

Professor to discuss photo work in Eastman House lecture

10/03/06

An Alfred University professor of photography in the School of Art & Design will present a slide lecture on his photographic work on Thursday, Oct. 5, at 6:30 p.m. in the Dryden Theater, George Eastman House, 900 East Ave., Rochester. Roger Freeman says his program will be a survey of his work, including a number of early documentary projects, landscape work from the area and western United States, his cruise ship project, a series on Minor League Baseball, and current work on interior spaces. An exhibit of some of Freeman's work, created in spring 2005 while living and teaching in Florence, Italy as part of the Santa Reparata Study Abroad Program was displayed at the Eastman House last spring and this fall. He accompanied 11 Alfred University students and taught photography at the school.
