Don't wait on your Outstanding Senior noms - here's why

If you have a student in mind, give her/him a better chance of success by nominating ahead of the deadline. Deadline for nominations is March 3, but the deadline for the student to return the application packet after being nominated is March 5. Give your favorite nominee some extra time to complete the application, and submit their names early!

Here are the criteria:

1. Scholarship: Nominee must have a minimum GPA of 3.2, attended AU for at least 4 semesters, and must be graduating in May 2008. (The student affairs office will verify GPA).
2. Extracurricular Achievement: nominee should be fully engaged in the extra-curricular life of Alfred University. Involvement with University recognized organizations and activities, specifically in the areas of leadership and advancement of the organization's mission.
3. Personal Character and Conduct: Nominee will have demonstrated high morale character such as integrity, honesty, civility, personal vitality, generosity, and concern for others while at Alfred University.

The Outstanding Senior Man and Outstanding Senior Woman will be required to address their classmates at the May commencement.

Please feel free to use the link below to nominate a student online, or print and complete the form.
