

Rome Officials Approve Ag-Tech Institute For Air Training Program

Enrollees To Earn 60c An Hour During Twenty Weeks' Training

The Ag-Tech Institute has been approved as a training center for the Rome Air Depot. M. F. Steffen of Buffalo and Lieutenant Cummings of the Rome Air Depot inspected the facilities of the Institute last week and found them satisfactory.

Courses will be given in machine shop, electricity, and welding. Trainees will be enrolled immediately in Civil Service and paid 60 cents an hour while in training.

Course Will Start Soon

The course is expected to start around the first of April. It was intended that the course would run about twenty weeks and coincide with high school semesters. But since it is not starting until April, afternoon or evening classes will probably be held until the end of the school year, after which eight hour sessions may complete the required hours. The course will probably run for from 200 to 300 hours.

It is expected that most of the trainees will be recruited from high school seniors within a radius of about thirty miles. Boys must be high school graduates, at least sixteen years of age, and not over seventeen years, one month. Girls must be high school graduates and at least sixteen years of age, which makes college girls eligible.

Local Navy Air Cadets Begin Advanced Training

The twenty Naval Air Cadets stationed at Alfred University have completed the first stage of their training, and began their advanced training yesterday.

The Cadets will complete their course at Alfred April 9 and will take their C. P. T. examinations directly afterward.

Don Schreckengost To Direct Gala Faculty Review Tuesday

Certain faculty members will set aside their books next Tuesday evening and sally forth to Alumni Hall to take part in a gala faculty review for the benefit of the War Scholarship Fund.

The show is being directed by Professor Don Schreckengost, who commented: "A lot of students will be surprised to see their favorite professors step out of the academic role and put on a real good faculty review. We have some good talent on the faculty, and everyone is getting into the spirit of the thing. The students will find that the faculty aren't all 'books,' and that they have a couple of tricks up their sleeves."

Faculty Barber Shop Quartet

Songs, dances, variety numbers, and a skit called "Heaven Protect the Chaperon" will be featured. Some of the numbers will be surprises, and so the full program will not be released before the performance. It is rumored, however, that among the special attractions will be the Faculty Barber Shop Quartet with Prof. J. E. Whitcraft's guitar accompaniment. Also it is reported that someone overheard some talk about a "faculty St. Pat."

Prof. John MacMahon, when asked for comments, smiled slightly and said, "I'll be there."

Prof. W. V. Nevins remarked, "It may make cents for the War Scholarship Fund, but I hope the performers

Clubs Combine For War Fund Entertainment

Student-directed Frosh-Soph plays and two community enterprises will be combined into one program for the benefit of the War Scholarship Fund.

The Footlight Club and Theta Alpha Phi reversed their usual activity sequence early in the season by producing Maxwell Anderson's full-length play "The Eve of St. Mark." This was done because of the importance and timeliness of Anderson's play. In former years Frosh-Soph plays were held in the fall and the full-length play in the spring.

To Be Current Significance

Decision to blend Frosh-Sophs into a common enterprise of current significance with more varied participation was discussed at the Footlight Club meeting Sunday evening.

Student directors Margaret Aylor '43 and William Schuster '43, president and vice-president of the dramatics organizations, will produce one-act comedies as part of this performance. Assisting them as bookholders are Mary Lou Jeffrey '44 and Mary Johnston '43.

Details of the projected benefit performance will be announced by the participating groups in the next issue of the Fiat Lux.

Final try-outs for these plays will be held today from 3 to 5 and 7 to 8 P. M. in Alumni Hall.

A.C.F. Planning Discussion On War Marriages

A forum, "Marriage in War Time", will be presented by the A.C.F. next Sunday at 7:15 in Social Hall. The advisability of marriage before and during the war will be discussed.

The leader of the discussion will be Chaplain William H. Genne, who was invited earlier this year to spend three days at the University of Rochester discussing this topic. Chaplain Genne has been a close student of family relations ever since his undergraduate days when he studied with Dr. M. F. Nimoff who has written one of the outstanding texts in this field.

All men and women are invited to participate, especially those who are contemplating marriage in the near future.

The regular election for next year's officers of the A. C. F. will take place immediately preceding the forum.

Student Life Committee Is Disbanded

The Student Life Committee at a meeting held last week, unanimously voted that the group be disbanded.

