A WEEKEND OF COMMENCEMENTS

Alfred State commencement set for noon Sunday, May 15

ALFRED-Tim Sanders, the former chief solutions officer at Yahoo and a current sales and leadership keynote speaker, will deliver the keynote address for Alfred State's 105th Commencement to be held at 12 noon on Sunday, May 15 outdoors at Pioneer Stadium on the Alfred State campus.

Sanders spent most of his career on the cutting edge of innovation and change. He was on the ground floor of the quality movement, the launch of the mobile phone industry, and most notably the birth of the World Wide Web. Today, e's gravitated to disruptive change for more than 30 years.

Sanders was an early-stage member of Mark Cuban's and Todd Wagner's broadcast.com, which had the largest opening day IPO in history. After Yahoo acquired the company, Sanders was tapped to lead their ValueLab, which enabled sales teams to close hundreds of millions of dollars of new business through rapid collaboration.

By 2001, he rose to the position of chief solutions officer and later, the company's leadership coach. In 2005, he founded Deeper Media, which provides consulting and training services for leading companies, trade associations, and government agen-

Sanders is the author of five books, including the New York Times bestseller "Love Is the Killer App: How To Win Business & Influence Friends." It's been translated into more than a dozen languages and has been featured in Fast Company, USA Today, the New York Times, The Boston Globe, Christian Science Monitor and on CNN. His other books include "Today We Are Rich," "The Likeability Factor," "Saving the World at Work," and "Deal-

Sanders grew up in Clovis, NM, the home of the Fighting Wildcats. He attended Odessa College and Loyola Marymount University, where he was a top-ranked debater and national champion extemporaneous speaker. He conducted his graduate work at the University of Arizona. Today, he lives in Las Vegas.

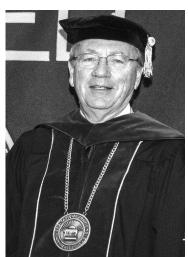

Retiring president will receive degree

ALFRED-The Alfred University (AU) Board of Trustees will confer the degree Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, on Dr. Charles M. Edmondson, the institution's president, during the annual Commencement exercises on campus May 14.

The occasion will mark Edmondson's final Commencement program as he is retiring June 30, 2016 as the University's 13th president, after 16 years at the institution's helm.

Dr. Leslie J. Gelber, chairman of the board of trustees, will confer the degree with assistance from Dr. Rick Stevens, University provost and academic vice president, "in recognition of Dr. Edmondson's lifetime contributions to higher education, and to Alfred University in particular. He is a scholar, an acclaimed educator, a loyal friend, and a more than worthy leader of Alfred University. We are forever indebted to Charles M. Edmondson for his service to Alfred University.

Gelber will also note that AU will "continue to see his (Edmondson's) legacy in the bricksand-mortar projects that began during the past 16 years: the Miller Theater, Joel's House, Ann's House, renovations to

CHARLEY EDMONDSON Herrick Library, Perlman Hall, the Bromeley-Daggett Equestrian Center at Maris Cuneo Equine Park, the Inamori Museum of Fine Ceramics, the McGee Pavilion, the Connors Pavilion, the improvements to Merrill Field, Doris Harrington Softball Field, the Joyce-Walton Family Health and Wellness Center, the Galanis Family Arena in McLane Center, and now the Alfred Ceramic Art Museum.'

While serving as AU president, Edmondson has served as a trustee of the Commission of Independent Colleges and Universities, the Independent College Fund of New York, the Presidents' Council of the NCAA, and as president of the Empire 8 Athletic Conference. In addition, he was appointed by Gov. Cuomo to serve as a charter member of the Regional Economic Development Council (REDC) for Western New York. He continues to serve on the executive committee of the REDC.

Edmondson was a visiting professor at Wuhan University, Wuchang, Hubei Province, People's Republic of China, in 1983. He was named a Phi Beta Delta International Scholar in 1992, and received a Pew Faculty Fellowship in International Relations from the Pew Memorial Trust and the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, 1991-92, and an Arthur Vining Davis Fellowship, 1991-92.

In 1989 and 1990, he was director of a National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Seminar for School Teachers, and participated in the Fulbright Seminars Abroad Program in its Seminar on Korean Culture and History in Seoul, Korea, in 1987. He has also received numerous awards for distinguished

AU alum 'Dr. K' will deliver keynote address

ALFRED-Dr. Susan Kelleher, a Not only does she have her own of avian and exotic pets. Relocating (AU), also known as "Dr. K" from the National Geographic television series "Dr. K's Exotic Animal ER," will deliver the keynote address for the University 2016 Commencement exercises Saturday, May 14 at 10 a.m. in the McLane Center on

The University will bestow an honorary Doctor of Science, honoris causa, degree on Kelleher, owner of Broward Avian and Exotic Animal Hospital, Deerfield, FL, in recognition of her service and dedication to her profession and loyalty to her alma mater.

The 2016 Commencement festivities will mark the final official activity for Dr. Charles M. Edmondson, AU president, who is retiring June 30. Edmondson will preside throughout the program.

Kelleher, an avian and exotic animal veterinarian, has been practicing since 1995 following her graduation from the University of Tennessee's veterinary medicine 1991 alumna of Alfred University practice and reality show, but she to South Florida, she worked in donates her unique experience and expertise to a number of wildlife facilities throughout Florida, including the South Florida Wildlife Center in Fort Lauderdale, where she has been a volunteer for 14 years. She works closely with Dr. Renata Schneider, the director of wildlife rehabilitation, who was Dr. K's first intern in 2002. At Butterfly World in Pompano Beach, where she has been a volunteer for 17 years, Kelleher serves as the official avian veterinarian.

Kelleher is originally from Buffalo and knew growing up that she wanted to be a veterinarian. As a high school student and throughout her years at AU, she volunteered extensively at the Buffalo Zoo. As a veterinary student, she gained experience working at Clinch River Raptor Center as a weekend volunteer. After graduating from veterinary school, Kelleher spent two months in San Diego under the mentorship of Dr. Jeff Jenkins in his private practice devoted solely to the care small animal practices for four years before opening her own practice, pursuing her passion for avian and exotic pets.

Highly regarded in her field, Kelleher has published many articles, written chapters, and lectured at meetings extensively throughout the United States and England on avian and exotic animal medicine. Today she is one of the few exotic animal veterinarians using laser therapy extensively to treat a variety of conditions in her avian and exotic nets and wildlife.

Kelleher lives in Loxahatchee, FL, with her husband, three children, a cat, a 110-pound African Spur Thigh tortoise, macaw, three dogs, two box turtles and a parakeet.

Dr. Susan Kelleher owns and operates one of the busiest exotic animal care practices in South Florida, Broward Avian and Exotics Animal Hospital. "Everything but dogs and cats. If they fit through the door, I'll treat them!"

Fowl Weather

Near the old "Five Corners" intersection, where the Vandermark meets Route 244, three Canada geese were shepherding a group of goslings right down the middle of the westbound lane. The geese were aggravated, honking, flapping their huge wings at the hoodie-clad man running down the outside of the eastbound lane with his dog. As he approached the intersection, the runner, who was Bob Myers, called out as I was trying to get a photo of the wildlife, "I counted fifteen; how many did you get?" They were still far enough away that I hadn't been able to count, and soon a vehicle came down the road, chasing the entire flock off to the side over a bank, so I was glad to get even the photo here.

A few days later, three guinea fowl, residents of Debra and Rory MacCrea's farm at the intersection of Waterwells and Lake Roads, set up much the same loud flap-and-honk as I passed by. Though much smaller birds, they make about the same amount of noise as an irritated goose.

