

Summertime, and the livin' is busy in Alfred!

7/26/12

Our summer edition of Alfred Online will give you a glimpse of what's been happening both on and off-campus during these hazy days of summer 2012. Learn the secret that many high school football coaches have discovered by bringing their teams to campus. Be the first to know about renovations and upgrades on campus and on Main Street. Go inside the classroom with young people enthused about working with robots. And take a slow photographic journey across to take in the seasonal sights. It's all in the July electronic magazine at:
