

Men's soccer team falls to Keuka in overtime

9/03/02

KEUKA The Alfred University men's soccer team opened its season with a 2-1 overtime loss to Keuka College Tuesday evening. The lone goal for the Saxons (0-1, 0-0 Empire Eight) came with eight minutes remaining in the first half as senior midfielder Karl Gnann (Holley/Holley) fed freshman forward Austin Lozier (Vestal/Vestal) to tie the score at 1-1. Keuka's Nick Hurley opened the scoring with an unassisted goal 23 minutes into the contest. Loretto Barbone netted the gamewinner eight minutes into overtime off of an assist from Kurt Bastian. Senior Kevin Ball (Wheeling, WV/Linsly School) played all 98 minutes in goal for Alfred, making six saves. Alfred's next game is at the SUNY Farmingdale Tournament Saturday, Sept. 7.
