Etiquette Dinner

Have you ever been confused about which fork to use first at a formal dinner? Which entrée should you order - and what foods should you avoid - at a job interview over lunch? Is it appropriate to have a drink at a business dinner? Ever wondered what manners are appropriate for business occasions? Find answers to these questions and more at the Career Development Center's annual Etiquette Dinner on Friday, February 17 at 5:00pm in the Knight Club in Powell Campus Center!

Heather Kolakowski, Food and Beverage Management Lecturer at Cornell University, will share her expertise on business and social event etiquette. Business professional dress is strongly encouraged and business casual dress is required; contact Career Development Center staff with any questions about professional dress for this event. There is no cost to attend the Etiquette Dinner thanks to our sponsor, Kohler Co.

To reserve your spot at the Etiquette Dinner:

Login to Saxon JobLink: <https://alfred-csm.sympli...>

Romancing the Toaster: Works by Myles Calvert

Cohen Gallery

January 27-February 22, 2017

Opening reception Friday, January 27, 6-8pm

Artist Talk Thursday, February 2, 4:30pm in Binns C co-sponsored by Print Club

Calvert's work explores the relationships that develop between everyday objects and popular culture references. Following the ideals of Romanticism, emphasis is given to an individual experience of emotion. A moment of spontaneity allows for humour and a subtle twist to avoid an overwhelming glorifications of the past through objects of the mundane. His influences are heavily drawn from contemporary and modern printmakers such as Richard Hamilton, René Magritte, and the self-promoting antics of the YBA (Young British Artist) culture. Myles Calvert was born in Collingwood, Ontario (Canada). He attended the University of Guelph with a focus in printmaking and art history, before traveling to London, UK where he completed his MA in Printmaking at Camberwell College of Art (University for the Arts, London). Major bodies of work included mass installations of screen printed toast and the idolization of popular British celebrity.

Film Screening: "Eva Hesse"

Wed, Feb 8, 2017

7-9pm

Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall

Cost: free

Sponsored by:

Screening of this film is made possible thanks to the generous support of the following: Art History Division, Foundations Division, Sculpture & Dimensional Studies, the Interdisciplinary Art Program, the Center for Student Involvement, Alfred University Women & Gender Studies, the Bernstein Funds, the Art History Club, and the Digital Media and Animation Department of Alfred State College.

One of the few female artists to be taken seriously in 1960's New York City, Eva Hesse (1936-1970) produced sculptures that incorporate latex, fiberglass and plastics. Her work went on to help create the post-minimalist movement. This just released, independent, biographical documentary (directed by Marcie Begleiter, 2016) includes new interviews, high quality footage of Hesse's artwork, and a wealth of newly discovered archival imagery. The film not only traces Eva's artistic trajectory, but engages in a lively investigation into the creative community of 1960's New York and Germany. View the trailer: <https://www.evahessedoc.c...>

IEA Visiting Artist: Laura Splan

February 20-24, 2017

The Institute for Electronic Arts at the School of Art and Design of the New York State College of Ceramics

Sponsored by: The Institute for Electronic Arts and the Division of Expanded Media

Laura Splan of Brooklyn, NY, will be joining the Institute for Electronic Arts for an artist residency the week of February 20th. Laura, who received her MFA at Mills College in Oakland, California, explores intersections of art, science, technology, and craft in her work. In recent work, she has been using her own body to generate bio-data to be used in the production of sculptures and images, a project that has manifested itself in a variety of materials and formats including computerized jacquard woven tapestries and 3D printed sculptures.

Throughout her residency, Laura intends to create computer generated animated weavings from bio-data collected via Arduino microcontrollers. The waveforms generated from this data will be used in AfterEffects and other software with animation, sound, parenting, and expressions to create animated weavings that visualize and embody the experiences from which they were derived.

The Institute for Electronic Art's Visiting Artist Program is sponsored in part by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

Mindful Eating

Join Del Rey Honeycutt, Director of the Wellness Center, for a conversation about mindful eating.

Mindful eating focuses on how we eat versus what we eat. Often times we eat on the run, with many distractions or when we are feeling emotional and may not actually be hungry at all! Allow Del Rey to walk you through some mindful eating techniques and enjoy a discussion around one of our most basic acts of survival: eating food.

Since this is a talk about eating, you are encouraged to bring your lunch to the discussion.

When: February 7th

Cool NEW Portal!

ITS is excited to announce the completion of a new combined student-employee portal that will serve the educational and informational needs of both students and employees. The new portal will feature a mobile-responsive design, and provide easy access to frequently sought-after slices of information in single dashboard display. This portal dashboard is fully-customizable allowing campus users to reorganize the display of information based on their personal need. The portal dashboard has useful components including...

- Access to today's Outlook calendar
- Access to the U:Drive
- A daily listing of campus events
- Preview of recent emails
- Campus directory of students and employees
- Today's Weather
- Residence Hall laundry machine availability (students)
- Network account password change module
- Personalized Web link organizer
- Local movie listings
- Printing balance (students)

Coming in just a few weeks...look for additional details soon!
