Diversity Leadership Program -- Win scholarships

The Career Development Center is happy to announce that Monster is sponsoring its annual Diversity Leadership Program at various locations during the 2008 summer.

Early applications are being accepted now.

During the summer of 2007, Alfred University boasted 5 participants. One participant stated, "It was like a rap concert and business networking event all at the same time. It was the best."

Apply now and increase your opportunities to win scholarships, leads on internships and permanent employment opportunities, enhance your resume and develop your leadership skills!

Open to Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen.

Needed: Encouraging words

Alix Clare continues to make progress in her recovery from serious injuries, including head trauma, that she sustained in an accident Aug. 20.

She's gaining strength and better motor control. The physical therapists now have her standing with the help of parallel bars. She is able to read and enjoy the cards and letters she's receiving.

She is also getting frustrated at times by what she sees as slow progress. As might be anticipated, recovery from serious head trauma can be difficult, emotionally and physically.

What helps and encourages her are cards, letters and visits from friends as she continues her therapy.

Cards and letters may be sent to:

Dr. Alexis Clare

St. Mary's Hospital

89 Genesee Street

5th Floor - Rehab Unit

Rochester, NY 14611

Art Union meeting: Timber framing workshop!

The next meeting is this Wednesday, Sept. 26 in Harder Hall at the Moka Joka (2nd floor) at 9:30 p.m.

We are looking for students interested in learning traditional timber framing techniques which are used to build structures solely out of wood, using pegs as the system of construction instead of metal brackets. This is a wonderful opportunity for anyone who would like to build! It is a free workshop and all we would need is one or two weekends towards the end of October or the beginning of November. Come to the meeting to learn more!

You can prevent self-harm

Sept. 10 was World Suicide Prevention Day. It's easier than you think to help a student who may be considering self-harm. Asking about behavior and feelings, sharing your concern, and knowing a good referral, can be great first steps toward resolving problems.

It's a good idea to ask more about it when someone:

- * Talks or jokes about suicide
- * Drinks too much or uses other drugs
- * Gets unusually angry or violent
- * Takes dangerous risks or looks for hair-raising thrills
- * Stays away from friends and wants to be left alone
- * Loses interest in how he or she looks
- * Gives away belongings and favorite objects

People who are feeling depressed or have been through something extremely stressful may think about escaping their problems. If you're concerned about a student, and not sure what to do, call the Counseling and Student Development Center at 871-2300 or send a confidential email to csdc@alfred.edu . If you'd like more information you may visit www.suicidology.org
