ITS Notification Barracuda Filter

ITS has successfully moved its junk mail filtering to a new application called Barracuda. Part of Barracuda's process is to quarantine e-mails that are tagged as junk mail. Once an e-mail has been quarantined, Barracuda may then send you an e-mail stating that you have an e-mail in quarantine. If you see these notices from Barracuda they are legitimate ITS e-mails and you can open them and follow the instructions.

If you have not received these messages you can also see your quarantined email by going to <http://quarantine.alfred....> and typing in your entire e-mail address (username @alfred.edu) and your e-mail password.

If you want to change your quarantine settings, log into <http://quarantine.alfred....> and go to Preferences>Quarantine Settings>Quarantine Notification and choose your preference for the Notification Interval. Then click on the Save Changes tab.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the ITS Helpdesk at x2222.

Sexual and Workplace Harassment Training

Sexual and Workplace Harassment Training will be offered on Tuesday, Feb. 12, and Wednesday, Feb. 27 in Holmes Auditorium. It is MANDATORY for all employees to attend one of the sessions, even if you attended a session in 2003. Student Employees are encouraged to attend also.

Sessions will begin at 1:30 and last for approximately 2 hours. Training is required as a good business practice, but also is necessary to satisfy the requirements of the University's insurance carrier.

The presenter will be Leora Amir who is the President and CEO of Leora Amir & Associates, LLC, a workplace and personal development consulting firm. She holds a Doctorate in Law from Syracuse University, a Masters degree in Education, and a Bachelors degree in Political Science from Tufts University. Ms. Amir previously provided Sexual and Workplace Harassment training to our campus community in 2003.

Please feel free to direct any questions to Human Resources.

Clinton/Obama Campaign Talk

Two-time Emmy-winning CNN correspondent Mary Cardaras will lead an Alfred University audience through the back door of media coverage in the Clinton/Obama race during a lecture and questions-and-answer session, at 6 p.m., Monday, Feb. 18, in Nevins Theatre, Powell Campus Center on the AU campus. The program is open to the public free of charge.

Cardaras, a Boston-based political scientist and chairman of digital media and communications at The New England Institute of Art, will lecture on "From Hillary's Tears to the Obama Mystique: How media coverage shapes our perceptions and vote."

The Alfred University communications studies program is hosting the event. Program Chairman Dr. Robyn Goodman says Cardaras has personally interviewed Clinton and will share inside information regarding what Cardaras calls the liberal media's Obama bias. "She plans on giving a lively, 45-minute lecture followed by at least 30 minutes of questions and answers.

Math Talk

On Tuesday 2/12 we will be bringing in our final math candidate. He will speak at 12:20 p.m. in room 228, Myers Hall (NOT 11:20 as with other candidates) on " Ice Cubes to Stock Options: Free Boundary Problems Across Disciplines".

Abstract:

Applied mathematics is a popular topic, and rightly so -- the ability to use mathematics to solve problems in different disciplines is one of its greatest strengths, and a cornerstone of the liberal arts ideal. Often, though, applications to separate subjects look vastly different. The purpose of this talk is to introduce a particular type of differential equation problem that has virtually identical applications to physics and economics. Passing knowledge of beginning calculus is the sole prerequisite.

Alfred in Florence Informational Meeting!

INFORMATIONAL MEETING IS BEING HELD THIS FRIDAY THE 15TH IN PERLMAN ROOM 112 AT 4:30

Drawing Florence: City as subject

This course will invite you to investigate the historic background and contemporary significance of Florence in relation to its art, architecture and culture. This five-week, mixed-media drawing course will teach students how to explore this extraordinary location as a subject, placing themselves simultaneously in a historical, geographic, and experiential context, through sensory observation and the development of a visual and written travelogue. Each student will engage in the production of a series of drawings that will reflect their individual experiences and research of Florence.

Instructor: Angie To

This study abroad opportunity can be used as studio credit to fulfill your Upper-level drawing requirement.

Application Deadline: March 1

Study Art in Florence

Name That Space: A Contest to Name the Herrick Library Cafe

The cafe in Herrick Library needs a name! The name will be determined by contest, and everyone in the Alfred University community is invited to participate.

Contest rules:

*Contest is open to Alfred University faculty, students, staff, and community members

*One entry per person

*Entries will be judged by their creativity and how well they describe the cafe area

*The top five entries will be selected by a committee of Herrick librarians and staff

*Herrick's student employees will vote on the top five entries to identify first, second, and third place prizes

*The name of the person submitting the entry will be masked during judging

*The deadline for entries is Friday, March 7

*Winners will be announced on Friday, March 21

Get Registered to Vote

Alfred University stands behind the idea that we all benefit when a greater share of Americans register and vote.

Alfred University students often have a choice of registering and voting right here in Allegany County (if you have been a resident in your present address for at least 30 days before the election) or voting by absentee ballot in your home county or state. The choice is yours, but please plan to register and vote.

Voter Registration forms are available at the information desk of the Powell Campus Center and the Office of Special Academic Services. You can also download the registration form and get more information about voting in New York State, including instructions on how to vote by absentee ballot, at this Web site maintained by the NYS Board of Elections: <http://www.elections.stat...>

For information about other states registration deadlines and absentee ballot request deadlines you can visit <http://www.vote411.org/>.
