invitational Tournament on Dec. 29 and 30. Coach McLane also announced that next season's New York State small-college cross-country championships will be held at Alfred.

On the gridiron, the Warriors will meet the same teams they played last season. There will be four home games. Homecoming will be Oct. 10 against St. Lawrence.

Coaches Smith and McLane thanked Al Siegel for his untiring efforts as statistician and all-around sports handyman during the past two years. Both agreed that his services will be sorely missed. Siegel, a graduate student, will receive his master's degree this June.

Hoopmen Feted

Last night, the varsity basketballers and managers were treated to a steak dinner at the Brick. The dinner was to celebrate the first winning basketball season in six years.

The seniors won the Indoor Interclass track meet held on Tuesday, March 24, with seven firsts and a total of 43 points. Frank Finnerty took three of those firsts and broke the existing Interclass records each time.

The Juniors finished second with 38 points followed by the Sophomores with 18. The Freshmen had a total of 15 points.

The shot-put was won by Sophomore Herman Lederberg, who uncorked a heave of 44' 1", breaking the old Interclass record. Greg Powhida, also a sophomore, placed second. Don Rohs and Al Zoldan, both freshmen, placed third and fourth respectively.

The pole vault contest was won by Steve Kelley, a junior, who vaulted 10' 6". Second and third places were taken by sophomore De Mott and freshman Falzoi respectively.

First place in the final field event, the high jump, went to Don Clark, a senior. Second place was taken by another senior, Steve Cohen. Freshman Dick Henion placed third and Steve Kelley was fourth. Clark's winning leap was 5' 11".

The mile run was won by Finnerty in the record time of 4:17.5. Larry Sweet and Carl Blanchard, both juniors, finished second and third respectively. Finnerty's winning, record time for the 600 yard run was 1:16. Sweet again was second. Finnerty climaxed his brilliant evening with another record breaking performance as he won the 1000 yard race in 2:18.8.

Finnerty shared top honors for the evening with fellow senior Don Ulmer, who also took three first places. His time for the 35 yard dash was 4.2. Ulmer also won the 40 yard high and low hurdle races with times of 5.9 and 5.6. Freshman Steve Crossman was second in both hurdle events.

The two-mile run was taken by junior Carl Blanchard in 10:29.5. The relay of 9-5-2-15 laps was won by the juniors in 10:22.7. The Frosh, who were leading most of the way, came in second.

GERALD A. PARSONS received his B.A. in 1950 and his M.B.A. one year later, both from Cornell University. He joined General Electric in 1954 and is presently Specialist-Marketing Administration in the company's Large Steam Turbine-Generator Department.

"The biggest challenge a man has to face is himself"

"Men and businesses are alike in one respect," says Gerald A. Parsons, 30-year-old marketing and personnel development specialist. "Their success depends to a great extent on how well they respond to challenge. And I've found that the biggest challenge a man has to face on his job is not the competition of others — but the far more important one of developing himself to his fullest capabilities."

"During my four years with General Electric, I've had plenty of opportunity for self-development. Challenging training assignments at five different locations within the company have given me a broader understanding of my career area. In my present job I have the benefit of working with experts, both in establishing long-range goals and in helping to achieve them. I've found that working toward future potential is vital in the development of successful businesses — and successful men."

Young men such as Gerry Parsons are important to the future of companies like General Electric and to the growth of America's dynamic, competitive-enterprise economy. Our nation's progress will depend more and more upon those forward-looking individuals who continue to develop to their fullest capabilities during their lifetime.

That is why General Electric provides a climate for individual progress — with opportunity for increasing knowledge and skills — for all of its employees, including 30,000 college graduates. For it is only as individuals meet the challenge of self-development that there continues to be progress for a business, an industry, or a nation.

Gridmen Begin Practice; Daily Scrimmages Held

by Ira Rubenstein

Spring football practice sessions began Monday evening, April 6, on Terra Cotta Field. Thirty-six men, including several new hopefuls, drew equipment for the first of nightly 40-minute drills that Coach Alex Yunevich will conduct through most of April.

Coach Yunevich had announced that all positions on the team are open, and has urged that anyone who has had high school football experience and would like to play should report for these scrimmages.

On the first night, after brief preliminary drills and several dummy scrimmages, two teams squared off for a full-scale scrimmage. Coach Yunevich made frequent player changes from both teams during the evening. The pattern was much the same each night throughout the first week of practice, as the Coach gave as many men as possible opportunities to exhibit their talents. Coach Yunevich is well pleased with the work of sophomore Dick DeMott, former half-back, who has been playing quarter back in a major position switch.

Next season, as a result of a new ruling, freshmen will not be eligible for varsity competition. As a result, these spring sessions are regarded as vitally important because they give the coach ample time to observe the team's strong points and to remedy its weaknesses.

Sutton Fourth In Rebounds

Warren Sutton placed fourth in rebounding for the nation's small colleges, according to recently released official NCAA statistics. His average for 20 games was 21.7. National leader was Davis of King's College, who averaged 22.6 per game.

The small college high scorer was Wilcox of Davis and Elkin's College with an average of 33.6. His high game was 70 points, also a leading figure. Grambling College had the highest scoring average with 95.3.

There is a total of 576 teams included in the small college statistics.

Several of Alfred's opponents placed relatively high in different categories.

Ithaca was fifteenth in field goal percentage with .451. R.I.T. was nineteenth with .445. R.I.T. was thirty-third in average points per game with 80.7. Buffalo was seventeenth in total defense, holding their opponents to an average of 58.5 points. Hamilton led the nation in fewest personal fouls, averaging 13.6.

Shepard of Clarkson Tech was
