

AU women's lacrosse team drops season finale

4/30/07

MEADVILLE, PA The Alfred University women's lacrosse team lost 8-6 to Wittenberg University in the Lady Saxons' 2007 season finale, played Sunday afternoon at Allegheny College. The game was tied at 5-5 at the half before Wittenberg outscored Alfred 3-1 after intermission. Freshman Kate Simonds (Park City, UT/Park City) scored a team-high three goals to pace Alfred, which finishes the season 1-10 overall (0-7 Empire 8). Freshman Abbey Schaffnit (Bemus Point, NY/Maple Grove) had two goals and an assist and freshman Emily Tobin (Penfield, NY/Penfield) added one goal. Wittenberg (3-11), which held a 40-24 advantage in shots, got four goals from Lizzie Amorello and two from Michelle Hanners. Freshman Shauna Carroll (Babylon, NY/West Babylon) made 15 saves for Alfred. Wittenberg netminder Bonnie Kerney stopped 14 AU shots.