County with a Plan

Allegany County Outlook for 2030 approved

BELMONT—The Allegany County Board of Legislators Monday, Sept. 9 approved the 2019 county-wide Comprehensive Plan, titled “Our Vision, Our Mission: Outlook for 2030”

This marks the third version of the Comprehensive plan first released in 2008 and amended in 2013. This final version of the 2019 plan update marks the conclusion of the multi-year planning process; the expansive document was initially released for public comment back in March, which resulted in a great deal of useful feedback from Allegany County Government, public and private partner agencies, local clubs and organizations, and members of the county community.

This plan was completed entirely in-house with Planning Department Staff working with the Comprehensive Plan Committee. Final printing will be done by Alfred State College.

Director of Planning H. Kier Dirlam noted in remarks to the Legislature that “The work by the Comprehensive Plan Committee over the last few years has been great. They have gone through this plan page by page, line by line, word by word, checking everything to make sure it is as accurate as possible. They have thought about how each line will make an impact on the future of our County. The staff to the department has really stepped up with Michelle Denhoff completely reorganizing the plan and guiding much of the process and Angela McKay taking the plan to a new level with her language and graphic background. They are making all of us in Allegany County look good with this fine document.”

Mr. Dirlam continued his remarks explaining “The plan includes a newly updated Appendix Y that has an inventory of all open space assets in the county including fishing, kayak locations, forests, Town/Village parks, school facilities, and natural assets. It also includes a project list in Appendix Z that was developed with input by the Towns, Villages and agencies throughout the County. This shows that there is over $270,000,000 of currently known needed projects within our County. The document includes over 35 new maps of various topics as well as updated data on population and demographics.”

Originally created and approved by the Allegany County Legislature in 2008, Allegany County’s Comprehensive Plan provides a framework for growth and development objectives and strategies, and helps ensure appropriate provision of community services. The 2013 update was an award winning plan that received praise from the New York Upstate Chapter of the American Planning Association and the NY Planning Federation. Action areas encompassed in the 2019 revision of the Comprehensive Plan include Economic Development, Community and Rural Character, Infrastructure, and Government.

Later this month final hard copy versions of the Comprehensive Plan will be printed and distributed to the Legislators, County Departments, Towns, Villages, Agencies, Libraries and those needing a copy. The final electronic version of the Comprehensive Plan with access to all appendices and maps will be online at www.alleganyco.com later in September.

AU trustees renew Zupan’s contract for 3 years

ALFRED—The Board of Trustees at Alfred University has unanimously approved the renewal of Mark Zupan’s contract for another three-year term as Alfred University president. Zupan began serving as the 14th president of Alfred University in July 2016.

During Zupan’s first term as president, Alfred University developed and has begun implementing a five-year Strategic Plan for 2017-2022, which emphasizes transforming student lives, forging strength through inclusivity, and amplifying the University’s impact.

In 2018, two key initiatives which support the strategic plan were introduced: APEX and Common Ground. APEX, the University’s applied experiential learning program, provides grant funding to juniors and seniors to assist them in co-op, internship, study abroad, service learning, and research opportunities. APEX was piloted through a generous lead gift by trustee Michele Cohen and her husband, Marty, and has received added philanthropic support from numerous other alumni and friends. It is designed to amplify Alfred University’s Maker Culture through which students are afforded opportunities to put principles covered in the classroom into practice.

Common Ground, begun as a pilot program last fall, is now a one-credit course for first-year and transfer undergraduate students. Through small-group discussions facilitated by a faculty or staff member, Common Ground aims to strengthen Alfred University’s commitment to inclusivity and break down barriers of differences in culture, gender, race, religion and interests, allowing students to gain a better understanding of the different backgrounds, perspectives and aspirations that they bring to the Alfred University community.

Through Common Ground, all new undergraduate students also have the opportunity to commit to the values that they intend to live by as citizens of Alfred University. Common Ground has been underwritten through the generous support of Alfred University’s Board of Trustees. It has also received some additional philanthropic investments by other alumni and friends toward building an endowment for the endeavor, thereby ensuring its sustainability and incorporation into Alfred University’s DNA.

New student enrollment has increased, as have levels of philanthropy.

Since the 2017-18 academic year, first-year enrollment at Alfred University has grown by 12.4 percent. Enrollment of international students has gone up significantly as well, from seven in 2017 to 49 this year.

Exercise classes start Sept. 16

ALFRED—Due to circumstances beyond her control, i.e., Hurricane Dorian, exercise instructor Mary Lou Maxson was not able to be back from a trip to North Carolina until Wednesday, Sept. 11, thus postponing the start of exercise class in Alfred.

"So you can all wear your flip flops or go barefoot until Monday," she said, in announcing that exercise classes at the Union University Church Center in Alfred will begin again on Monday, Sept. 16.

Cost of the class is $2 per session and will be held from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays. For further information, call Mary Lou Maxson at 585-610-7626.

Area seniors are encouraged to "get ready to lace up those sneakers" and get back to exercising on Monday, Sept. 16.

Young Professionals plan Mentor Mixer

WELLSVILLE—Rising young professionals in Allegany County will once again have a chance to connect with mentors across business, industry, education, and government, at the Allegany County Young Professionals Group's 2nd Annual Mentor Mixer.

This year's event is being coordinated in partnership with members of the Leadership Allegany Class of 2020, whose aim is to increase awareness of the importance of keeping young leaders in our communities and increase participation in the Allegany County Young Professionals Group.

The Mentor Mixer will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 26 at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center and promises to be the group's biggest and best networking event of the year.

This year, the Allegany County Young Professionals will welcome author, speaker, small business owner, and higher-education administrator, Pamela Say, to the stage as the evening's headlining speaker. Say is currently the Vice-President for Institutional Advancement at D'Youville College, but her roots extend back to Allegany County, where she was formerly the Executive Director of Development at Houghton College and the driving force behind the creation of Leadership Allegany.

"We're thrilled to work with members of the Leadership Allegany Class of 2020 to host this event and excited to welcome Pamela Say as our guest speaker," said Tim Keenan, Chair of the Allegany County Young Professionals. "Last year's event was a great success — we received a lot of encouraging feedback from mentors and young professionals alike who had made positive connections at the event and we're confident that this year's event will be equally successful."

Retaining and attracting young professionals to the area has become more important than ever, as the population of Allegany County continues to decline and age. Adding new, young residents who want to live, work, or start their businesses here has the potential to dramatically impact Allegany County's economy, community, and tax base.

"The future economic vitality of Allegany County businesses, academic institutions, and communities is closely tied to our ability to retain and attract young professionals to Allegany County," said Angela McKay, Assistant Director of Economic Development & Planning at Allegany County. "As decision makers and leaders in our businesses, academic institutions, and communities, Allegany County mentors' engagement with a rising generation of leaders is vital for the future of a vibrant and sustainable Allegany County."

The Mentor Mixer will again kick-off a slate of social and service activities extending through the spring of 2020, including service events at the Wellsville Community Kitchen on Sept. 7 and Nov. 16, professional development opportunities, and the upcoming annual holiday gathering in December.

Penzeys publishes food magazine

[Editor's Note: Like most of the recipes she shared with our readers over the past couple of decades, Ellen Shultz's Sunny Side Up columns are worth repeating.]

Penzeys, the people who have all the marvelous spices, have now published a food magazine called Penzeys One. It's full of wonderful recipes, special hints, and ideas for using their spices. If you like to subscribe, or order any of their spices, the website is www.penzeys.com.