SUNNY SIDE UP

Ada Becker Seidlin, concert pianist

[Editor's Note: Like most of the recipes she shared with our readers over the past couple of decades, Ellen Shultz's Sunny Side Up columns are worth repeating.]

Ada Becker Seidlin had been a concert pianist before she came to Alfred. Her sister Rose Becker was a violinist. They gave several concerts in Alfred. I was privileged to be at one and was very impressed. Someone else told me there was quite a rivalry between the two sisters and when they played together Ada sometimes played too fast so Rose would have trouble keeping up. I thought their music was delightful however.

Ada also gave lessions in Alfred to advanced students and presented them in recitals. Perhaps she served this after a recital. I know from notes in Eva Vars' cookbook that Ada served this to the bridge club on July 18, 1940 at her cottage on Keuka Lake.

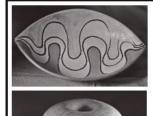

Russian Roll

1 T. Knox gelatin 2 c. scalded milk 3 egg yolks angel food cake toppings, see below

1/2 c. sugar 1/4 tsp. salt 1 tsp. vanilla 1 c. whipping cream

Dissolve gelatin in small amount of cold water. Add scalded milk, salt and sugar. Pour on beaten egg yolks, stirring constantly. Cook in double boiler 10 minutes. (Yes, beat it!) Cool. When it begins to set, fold in cream whipped stiff. Allow to set. Put between and on top of split angel food cake. Cover with chopped pecans and chopped maraschino cherries.

To be really elegant, Ada sometimes served it topped with sliced green grapes, pineapple and cutup marshmallows with a meringue baked on top.

Democratic Party still very much alive

To the Editor:

Regarding the Sun's political cartoon of 5 May, the reports of the death of the Democratic Party are greatly exaggerated.

Snyde Remarks

By DAVID L. SNYDER Editor, Publisher and Janitor

I was at a memorial luncheon Saturday afternoon in Rochester at which we celebrated the life and influence of Gerald Leone, who in 1967 founded the journalism technology program at Morrisville College from whence I graduated in 1974. Given the opportunity, I spoke of how the Morrisville program was a perfect fit for me because "Big Jer" had insisted on instilling a "family" atmosphere within the program. And he did.

One of his frequent antics was to walk in on Newswriting Prof Neal Bandlow's lectures and repeat in a loud voice, "Boring, boring..." which left the fledgling prof with the challenge of trying to restore order from the chaos created among his 60-some students.

Then the fun-loving Leone sent Bandlow and his wife off to the Syracuse airport to meet prospective prof Dan Reeder after having described him as a tall blonde-haired fellow. Reeder has jet black hair...well, he had jet black hair.

Jerry insisted on students calling his professors by their first names because he didn't know of any newsrooms where reporters didn't call editors by their first names. He wanted the program to simulate a "real life" newsroom. Following classes on Friday afternoons, professors made themselves available to students. Much was learned in the less structured, more social gatherings with mentors.

As I am the youngest in my family, I grew up accustomed to the hen pecking and name-calling that occurs in families. At Morrisville, it was no different as I became known to Neal as "Alfred," because he insisted that was all I ever talked about. Seems that was prophetic because, well, here I am, "serving a life sentence"...and loving every minute of it.

I shared the fact that as Editor, Publisher and Janitor of the Alfred Sun, I had captured not one but TWO Bloopers of the Year awards in the New York Press Association Better Newspaper Contest and that this year I had the two lone entries. Perhaps Big Jer, who had a gift for making people laugh, had something to do with that.

As I concluded my talk, Neal rose from his seat and declared that the Alfred Sun is the best darn newspaper in New York State.

Thanks, Neal, for your vote of confidence, and thanks, Big Jer, for making it all happen.

Cutting It Short

One starts to hum, a steady pitch, just waiting for the next; To this a second harmonizing hummer is annexed. These barbershoppers tune their pipes in resonant accord; A third and fourth soon join the two, establishing a chord.

Then up, down, back, and forth they race with musical delight— But never seem upon a final cadence to alight. And that's because their humming's neither barbershop nor hymn: These "barbers" hum with mowers, as they give their lawns a "trim".

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT VISION, MISSION STATEMENT AND OBJECTIVES

f you don't have a clear understanding of what you want to accomplish it becomes very difficult to achieve your desired results. That realization motivated a group of education leaders, business leaders and government leaders to spend almost a full year developing an economic development vision statement and mission statement. The Vision Statement commits Allegany County "To be a sound economic competitor that consistently attracts, retains and expands local businesses and industries through ongoing local, state, national and foreign direct investments in Allegany County." Every word in that Vision Statement was examined, debated and carefully considered before being accepted as part of our Vision.

The team that developed our Vision Statement, Mission Statement, Strategies and Objectives was comprised of top leaders from several important sectors. Members included the presidents of Alfred State College, Alfred University and Houghton College. Top leadership from major county businesses, County Legislators and county department heads, also participated. This ensures that these documents represent a comprehensive cross-section of viewpoints.

This Vision is important for us, and to businesses and investors thinking about locating here. We are now committed to maintaining unwavering public and private support for the following guiding principles:

•Fostering the fulfillment of our potential along the dimensions of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, age, physical abilities, religious beliefs, political beliefs, or other ideologies through the exploration of these differences in a safe, positive, and nurturing environ-

 Providing world class educational curriculums that continuously attract diverse student populations for meeting and exceeding the workforce needs of local and worldwide businesses and in-

•Ensuring the safety and security of all county residents and visitors by developing and maintaining support for area police, fire and emergency medical aid personnel and related services.

•Continually improving the quality and cost-effectiveness of countywide services making our county a highly attractive location for small businesses to locate and reside;

•Working closely with local leaders and volunteer groups to ensure that county and local goals are achieved - recognizing that countywide decisions have differing effects on individuals and businesses depending upon their physical locations and

 Providing necessary utility services including clean water supply, electricity, telephone, natural gas, storm water drainage, and disposal of sewerage and solid waste in a manner which is fiscally and environmentally responsible;

 Maintaining strength through appropriate public and private investments in physical improvements and ongoing efforts for protecting itself from intrusion by incompatible uses;

 Demonstrating an uncompromising commitment to the conservation of our scarce resources through the proactive behavior of our residents, businesses, local government and academic lead-

In addition to our Vision Statement we developed a "Mission Statement." Our Mission is "To provide the highest level of economic development services to retain, expand and attract investment in businesses, industries and supportive infrastructure." The Team identified three Strategies, each with three specific objectives. These specific objectives are crucial if we are going to be able to measure our success in achieving economic devel-

The first Strategy is to "Create a County-wide integrated marketing campaign. The three objectives are to develop an "Economic Development Brand," to develop a "Lifestyle Brand," and to develop a County "Website." For example, the website is to be a "world class Allegany County website with a priority on Economic Development.'

The second Strategy is to establish an "Economic Development Structure." The three objectives are to develop a "Consistent Message," to establish a "Development Structure," and to establish "Development Services."

The third Strategy is aimed at "Business and Industry Retention, Expansion and Attraction." The three Objectives involve establishing "Benchmarks," providing support for "Business Collaboration," and fostering "Foreign and Domestic Investment.'

The County Legislature formally adopted the Vision Statement, Mission Statement, Strategies and Objectives at its April 25th meeting. An implementation group has been established to guide county efforts to fulfill the promise of our newly established focus. The next year or two should be exciting and challenging. However, we have a lot of work to do.

