

Scheer &84 looks &Through a Dirty Window&
6/11/15

Joseph Scheer &84, professor of printmaking in the School of Art and Design at AU, has a new of way of producing and presenting his work. He makes photo books of multiple unbound individual pages in sequence and wooden boxes to contain them.

Some of his boxed books and framed individual photos selected from the books for the most part are on exhibit in “Joseph Scheer: Through a Dirty Window” at the Western New York Book Arts Center through Friday, June 26. The title refers to one of his books in which Joseph took rapid-fire photographs through a window of a high-speed passenger train traveling from Shenyang to Beijing, China.

The Western New York Book Arts Center is at 468 Washington St., Buffalo and is open from noon-6 p.m. Wednesdays-Saturdays. For more information, call 716.348.1430 or email info@wnybookarts.org.

To read more in-depth details about the exhibit and Joseph&s work, please visit:
<http://artvoice.com/issues/v14n22/artscene>