This is a salsa recipe from the first edition of their magazine. It combines all those fresh vegetable tastes with the smooth deliciousness of avocado.

Salsa With Avocado

|-------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1 ripe avocado | 1/4 tsp. granulated garlic |
| 2 med. tomatoes, chopped | 1/4 tsp. cumin |
| 1 med. red onion, finely minced | 1/4 tsp. salt |
| 1 T. fresh cilantro leaves, chopped | 1/4 tsp. Mexican oregano |
| 1 T. lime juice | 1/4 tsp. cayenne pepper |

Place chopped tomatoes, onion, cilantro, lime juice and seasonings in a medium glass or china bowl. Stir well to mix the flavors. Cut the avocado in half, carefully remove the skin, and chop into small pieces. Add to the bowl; stir gently to combine. Place a layer of plastic wrap on top of the bowl, putting on top of the salsa. This helps keep the avocado green.

That Village Hall roof

To the Editor:

Last week's photo of three steeples in Alfred, taken by Angus Powers from the bucket of Alfred 9, A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder's ladder truck, prompted this response on Facebook by former mayor, Gary Ostrower, "Like the Village Hall's standing metal roof? We preserved it nearly 30 years ago when a local roofing company recommended that we overlay it with rolled rubber. Not only did we preserve its aesthetic quality, but we saved the village thousands of dollars."

A belated THANK YOU to the people who made that long-ago decision to preserve the beautiful, though usually unseen, historical roof.

Thanks to everyone

Dear Editor,

Almond Community Day was once again a fun and profitable day! The Almond 20th Century Club Library would like to thank all who supported our yard sale, sausage and hot dog stand, and quilt raffle.

I'd like to thank to Liz Sherwood along with Chris Carter, Mary Jane Essex, Dakota Feenaughty, and other volunteers for their work on the yard sale, Johanna Stanton for riding in the parade and her service in directing the Library, Kathy Costello for cooking the sausage, Jack Muhleisen of Muhleisens Restaurant for preparing the peppers, Mary Fairchild for calling, shopping, working, and making sure we had propane, and Cindy Banker, Val Ewald, Todd Goho, Dan Hagerty, Doris Martin, Pat McEvoy, Dave and Elva Owlett, Jon and Deb Pierce, Carolyn Powers, Bev Schmidt, Helen Spencer, and Tom and David Steere for all their time and effort. I'd also like to thank Kyle Winans for installing a hood in the Library kitchen so that the stove may be operated more safely, and Eric Ewald for his expertise and time given toward building restoration and improvement.

Each contribution is appreciated and will help our Library continue to serve the community for years to come. We are still in need of major funding for the building by next April. Every little bit helps.

Gratefully,
Susan Steere
President,

Almond 20th Century Club
P.S. Thanks to Charles Emerson and the Almond Community Church for the use of their tables. It was truly a community effort!

A different way of conducting elections

As I was reading the Prejudices: Sixth Series by the inimitable H.L. Mencken, earlier today, I came across this amusing little passage in his essay From the Memoirs of a Subject of the United States. Since we are coming full into that recurring festive season of acrimony, pratfalls and general idiocy known as the election season, I found it delightfully apropos. Although written in the 1926, the picture painted by the "Sage of Baltimore" is as spot-on today as it was then. Ah, it's comforting to know that in life, some things never change!

"So my proposal is that our Legislatures be chosen as our juries are now chosen— that the names of all the men eligible in each assembly district be put into a hat (or, if no hat can be found large enough, into a bathtub), and that a blind moron, preferably of tender years, be delegated to draw out one. Let the constituted catchpolls then proceed swiftly to this man's house, and take him before he can get away. Let him be brought into court forthwith, and put under a stupendous bond to serve as elected, and if he cannot furnish the bond, let him be kept until the appointed day in the nearest jail.

The advantages that the system would offer are so vast and so obvious that I hesitate to venture into the banality of rehearsing them. It would, in the first place, save the commonwealth the present excessive cost of elections, and make political campaigns unnecessary. It would, in the second place, get rid of all the heart-burnings that now flow out of every contest at the polls, and block the reprisals and charges of fraud that now issue from the heart-burnings. It would, in the third place, fill all the State Legislatures with men of a peculiar and unprecedented cast of mind— men actually convinced that public service is a public burden, and not merely a private snap. And it would, in the fourth and most important place, completely dispose of the present knee bending and trading in votes, for nine-tenths of the legislators, having gotten into office unwillingly, would be eager only to finish their duties and go home, and even those who acquired a taste for the life would be unable to do anything to increase the probability, even by one chance in a million, of their reelection.

The disadvantages of the plan are very few, and most of them, I believe, yield readily to analysis. Do I hear argument that a miscellaneous gang of tin-roofers, delicatessen dealers and retired bookkeepers, chosen by hazard, would lack the vast knowledge of public affairs needed by makers of laws? Then I can only answer (a) that no such knowledge is actually necessary, and (b) that few, if any, of the existing legislators possess it. The great majority of public problems, indeed, are quite simple, and any man may be trusted to grasp their elements in ten days who may be— and is— trusted to unravel the obfuscations of two gangs of lawyers in the same time. In this department the so-called expertness of the so-called experts is largely imaginary. The masters of the tariff who sit at Washington know little about the fundamental philosophy of protection, and care less; the subject, if discussed on the floor, would send the whole House to the Capitol bootleggers. The knowledge that these frauds are full of is simply knowledge of how many votes an extra ten cents on aluminum dishpans may be counted on producing, and how much the National Association of Brass Cuspidor Manufacturers deserves to be given for its campaign contribution of $10,000. Such is the science of the tariff as it is practiced by the professors who now flourish. It is my contention that a House of malt-and-hop dealers, garage mechanics and trolley conductors, brought in by the common hangman, would deal with the question with quite as much knowledge, and with a great deal more honesty. It might make mistakes, but it would not, at least, be pledged to them in advance. Some of its members might sell out, but there would remain, at worst, a workable minority of honest men."

Ah, Mencken's barbed polemics are always a delight to my own contrarian nature! But in all honesty, after reading this can you say that his suggestion would be a change for the worse in our political "representatives"?

ALMOND COMMUNITY DAY

Parade, BBQ, yard sales, vendors, fun at park

By DAVID L. SNYDER
Editor, Publisher & Janitor

ALMOND—It seemed like all of the extended Almond Community was out celebrating its Day Saturday under sunny skies and comfortable temperatures.

Well, the water temperature in the dunking booth could have been more comfortable, but it served its purpose well, bringing joy to all. There's just something amusing about throwing a softball at a target, and, when hitting that bullseye, watching a volunteer "victim" splash into the cold water below.

Add to the fact that each participant had three balls for a $1, one hurler got a real deal, going three-for-three in dunking the AU basketball uniform-clad editor and publisher! It appears AU cager Sam Dagon can throw a softball nearly as accurately as he can shoot free throws, when properly motivated.

There were many characters taking the victim's seat including Mayor John Meehan, Adam "The Jedi" Dwyer, Todd "Elvis Pressley" Goho, and even Hillary "Dan Hegarty" Clinton was behind the bars of the dunking booth and was dunked a few times.

Friends (and, perhaps, enemies) showed up to take shots at all these characters throughout the day. All the proceeds of the "Shoot with the Saxons" and "Dunking Contest" at Greg Norton Memorial Park will go directly into the revitalization of the park/playground.

Thanks to dunking booth sponsors Andrew Call, MD, and Ryan Agencies!

Next door on the lawn of Mullen Carpets, Lance Trudell offered fun for kids of all ages with lasertag, with plenty enjoying the activity.