ALFRED—Thursday, May 5, 2016, was a special day at the Allegany County Office for the Aging Alfred Nutrition Site, hosted by Debbie Pierson at the Union University Church Cenake that said it all, a special celebration of our living history. Debbie worked diligently to engage Alfred Almond's Senior High Chorus to provide a delightful program of music. Directed by Lisa Carr and accompanied by Donna Ryan, young women and eight young Peter McClain. Cheryl Czworka, men) regaled attendees with a delightful menu of song, while the audience enjoyed the day's menu of lasagna, spinach, salad, and, of course, cake.

Also present, in honor of the occasion, were Alfred Village

Nutrition Coordinator, recognized the invaluable work of many volunteers, and Debbie concluded the program, which was also the Mothers' Day program, by presenting red carnations to various women in the vided at the Alfred site Mon-Wednesdays, days, Thursdays, at noon. Please call Debbie Pierson at the number listed in the middle section of this newspaper for information and reservations.

Appleseed Collective' in Wellsville

WELLSVILLE—The Appleseed Collective will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 14 at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center. Advance tickets are $14, $16 at door. Members save an additional $2. Tickets may be purchased online www.WellsvilleCreativeArts-Center.com or at the Art Center Coffee House. For more information visit the website or call (585) 593-3000.

The Appleseed Collective is a four-piece Americana band that's toured the United States since 2010, serving up songs new and old — barn-burners, old soul jazz, airy mood pieces, bluesy digressions — to crowds hungry for more. Their music is a rich Dixie-Gypsy roots-music melange with a modern twist, a long-simmering stew of oldtime, ragtime and bluegrass constantly refreshed with immigrant sounds and international spices.

Each part of the Collective comes together to form an amalgam of complementary and contrasting elements. With a Motown session musician for a father, guitarist Andrew Brown was exposed to pre-World War II jazz on a trip to New Orleans. Shortly afterward, a chance meeting introduced him to Brandon Smith, violinist, mandolinist and improvisatory magician who grew up playing old time fiddle music.

Vince Russo, multi-percussionist, blends influences of funk, jazz and rock n' roll on the washboard. Eric Dawe comes from a background of choral singing and studies in Indian classical music and provides the bottom end on the upright bass. The whole band sings in har-

No Americana sound could ring so true unless it's been seasoned with uncounted highway miles. The Appleseed Collective has toured coast-to-coast-tocoast-to-coast, from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific Ocean, the shores of Lake Superior to the tip of Florida, recording two studio albums—Baby to Beast (2012) and Young Love (2014)—a live album, Live at the Ark (2014), and most recently a live EP and web series, The Tour Tapes (2016).

The Appleseed Collective is not a bluegrass band. It's not The Hot Club of Paris. It's not a ragtime cover band. The Appleseed Collective represents Americana music rooted in traditions from all over the world and from every decade, creating a live experience that welcomes every soul and is impossible to repli-

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

My Trip to Mars By MELANIE MILLER Alfred Box of Books Director

Last week I was given the incredible opportunity to attend a training held by the Lunar and Planetary Institute on incorporating space-themes and STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) into library programs. I am excited and energized by what I learned this week and I can't wait to share it with the community! The training was called Explore Mars. It discussed the history of Mars exploration, the science involved, the engineering of technology to collect data from Mars and of course, the possibility of life on Mars. With fun, hands on activities developed for children of all ages, the information I learned brought Mars to life.

The Box of Books will be offering a series of programs with the information learned. Be sure to look for information in the future! This will be a great adventure for children and adults alike. Lego Club is Thursday evenings at 4 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend and share in this timeless activity. We will be holding a Technology Test Drive on May 19 from 1-3 p.m. Please contact the library for more information.

The DIY Farmer's Wife Approach

By KRISTINA SNYDER Alfred Sun Columnist

DIY Bathroom Freshness

Bathroom air can get stale or develop other unpleasant scents over the course of the day. While reading a blog recently I stumbled upon this awsome "life-hack" that really keeps your batthroom smelling fresh all day without the use of artificial chemicals.

DIY Bathroom Air Freshener

*10 drops essential oil

*toilet paper roll

Drop 10 drops of your favorite essential oils on a new toilet paper roll. Replace empty roll on rack and repeat this every time the roll runs out. Mix and match scents to find your favorite combination. A few of my favorites are; lavender, calendula, chamomile, Rosemary, camphor and wintergreen.

team ties for first in annual competition

ALFRED–For the third time, the Alfred State Basic Utility Vehicle (BUV) Team came out on top in a national competition.

The team tied with Purdue University for first place in this year's intercollegiate BUV Design Competition, sponsored by the Institute for Affordable Trans-portation and held April 23 in Batavia, OH. In addition to its three first-place finishes, Alfred State's BUV team has also come in second four times since first entering the completion in

The contest is a combination of a race and manufacturing design competition. For building a highly efficient pumping system, which was almost twice as fast as any other team's, Alfred State was recognized with the Most Innovative Award.

This year, the competition involved producing a vehicle capable of operating in rough rural terrain and hauling up to three 55-gallon drums full of water. The event was primarily concerned with endurance, as the teams had to pump water from a pond to fill the three drums and negotiate three laps over a rugged 2.2-mile course including changes in elevation and plenty of twists, turns, and mud.

Upon completion of the three laps, the teams then had to empty the drums and refill them and repeat the exercise. Each lap was worth 10 points and each full drum was worth five points

"It was evident from the beginning that the contest would be won by either Purdue or Alfred State," said Dr. Edward Tezak, SUNY Distinguished Teaching Professor and chair of the Mechanical and Electrical Engineering Technology Department. "Purdue had the fastest vehicle, but the Alfred State team made up ground at the

Alfred State vehicle sheared a then." critical bolt dealing with the steering. A makeshift repair using a screwdriver in place of the bolt seemed to be a temporary fix, according to Tezak.

Then on the fifth lap, the vehicle developed a fuel issue and lost almost a lap to Purdue. Over the next few laps, the steering quick fix failed twice more and finally the team figured out a way to use two pairs of vice grip pliers to hold the steering together for the remainder of the competition.

'The Purdue vehicle broke down about half an hour before the competition ended," Tezak said. "However, a shive shifted in our vehicle and the belt drive

Since they could get points even without hauling water, the team decided to run dry and get more points and possibly catch up to the Purdue vehicle. However, Purdue managed to get rolling again before being caught by Alfred State.

"At first it appeared that Purdue had won the event, but they were assessed a 20-point penalty, which resulted in a tie," Tezak said. "Had the event lasted five more minutes, the Alfred State team would have completed its last lap and won by 10 points.

bers who competed this year included mechanical engineering technology students Mitchell Rogers, of Troupsburg; Robert Rousseau, of Hyde Park; Kyle Jones, of Ransomville; William Easterly, of Brewerton; and James Haveron, of Falconer. The team was accompanied by Tezak and Academic Support Technician Ray Gleason.

In addition to Alfred State, the other major competitors were Purdue University, Baylor University, two entries from the University of Cincinnati, and Trine University. Baylor and Cincinnati tied for third place in the competition.

"Rob Rousseau did a great job with his 'field fixes' of the steering system, and Mitchell Rogers gets the credit for the outstanding high-speed water pumping design," Tezak said. "It was an afternoon of emotional highs and lows, but I am really proud of the team and how the members came together and just would not give up."

Students agreed that each person's talents and skills were utilized to create a winning BUV, and that the team, despite the challenges they faced, never once gave up.

