

Nazareth downs AU women's volleyball in three games

9/24/02

ALFRED The Alfred University women's volleyball team (0-12, 0-6 Empire 8) was defeated in three games by nationally ranked Nazareth College Tuesday evening in the McLane center. Game scores were 18-30, 15-30, and 11-30. Senior setter Jill Culeton (Victor/Victor) and sophomore outside hitter Kathryn Lee (Winthrop, WA/Liberty Bell) both played a strong game at the net putting down seven kills a piece and adding six and three blocks respectively for the Lady Saxons. Senior setter Erin Murray (Candor/Candor) tallied 12 assists and added nine digs for AU. Freshman outside hitter Beth Sanger (Greece/Arcadia) also chipped in with three kills, three blocks, and seven digs. The Saxons next match will be Thursday, Sept. 26 at Cazenovia College at 6 p.m.