Yard sales were everywhere, the Almond Fire Department held a chicken barbecue and conducted a boot drive, and there were vendors galore in the Almond Village Park.

Everyone seemed to enjoy all the festivities. Kudos to the event organizers!

Almond Community Church had plenty of characters aboard the ark float.

The Side Porch Ballet was well represented.

Tail, Trail of a Truck

By SHERRY VOLK
Alfred Sun Reporter
ALFRED—Members of A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Company recently celebrated the payment by Treasurer Tim Cox of the final installment on the loan for Alfred 9, the 48-foot, 2006 model ladder truck, captained by Valarie Gregory. According to Bob Pipal, former president of the company, the truck was purchased from the city of College Station, TX, in late August 2012. The truck arrived in its new home in January 2013, having had some modifications done in Alabama on the way. The purchase price was $500,000, which was covered by $300,000 in department investment funds, and a $200,000 loan from Community Bank. The last payment on the seven-year loan was $2,653.88. The cost to replace this vehicle with a new one would be in the neighborhood of 1.5 million dollars. Now that the ladder truck is fully “ours,” what is next on the financial horizon for the fire department? Glad you asked. “The department has a long and excellent history of deep financial planning,” according to Chief Paul Weaver, and “although we’ve occasionally been caught off guard by the rate of cost increases of apparatus, we do make serious efforts to look decades into the future with our investment plans.” Saving for eventual replacement of Alfred 1, the pumper, and Alfred 2, the tank truck, has already begun. While you sleep and pursue your daily activities, the many volunteers at Crandall Hooks continue to care about and support your health, safety, and well-being. Might you consider joining us and adding your skills and capabilities to this great community service organization?

AU's Guzheng Ensemble to perform in D.C.

ALFRED—A trio of students making up Alfred University's Guzheng Ensemble will travel to the nation's capital this weekend to perform during the 2019 Confucius Institute U.S. Center National Honors Gala.

The Guzheng Ensemble, under the direction of Daisy Wu, visiting professor of music and director of the Confucius Institute at Alfred University, will perform Saturday, Sept. 14, at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C. Members of the Ensemble are students David Fuller, Ty Heyden and Nellie Dennis.

Each year, the Confucius Institute U.S. Center celebrates the global education and cross-cultural exchange between the United States and China. The National Honors Gala will recognize the achievements and contributions of 10 outstanding Confucius Institute students from around the United States.

In a letter inviting the Alfred University group to perform, organizers told Wu, "We believe your exceptional music ensemble performance of the Chinese traditional instrument guzheng on the stage of Gala event will bring a special cultural flavor."

Fuller, an accounting major from Groton, and Dennis, a psychology major from Buffalo, are seniors; Heyden, a sophomore from Mount Shasta, CA, is an art and design major.

For Fuller, this will mark his second performance on the big stage in the last month. On Aug. 24 and 25, he participated in the 2019 New York Chinese Instruments International Competition in New York City. Competing against 30 Chinese musical instrument players from the U.S., Canada and China, Fuller took first place in the Young Adult Group for his performance on guzheng.

Alfred University is one of a very few colleges in the United States with a special curriculum in music education focused on Chinese musical instruments. In collaboration with the Confucius Institute at Alfred University, Alfred University's Division of Performing Arts has since 2010 offered a credit-bearing course, "Music of Guzheng," taught by Wu.

In response to students' enthusiasm for guzheng, the University founded the Guzheng Ensemble in 2011 with Wu as its Artistic Director. Since then, more than two hundred Alfred University students have learned to play guzheng, and about 100 students have joined the Guzheng Ensemble.

Alfred University is the first U.S. college to offer the opportunity for students to learn guzheng and perform in a guzheng ensemble for credit. Sponsored by the Confucius Institute at Alfred University, the Guzheng Ensemble has given many successful concerts, not only on campus, but also at other cultural exchange events in the U.S. and even in China, where the group made its international debut in 2014.

Alfred University's Guzheng Ensemble enjoys a great reputation. In 2014, the Ensemble participated in the Global Confucius Institute Chinese New Year Gala and won the third-place prize. In 2016 and 2019, the ensemble won Gold Medals at the New York Chinese Musical Instrument International Competition in New York City.

'Layer Mask' to open at AU gallery

ALFRED—Layer Mask, an exhibition featuring new work from United States-based artists that includes painting, photography, sculpture and video, opens Friday, Sept. 13, at the Fosdick-Nelson Gallery on the Alfred University campus.

An opening reception for Layer Mask will be held at the gallery Sept. 13 from 6-8 p.m.; the exhibition will remain on view through Oct. 18.

Lydia McCarthy, associate professor of photography in Alfred University's School of Art and Design, proposed the exhibition. "Masks are used to obscure, protect and disguise. They hide and deceive: decorative, playful, repulsive, terrifying. In layering and masking, there is freedom and control, enabling manipulation. Throughout our lives we build, modify and reinforce masks we wear – culturally created masks that keep us from connecting with the complicated, multifaceted moment that we are in. They reduce our inner life to a honed and limited exterior," McCarthy said her exhibition statement.

"The works in Layer Mask exist in paradox, masking and layering material to reveal a tactile, messy, colorful, at times disturbing, reality. These artists re-complicate and force confrontation with the present moment, undermining notions of what is acceptable. The surface reveals hidden layers, remnants of what lies beneath, truths to be discovered with effort and time."

Artwork by the following is included in Layer Mask: Ellen Bahr, Amy Brener, Melissa Brown, Whitney Hubbs, David Kennedy-Cutler, Tatiana Kronberg, Michael Mahalchick, Lydia McCarthy, Linda Sormin, and Ryan Wallace. Fosdick-Nelson Gallery hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1-3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

WELLSVILLE—The David A. Howe Public Library will host Roger Pettengill's Songwriter Show at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 19 in the Nancy Howe Auditorium at 155 N. Main Street, Wellsville.

Five different performers, as well as Roger himself, will take the stage for this show.

Bernard Fancher plays his heartfelt songs at many open mic nights. Victoria Kearns songs reflect her devoted passion and love of music. Michael Smith has been writing songs for many years. From heartfelt to humorous, he has done it all. Gary London has played in many bands, and continues to do so today. He covers a wide variety of topics in his songs. Joel Jordan's beautiful ballads will touch the soul of every age group.

And Roger Pettengill, your emcee for the evening, can be found playing live at many local establishments, sometimes going by the name Jolly Roger.

This concert is free and open to the public and will take place at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 19 in the Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library in Wellsville.

This project is funded in part by the Decentralization Regrant Program of the New York State Council of the Arts. This program, with the support of Gov. Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature, is administered by the Tri-County Arts Council.

Nutrition in a Nutshell

 and Alfred Sun Columnist*

Musings of Meal Prep

What are some reasons people struggle to make necessary dietary changes for their health? What are some of the reasons you have given in the past or right now? I believe there are tools with which we can equip ourselves to not only make a healthy lifestyle easier, but make it nearly unavoidable. With a kitchen stocked with healthy ingredients and meals, saying "no" to poor choices is so much easier! Today, I want to discuss with you one of those vital tools, meal prep.

Meal prep is is not strictly or exclusively preparing all your meals ahead for your week. This can be great, but also overwhelming or impractical for some individuals or families. Rather, I define meal prep as the following, "Dedicating a block of time to batch-cook ingredients and/or prepare full meals for the week ahead, to make feeding yourself and your family easier each day."