This action was taken because the committee feels that as it now exists, its function can be carried on by other campus organizations. For almost two years the suggestions of the group have failed to meet with enough student support to put the ideas into practice. If the student body decides that it wants a student-faculty body, it will be necessary to organize a completely new group.

The Student Life Committee has been responsible for various improvements on campus. It originated the improvement of the library steps and the tennis courts, the new library lighting, the new library hours, the campus morale committee, and did much work on the C. C. C. drive. It originated the social calendar, which will now be taken care of by the Student Senate.

Reginald Miner ex-'43 was president of the organization and Lee Linhof '43 has been acting chairman for the past semester. Other student members were Arthur Powell '43, Margaret Gibbo '44, Fred McWilliams '45, Lawrence Bickford '43, and Margaret Aylor '43. Faculty members were Dr. Willis Russell, Chaplain William Genne, Dr. Roland Warren, Prof. Donald Schreckengost, and Miss Eva Ford.

Tremaine Elected Head Of Latin Club

Mary Tremaine '44 was elected president of the Latin Club at the meeting held last Wednesday, March 10, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Steward Nease.

Other officers are Elaine Beckstrand '43, vice-president, and Kalope Giopulos '46, secretary-treasurer.

The program for the evening was on "Christianity in the Roman Empire." Kalope Giopulos '46, Jean Barber '46, and Mary Tremaine '44 read papers on different phases of this topic.

Plans were discussed for the Roman banquet to be held April 15 under the chairmanship of Evelyn Stevens '43. Following the program refreshments of hot dogs and coffee were served.

Y.W.C.A. Head To Lecture In Alfred Classes

Mrs. Edith Clydsdale Magruder of the Y. W. C. A., will visit Alfred University on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 23 and 24.

She will speak in Chapel both days and will lecture in the sociology, political science and economic classes. She will be available for discussion with students on questions concerning the issues of the war and of peace, the relationship of Christianity to political problems, and the students' responsibilities.

Mrs. Magruder is a Canadian by birth. She spent her undergraduate years at Victoria College, University of Toronto, where her field of specialization was English and History, and her chief extra-curricular interest debating.

Her graduate study in this country has included work in the Yale University Divinity School, and at Union Theological Seminary and Teachers' College, New York City, where she took her master's degree in Religious Education and completed the work for her doctorate in Philosophy and Education with the exception of her dissertation.

Mrs. Magruder's professional experience has included that of Supervisor of Church Vacation Schools under the Ontario Religious Education Council in Southern Ontario and Director of Children's work and Youth work in churches in New Haven, Conn., and Cleveland, Ohio.

Since joining the Y. W. C. A. staff in September, 1942, Mrs. Magruder has written a pamphlet on "Basic Issues of the War and Peace" which is intended for use among staff advisers and students as a point of departure for a fundamental approach to the issues, national and international, which are at stake in the world today. She believes that the present and the future depend on our understanding of the war and postwar problems, on the standards of judgment we employ, and on the strength of our faith.

Professor's Poster To Be Reproduced On Series Of Stamps

Professor Donald Schreckengost's poster on production has been chosen by Artist's for Victory, Inc. as one of fifty to be reproduced on a series of stamps in the near future.

Professor Schreckengost's poster was one of 2,224 entries which were submitted to a national competition sponsored by Artist's for Victory, Inc. in collaboration with the Modern Museum of Art of New York City, the Council for Democracy, and the U. S. Treasury Department.

The posters were first exhibited at the New York museum and the National Gallery in Washington.

Professor Schreckengost has been requested to submit his biography to the organization.

Rumor Clinic Continues Work To Establish Reliable Facts

The Rumor Clinic started last semester by Dr. Boraas' Psychology classes is still working to curb rumors and to replace them with the true facts.

Some of the rumors collected by the students are: Rumor: newly elected Republicans along with enough Democrats will advocate the dropping of Hull's reciprocal trade agreements, and resort to such high tariffs as the Hawley-Smoot tariff after the war.

Comment: the recent statements by Vice-President Wallace about the freedom of the air and seas seem to contradict the possibility of this action.

Rumor: the United States had better take stock of our position in the present situation because Great Britain will turn on us if and when we win.

