

Alfred University's Eaker advances to equestrian zone championships

4/03/06

CANTON, NY Stacy Eaker (Addison, NY/Addison), a senior on the Alfred University equestrian team, has qualified to compete in the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) Zone II championships. Eaker placed second in walk-trot at the IHSA Zone II, Region II championship show at St. Lawrence University on Saturday. The top three riders in each event at the regional show advanced to the Zone II championships, to be held Saturday, April 8, at Centenary College in Hackettstown, NJ. Sophomore Lisa Landis (New City, NY/Clarkstown North) also competed in the Region II championship show at St. Lawrence, finishing fifth in intermediate equitation on the flat. Eaker heads to the Zone II championships with a chance to qualify for the IHSA nationals, which will be held May 4-7 in Harrisburg, PA. The top two riders in each event at the zone championships advance to nationals.