It can be as simple as baking large batches of meat and chopping a bunch of veggies for salads and stir-frys, or as involved as cooking and portioning full recipes. Meal prep will not only make healthier eating easier, it also gives you a head start to your week, enabling you to spend your time more efficiently.

So, if meal prep is so great, and a well stocked refrigerator would enable you and your family to eat healthier, why is it so hard to start or continue utilizing this tool? I believe it is because there are different styles to meal prep, based on your health goals, budget, routine, time, and cooking experience. The process to discover your style can be fun and freeing. To counter any obstacles, here is a little exercise for you to work through. It will be the start to streamline your meal prep style and effectively stock your kitchen with healthy food for a thriving family!

Take out a pen and paper and answer the questions to the following categories:

Goals: What is my current health goal? What are the foods with which I want to fill my home in order to support a healthy lifestyle for myself and my family? Defining goals will enable you to gather any recipe resources and build your shopping list.

Budget: How much money can I spend on meal prep? While to some people, this can stop them from even starting, it should actually be very encouraging! Meal prep saves you money because you don't have to grab fast and convenient foods that cost more dollars. You don't have to meal prep with the most expensive ingredients. Choose cost effective veggies and cuts of meat to get started.

Routine: What is my weekly routine that impacts my meal times? Examples: Factors such as working from home vs. an office job vs. frequent travel will greatly impact your need for meal prep. Other details include when you leave for work and return home. It may be easy and relaxing to make dinner each night but prepping lunch is more essential.

Time: What time can I set aside for meal prep? When and how much? We can't always make more time for meal prep, but if necessary we can cut out a different activity to prioritize meal prep. And if meal prep means you are eating to nourish your body it is definitely a necessity! Be creative. A time efficient tip is to prepare an extra serving of dinner to use for lunch the following day. Make yourself a "meal prep appointment" and then show up! As you do this, you should find that you have MORE time in your week! (...and less dishes to wash every day!)

Cooking Experience: With my experience, how can I confidently start meal prepping in the kitchen? Do I work best using a recipe or intuitively crafting my own meals? It can feel a little tedious to plan all your recipes and build a menu for a few days or a week at a time. However, this gets much easier with experience. Many individuals simply batch cook ingredients. Then, the day of, craft a desired meal from those ingredients.

Want to learn more about meal prep? I am teaching a FREE meal prep workshop this Sunday, Sept. 15 from 1:30-3 p.m. at the Rogue Carrot in Alfred. You will learn the keys to build a healthy plate, discuss your meal prep style, plan your weekly meal prep based on your style, tips for creative snacks and meals, and more! Space is limited, so contact me to register and save your seat!*

ALFRED FARMERS MARKET

Farmers Market features music by Casual Reply, basket making

ALFRED—What are you doing this weekend? This week, on Sunday, Sept. 15, the Alfred Farmers Market will be the place to be for excellent local food, music, art, and culture.

Casual Reply will be the musical performer from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Casual Reply features John Spicer and Michelle Liberton performing acoustic folk, light rock, and country favorites.

Individuals of all ages and abilities can join in the fun and be entertained with hands on educational and hands on activities. The Family Activities tent will feature Basket Making in which you make a basket with a cereal box and raffia. A handcrafted mug made by local artist Cory Brown will be raffled as a fundraiser for the market. Don't miss out on this one of a kind item!

This week only, the Alfred Farmers Market will feature bulk green beans. Justin Ellison, from White Valley Farm in Whitesville, will be at the market selling half bushel boxes (approximately 10 lb) of green beans for $15. This is the perfect opportunity to can or freeze local food for the winter!

The Alfred Farmers Market wouldn't exist if not for the dedicated farmers and artisans that regularly attend. The highlighted vendor of this week is Designs by Scaryann. Mary Ann Carpenter of Belfast uses the process of winding, cutting and weaving her own jump rings into chainmaille and beaded jewelry. She even weaves chainmaille during the market, so you can see how it's made. Be sure to check her, and all of the other producers, out at the market!

The Alfred Farmer's Market is located at the Alfred Village Bandstand on the corner of Main and Saxon Drive. Market days are every Sunday from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. from June 16 to Oct. 27.

SNAP/EBT, WIC checks and FMNP (Farmers Market Nutrition Program) and senior checks are accepted. Meet your friends, neighbors and farmers every Sunday and enjoy the bounty of the season. For more information, visit their website AlfredFarmersMarket.com or Like the Alfred Farmers Market on Facebook.

Star Watch

By ML WELLS
Alfred Sun Columnist

Summer intervened as I was traveling around the world following real and imaginary lines.

Back in 1938 my dad, part of the 4th Division, the China Marines, and my mom were sent to Shanghai, China, a four-year deployment. In October 1940, all dependents were evacuated home. It took us three months to reach San Francisco. Crossing the equator in the Southern Hemisphere, we stopped at Samoa and Figi. A few weeks later we passed the International Date Line at 180° on Thursday, which became Wednesday! Some lowly sailor had to climb the mast every hour with his coke bottle binoculars crying out, "Thursday, Thursday, where art thou, Thursday?"

Near the end of the war we were sent to Panama to guard the canal. In doing so we crossed the Tropic of Cancer where on June 21 the sun at noon is at the zenith and summer for us in the North begins.

Eleven years ago, I flew to Italy for my daughter's wedding. Crossing the Prime Meridian at 0°, I was now in the Eastern Hemisphere.

This March I went to Finland. Inarai at almost 70°, sits above the Arctic Circle at 66 1/2° N.

Along with the equator and two Tropics, the Arctic and Antarctic Circles are the five natural lines drawn on the earth by the yearly path of the sun.

If you lived on the line 66 1/2° N. then on one day, the Summer Solstice on about June 21 the sun would not set. The farther north you lived, the more days until you reached the North Pole where the sun never set for six months! The reverse is true in winter.

Here is a problem to consider, all you mid-latitude folks. Say you live at 80° N. and the sun never sets for four months. Well, then, where does it go??

Any of you have photos? Send to the Alfred Sun with a date and place. No cheating. Your photos of YOU being there. Have fun.

P.S. This column is called "Star Watch." Remember, the sun is "our" star.

Compiled By DAVID L. SNYDER
Alfred Sun Editor and Publisher
50 Years Ago, September 12, 1969

The Rev. Edward Sutton was installed as the new pastor of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church at a joint worship service with the Alfred church, Saturday, Sept. 6...Mr. Sutton comes to Alfred Station from the New Auburn, Wis., SDB Church. He is a graduate of Salem College, Salem, W.Va., and Crozier Theological Seminary. He is married to the former Briana Pratt of Salem, and they are parents of two children: Terri 8, and Jeffrey 4...

Gaining entrance by breaking a door at the rear of the building, burglars gained entrance to Alfred-Almond Central School sometime Monday night or early Tuesday, ransacking the office, damaging the building by fire, and escaping with some $1800. Apparently using tools taken from the school shop, the safe in the front office was burned through by use of an acetylene torch. The $1800, collections from student insurance and first cafeteria proceeds, was more than the school ordinarily carries in the safe...