Comment: probably a result of the intimations of various newspapers and commentators in regard to the Argentina situation and the Giraud-deGaulle rift. Also certain people believe that the United States cooperation with Russia may result in a breach between England and the United States. This possibility seems

The battle this year was indeed difficult. St. Pat had need to summon all his forces, to plan more carefully, to think more clearly, while Alfred and the world waited in anxious suspense. At last it is certain that St. Pat is again the victor.

Now the world has been spread and Alfredians joyfully prepare for the annual St. Pat's Festival of March 18 and 19.

First Appearance of St. Pat

The first official appearance of St. Pat will be Thursday at 12 noon, when he will give his customary address to the students in front of the post office. After a brief respite for lunch the festivities will be resumed with a tea dance from 3-5 p.m. in the Ceramic Lounge. From 5 to 7 p.m. the various fraternities will hold open houses.

The concluding event of the day will be the technicolor movie, "Springtime in the Rockies," with Betty Grable, John Payne, Carmen Miranda, Caesar Romero, and Harry James and his Music Makers. Various short subjects and a community sing will also be presented.

Classes will be held as usual on Friday morning. However, Friday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., in Alumni Hall, the famous Dublin Players will present a play, "So This Is College" with an all male cast imported from Ireland. The cast will be headed by the incomparable Thaddeus Peabody, Lucie Slipenbottom, Alexander Setscrew, Tyrone Bender. A play the likes of which has never been seen on the Alfred campus, a play to end all plays, "So This Is College" is a supercomedy guaranteed to abound in laughs, thrills and suspense.

Queen To Be Crowned

The St. Pat's Festival will culminate Friday night with the Formal Ball to be held from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. in the Davis Memorial Gym. Music for the ball will be provided by Ken Renick and his orchestra. At the ball, at 12 (Continued on page four) quite remote in the light of the present demand for a union of democratic nations today.

Don't Judge Without Facts

Another of Dr. Boraas' students handed in a story based on rumor. The story ran as follows: A certain young man, American born, had Nazi interests. He had just graduated from a large university and was endeavoring to obtain work in the F. B. I. Some knowledge of his behavior and early environment had to be obtained from a source other than his parents. A person was sent to a neighboring house in his community to inquire about him. The people gave what information they could. Later they spread the word that the young man was being investigated by the government on suspicion of being a fifth-columnist.

Morale: Don't condemn your neighbor until you know all the facts about his case.

Voluntary Extinction

One of the most constructive moves made this year by any campus group was made last week when the Student Life Committee met and unanimously voted themselves out of existence.

The committee first existed as the Student Policy Committee, a group of students and a faculty adviser who met once a week to discuss in an informal manner problems which confronted the entire student body. They had no authoritative power but presented proposals to the students for consideration.

In the spring of 1928, as a result of strong feeling on the part of the student body, the Student Life Committee was formed. This committee was comprised of four faculty and three students; two of the faculty and one of the students being elected by the faculty, the other two students and two faculty by the entire student body.

This group served as a local point for campus opinions. They discussed all campus difficulties and made recommendations to other organizations for dissolving them.

One of the first projects was the establishment of an organized social calendar. In more recent years the group has instigated the improvement of the library steps and the tennis courts, the lengthening of library hours, the library lighting system and has worked on the C.C.C. drive. However, the students on campus have lost interest in and enthusiasm for the Student Life Committee and its original purpose has been defeated. What was once the most vital group on campus had become just another name in the year book and the machinery through which the social calendar was released. Student problems were being handled through the Student Senate and the individual advisory boards of organizations.

There is still a need on campus for some group through which student-administration problems can be handled. Only when both students and faculty members can discuss differences in a give and take manner, can we have true democracy at Alfred. But only at a time when every individual student is interested in the activities of such a group can one function effectively.

If we are to enjoy personal laxity we must forfeit our privileges. The Student Life Committee has realized its inability to function now and has admitted it.

Who'll Make The Goal?

In the past four weeks the students and faculty have dug deep into their pockets and contributed over thirteen hundred dollars to the Campus Community Chest. That's a lot of money, but it's not enough. The goal is still fifteen hundred dollars.

If each student on the campus were to give thirty-five cents—the price of a week's cokes or two packages of cigarettes, we'd hit the top. And it wouldn't hurt, it wouldn't seriously deplete any allowance, or stint any "necessary" item.

Two groups of girls have contributed as individuals and again as residence groups; one of these raised one hundred dollars as a sorority contribution.

Maybe your dollar contribution was all you could "afford" but think about it the next time you buy a pack of gum.

Who'll give that fifteen hundredth dollar?

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—(ACP)—How a "pay-off" of 50,000 yen was made by the Japanese government to the Nipponese "underworld" in the early part of the century to prevent altercations with American visitors that might have led to war then was related recently by Albert Bushnell Hart, professor emeritus of history at Harvard.

"I got the story from an attache of the American embassy in Japan soon after the incident occurred, and I don't believe it ever has been told," said the 88-year-old, white-haired professor.

"I was in Japan at the time the 'good-will fleet' sponsored by President Theodore Roosevelt stopped at Yokohama.

"Shortly before the fleet landed, a representative of the undercrust of Japan—the underworld gang—went to officials of the government and said in substance: 'There will be hundreds of Americans coming off those ships and circulating about in this area. What's it worth to keep us from starting trouble?'

"My information was that the Japanese officials said it was worth 50,000 yen to them to prevent any outbreaks that might possibly lead to an 'incident' with the United States. . . . They weren't ready then.

"It was mighty cheap for the Japanese government to get off that way," said Hart. "And it's not impossible the gang which was 'paid-off' had something to do with events that led up to Pearl Harbor."

College Town

By Al Sax

I've been wanting to write a column after the fashion of Hyam's old piece and finally talked my way into the job this week. (Only because Hyams is leaving school shortly.) Well, for a few hours I wrote and wrote pouring my heart into every line. It made sense because it was stuff that had been mulling around in my mind for a long time. But when I thought of how the stuff would be greeted in this town, I decided against it. I'm not afraid of ridicule, but I wouldn't enjoy being the author of something that no one would read. Therefore, while I remain in this town I'll stick to the old routine and make with the palaver. Here's hoping I don't remain too long.

From reliable source we have it that Reggie Miner should be chained down by now to a gal from the home town. And Gil Brinnier another Delta Sigger finally put the ring on Ginner Shaner of Theta Chi.

Overhearing a couple of the town chickens of 1880 vintage, I learned that "radio isn't here to stay and that it would be wonderful to be rid of all the noise that it has brought into the home." And what was it they said about yo-yos?

One of the blonde second grade teachers at the Alfred-Almond Central school was really "Rosie the Riveter" last summer and every time she hears a woodpecker or a drumbeat she gets into that crouched position ready to go to work again. I think it only fair to warn some of the college kids, who have been interested, to be careful.

Went to see Hitler's Children the other day (Personal rating—three stars,) and was dumbfounded to see an insertion in the Universal News which was nothing more than a pictorial ad for Fitch's Shampoo. Radio commercials I must tolerate because those pay for the programs but the movie houses make enough money already. Nevins, take heed!

Today is Drake's birthday. Happy birthday, Dean... (Maybe now I'll be able to take a couple extra cuts without serious penalty.)

Contrary to rumors around town, Ken Renick will be here for the Ball and for more information about the kind of band that it is see Scotty Campbell or Marion Mason—they ought to know.

And it is not true that Di Laura lost the Board's money in a poker game. By the way, he usually wins.

If the blonde I wanted to be queen is not, it is all my fault. I must confess that I didn't vote on Thursday. And it's all Uncle Bobbie's fault because he insisted upon lecturing at that time. I could never understand a prof who would let his lectures interfere with such important matters.

Spring

"To think to know the country and not know
The hillside on the day the sun lets go
Ten million silver lizards out of snow!"

