

Men's basketball win third straight game

12/10/05

The Alfred University men's basketball team defeated St. Lawrence 84-70 Saturday afternoon at the McLane Center. The Saxons improved their record to 5-3 for the season. Within five minutes of the second half St. Lawrence diminished Alfred's six point lead and went on top by four. The Saxons fought back to take the win. The Saxons had five players who scored in the double digits. Leading the Saxons were senior guard Ryan Hallett (Caledonia, NY/Caledonia-Mumford) and senior forward Todd Dersham (Campbell, NY/Campbell-Savona) each finishing with 18 points respectively. Senior center Dillon Stein (North Huntingdon, PA/Norwin) netted 17 points and had a pair of assists. Junior guard Rob McCarter (Wooster, OH/ Wooster) added 16 points, four rebounds and four assists. Senior guard Chris LeMasters (Mansfield, PA/ Mansfield) chipped in 10 points and three steals. Tom Wopperer led St. Lawrence with a team high 15 points and a pair of steals. Jimmy White and Matt Blue added 12 and 11 points respectively. The Saxons will be in action next on Thursday, December 29 against Denison in the first round of the Case Western Tournament.