Alfredians—Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Rase and children returned to Alfred Sunday after spending the summer at their summer home in Quonochontong, R.I...Alfred University Football Season Tickets are now available at the Treasurer's office, downstairs in Carnegie Hall. In accordance with the policy set up by County Democratic Chairman Gus Rigas of Wellsville, the Almond Democrats nominated a full slate of officers to oppose Republican nominees at the Nov. 4 General Election. In a resolution approved by the Party members, the Democrats endorsed GOP nominee Gary Fraser for town supervisor, with the expectation that the Republicans would endorse and support the Democratic candidate, Lee R. Ryan of Almond, for county legislator from District 5. The Democrats named Carol Woughter for the posts of town clerk and tax collector; Keith Doty, councilman; Henry George, assessor, short term; Conrad Schmidt, assessor long term; Dale Lorow, town justice; and endorsed incumbent Ronald Brutsman as superintendent of highways. At the Republican caucus, James Woughter defeated incumbent Ruth Sisson, as the nominee for town justice. Mr. Fraser was nominated for supervisor; incumbent Evelyn Kane for town clerk and tax collector; George Brown, councilman; Dan George, assessor long term; Clair Rossman, assessor, short term; and re-named Mr. Brutsman who is serving as highway superintendent as an appointee, to that post. The local election will be an interesting one to Almond voters, with Mrs. Woughter seeking the town clerk and tax collector's posts on the Democratic ticket and Mr. Woughter seeking the position of town justice on the Republican ticket...

150 Years—Alfred State College's Hinkle Memorial Library was the site August 26 for a reception celebrating the 150th anniversary of "The Sabbath Recorder," the official newspaper of the Seventh Day Baptist denomination. Church officials, Alfred State College library personnel, and community residents turned out to mark the occasion. Here, Linda Lewandowski, instructional support assistant in the library; Pastor Kenneth Chroniger of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church; and "Recorder" Editor Kevin Butler, look over a display of the newspaper's memorabilia. Back and current issues (the newspaper today is published as a monthly magazine) of "The Recorder" are stored at Alfred State College in special boxes and metal shelves to keep them from deteriorating...

Alfred University Political Science Professor Robert Heineman garnered the most votes in the Republican Primary Tuesday for Allegany County District V Legislator. Heineman, a former Alfred Village Trustee and Village Justice, received 371 votes in District V, in unofficial results announced by the Allegany County Board of Elections Tuesday night. They have interesting stories to tell of service as Navy Seabees during World War II...My brother Gerald Rogers and his wife Nora who visited us last week, brought snapshots of family members and boyhood days. One of the happiest was of the Shetland pony we boys rode until we were too big and heavy for his short legs. Less happy were the days we were quarantined because of Scarlet Fever and Whooping Cough...Pity the poor Macedonians, too close to shipping trade routes and Russian military blockades. THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, September 12

For her role in the critical years before--and during--the War for Independence, and for the many Patriots she nurtured, Boston has been called "The Cradle of Liberty." In September of 1768, her indomitable spirit was manifest in the declaration of the Boston Gazette:

"If an army should be sent to reduce us to slavery, we will put our lives in our hands and cry to the Judge of all the earth... Behold, how they come to cast us out of this possession which Thou hast given us to inherit. Help us, Lord, our God, for we rest on Three, and in Thy name we go against this multitude."

ALLEGANY COUNTY--"Together" is the theme as Allegany County churches participate in this year's national Back to Church Weekend observance.

Several churches, the largest concentration of any county across New York's Southern Tier, will focus Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 15-16, on an end-of-summer and beginning of fall church connection or re-connection to individuals and families within their service areas.

Back to Church Sunday congregations include Almond Community Church, 11 South Main Street; Knights Creek Church, 2987 Knights Creek Road (County Road 9), Scio; and the Salvation Army, 25 East Pearl Street, The Presbyterian Church, 68 North Main Street, and Brookside Wesleyan, 3456 Andover Road (State Route 417 East), all of Wellsville.

Other neighboring churches outside the county include the Epic Church of Olean and the First Presbyterian Church of Canisteo.

Over 13,000 churches are expected to participate nationally in this year's event which encourages people "to come together at church where they will find a gathering of people who are growing together spiritually, who are applying their faith to everyday challenges and who help and support one another, as well as the community at large."

"From the very beginning, the church has been a place for all kinds of people," national event organizers say, noting "the church was born on a Sunday in Jerusalem when thousands of Jews from around the world gathered for one of the major yearly festivals (called the Feast of Weeks). That was the occasion God chose to send his Holy Spirit to fill Jesus' first followers and enable them to speak to people from every part of the known world."

As the second decade of Back to Church Sunday occurs this year, they add that "the church is not a building."

College earns ‘dairy of distinction’

ALFRED—In addition to its reputation as an excellent hands-on learning facility, the Alfred State College Farm is now also recognized for being attractive and well-maintained after earning a “Dairy of Distinction” award.

According to its website, the Dairy of Distinction program recognizes the hard work and dedication of dairy owners and operators “who have attractive, well-kept farms and promote a good dairy industry image.”

College Farm Manager Virginia Chamberlain said, “The farm staff is delighted to see this award reinstated. We will continue to work hard to have our facilities, our livestock groups, and our robotic dairy be proud examples for Alfred State College.”

Dr. Phil Schroeder, chair of the Agriculture and Veterinary Technology Department, said, “The Alfred State College Farm is one of the most technologically advanced agricultural teaching facilities in the United States, and we are thrilled that our farm has earned this recognition.”

Alfred State Chief Financial Officer Joseph Greenthal said, “We are very proud of this accomplishment. Alfred State has worked hard to revitalize our college farm. Agriculture is our history, and we strive to make sure it has a solid foothold in our future. This recognition is vindication we are moving in the right direction.”

The Dairy of Distinction Program, according to its website, is “based on the concept that attractive farmsteads enhance consumer confidence in the dairy industry. The award also recognizes the hard work and efforts of all Northeast dairy farmers.”

All active dairy farms in Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Vermont are eligible to apply for the Dairy of Distinction award, the website states. Winning farms receive a special roadside sign for their farmstead.

Two profs awarded FuzeHub Manufacturing Grants

ALFRED—Two Alfred University professors have been awarded FuzeHub Manufacturing Grants which will support a pair of manufacturing projects utilizing three-dimensional printing.

The grants, from the Jeff Lawrence Innovation Fund, are administered by FuzeHub, a non-profit agency that provides New York State manufacturers with guided access to its extensive network of industry experts, programs and assets to solve productivity, commercialization, research and development issues, and other challenges to growth.

Dr. S.K. Sundaram, Inamori Professor of materials science and engineering, and Dr. Junjun Ding, assistant professor of materials science and engineering, were each awarded $50,000 in grant funding.

Ding's grant project partners Alfred University with Bonbouton, a smart fabrics manufacturer based in Long Island City, which provides comprehensive preventative health solutions using wearable graphene sensors and connected software.

Bonbouton is developing shoe insoles that can detect early signs of diabetic foot ulcers in patients before they form. A continuous foot temperature monitoring system will offer a remote readout, providing real-time notifications to the user, and a connected dashboard accessible to healthcare providers and caregivers.

The project will develop an extrusion-based 3-D printing technology to manufacture conductive one-dimensional fibers and two-dimensional patterns for flexible and functional textiles using carbon nanomaterials-based composites of polydimethylsiloxane (PDMS), a widely used silicon-based organic polymer. Ink containing a composite of graphene – a material consisting of a single layer of carbon atoms, tightly bound in a hexagonal honeycomb lattice – will be used to 3-D print conductive/flexible material which can be used in a host of medical applications, including Bonbouton's shoe insole.

According to Bonbouton, the insoles are comfortable to wear, simple to use, and can help prevent the approximately 200 diabetes-related amputations that occur in the United States daily.

Ding and Chao Liu, a second-year doctoral student at Alfred University, will conduct research on the project from Ding's research laboratory. They are working with officials from Bonbouton, including company founder Linh Le, to complete the project.

