

Lady Saxons drop a heartbreaker

1/13/04

ALFRED, NY The Alfred University women's basketball team lost to Cazenovia College, 56-51 Tuesday evening. The Lady Saxons (2-9, 0-2 Empire 8) struggled offensively, shooting only 27 percent from the field but played strong defense and went in at the half up by three. After falling behind in the second half, Alfred made a strong attempt to retake the lead, but Jen Seymour of Cazenovia hit two key buckets to seal the victory. Pacing Alfred was sophomore forward Meghan Coddington (Amherst, NH/Souhegan) who had 12 points, seven boards, and two blocks. Junior guard Michelle Kelly (Levittown/General Douglas MacArthur) also had a good game with nine points and one assist. Sophomore center Kylene Knoll (Elmira/Elmira Free Academy) was a presence in the middle, contributing with nine points, eight rebounds, and three blocks. Freshman guard Megan Sampsell (Corry, PA/Corry Area) had another strong and consistent night at the guard spot, notching five points, four assists, three rebounds, and two steals. The Lady Saxons are in action next on the road at Medaille Jan. 15 at 7:00 p.m.