"We all chipped in and did what we had to do to finish the competition, Rogers said. "My teammates are great guys and this competition was like no pond with more efficient unloading and loading of the water." During the first three laps, the Alfred State seniors excel in Associate Constructor exam

ALFRED-Proving that they have achieved a high level of skill and knowledge within their field, 35 seniors in Alfred State's construction management engineering technology program recently aced the eight-hour Associate Constructor (AC) Exam.

Collectively, the students scored 14.88 points higher than the national average and accounted for a pass rate that was 11 percent higher than their peers across the country.

The exam is the first level of certification in the Constructor Cer-tification Program. This level of certification is ideal for recent graduates of four-year construction management programs or those transitioning into construction management from other industries. AC's are individuals who have a high level of skill and knowledge in managing the process of construction.

"Those of us in the Civil Engineering Technology Department are ry proud of our seniors," said Erin Vitale, department chair, "For many years, they have outperformed, scored well, and excelled. And this year they've exceeded our expectations even further when comparing their scores with peers."

The professional exam, which took place last month, covered all four years of coursework in the construction management engineering technology curriculum. This included communications skills; project administration; bidding and estimating; materials, methods, and project modeling and visualization; and more.

Dr. John Williams, dean of the School of Architecture, Management and Engineering Technology, said the students' results are impressive and a testament to the dedication, experience, and quality of Alfred State's faculty and programs.

"The exam verifies the knowledge and skills of our students in construction," Williams said, "and the certification helps graduates secure excellent positions in a highly competitive field."

Alfred State holds annual year-end athletic banquet

The Alfred State athletic department celebrated the 2015-16 athletic year at the annual athletic department end of the year awards held recently in the Cappadonia Auditorium.

Pioneer Award: Lera Braun (Volleyball), Robert Mahany (Soccer), Brady Sass (Baseball)

Braun, a four year member of the volleyball team, earned USCAA All-American twice including being named 1st team this year. She helped the Lady Pioneers to a second straight trip to USCAA National Championships and the ECAC Championship. Braun is the all-time school leader in assists with 3,792 assists.

She is credited for being the true court general for the team who leads by example on and off the court. Braun has also been an active participant with the volleyball team's Pink Pride game and numerous other athletic department activities.

Mahany, a two year member and captain this season of the soccer team, was a key component of the Pioneer defense. He is credited for leading by example, trying to strive to make the team successful, and always looking for ways to get involved on and off the field. He is a member of the Emerging Pioneer Leadership Program and works in the civic engagement department on campus.

Sass, a three-year member of the baseball team, has been a bulldog on the mound pitching a career high 69 innings. On the mound he has collected 11 career victories while off the field he has been part of all the baseball team's civic engagement projects. Credited for being a fierce competitor that demands excellence from those around him and for understanding what it takes to be a successful student-athlete day-in and day-out

Athlete of the Year Award: Victoire Kothor (Track & Field) & Ian VanValen (Wrestling)

Kothor, a two-year member of the track & field team, continued to rewrite the throwing record books this season. She is the school record holder in the shot put and weight throw indoor and the shot put and hammer throw outdoors. She won the ECAC championship in shot and was 2nd in the weight throw indoors and will compete in the shot put and hammer throw at the outdoor championships. She is credited by her coaching staff for being a team player that has cooked dinners for her team and has helped organize the team's end of year banquet. She also represents the athletic department well as an admission office

VanValen, a two-year member of the wrestling team, qualified for the NCWA Championships for the second straight season. He was 23-12 this year with nine pins. He won the USCAA Invitational title and the NCWA Northeast Championship title before finishing 4th at the NCWA National Championships. His and teammates

Ryan Thierman's 4th place finish at Nationals this year are the top finishes by any wrestler in the NCAA era. During his two years at Alfred State, VanValen is has recorded 35 victories and 12 nins

Newcomer of the Year Award: Catherine Bialecki (Basketball), Alison Sell (Swimming), Jeff Andrews (Football), &

Thomas Shofi (Baseball)
Bialecki transferred to Alfred
State this winter and had an immediate impact on the basketball team. She was named 2nd team
USCAA All-American after appearing in 14 games and averaging 13 points per game and 7.6
rebounds per game. She collected five double-doubles on the season and 27 blocks. She had a career high 26 points in a victory over Delhi and grabbed 16 rebounds vs. Fisher College.

Sell became the first Alfred State swimmer to qualify for the ECAC Championships where she finished 26th in the 100 breaststroke. She broke and established new records in nine individual events at Alfred State during the NCAA Era. She broke a pool record in the 100 breaststroke at Delhi that had stood since 1998.

Andrews played every offensive play on the offensive line. He took snaps at three different positions this year (left tackle, left guard, center), only gave up one sack all year, and recorded 12 pancake blocks. He was a 2nd team All-USCAA selection and holds a 3.86 GPA.

Shofi, led the baseball team with a .402 batting average in 38 games. He established a new NCAA era record with 18 doubles. He also collected two triples, two homers, and drove home 25 runs. Had a .472 onbase percentage and a .622 slugging percentage.

Academic Award: Angel Bresnahan (Track & Field/Soccer) & Tyler Elliott (Basketball

Bresnahan, a member of the women's soccer and track & Field teams, has a 3.97 GPA in Baking Program

Elliott, a member of the men's basketball team, has a 4.00 GPA in Construction Management.

Leadership Award: Stormi Kruger (Soccer/Softball) & Brandon Teboe (Track & Field)

Kruger, a three-year member of the soccer and softball teams, is a key component to the soccer team's defense and the leading hitter on the softball team. On the soccer field she helped the Lady Pioneers to their 3rd straight trip to the USCAA National Championships while on the softball diamond she hit .400 with 27 RBIs. Credited for being a great leader in practice, on the field, and in the weight room. Her intensity helps others around her become better players and she is always willing to help with recruiting.

Teboe, a three year member of the track & field team, has battled injuries this season but has continued to lead his team and find ways to help team. Qualified for two events at the New York State Championships this spring after finishing 2nd at the state meet last year in the pole vault. He is credited for being always willing to help coaching staff and teammates, for being very helpful to his teammates in their skill development, and for volunteering time to help the athletic department prospective recruits and for helping with strength and conditioning activities. Was also honored by being named to the USCAA All-Academic team.

Daniel Neverett Sportsmanship Award: Kylie Hint (Soccer) & Brad Haggerty (Wrestling)

Hint, a two-year member of the soccer team, is a hard working player that gives it her all in practice and pushes those around her to be better. Credited for being a tenacious defender who has made her own offensive player better during practice. Never complains about losses or playing time and is a joy to be around and is there to support her teammates. Holds a 3.86 GPA and was named to the USCAA All-Academic team.

Haggerty, has been a member of the wrestling team the last three years, and finished this season with 14 victories. He narrowly missed a spot in the NCWA Championships but didn't miss a workout as he helped his teammates get ready for the championships. Credited for constantly supported his teammates in a positive manner and for being humble in victory and positive and respectful in loss. Haggerty also earned Empire Collegiate Wrestling Conference All-Academic Team honors.

Pioneer Cup: The Baseball Team

Established this school year, the Pioneer Cup honors the team that has combined success in athletic achievements, academic excellence, and in civic engagement.

William Havens Award: Alexe Pask & Gina Boyd

Pask, a valuable part of our athletic training staff, goes above and beyond for the student-athletes including taking students to doctor appointments, designing new rehab approaches, and communicating with the coaching staff. She took on more duties this year as the athletic department was shorthanded for half the school year and is willing to come in during her off days if a team or studentathlete needs her.

