This week's Lyceum

This week's Lyceum topic is "International Power Dynamics in the 21st Century." We'll be talking about what makes a super-power in the 21st century, and how China, Iran, Russia and others plan to challenge the United State in this century for global influence and domination.

If that doesn't do it for you, we'll have sweets 'n' treats to stimulate your interest. Friday, 3:20 p.m. in 103 Kanakadea Hall.

And remember, obey the turtle -- feed your brain!

Mock interviews for educators

The Career Development Center is offering mock interview appointments for students interested in education, school counseling, and/or school psychologist opportunities.

Mock Interview Dates: Tuesday, April 17 and Wednesday, April 18, 2007

Time: Appointments are available with start times from 1- 4:45 p.m.

Length of Appointment: Approximately 45 minutes

Location: At the Career Development Center

This is your opportunity to practice your interviewing skills with area public school administrators prior to any potential interviews and/or summer employment opportunities.

We have administrators from the following areas of public education participating:

- * District Superintendents
- * K-12 Principals
- * Middle School Principal
- * High School Principal
- * Directors of Curriculum

How to sign up:

Appointments are being scheduled by calling the Career Development Center at 607.871.2164. You are welcome to ask for a specific area of certification in relationship to your needs. Appointments are on a first-come, first-served basis with limited space available. Do not wait to sign up as we anticipate heavy participation for these mock interviews.

Roommate Connection

Reminder: Housing sign-ups are next week (4/18-19 - Susan Howell Hall). If you are lacking a roommate or one or more people to fill your suite or apartment, come to the Roommate Connection program, Sunday, 4/15 at 8 p.m. in the Openhym Lounge. This program is sponsored by the Office of Residence Life.

Staff will be there to assist in making those connections. Remember -- you must fill your suite (6) or apartment (4 or 6) to be eligible to live there. Also you will want to have a back-up plan should your first choice not work out.

Now hiring: Students for technical assistance

Hello,

Do you like learning by doing? Do you like technology and how it helps each of us in our daily lives? Do you like working with enthusiastic, intelligent people and helping others? If you do, there could be a place for you in Students for Technical Assistance, or STA!

We are a student-run organization that works from within Alfred's ITS department in several areas of computing:

- * Public Computer Lab Consultants, helping maintain and oversee public computer labs across campus
- * The ITS Helpdesk, helping faculty, staff and students with various computer-related issues
- * Tier 2 Technicians, using creative methods to solve advanced computer issues such as viruses and spyware
- * The Web Team, developing the databases and interfaces used by people on the AU Web pages
- * Equipment Lending, providing faculty, staff and students with the computers, projectors and other education-based technology

You don't need to be a technical genius to become an STA, just someone who is dependable and enthusiastic about learning about computers and helping people. And did I mention that you get paid!? $$

That's right, this isn't volunteer work, we are looking for enthusiastic people who want to be paid for their time and creativity. If you think you might be interested in joining an organization that provides you with technical, personal, and managerial experience, then please logon to <http://sta.alfred.edu> and click on Apply Today!

If you have any questions about STA and what we do, please do not hesitate to e-mail us at sta@alfred.edu.

Thank you,
John Kalish and Issac Austin
STA Directors
2006-2007