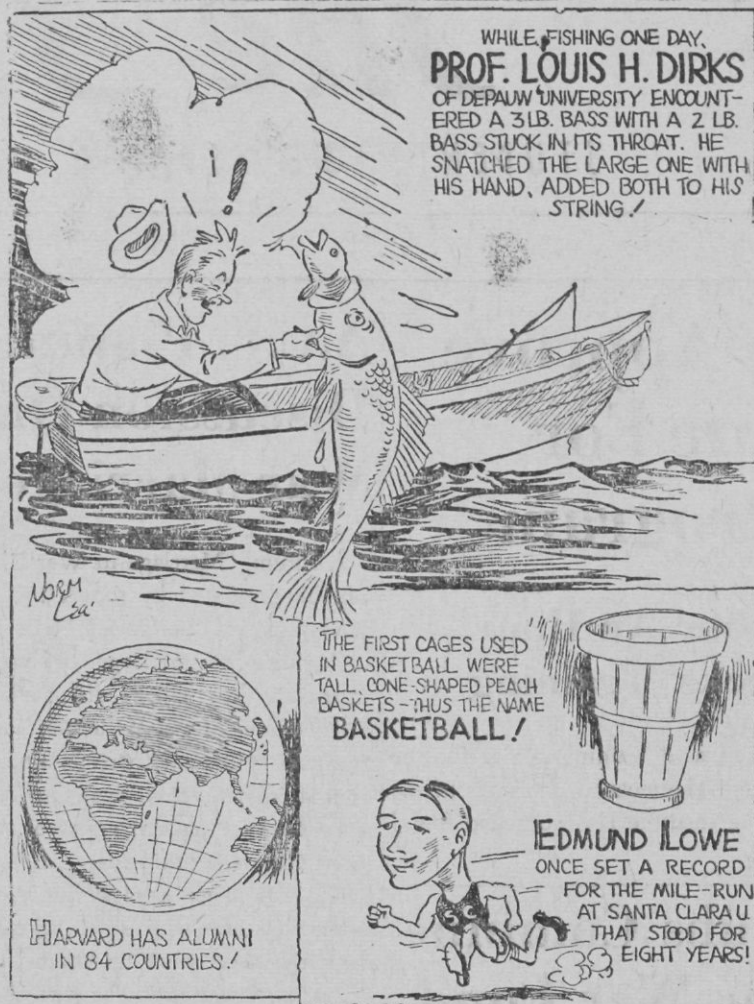

Look thee well, thou city natives. Listen carefully to the roar of a brook full-bursting in the spring. White hills will slither from their cocoon into flowing green robes. Hark thy ears unto spring's carolers anon and join them. Whistle ye a merry note unto the maids. The early bird this year was William. Beneath Prue's window he trills a serenade. Spring will be the mischief in you—books unread and problems yet to do. But—

"Take the present time
With a hey, and a ho, and a hey-nonino,
For love is crowned with the prime
In the springtime, the only pretty ring-time
When birds do sing, hey ding a ding, ding
Sweet lovers love the spring."

More than 800 Smith College loan library books have been sent to Canada to be distributed in war prisoners' camps.

Virginia Shaner ex-'43 of Theta Chi, and Gilbert Brinnier ex-'43 of Delta Sig were married in the Little Church Around The Corner in New York City. Patricia Moore '44 of Theta Chi was the maid of honor.

Rabbi Stresses Fellowship In Assembly Talk

"Unless we look upon the world with fellowship, we cannot expect a decent and peaceful civilization," stated Rabbi Morton J. Cohn of Niagara Falls as he addressed the assembly last Thursday, March 11.

On his topic "The Dynamics of Fellowship," Rabbi Cohn stressed the importance of using the philosophy "live and help live" in personal, racial, religious and national relationships. We must learn to judge people by their best and present virtues and apply the same standards to society at large.

Rabbi Cohn stated that men should be taught more about their different racial and religious neighbors. The values common to all should draw them together but not at the expense of individual differences.

The P. O.!

"Neither snow nor sleet, nor heat nor gloom, nor dark of night can stay these couriers from the completion of their appointed rounds . . ."

Through the dark of winter's early nights, through falling snow and likewise rain, in summer and winter, in even Alfred weather, they struggle onwards toward their goal. Theirs not to reason why—their but to reach the post office before the lights go out. From the arctic pole of Green Gables, from the innermost sanctums of the Brick, down the road from Bartlett, streams of students slide, skate or swim (according to the season) towards that mecca of all students far from home—the post office.

The post office of any small town is the busiest, the most important spot in town and the most vital industry of its inhabitants, that of getting mail. The post office of a college town is the busiest, the most important spot in town and the most vital industry of its inhabitants is that of getting mail. With more and more men leaving for the services, with letters coming thicker and faster, the rush to the post office becomes more hectic and the distinction between mail and male hardly discernable. Whatever the cause, the rush goes on.