"We're so excited to collaborate with Dr. Junjun Ding and Alfred University to develop novel printing technologies for textile-based sensors," Linh Le said. "This work will tremendously expand Bonbouton's technical core competency in manipulating graphene-based materials for a variety of wearable applications, offering a new way to 3-D print graphene on textile substrates."

Sundaram's project partners with Lithoz America, LLC, a Troy, NY-based company that has developed a system for the additive manufacture of ceramics suited for industrial and medical applications. Additive manufacturing is a process that produces layers of materials that, when placed together, create three-dimensional objects. The project will utilize the Lithoz CeraFab 8500 3-D printer housed in Alfred University's Ceramic Research Education and Technology Enterprise (CREATE) Center.

In Sundaram's project, 3-D printing technology will be used to develop a model for additive manufacturing of solid state fuel cells and batteries. This project will be the first step towards making all solid-state energy devices using additive manufacturing on a commercial scale. Solid-state energy devices have numerous advantages in terms of energy efficiency, compactness, form factor, low corrosion with no liquid or melt, and longer life.

The additive manufacturing will also dramatically cut the cost to manufacture with significant reductions in material loss due to generally reductive approaches used in manufacture of these materials and devices. It is expected to be finished in one year, with a graduate assistant working with Sundaram on its completion.

Alfred University's Lithoz CeraFab 8500 3-D printer, manufactured by Lithoz America, LLC was purchased last year through a U.S. Department of Energy Nuclear Energy University Program grant that covered 80 percent of the $509,850 cost of the equipment. The Inamori School of Engineering contributed the remaining 20 percent through its New York State-funded Center for Advanced Ceramic Technology (CACT). Alfred University alumnus Shawn Allan '02 (B.S., materials science and engineering) is vice president of Lithoz America.

College holds block party for last bit of summer fun

ALFRED—Many people would agree that summer always seems to go by too quickly.

As a way to capture that last bit of summer fun and relax a little before classes start, more than 500 new and returning Alfred State College students gathered recently for an annual block party that closes out the school's Week of Welcome activities each year.

According to Coordinator of Student Activities Brittany Richards, this year's block party featured inflatables, a mechanical shark, kettle corn, cotton candy, caricatures, a performance by DJ Cipa Sounds, campus store gift card giveaways, and even jerk chicken cooked by a culinary student and members of the Caribbean Student Association. Members of the Alfred State President's Council even turned out to serve ice cream to the students.

"The block party went very well!" Richards said. "We had a lot of amazing student employees helping to set up and tear down the event. Also, several organizations volunteered their time to help cook food, host stations, or do activities, including Alpha Sigma Sorority, Pi Nu Epsilon Sorority, and the Caribbean Student Association. Overall, the block party was a lot of fun and a great way to close out the summer."

During that same time, Presidential Scholarships awarded have increased by 82.4 percent, from 57 in 2017-18 to 104 this year.

In addition, the University last year formalized partnerships with law schools at the University at Buffalo and Syracuse University. The agreements allow students to complete their Alfred University Bachelor of Arts degree requirements and law degree requirements in six years, saving one full year of time and tuition. Agreements with Syracuse University also give Alfred University students the opportunity to enroll full-time in one of the master's degree programs offered through Syracuse University's Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs or S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications.

New cash and commitments for fiscal year 2019 totaled just more than $36 million, double the $18 million in new commitments for fiscal year 2018. The Alfred Fund totaled $1.92 million last fiscal year, an all-time high that topped the previous year's record of $1.7 million. In addition, membership in Saxon Circle – Alfred University's five-year leadership giving society – increased by 75 members, from 452 in fiscal year 2018 to 527 last year.

Greg Connors '92, chair of the Board of Trustees, praised President Zupan for the University's accomplishments under his leadership.

"In renewing Mark's contract for another term as president of Alfred University, the Alfred University Board of Trustees has reaffirmed its confidence in Mark's leadership and in the direction he has set in his first term, Connors remarked. "President Zupan has clearly demonstrated the vision and leadership skills needed to meet the challenges facing higher education in general and Alfred University in particular in the years ahead, and to execute the strategic plan he and his team have developed. As chairman, I am particularly grateful that he will remain at the helm for another three years."

Zupan expressed appreciation for the Board's confidence in him and said "Alfred University is an extraordinary place and it remains a great privilege and honor to continue serving as its president."

MIGHTY MAKERS 4H

4Hers rev up new year

ALFRED—The Mighty Makers 4H club revved up the new year with a meeting revolving around succulents! After a short lesson about the plant and how to grow more plants without seeds, the members proceeded to each make a succulent garden with multiple succulents and figurines, enough to tell a story! Members also planted leaves in the hope that more succulents would grow without seeds. It was great to come back together and start a new 4H year!

ALFRED-ALMOND SPORTS ROUND-UP

A-A girls suffer first loss in tourney title game

By BARB WELCH
Alfred Sun Sports Reporter
ALMOND—Coach Jim Lucey’s A-A Girls Varsity soccer team finished as runner-ups in the Keshequa Tournament on Friday evening, Sept. 6. Despite scoring first and going into the half time period with a 1-0 lead, A-A gave up four unanswered goals in the final 40 minutes.

Amy Evingham scored the first half goal , assisted by Emily Agnello. Morgan Davidson had 8 saves including a penalty kick in the waning moments of the match.

A-A had defeated Notre Dame of Batavia, 2-1 to advance to the championship game versus host Keshequa. Maeve Looney scored both Eagle goals in the win over the Irish. Morgan Davidson made 6 saves in the evenly-played match.

The team is now 3-1 on the season, having previously defeated Canisteo-Greenwood 3-1 and Odessa Montour 6-2 to capture the Campbell-Savona Tournament title.

Against Canisteo-Greenwood, Emily Agnello had a goal and two assists, Maeve Looney had a goal and assist, and Amy Evingham had a goal to lead the Eagles. Morgan Davidson had 6 saves in the A-A net.

Against Odessa Montour, Maeve Looney had a hat trick for A-A, with Avery Libordi, Amy Evingham and Emily Agnello also scoring. Celeste Badeau had two assists and Isabel Badeau had an assist for A-A. Morgan Davidson made 12 saves.

The Eagles hosted Canisteo-Greenwood Tuesday and travels to Addison today (Thursday, Sept. 12) with a 6 p.m. start.

Girls Jayvees now 2-2
Coach Kert Decker’s Girls’ JV Soccer team won the consolation bracket of the Keshequa tournament on Sept. 6 with a 3-1 win over Letchworth. Chloe Hann scored the first and last goals of the game off two Kaiden Mergeson assists. Kaiden had a goal that was assisted by Sarah Johnston. Keeper Lexi Rao had an excellent game in goal with some great saves to help preserve the win. The team is now 2-2 on the young season and is ready to improve on that mark.

Boys Varsity splits games at Cohocton Tournament
The Boys Varsity Soccer Team started the season slowly last Wednesday, Sept. 4 in Cohocton, losing to the Big Green of Naples 1-0. The Eagles had more quality chances than Naples, outshooting them 21-10 and leading 6-3 in corners, but their chances fell short.

The Eagles headed back to Cohocton for a 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6 match with Wellsville. They earned their first victory by beating Wellsville 3-1. Sophomore Garrett Burys made three saves behind a stout Eagles defense that permitted just five shots and two corners.

Dylan Coots scored his first of the year in the 4th minute of play on an assist provided by Aquila Cushing, and added a second goal 24 minutes later by making good on a Jack Emo assist. JV call-up Gavin Dwyer added insurance in the 2nd half with a left-booted put back for his first varsity goal.

