Free tickets to NCAA playoff game offered to Alfred University students

ALFRED, NY Alfred University's Saxon Nation has purchased tickets to this weekend's NCAA Division III playoff game against Bridgewater State that will be provided free to AU students.

A limited number of free tickets to the Saturday (Nov. 19) noon game will be available, giving AU students the opportunity to save the $4 ticket price. The tickets are being offered thanks to the generosity of Saxon Nation, an organization that supports Alfred University's Athletics Department.

"Saxon Nation recognizes the important role our student body has played all year in giving our football team a huge home field advantage," said Bob Codispoti, Saxon Nation president. "This is a gesture to our students to thank them for their enthusiasm and support."

The tickets will be available beginning at 11 a.m. today through 4 p.m. Friday and can be reserved at the Center for Student Involvement (CSI) at the Powell Campus Center. A valid AU Student ID must be presented when reserving tickets.

Tickets can be picked up on game day at a Will Call tent set up near the ticket booth at the main entrance to Yunevich Stadium.

Non-AU students will be able to purchase tickets the day of the game, at the following prices: Adults (17 and older), $6; college students, children 3-16, members of the military (active or veteran) and senior citizens, $4. Children 2 and under will be admitted free of charge.

Current purple seat season ticket holders can reserve their seats. Cost for those tickets will be $6 for adults 17 and older and $4 for senior citizens or members of the military. To reserve those seats, or for more information on ticket sales for Saturday's game, please call 607-871-2193, or email Colleen Harvey at harveyc@alfred.edu