Approaching the P. O., in spring or fall, the college co-ed, if of a timid nature, might be frightened by the awesome line of college Eds along the rail. Whether it be that the "stag at eve had drunk his fill" or the imminence of cold weather, with the coming of Winter the line disappears—only to reform in a modified version just inside the door. Itself ordinarily little larger than an overgrown mailbox, the P. O. obligingly increases in volume to hold all comers.

Post office—Alfred, N. Y., buzzing, crowded, abounding in suspense and anxiety, alive with excitement and anticipation, opportunity and hope—filled with disappointment, capacity—unlimited, visibility—zero.

Visited but briefly during the day, at night the P. O. exerts its magnetism and students linger long, loath to break away.

Lambda Chi Alpha Takes Intramural Championship

Sigma Chi Wins Over Theta Chi

Too fast even for the referee was Saturday's game between Theta Chi and Sigma Chi, which the latter won by a score of 36-8. Chief support of the winners was Mary Lou Jeffrey, who chalked up 20 of the points for her team. Noticeably lacking in Theta Chi's line-up were forward, Doris Hill, and guard, Jean Gardner. In spite of the deceiving score, the game was a good one to watch, and both teams did not let up until after the last whistle had blown.

The line up for the teams was as follows:

Theta Chi		Sigma Chi
Rhoda Ungar	RF	Carolyn Howe
Janet Secor	LE	Mary Lou Jeffrey
Ruth Hughes	CE	Mardie Gibbo
Margaret Lord	RG	Peg Hopkins
Joan Lindsley	LG	Carolyn Casper
Barbara Bloss	CG	Norma Stockwell

Harry Barnes '44 Now Enrolled As Student Officer

Harry Hamilton Barnes '44, Klan Alpine, is now enrolled as a student officer in the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School (Pilot) at Maxwell Field, located on the outskirts of Montgomery, Alabama, where he is receiving an intensive course in ground training. Upon completion of his instructions here he will be sent to one of the primary flying schools in the Army Air Forces Southeast Training Center for the first phase of his flight training.

Cadet Barnes had two and one half years of Ceramic Engineering at Alfred University from September, 1940 to December, 1942. He had received 54 hours civilian pilot training and worked at Bell Aircraft Corporation when he was accepted as an aviation cadet in the Army Air Forces. Cadet Barnes began his pre-flight course at Maxwell, Ala., on Jan. 31, 1943.

Pi Alpha Beats Brick 11 Team

It was a much improved Brick II team that put in their appearance against Pi Alpha last Tuesday evening, even though they lost to the latter by a score of 17-20. Especially outstanding on the Brick team were Cynthia Leban and Fay Jargstorff for their speed, and "Bo" Maguire for her ability to shoot baskets. The team and passwork of the Pi Alphas was not as good as they have shown themselves capable of at other times, but they managed to hold the lead throughout the game. Numerous fouls were chalked up by both teams.

The line up for the game was as follows:

Pi Alpha		Brick II
Jane Parvin	RF	Jean Marder
Ann Mitchell	LE	Sid Fisher
Mary Walker	CE	Fay Jargstorff
Doris Cunningham	RG	Joanna Folts
Beverly Leng	LG	Shirley Baldwin
Phyllis Little	CG	Cynthia Leban
Virginia Repert	Subs	Betty Banks
Frederica Miller		"Bo" Maguire
Jane Brownlow		Coreene Chapman

Theta Chi Downed By Brick 1 Team

22-18 was the score by which a hard-fighting Brick I team downed their equally hard-fighting Theta Chi opponents in basketball last Tuesday evening. With both teams out to win, the game was a fast one, with the fouls being numerous. Highlight of the Brick team was its forward trio of Peggy Conroy, Ruth Weitz and Carolyn Torrey, whose teamwork and passwork counted chiefly for their winning of the game. On the Theta Chi team, Janet Secor did a nice job in the forward position, showing special proficiency at shots from the foul line.

Lineup for the teams was as follows:

Brick I		Theta Chi
Carolyn Torrey	R.F.	Jean McCormick
Peggy Conroy	L.F.	Janet Secor
Ruth Weitz	C.F.	Doris Hill
Connie Brennan	R.G.	Ailsa Johnstone

Cowboys Down Delta Sig In Hard Fought Game

Lambda Chi nosed out Delta Sig 27-20 Monday night to gain undisputed possession of the intra-mural basketball crown for the 1942-43 seasons. With emotions running wild on the part of both players and spectators, Lambda Chi came through with two timely spurts which proved too much for the men of Delta Sig.

Brick 1 Team Downs Brick 11

The two Brick teams matched forces in a game last Saturday, in which the Brick I proved itself superior. The fray was not an easy one however, for the speed of Fray Jargstorff, and the shooting ability of tall "Bo" Maguire of the Brick II team made them hard for their opponents to guard. A series of remarkably cooperative passes were a great asset to the Brick I team, and they held the lead throughout the game, which ended by a score of 22-18.

Line-up was:

Brick I		Brick II
Ann Hathaway	R.F.	"Bo" Maguire
Peggy Conroy	L.F.	Fay Jargstorff
Ruth Weitz	C.F.	Sid Fisher
Connie Brennan	R.G.	Cynthia Leban
Fran Bovee	L.G.	Beth Fay

Intramural Badminton Tournament Progresses

The intramural badminton tournament is progressing slowly but surely. Both the Brick and Pi Alpha have played off the matches within their individual houses. "Toni" Allen earned the right to represent the Brick in the tournament by defeating "Bo" Maguire by a score 5-11, 12-10, and 12-11. Playing for Pi Alpha will be Muriel Strong who defeated Ann Mitchell 11-2, 11-8.

The first half of the game was more or less even with Lambda Chi pushing ahead at the half, 11-8. The third quarter saw the Cowboys increase their lead at one point to 16-12, due mainly to their accuracy in foul shooting.

The Sigs tied it up with the help of a nice one-handed shot by Chick Berger and a bucket by George Kamakaris as the third quarter ended. As the final period got under way they went into the lead 19-18.

The fourth quarter was hard fought and even, except for the final spurt by Lambda Chi which gave them the game. With three minutes to go, six points in the space of a minute handed the crown to the Cowboys.

Action was fast and rough with a maximum effort and a minimum of good basketball. Fouls were plentiful as was to be expected in such a hard fought contest. Bill Hurley went out on fouls with a minute and a half to go. Before the game had ended two more Delta Sig men joined him, using up the available reserves, and forcing the Sigs to finish with but 4 men on the floor.

Perhaps the most interesting sidelight on the contest was the battle royal between the supporters of the respective teams in the matter of cheering. Who said school spirit was lacking in Alfred? Or could it be a certain feud? Perhaps intra-mural volleyball will supply the answer.

Another interesting sidelight was the replacement of Al Cooper at the timers' table by Dan Minnick in the fourth quarter. Seems that Al just got so interested in the game that he let the clock run on during a foul shot. With three minutes to go and his team ahead, 20-19, who can blame the boy?

To squelch all claims of partisanship in advance, an outside official was brought in to referee the game. He turned in an excellent job, keeping the game under control at all times.

Hats off to Lambda Chi, Intra-mural Basketball Champs of 1943.

Chaplain Plans Second Special Lenten Sermon

"Jesus, The Man, Then and Now," will be the sermon given by Chaplain William H. Genne at the Union University Church Sunday as the second in a series of special worship services for Lent.

The theme for the series is "Jesus, Our Eternal Contemporary." In these brief messages, Chaplain Genne will discuss the central figure in the history of western civilization, and the central personality of our faith. With Christianity under fire in many lands, and with the meaning of Christianity being much debated at home—Jesus is emerging as the most important figure in the thinking and ethics of the Christian world. To understand Jesus is the basic task of an intelligent Christian.

Our Freedom Is Priceless

By JOSEPH E. DAVIES
Former Ambassador to Russia and Belgium.

(Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the "SAY YES" campaign to complete the nation's 100,000,000 partially Allied War Stamp album.)

What I myself saw in my four years in Europe gave me a new realization of the priceless rights which we here enjoy.

No secret police can in the night whisk us away, never again to be seen by those we love.

None of us can be deprived by any party, state or tyrant of those precious civil liberties which our laws and our courts guarantee.

None of us can be persecuted for practicing the faith which we found at our mother's knee.

None of us can be persecuted, tortured or killed because of the fact that an accident of fate might have made us of the same race as the Nazarene.