The 1-1 Eagles soared to the “Coolest Little Town in America” on Monday, Sept. 9 for their first-ever league match with the Hammond-sport Lakers.

JV boys beat Way-Co, 1-0
The boys JV soccer team traveled to Cohocton Friday and came up victorious, defeating tournament host Wayland-Cohocton, 1-0. The Eagles once again used a set piece opportunity to put the ball in the net. Freshman Jack Byrnes struck a beautiful corner kick that found the head of Shane Davidson. Shane flicked the ball perfectly into the upper right hand corner of the net and over the hands of the keeper.

The boys held on for the remaining 30 minutes to secure the victory. With only one sub to turn to, the boys really dug deep for the win. They were exhausted and bruised by game’s end, but they never gave up. All twelve boys contributed to the win.

The Boys JV soccer team was to host Campbell-Savona yesterday, Wednesday, Sept. 11.

Saxons defeat Thiel, host George Fox Saturday

GREENVILLE, PA—The Alfred University football team opened its 2019 campaign with a dominant, non-conference win at Thiel College, 42-0, Saturday afternoon at Thiel's Alumni Stadium.

The Saxons (1-0, 0-0 Empire 8) marched to touchdowns on each of their first five possessions, taking a 35-0 halftime lead.

"I was glad to see our team get off to a 1-0 start today," Head Coach Bob Rankl said. "We certainly did not play a perfect game but our guys came out and played very physical football for four quarters. In order for us to get where we want to be we need to eliminate all mental errors moving forward. That's our goal for next week."

The Saxon offense was a production machine as they totaled 520 yard of offense with 325 of them coming from the ground game. The defense, after yielding 65 yards on a 14-play Tomcat march to start the game, held the Tomcat offense to only 107 yards—just five yards on the ground.

That promising opening drive ended at the AU 5-yard-line when senior captain Nick Milgate (Hilton) forced a fumble, which was grabbed by Russell Koehler (Seaford). AU did not punt once and had one fumble lost.

AU, with QB Ben Burk (Lakewood/Southwestern)

mixing the pass and run, marched methodically to paydirt. Aaron Griffin (Queens/Holy Cross) ran five times for 27 yards while Burk hit Zach Leinenbach (Penfield) for a 30 yard gain the Thiel 14-yard-line. Burk ran to the 1-yard-line on the next play. Kevin Bragaglia (Holbrook/Sachem North) punched it in from one yard out.

Griffin had a one-yard TD run, QB Casey Boston (Brooklyn/Midwood) ran it in from 12 yards out, Bragaglia scored on a four-yard run, and A.O. Othman (Syracuse/Christian Brothers Academy) snagged a 14-yard pass from Burk to account for the 35-0 halftime lead.

Dustin McCaslin (Ashville/Chautauqua Lake) made all six PAT's on the day but missed field goal attempts from 27 and 32 yards. The first attempt hit the right upright, while the second one was just wide left.

Defensively, AU was led by senior captain, Leo Pamphile (Spring Valley) as he had 10 total tackles with seven solo tackles. He had 5.0 tackles for a loss of 25 yards and of those, 4.0 were sacks for total losses of 24 yards to the Thiel offense. Milgate and Raeqwon Greer (Buffalo/Canisius) had eight and six tackles each, all six of Greer's being solo hits and Milgate with six solos as well.

AU will host George Fox University from Oregon at 1

Senior captain, Leo Pamphile (Spring Valley) earned Empire 8 Co-Defensive Player of the Week on Monday afternoon, as announced by the E8 Associate Commissioner, Joe Venniro. Pamphile helped the Alfred University Saxons open up the 2019 season with a strong start as they topped Thiel College on the road, 42-0. Pamphile was part of the defense that only allowed a total of 107 yards and only five yards of rushing as he, alone, pushed back their line of scrimmage five times for -25 yards. Out of his 5.0 tackles for a loss, four of them were against the Tomcats' quarterbacks that resulted in -24 yards. He added two more solo tackles and three assisted for 10 total on the day.

p.m. Saturday, Sept. 14 in the Saxons' home opener.

Men get first win

The Alfred university men's soccer team picked up its first weekly recognition as first-year Justin Eaton (Williamson) was named the Empire 8 Offensive Player of the Week.

Eaton had a great day Sunday as he recorded his first collegiate hat-trick against a tough Baruch College team. This is Eaton's second game with two or more goals of the season as he first got AU on the board with a penalty kick goal in the first half on Sunday. That goal brought the Saxons back within one of tying the Bearcats, who got out to an early, 2-0 lead. Eaton continued to keep the Saxon momentum high as he scored another goal just five minutes later off an assist from Matthew Wedzik (North East, PA). Wedzik's pass cleared the wall of Bearcat defenders as Eaton recovered it and made a sliding shot from the far right of the net to cross into the top left corner. The third goal came just four minutes later as Mason Sanborn (Wappingers Falls/Roy C. Ketcham) popped a pass up over the line of defenders that drew out the Baruch keeper. Just as the keep was about to grab the ball of the bounce, Eaton lunged forward to tap the ball with the bottom of his foot to redirect it past the hands of the goalie for the third, unanswered Saxon goal as AU went into halftime with a 3-2 lead. Eaton totaled seven shots with five on goal on the day.

Eaton and women's soccer's Natalie O'Brien (Syracuse/East Syracuse-Minoa Central) were both named the Saxons of the Week as well.

The AU men hosted Pitt-Bradford for a 7 p.m. contest last night (Sept. 11), travel to Buffalo to face D'Youville at 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 15, then have another night game at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 18 at Keuka College.

Jenkins leads men

Kyle Jenkins (Marcellus/West Genesee) finished fifth in 30:30.15 to lead the AU men's cross country team in the Saxons' Invitational. Gavin Wilbert (Webster Thomas) and Tim Mayo (North Rose-Wolcott) finished 11th and 12th, respectively with times of 31:21.82 and 31:34.83.

On the women's side, sophomore Ashley Fancher (Schoharie/Middleburgh Central) finished 13th overall (11th scoring) in 29:02.37

O'Brien gets game-winners

Natalie O'Brien (Syracuse/East Syracuse-Minoa Central) of the women's soccer team was named the Empire 8 Offensive Player of the Week.

O'Brien recorded two game-winning goals on the week. She totaled four points on Wednesday evening at Medaille College where she scored the second goal of the game and assisted on two more. In that game, she only took one shot which was the game-winner in just 48 minutes of play. On Saturday, O'Brien scored the first goal of the game in the 3-0 shutout to claim her third game-winner (second of the week) against Pitt-Bradford.

The Saxons, now 3-1 on the season, traveled to Buffalo to play Hilbert Tuesday, and will host Brockport at 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 13 at Yunevich Stadium.

Volleyball team at 3-5

The women's volleyball team dropped two matches on Saturday at the SUNY New Paltz Hawks Invitational.

The Saxons (3-5, 0-0 Empire 8) fell to New Paltz and Hamilton College in three-set matches.

AU hosts the Saxon Classic Sept. 20-21.

ALFRED STATE SPORTS

Men, women 2nd at AU Invitational

After a slow 1st quarter, UMass Dartmouth got things going as they scored four times in the 2nd quarter en route to a 54-7 victory over Alfred State in the season opener for both teams.

Dashawn Wilson (Bronx/Dewitt Clinton) connected with Darrius Nichols (Brooklyn/South Shore) on a 38-yard pass play with just under 12 minutes remaining in the game to account for the lone score of the game for the Pioneers.

