

School of Art and Design hosts impending 'Meltdown' this Saturday at Casting Center
10/28/14

The Alfred University (AU) School of Art and Design presents the Eighth Annual Meltdown Cast Iron Art Invitational from noon to 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 1 at The National Casting Center, Sugar Hill Road, Alfred.

The event will feature a number of visiting artists and universities casting their work. Two furnaces will be running throughout the day pouring several thousand pounds of iron.

The Alfred Foundry Guild is also supporting a silent art auction. The proceeds will be donated to various charities.

Meltdown is free to attend and open to the public. Hedgerow Bakery, Alfred, will provide food and refreshments.