No American can be placed by any party or government in a regimented vise which takes from him or her either freedom of economic opportunity or political religious liberty.

What would the millions of unfortunate men, women and children in Europe give to be able to live and enjoy such a way of life?

Well, in this war, those are the things in our lives which are in jeopardy. Our boys are dying to preserve them for us.

Then we can do no less than to "say yes" and fill those war stamp albums. It is our duty and privilege to help the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, in his magnificent effort to do the tremendous job of getting the money to keep our boys supplied with the weapons with which to fight our fight.

Surely that is little enough for us to do on the home front.

A. C. P.'s Correspondent Reports from Washington

WASHINGTON—(ACP)

Educators are studying a plan for giving academic credit to soldiers, WAACs, marines, sailors, et al for education acquired in service. The plan was developed by the American Council on Education in cooperation with the Joint Army and Navy Committee on Welfare and Recreation.

With the same goal in view, Army and university presidents asking commitments to give credit for the proposed basic Air Force training program. But work in this program is part of the over-all record and measurement program developed by the U. S. Armed Forces Institute, formerly the Army Institute. Since the Institute is part of the Council's plan, the Air Forces agreed to withdraw their request until the broader plan could be acted upon.

The Marines Have A Word

Probably no news story in the history of the war has been refuted more times than the yarn about how union seamen refused to unload a ship at Guadalcanal because it was Sunday. Soon after the report was published, it was denied by Joe Curran, president of the National Maritime Union, who pointed out none of his union's agreements prohibit Sunday work. Lewis B. Puller, Marine veteran of Guadalcanal; Maj. Gen. Alexander Vandergrift, commander at Guadalcanal, and Admiral William F. Halsey. Finally a House naval subcommittee probed the charge and found it false.

So far the refutations have had much less effect than the original baseless story. Many still think union seamen refused to unload a vessel at Guadalcanal because it was Sunday.

The Marines themselves have an undignified word for such rumors. It's "scuttlebutt."

Ballyhoo For Bonds

With selective service training men from the nation's campuses, the Treasury is turning its big bond selling guns on the coeds and the women's colleges.

A survey of 300 schools netted a huge collection of bright ideas for boosting bond sales. There are such appeals for saving as "Cut on Cokes" and "Get along without that cashmere cardigan." At Vassar, the girls called off their class rings and a prom in favor of war savings. At Goucher College in Baltimore, they're giving mock driver's licenses to every student purchasing an interest in the jeep the school is buying with bonds. Sophomores at Mundelein College in Chicago invested proceeds from a collection in bonds. Exchange booths for accessories—a cast-off lapel pin for a war savings stamp—are favorite devices elsewhere. At Hood College, Maryland, a rolling booth prowls the campus, preceded by buglers and a chorus.

All of which may remind you to put some of that loose change into war savings stamps today.

Schuster, Meyer Conduct Forum

William Schuster '43 and Bob Meyer '44 conducted a lecture forum at A. C. F. last Sunday in place of the Alfred-Buffalo debate because the representatives from Buffalo failed to arrive.

Mr. Schuster stated that the world needs a federal union formed by the United Nations with the power to tax, to regulate interstate commerce, and to maintain an international police force. He said that four facts underlie a successful post war arrangement: (1) there is a need for change in international politics, (2) former plans such as the Entente Cordial, Triple Alliance, and League of Nations have not been successful, (3) a federal union would have temporary and minor disadvantages.

The weakness of the League of Nations, the former attempt at international union are: (1) lack of power to regulate international commerce, (2) lack of power to tax, (3) lack of power to enforce laws, and (4) lack of legislature to pass laws superior to the laws of the individual nations.

Mr. Meyer said that the federation with a nucleus consisting of the United Nations should strip all Axis power and other non-members of armaments and should also demobilize themselves. An international army, navy, and police force should replace those of the individual states. This international police force should have the power to enforce the laws of the central government, which would be composed of representatives from each nation. The powers of this central government should increase until the national boundary lines disappear or become insignificant, as in the case of the United States. Until such a time, the central government would regulate all international trade, promote economic interdependence, and be supreme authority in all international affairs.

A discussion on the reaction of the Axis, the re-education of non-members of the union, and the specific means of executing a plan of federal union followed the two presentations of ideas.
