

Popular 'Harmony College' to Perform at AU Saturday

7/18/00

Alfred, NY - Harmony College, the popular singing school for members of barbershop quartets, returns to Alfred University for its annual three-day session this weekend. The more than 160 participants in Harmony College will present a concert of barbershop music, open to the public free of charge, at 8 p.m. Saturday in Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall, on the AU campus. A sing-along, in which members of the audience may join the performers, will start at 7:15 p.m. Harmony College participants arrive at Alfred University Friday morning for three days of classes and rehearsals, highlighted by the Saturday night performance.