Ronnie Clark (Philadelphia/Indian River) rushed for 96 yards on 15 carries including a long of 36 yards while Taj Harvey (New York/East Harlem) rushed for 42 yards on seven carries. HITS AND MISSES:

The Alfred Saxons football program opened up their 2019 campaign in grand style as they trounced Thiel College, on the road, 42-0 in a non-conference tilt. Games will quickly get much tougher as (guessing) Thiel is one of the weaker teams in the PAC league. Not sure if their home opener this Saturday will be "much tougher" as AU takes on George Fox from Oregon. Not to be confused with Jorja Fox of CSI fame! After that contest though it is off to Ithaca to take on the Bombers. Thiel, meanwhile, now has nine-straight conference games to play on their schedule.

In other D3 football games of note around NYS, it was: Ithaca blasting St. Vincent College by a 66-28 tally. More on that below. Hobart crushed Brockport at their place 33-7, Cortland smashed Fitchburg State 63-0, Morrisville drilled Bridge-water State 39-7, Utica ran all over St. Lawrence 40-14, Hartwick lost at Wilkes 38-21, SJ Fisher topped Buffalo State 23-6, Union thumped Westfield State 42-7, RPI was all over Allegheny 52-14 and UMass-Dartmouth blitzed Alfred State, 54-7.

For the Bombers of Ithaca, transfer QB Joe Germinerio (Brockport) was 27-for-37 in the air for 303 yards and six TD's! Not a bad start for his senior season after a decorated E8 career with the Golden Eagles. Now, maybe St. Vincent College is absolutely terrible. Don't know, but an impressive stat line either way.

Back to Thiel College for a moment. Was watching NFL football on Sunday when a Coke commercial comes on featuring the Tomcats. Guessing it was their stadium in the back-ground.

Former Alfred University WR Bill Schuster was an official (#129) on the NFL opening nite crew last Thursday in Chicago.

It was back to reality for the Syracuse Orange football program on Saturday. In game one they blanked Liberty, which quite frankly, I thought was an NAIA school, 24-0. Traveling to Maryland this past weekend, the Terps destroyed SU, 63-20. Oh yes, next up for Syracuse is #1 ranked Clemson.

Turning to the NFL now, a great comeback win for the Buffalo Bills in NJ as they trailed 16-0 and won their opener, 17-16. The Bills have a solid defense which should keep them in many contests. Ironically, they head back to the Meadows-lands this week to take on the Giants.

Former NJ Giants and NJ Jets QB, Davis Webb ... not David Webb (Jason Bourne) is now on the Bills practice squad.

Watched all of the Bills-Jets game on Sunday, alot of the Giants-Cowboys and back-n-forth with the Steelers-Patriots as the Yanks-BoSox were on at the same time. Lots of weapons on the Cowboys offense! Lots of weapons for the Pats, per normal, as well and now "headcase" WR Antonio Brown is set to join that cast? Brown and Josh Gordon on opposite sides ... yikes! IF they both get/keep their act together.

The "AAA" International League baseball finals are set with the Durham Bulls (Rays) and Columbus Clippers (Indians) tangling. Durham blasted Scranton WB out of the semi-finals and will be going for their third-straight Governors Cup trophy. Guessing Tampa Bay kept their players in place for that playoff run while half of SWB's players were in New York and sitting around in the pen or just playing occasionally. Didn't quite understand that one.

The American League wild card chase will probably go right down to the final weekend with two spots available and

ALMOND COMMUNITY DAY

7th grader wins ‘Shoot with the Saxons’

There's a new king of the court in Almond when it comes to free throws. Alfred-Almond seventh grader Lakin Ludden swished 22 free throws for the most baskets made Saturday, Sept. 7 at the Greg Norton Memorial Park Committee's Almond Community Day "Shoot with the Saxons Free Throw Fun." Ludden won an Alfred University basketball for his sharp shooting in addition to a tee-shirt and water bottle. Posing with the winner are AU men's basketball team members (from left) Darren Miller, Sam Erickson, Serigne Fallou Diop, Cole Eels, Eddie Walser, Sam Dagon and Grad Assistant Coach Scotty Stopera. One-time Almond Free Throw Shooting Champion Rob "Hair" Torrey failed to show up at the Almond Community Day event. So there's a new "King of the Court" now and his name is Lakin Ludden. (Alfred Sun Photo) three teams battling for it. Ironically, the Rays and indians are two of those, along with the Oakland A's. Cleveland was (4-6) in their last ten games as of Monday morning past and trailed the other two in the playoff run.

Over in the National League there are still six teams within four games of each other in the wild card race as Washington has a relatively firm grasp on the top slot. The red-hot Arizona Diamondbacks are attempting to get past the Cubs from Chicago for the second berth. Love to see 3-4 teams tied for that second wild card spot and see how that unfolds. Not "too much" pitching would be used up then!

There is a driver on the Indy Car Series named ... Jack Harvey! That's pretty wild.

Rafael Nadal wins the U.S. Open tennis tournament and pulls within one Grand Slam title of Roger Federer's record of 20.

Meanwhile, Serena Williams did not win her record-tying 24th Grand Slam tennis title as she lost in the finals, again. Wonder how many second-place Grand Slam finishes she has?

The Brooklyn Nets are apparently considering signing Carmelo Anthony to a one-year NBA deal. Guess they are looking to take a step back from last year! What NBA team has 'Melo ever helped?

It is a (3-1) start to the season for the Alfred University women's soccer team under the direction of Hornell's, Craig Yanni. Local players on the team include Abigail Austin from Hornell and Karah Landries from Angelica/Genesee Valley. In addition, former ASC soccer player Tyler Landries is an assistant coach on staff and must either be a brother or perhaps cousin of Karah.

Across the street, Coach Anne Holmok (A-A) and her women's program at Alfred State is (0-1-1) on the young soccer season. Three Hornell products are on the squad in Alyssa Delaney, Mac Congdon and Taylor Soles. Also, Lindsey Simons from Canisteo/Canisteo-Greenwood.

Coach Wiley and his Genesee women's soccer team is (3-1) to date with games this week against RIT and William Smith. The Knights beat E8 member Houghton in their season opener, 3-1.

Coach O'Driscoll and his PS-Behrend women's soccer team is an uncharacteristic (0-3) to date and all losses via shutout, at: 3-0, 2-0, 1-0. "Guess" they are getting better! Alfred State is in the same league now that PS-Behrend has dominated over the years.

Did not golf on Friday past with Bob Baker of Alfred as he was busy prepping for a family "bike tour" this past weekend in the ADK's. Also, my former classmate at A-A, the illustrious Smitty bailed on me as he was (allegedly) working on his golf swing in Corning.

Did play in the Studio K golf outing at Cragie Brae in Scottsville Saturday with Frank "Chewy" Sce of Frito Lay along with Kenny and Michelle Johnson. We tied for second, but way back, one year after Sce and I were on the winning team at the same course/tourney. Michelle was filling in for Larry Caruso of long-standing Frito Lay fame, who elected to work instead this day and then go home to mow his lawn.

Off to Saratoga Springs this weekend to golf with Kevin "Drip" McDonald ... yes, voluntarily! Playing Friday at McGregor Links in Wilton, the next day at the Queensbury CC and then Sunday somewhere in Saratoga, not at the 'Spa course though. Maybe we'll run into Marzo from Genesee soccer up there.

Saxons ... 30, George Fox ... 23. The home opener at Yunevich Stadium and with Cody on the radio.
