An Evening of Dance: AU Dance Theater

Alfred University's Performing Arts Division presents an Evening of Dance Thursday, Feb. 20 through Saturday, Feb. 22 in the Miller Theater at 8:00 pm each night. Admission is free and open to the public. This year's concert promises to be dynamic and engaging, featuring unique works created by four student choreographers and performed by more than 30 student performers.

The 2019-2020 student choreographers are Angela Childs, Mandela Franciscono, Carly Moldow, and Arenze Wellington. Marlin Miller Guest Artist Jenise Anthony will set a new choreographic work featuring 11 dance students and two Alfred University dance alumni, Mon Rodgers and Krystal Cooper. The evening also features two faculty-choreographed pieces with new works by Alfred University Professor of D. Chase Angier and Visiting Assistant Professor of Dance Colleen Wahl, who both are serving co-artistic directors for the performance.

The evening will include dances of all sizes, from an intimate solo to energetic large group works that include an African Diaspora piece. The music selections range from introspective to wild, celebratory and driving. The costumes were designed by Alfred University Designer Maureen Weiss, Colleen Wahl and Wahl's costume students: Luci Busch, Angela Childs, Genesis Luciano, and Mia Modafferri. Sets are built by many students under the direction of Costume Shop manager Debra MacCrea. This evening is made possible by the generous support of the Marlin Miller Dance Residency Program.

Guest artist Jenise Akilah Anthony is a native of Trinidad and Tobago and currently erves as Assistant Professor of African Dance and Artistic Director of Sankofa African Dance and Drum Ensemble at the College at Brockport, State University of New York. She has been a dance educator and choreographer for over ten years, working both nationally and internationally. She is renowned for her African Diaspora dance work and tutelage that is hinged in both traditional and contemporary African dance genres such as West African, Caribbean Folk, Modern Afro-Caribbean, and Afro-Modern.

Painting as Is

Opening Reception: Friday, January 31
Time: 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Dates: Friday, January 31- Monday, February 24
Location: Fosdick-Nelson Gallery

This show brings together a group of artists with a keen interest in the blunt facts of painting. Facts that when deployed can demonstrate a wide range of pictorial languages that stretch across and within both abstraction and representation.

Chamber Singers Concert and Fundraiser!

The Alfred University Chamber Singers, under the direction of Luanne Crosby, Professor of Voice/Chorus, will present an evening of songs from Hollywood 1940-present, in Howell Hall beginning at 7pm Saturday, Feb. 15.

Come and enjoy savory appetizers and scrumptious desserts while listening to solos, duets and choral arrangements of everything from Frank Sinatra to the golden years of Musical Theater. A cash bar will also be available.

The event is a fund-raiser to support the Union University Church where many of the University's choral concerts have been presented in its beautiful acoustic space. It's the Chamber Singers' way of giving back to the community.

Tickets will be available in the campus center the week preceding the event or may be reserved by contacting Michele Hluchy hluchy@alfred.edu or Luanne Crosby at fclarke@alfred.edu.

Cost is $30 per couple, $20 single or a full table of 8 (4 couples) for $100.

Come and enjoy a full evening of continuous music, great food and support for our community!