Boyd, the women's basketball coach, the senior women's administrator, and physical education director, excels in all her duties. She is credited for going above and beyond for the benefit of the student-athletes and the athletic department, taking younger staff under her wings, and is always willing to listen.

Pioneer Honors: Leo Lejeune Lejeune, a tireless worker in support of Pioneer athletics, Has coordinated the department's transportation for numerous years. This includes working with the busing companies that the athletic department hires on over 100 trips a school year. He is flexible and understanding with all changes even at the last moment and willing to help the athletic department in any way possible.

'Grasstravaganza' to be held Aug. 4-6 for farmers, conservationists, consumers

ALFRED-Grasstravaganza, an event for farmers, conservationists, and consumers who are interested in soil health, grazing, and sustainable agriculture, will be held at Alfred State Aug. 4-6.

Taking place on the Alfred campus, the conference, "Healthy Soils, Healthy Animals, Healthy Farms," will feature presentations by national and local grazing and soil health experts who will cover a range of topics, interactive soil health-related activities, and a trade show.

The featured speaker this year is Dr. Fred Provenza. For more than 38 years, Provenza has produced groundbreaking research on livestock grazing behavior. This work has influenced research in areas from nutrition and foraging behavior of animals and humans, to rural sociology and development.

Additional speakers include Justin Morris, Natural Resources Conservation Service soil health specialist; Matt Ehrhart, director of Watershed Restoration at the Stroud Water Research Center, an independent research institution focused on stream and river ecology; and Dr. Hue Karreman (tentative), a "first-generation" organic veterinarian, who began using alternative treatments in 1988 as a herdsman on a biodynamic farm.

For more information or to register, visit the web site at www.alfredstate.edu/grasstravaganza or call Karen Meade at 607-587-4714.

Green named 'Open SUNY Online Teaching Anbassador'

ALFRED-Alfred State is pleased to announce that Danielle Green, an instructor and chair of the Business Department, has been named an Open SUNY Online Teaching Ambassador.

Green was nominated by Alfred State as an exemplary online educator, who is both enthusiastic and effective in online teaching, and who can be a positive and strong advocate for online teaching in the SUNY community.

"I congratulate Danielle on her achievement and thank her for all of her hard work in being an online teaching advocate for our college," said Alfred State President Dr. Skip Sullivan.

Green teaches both lower- and upper-level court reporting classes, including theory, speed building, and procedures for reporters and captioners. Court and realtime reporting (AAS) and court reporting and captioning (certificate) are two of Alfred State's various online academic offerings.

Speaking about its benefits, Green noted that online learning provides flexibility to adult learners, career-changers, those returning to school after a long absence, and all other populations not sufficiently served by the traditional college environ-

Psi Beta inducts five at Alfred State

ALFRED-Five students at Alfred State were recently inducted into the Psi Beta honor society, an organization that promotes interest in the study of psychology at two-year colleges.

Inducted were Courtney Green, human services, Lisbon; Aurora Hayes, human services, Brooklyn; Ashley Kennedy, human services management, Troupsburg; Chelsey Pierce, human services management, Portville; Brenna Schleigh, human services management, Randolph.

To qualify for induction, students must have earned a 3.25 (out of a possible 4.0) grade point average, including 3.0 in at least one psychology course. Additionally, she said, it provides those not comfortable in the traditional classroom an avenue to exchange thoughts and ideas with others in a safe environment and to showcase their talents which they may have been hesitant or anxious about doing in an on-ground program.

'Our primary goal for online education is to reach a wider cross section of learners and to service those who would not have normally considered Alfred State for their education," Green said. "Distance learning is paramount to place-bound students who need to hone their current skills to gain promotions in their career or be overall marketable in the workforce. Online teaching can only occur when the learning materials are delivered in an accessible, consistent, and meaningful manner.'

Green added that online instructors must be passionate in their field and the educational delivery mode, and consistently seek out new knowledge in relation to online learning to continuously improve how education is delivered around the globe.

50 Years Ago, May 12, 1966

William Ide, who purchased the Glover Grocery ten weeks ago, has now bought Jacox Food Mart and plans to move into the larger store over this weekend. Howard Jacox sold his store, effective Sunday, thus bringing to an end 40 years of Jacox ownership of the business. The sale also brings to an end the speculation that one of the village groceries would go out of business as a result of the building of the IGA Foodliner on the Alfred Station Road last summer. Ide said he would make the move Saturday and open in the new location Sunday morning. Both stores are on the Main Street business block. He said he bought the Jacox store in order to increase the amount of floor and display area. The new store will be known as "Ide's Grocery."...Mr. and Mrs. Jacox have been running the store in its present location for 15 years. Jacox bought the store from his uncle, John Jacox, Alfred village mayor, who had operated the grocery for 25 years before selling to his nephew. Howard Jacox is now acting postmaster and expects to receive a permanent appointment as postmaster in the near future...Ide said the larger store will be operated by him and his wife along with three employees. 'Skip" Griffen, who worked for the Glover Grocery and has continued for Ide since March, has agreed to stay on. Also Gladys Vanderhoef, who has worked for Jacox, will keep her position when Ide takes over. He said he has no commitment but hopes that Anna Cornelius, who has worked for Jacox, will keep her position.

U.S. Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato (R-NY), in a letter to the General Accounting Office (GAO), called for an immediate investigation of the low-level waste site selection process employed by the New York State Siting Commission. D'Amato, in the May 3rd letter to the U.S. Comptroller General Charles Bowser asked the GAO to immediately evaluate the site selection process employed by the New York State Siting Commission. The Senator noted the considerable concern by the citizens of the counties slected that "these sites were selected without sufficient attention to the geology of the region or the compatibility of the sites with the various disposal methods." The Siting Commission has selected five potential sites, two in Cortland County and three in Allegany County, for a permanent disposal facility for low-level radioactive waste..

(By Anne Acton) I can take a big sigh of relief and catch my breath for a bit until we start the next project. The Open Houses for the Village Hall kitchenette and theater space were a big success. Both events were well attended and everyone enjoyed the entertainment and light refreshments. Many thanks to the Alfred Community Theatre group and Peter O'Connor for providing light entertainment for both occasions and to ACES, Adrienne Stanley, and the Varshneyas for the refreshments...The completion of the second floor theater space and kitchenette would never have happened without the help of dozens and dozens of people. For all intent and purposes the space is complete and ready for public use. The dream has finally become a reality!....

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE MAY 23

Blood drive a chance to save a few lives

ALFRED STATION—If you see a person struggling in a lake keeping their head just above water and you have life-saving skills, would you help? If you hear a person shouting from a burning building and you are trained and have a clear path, would you enter bringing the person to safety? If you are first aid trained and come upon a hunter face down in the woods bleeding, would you walk on by or use your knowledge? If you could save a life by giving a pint of blood would you?

On Monday, May 23, between 2 and 7 p.m. in the Social Rooms of the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church, "A 3 C church: Connect-Care-Community" will be a Red Cross Blood Drive. One pint given may be used to bring life to three persons. Whatever your blood type if you can give would you?

People need you to give them your concern, your time, and sharing the gift of life. If you would like to schedule an appointment call 1-800- redcross or go online to www.redcrossblood.org.

Please remember even if you don't have an appointment in order to save a life, walk-ins are welcomed. When you come to give please bring your Red Cross Donation Card or some form of positive ID. Whatever your blood type if you can give, would you?

The Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church meeting house is located at 587 Route 244, Alfred Station. If you need further information be sure to call the church office at 607-587-9176. Decide now to give blood and give life. Whatever your blood type if you can give, would you?

A.E. Crandall Hooks Fire Co. Thanks to the Village of Alfred and Dan Totten, parade co-ordinator for a most enjoyable Hot Dog Day Parade! Our enthusiasm has nothing to do with the prize awarded to A.E. Crandall Hook and Ladder Company for the "Most Wheels in the Parade." The quirky fun of the parade was a wonderful kick off to Hot Dog

Now, a week later, Hot Dog Day is still very much on the minds of A.E.Crandall company members. The month of April had the volunteer company responding to a total of 42 ambulance calls, up to Hot Dog Day (the LAST day of April) and the Friday night leading into the event.

BEFORE Hot Dog Day our calls for ambulance service numbered 42

Calls related to Hot Dog Day, Fri. & Sat., Apr. 29 & 30 num-

The pressures on the Village and especially on the volunteers of A.E. Crandall to keep residents, students, and visitors safe and healthy make a huge leap on and around Hot Dog Day. Clearly, while good progress is being made to reduce risky behaviors and over-consumption, one more than last year.

Alfred State College, Alfred University, the Village of Alfred, A. E.Crandall and the surrounding law enforcement groups must continue to develop and strengthen ways to keep Hot Dog Day the good time that is should be for all—that is, fully enjoyable, safe and healthy. The largest problems and the highest numbers of calls for the fire company come HOURS after the parade, carnival, and craft show. Of the 18 calls, 14 were students in attendance at A-State or AU; the remaining were four guests.

On the fire side (shall we chat?) of things, calls during April totaled 33. Of these, 26 were automatic alarms of fire (false alarms to which we MUST respond) on the two campuses. The remaining were one fire call, one mutual aid, and five standbys.

For May and June, please understand and abide by the New York State burn regulations. While we watch in horror, the disaster in Northern Canada, it is good to remind everyone how easy it is to mistakenly touch off grass fires in the tall, dead stalks of last year's growth. The magnitude of the blaze in Canada is, thankfully, unlikely here, yet, we the number of calls this year is want to avoid any such accident in or around Alfred.

> 'Spring into Action" in mid-April brought much help to prepare and paint the meeting room. The sisters of Psi Zeta Psi did the painting and it is so refreshed and bright. Thank you!! In addition several company members made special efforts to move items, clean and organize so that the painting by the sorority sisters was efficient; they followed up with a happy rearrangement of all of the files and equipment needed in the meeting room. Great thanks to Mike Lopreto, as well as to Zach Hamm and Rebecca Weaver Hamm, Jane and Timothy Cochran, and Marlene and Wendell Peters. We even have the portrait of the company's first "foreman," Will H. Crandall beautifully and professionally reframed, thanks to the generosity and skill of Ken Maracek.

> Finally as we get ready for summer, please do not leave children or pets in parked cars. Even in the relative coolness of Alfred's lovely month of May, internal car temperatures can quickly climb to well over 100o. This is also a great time to assemble your family car first aid kit in preparation for travel!

Have a great and safe spring!!!

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, May 12

Referring to the War for Independence while addressing the New Jersey State Senate in 1861, Abraham Lincoln said:

"I am exceedingly anxious that this Union, the Constitution, and the liberties of the people shall be perpetuated in accordance with the original idea for which that struggle was made. And I shall be most happy, indeed, if I shall be an humble instrument in thehands of the Almighty...for perpetuating the object of that great struggle."

Young introduces state aid proposal

ALBANY –Senator Catharine Young (R,C,I- 57th District) has introduced legislation (S.7408) to reduce the local property tax burden by providing 100 percent state aid to cover the increase in the county district attorneys' salaries.

"Providing this mandate relief for our county governments affords them better control over their own finances, and helps them pass along that savings to residents and businesses. The state can assume the cost much easier than our local governments, and it's only right that we do so," said Senator Young.

District Attorney salaries are tied in statute to judicial pay.

Friends of Allegany Arc again holding annual Cash Bonanza fundraiser

WELLSVILLE–Friends of Allegany Arc is once again holding their Cash Bonanza fundraiser. Tickets are on sale now and can be purchased from any Allegany Arc employee or by calling (585) 593-5700. Cash Bonanza is a raffle type drawing and Friends of Allegany Arc's largest fundraiser.

All proceeds from Cash Bonanza go directly toward opportunities for people with special needs. Last year's ticket sales allowed the Friends Foundation to build the Polanowski Pavilion, assisted with the cost of a sensory swing, wheelchair ramp, specialized music lessons, and purchased practice jerseys and uniforms for Allegany County's Special Olympics Teams.

Cost of tickets is $20 with daily prizes of $40 on Mondays, $60 on Tuesdays, $80 on Wednesdays, $100 on Thursdays, and $200 on Fridays. All tickets are re-entered daily and there will be a final one-time drawing for $1,000 on December 9th. This year winners will be announced daily on Allegany Arc's website (www.AlleganyArc.org) and facebook page (www.facebook.com/AlleganyArc).

Drawings begin on Monday, August 8, 2016. For more information on Cash Bonanza, visit Allegany Arc's website www.Allegany Arc org

AU softball team eliminated from Empire 8 tournament

ITHACA--The Alfred University softball team saw its season end Saturday afternoon with an 8-0 six-inning loss to St. John Fisher in an elimination game of the Empire 8 Conference Championship Tournament.

With the loss, Alfred ends its season with a 29-12 record.

The Saxons' only hit in the game was a sixth-inning single by junior first baseman Sophia

Chiavatti (Tustin, CA/Foothill). Sophomore Kerri Keeler (Jamesville-DeWitt) took the pitching loss for AU, the doubleelimination tournament's fourth seed. Keeler started and went 4 2/3 innings, allowing four runs (two earned) on six hits while striking out two. Sophomore Shannon Schaefer (Westfield, NJ) pitched an inning of relief, allowing four runs (three earned) on six hits, striking out one.

St. John Fisher, the second seed, defeated top-seed and host team Ithaca Sunday morning to hand the Bombers their first loss in the double-elimination tournament. Ithaca then defeated the Cardinals to grab the tourney crown and the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA playoffs.

AU had two players named to the Empire 8 All-Tournamennt Team: Chiavatti and junior third baseman Liz Thompson (Horseheads). Chiavatti batted .375 (3for-8) in the three games Alfred played, with three RBIs. She drove in all three runs in Alfred's 3-2 win over Utica in an elimination game Friday. Thompson was also 3-for-8 in the three games, with a double and a run scored.

Presthus leads Saxons

Sophomore Anders Presthus (Lansing) led the Alfred University men's outdoor track and field team in scoring on the final day of the NYSCTC Championships on Saturday to finish the team in 10th out of the 12-team field.

The thrower qualified in both the shot put and discus throws for the ECAC Championships with personal bests. He finished fourth in the discus with a toss of 44.07 meters (144'-7") and picked up a sixth place mark of 14.45 meters (47'-5") in the shot put. Presthus earned the most points of the entire two-day event (not counting sophomore Seth Spicer and his points from Friday and the decathalon earlier in the week) with eight total points. The Saxons finished with

Also competing in the shot put and leading Presthus was senior Ian Bishop (Bronx/Bonxwood Prep). Bishop continued his streak of continuously hitting his ECAC marks and broke his personal best in shot during the outdoor season by taking third in the state for Division III with a toss of 15.45 meters (50'-8.25"). In a lone event, he was the highest earner for the Saxons on the day and tied Spicer's decathalon plac-

Outside of the field events, sophomore Erik Diehl (Clarence Center) was the only track scorer with four points from his fifth place finish during the 800 meter run with a time of 1:55.38.

Sophomore Matthew Finley (Holland) added to the field athletes' success with a seventh place finish in the triple jump. He scored two points for the Saxons with a jumpr of 12.92 meters (42'-4.75").

The Saxons have a "lastchance" meet on Saturday, May 14 at St. John Fisher College to qualify for ECAC's. The big meet will be held in Westfield. MA on Wednesday, May 18-19 in order for those student-athletes to qualify for the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championship Meet at the end of the month. NCAA's is a four-day event from May 25 until May 28 in Wartburg, MI.

Saxons' Covert 9th at Nationals

LEXINGTON, KY--Gabrielle Covert (Perry), a junior on the Alfred University equestrian team, competed Sunday at the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) National Championship Show in Lexington, KY.

Covert, competing in the Western advanced horsemanship class, placed ninth. She had qualified for nationals by virtue of her fourth place finish at the IHSA Western Semi-Finals in March in Murfreesboro, TN. Thirteen riders competed in advanced horsemanship at Western nationals.

Covert also compete in at nationals on Wednesday in walk-trotcanter in the Hunt Seat division. She did not place (top 10) in that

Saxon women compete

Alfred University women's outdoor track and field team finished at No. 13 out of the 13-team scoring field during the NYSCTC Championships on Saturday at Rensselear Polytechnic Institute.

Freshman Megan Sadowitz (Hopewell Junction/John Jay) finished 11th overall with a jump of 1.49 meters (4'-10.5") in the high jump. Her jump technically tied RPI's eighth place finisher Jillian Salkind as well as five others but the number of missed attempts defaulted her to her placing and out of the scoring

Her previous school record was set last year in which she ran a 38:40.60. The personal best time was an improvement of 33.31 seconds from last year's mark.

Sophomore Megan Steen (Portsmouth, RI) competed in the hammer throw. She finished 25th overall after only competing in the prelims (taking 12th in her flight). Steen tossed 31.51 meters (103'-4"). Her distance was a personal best, topping last year's mark at the Cardinal Classic of 30.95 meters (101'-6.4") by .36

Netmen complete schedule

The AU men's tennis team wrapped up its 2015-16 season April 30-May 1 with a pair of losses in Empire 8 Conference

The Saxons lost 8-1 decisions at Fisher Saturday, and against Nazareth Sunday at St. Bonaventure University's indoor courts. AU ends its season with a 5-15 overall record, 2-6 Empire 8.

In each match, Alfred got its lone win from senior Connor Doud (Ballston Spa) in first singles. Doud defeated his Fisher opponent, 6-3, 6-1, and his Nazareth opponent, 6-1, 6-2.

Vicki Bolton, who has guided the equestrian program during the club period is excited about the move. "The team is very enthusiastic about becoming a varsity sport, which will allow more students interested in horses and horseback riding an opportunity to compete."

The bond between a horse and rider is usually nurtured and developed over time. But in western equestrian shows, riders are paired with horses in a random drawing and the rider has only a few minutes to connect and build a partnership. The horses vary greatly in experience and it is the rider's job to bring out the best performance after mounting the 1,200-pound animal for the first time. Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) riders are judged by their control of the horse, the rider's body positioning, and their ability to make the ride appear effortless.

Baseball team finishes season 14-25

Baseball: 14-25

The Pioneer wrapped up their season this past week. They fell in two tight contests at Keuka (4-2 & 3-2) and split a season ending doubleheader with Pitt Bradford (W 3-2 & L 8-7)

Nick Padley (Buffalo/Sweet Home) wrapped up his career with a .417 batting average and 2 RBI this week. David Zuber (Honeoye Falls Lima) hit .364 with a pair of RBI, Jesse Swan (Campbell Savona) reached base six times in his seven plate appearances, and Dan Woodward (Honeoye) was 3 for 6 with a hitter to earn the victory over Bradford while Brady Sass (Caledonia Mumford) tossed 10.1 innings with a 2.61 ERA.

This is the second straight season the Pioneers finished 14-25.

Outdoor Track & Field: Women - Women 11th, Men 13th at NYS Championships

The Alfred State women's track & field team finished 11th while the men's team finished 13th at the New York State Championships over the weekend at RPI.

Victoire Kothor (Rochester/ Greece Odyssey) led the way for the Pioneers by winning the shot put competition. Her winning toss of 13.91 m broke her own school record and was 1.18 m further than the 2nd place fin-

Jacob Hanss (East Rochester) was 8th in the steeplechase finishing in 9:54.78. His finish time moves him to 10th on the alltime list and passes his high school coach.

The women's 4x800 relay team earned a spot in the ECAC Championships with a 8th place finish. The relay team of Brianna Byrnes (Jordan-Elbridge), Kelly Healy (Maple Hill), Mariah Smith (Hornell), and Cassandra Ryan (Gloversville) crossed the finish line in 9:56.20. The 4x100 relay team of Maddi McDonald (Lansing), Domonique Shirley (Bronx/Harry Truman), Alexis Carrington (Manhattan/NYC I School), and Angel Bresnahan (Mexico) finished 9th in 51.27 which is now 4th all-time. Shirley, McDonald, Healy, and Byrnes (Jordan Elbridge) ran the 4x400 in 4:14.96 to earn 10th place and tie for 6th best alltime.

The men's 4x800 relay team Trevor Stiles (Hornell), Mitchell Marcin (Frontier), Jordan Rusek (Williamsville East) and Austin Demberg (Minisink Valley) finished 10th in 8:30.17. Brandon Teboe (Falconer) was 10th in the pole vault with a leap of 4.05.

HITS AND MISSES:

It is playoff baseball time for Tim Mead (Andover) and his Walsh Cavs squad in Ohio this week. Walsh finished up their regular season with an overall mark of 26-24 which included a batch of early-season, "spring training games" in the south. Mead's troops will take on Ashland in their opener of the GLIAC tourney in Xenia, Ohio which is out towards Columbus-Cincy. Ashland, where Skip Sherman once was an assistant with the baseball program. Lauren and I actually stopped there once to see the Quincy Hawks women's hoop team play in a tournament when Coach Just was in charge of the basketball program and Pat Atwell was the AD at the Illinois school. 3L took in the Quincy basketball camp twice, back in 7-8th grades, while Atwell and I were "struggling" on the golf course in 100-degree temps. Golf during the day, watch games at nite. Great time!

Speaking of Sherman (A-A), his Genesee CC baseball program has been playing well of late as they have grabbed wins in 14/21 games down the stretch. The Cougars have four games this week against Niagara County CC after two outings versus Broome CC were cancelled. Team is (19-32) overall and believe they'll have regional playoffs next week versus the likes of Monroe CC, Mercyhurst NE and Erie CC. Just guessing on all of that but probably pretty close!

Joe Q. French and his UMBC softball team in Maryland was in Vestal yesterday as his Retrievers program (24-29) was taking on Stony Brook in America East playoff action. Was a #5-4 matchup with UMBC the visitors on the scoreboard. Assume it is a double-elimination format hosted by Binghamton University. After that "Qua" will be at some park-lake for the summer, perhaps with a quick trip up to Waterloo, and watching the Yanks on the tube.

The NCAA Division III softball tournament will be underway this week with Ithaca (E8 champs), Cortland (SUNYAC), Rochester (Liberty League), Keuka College (NEAC) and SJ Fisher (at-large from E8) in the field from NYS. Ithaca, Cortland and SJ Fisher will host the first "pod" grouping this weekend. The Alfred Saxons (29-12) dropped two-of-three games in the E8 double-elimination tourney as Ithaca and Fisher beat them while AU stopped Utica. Tufts won the championship last year with a gaudy (51-0) record.

The NCAA Division III men's lacrosse tournament also gets underway this week with Ithaca, RIT, RPI, St. Lawrence and Cortland all in the field. Before I saw the brackets was going to take a "Final Four" of Ithaca-RIT-Salisbury-Tufts. That can't happen as Tufts and Coach Long's Bombers are in the same grouping and would meet in the quarter-finals if it plays out that way. Ouch. RIT, RPI and St. Lawrence, all from the Liberty League are all in the same grouping of one portion of the bracket. RIT and RPI, which just played in the conference championship game, could meet in the second-round and the winner of that could meet SLU in the quarters. RPI knocked off St. Lawrence, ranked #4 in the nation at the time, in the semi's of the Liberty League. So, will go "chalk" for the most part of: RIT-Salisbury-Gettysburg and hopefully Longman's squad over Tufts. Not sure on that one. Champ ... Salisbury.

In the NCAA D3 women's lacrosse tournament Cortland is the defending champ and #1 seeded overall after completing an undefeated campaign to date. The Red Dragons topped Brockport in the SUNYAC finals (as did the men) and will take then over Salisbury in the championship contest. Ithaca and SJ Fisher from the Empire Eight are also in the tourney after the Cardinals upset the Bombers in the E8 title game.

The Hobart Statesmen, a former power in the NCAA D3 lacrosse ranks, made the field in D1 as they beat St. Joe's to win the Northeast Conference and an automatic berth to the tournament. Ho-

Alfred State adds equestrian team

ALFRED-Alfred State students are riding high in the saddle after advancing to the national finals of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association in Lexington, KY.

Among the equestrians' many accomplishments, Travis Harvey (Alfred Almond) completed the season as the high point western rider of Zone 2, Region 1 and placed in the top 25 among all riders in the national finals. Previously this year, equestrian club members also brought pride to Alfred State when the polo team won 10 out of 12 contests, including two victories over Harvard.

With the continued success of equestrian sports, the college will add western riding to the Athletic Department's varsity sports starting in the 2017-18 school year. The move further solidifies Alfred State's support of equestrian competition and creates more chances for students to compete at the highest level in horseback riding.

"By adding western riding as the 19th official varsity sport for the Pioneers, we are recognizing the success of our student athletes and their mentor, Professor Victoria Bolton, who advanced the program to this stage where they are now able to leap to a whole new level," said Athletic Director Dr. Kelly Higgins.

"Support runs deep for equestrian sports on campus with the strong backing of President Sullivan, the entire administration, and following an extensive review and approval by the Intercollegiate Athletic Board. The transition begins now and I'm eager to take the reins of this new varsity sport in 2017."

"It is a great day to be a Pioneer," exclaimed Alfred State President Dr. Skip Sullivan. "Alfred State is proud to be adding another official intercollegiate athletic program. Our equestrian team has been highly successful in recent years, and we are pleased to provide more great opportunities for our students."

Western riding is the first sport added by Alfred State since baseball returned to campus in 1995. Currently the equestrian program, including western riding, hunt seat, and polo, is a club team. The hunt seat and polo programs will remain club sports.

The western team, which currently consists of 17 members, competes in eight intercollegiate horse shows throughout the year where the riders earn points based on their placings at all of the shows. During the 2015-16 school year, the team was the re-bart has not been in the NCAA D1 tourney since 2004. Wonder if they have any regrets leaving the Division III scene? Would certainly be quite the conference for lax with Hobart-RIT-RPI-upstart SLU and future Liberty League member, Ithaca. Wow.

The New York State Public High School boys lacrosse championships will be contested at SJ Fisher College in Pittsford in 2017-18-19. This year they will be held at Middletown HS, where the soccer finals were contested. Home of the Bergin's!

Went to OTB in Webster for the first time ever on Saturday past to put a wager down for the Kentucky Derby. No idea what I was doing, many thanks for help from Mark Vinci and took a flyer on Oscar Nominated. The namesake of the "two-handed dunker" didn't fare very well as he was 17/19 in the field that was won by Nyquist. Probably why I have never been to an OTB before! Almost bet on Oxbow, a couple of years back, for obvious reasons ... didn't, and he won a race. Yikes.

Spotted a few NYS vanity plates here and there of late: NIHTHAWK ... disappointing NLL lax season, MAP SHOP, SS HOSP, MALESMAN ... Murphy-Donavon-Guppy-Orms back in the day and with a Yanks logo it was BEAS44! Guessing Reggie fan. Beas the co-coach for Lauren's travel hoops team in Webster.

The Team USA women's basketball roster for the Rio Olympics this summer was recently announced with five former UConn players in: Sue Bird, Tina Charles, Maya Moore, Diana Taurasi and recent "All-Everything," Breanna Stewart. Also, Elena Delle Donne who actually briefly went to UConn but ended up at Delaware. Think she was the WNBA MVP last season. Probably the last go around for Bird and Taurasi. Team USA has won five straight gold medals, seven-of-eight, plus a silver in 1976, a bronze in 1992 and a "no go" in 1980 to Moscow. Geno Auriemma of UConn is the head coach.

For the Team USA Men's hoop squad how about taking (3) from Golden State, (3) from Cleveland and (2) from San Antonio ... if they all wanted to go? Three best teams in the NBA. Then add in four others to fill needs ... Anthony Davis for sure, a top guard as Chris Paul is out, probably Paul George from Indiana and Damian Lillard of Portland, Durant and Westbrook from OKC. "Like" their chances! Coach K of Duke will coach his final Olympics.

Reminder ... the fourth annual AOH Road Bowling tournament held in Andover will take place June 4th at the Andover Rod & Gun Club. Still hoping to team with Dickie Joyce in this event to take on Atwell-Mead.

Tony DiNozzo exits NCIS, Derek Morgan departs Criminal Minds and Beckett is off Castle? What is going on here with some of the shows I watch? How can there be a Castle with no Beckett?

My "usual" summer of traveling to events is running into conflicts right and left. Leo Nealon and I have gone to the Dick's Open on the Champions golf tour for the past four-years in August. This year it is moved to July ... Utica Boilermaker weekend. Three of the past four years Nealon and I have gone to a strawberry festival just over the border in Niagara Falls, Canada. This year it is Father's Day weekend ... off to New Paltz as 3L running in H-M there. Three years running (no pun) Lauren has done the Lake Placid H-M the first or second weekend of June. This year, Cass Beasley wedding in Geneseo, a former Gus Macker hoops teammate. Next year! Will visit Placid two other times this summer though ... the LP Brew Pub!

A Chicago-Chicago World Series this year? That would be quite crazy. The Cubs are rolling as they just go thru blasting Washington ... one of the best teams in MLB.

Cleveland looking pretty sharp in the NBA playoffs. Cavs-Warriors, part II? Only with everyone healthy this year! Certainly not counting out the Spurs in this mix.

NHL ... Our Man Frank told me that the Tampa Bay Lightning would be the Stanley Cup champs. I'll go with Pittsburgh.

Sunday past it was breakfast at the South Wedge Diner with former SUNY Geneseo soccer player, Megan "Pam" Verdino. Excellent! Just up the street from Cheesy Eddies.
