

Library assistant hired at Herrick

8/28/07

Mary Jo Beers of Arkport has been hired as a library assistant' for access services and collection management at Herrick Library, Alfred University. Beers was most recently a teacher's aide at Arkport Central School and serves on the Character Education Committee for the district. She earned an associate's degree in information processing from Morrisville State College, Morrisville, NY.