AU Judicial Board Training

FACULTY - STAFF - STUDENTS-

We are looking for faculty, staff, and student members for our judicial boards. A student code of conduct and judicial hearing process can be an important tool in teaching students how to be productive members of our academic community. In order to meet that goal it is imperative that our boards reflect the campus community.

If you are interested in being involved as a member, please send an e-mail to judicial@alfred.edu.

Germany Business, Arts & Culture Program

Deadline to sign up to participate in Alfred University's Business Program in Heidenheim, Germany, Jan. 10-17, 2010, is Friday, Oct. 23. Contact Susan Wellington in International Programs at wellinsl@alfred.edu or Ext. 2269.

Faculty: Frank Duserick, Alfred University
Amy Rummel, Alfred University
Juergen Seitz, University of Heidenheim

This program provides a venue for scholarly interactions among academics, students and representatives from Universities, Industry and the Arts. The theme is the importance of having a global strategic vision for the social, political and cultural environments in which today's businesses (including Art) operate.

You will attend lectures given by faculty with broad international backgrounds, you will visit corporations that have substantial global interests and you will visit art and cultural sites that are unique to Germany. While we will be "headquartered" at the University of Heidenheim, we will visit Munich, Stuttgart, Heidenheim and other cities

Projected Courses for credit in Spring 2010 semester (Pick one):

International Business (BUSI 400)
The Business of Art (to be approved) (ART 400)
Global Strategic Environment (MBA 660)

Contact: Prof. Duserick (x2124) fduserick@alfred.edu for details.
Cost (including airfare): Approximately $2,250

Art Union Silent Art Auction

Up in Harder Hall Lobby, the auction will run until Monday evening, 7 p.m. A reception and Final Bidding will begin at 6:30.

In the past few years, ART UNION has raised over $12,000 for charities, including a local family touched by tragedy, the Maya Free School in India, and the Alfred Station Food Pantry.

This year we are asking students, faculty, and bidders to vote for their favorite charity from one's suggested by active ART UNION members. These charities are: American Liver Foundation, Farm Sanctuary, Ronald McDonald House, and the Hudson Valley Materials Exchange.

Voting petitions are located near the Mailroom in Powell, near the Art Office in Harder Hall, and at the Auction in Harder Hall Lobby.

Please come participate by donating to the auction, admiring the work, bidding on something you like, or voting for your favorite charity!

'Gunspeak': Professor Myers

Lecture: Gunspeak

Speaker: Professor Robert Myers, Alfred University
Tuesday, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium at the David A. Howe Public Library, 155 N. Main St., Wellsville

Professor Myers will examine the myriad ways in which our contemporary cultural obsession with firearms has permeated our language, affecting a wide range of situations, both personal and impersonal.

He will attempt to present a high caliber talk/discussion covering this topic, lock, stock, and barrel, targeting the subject in his anthropological cross-hairs. He promises not to take potshots at anyone, but those with hair-trigger sensitivities are cautioned, as they may be blown away.

This program is presented by the David A. Howe Public Library and is free and open to everyone.
