The Holocaust Revisited: Lefkowitz Lecture in Jewish Studies

5:30 p.m., Wednesday, October 25 in Nevins Theater, PCC. Dr. Stephen Berk, an expert in the history of the Holocaust, will present a provocative lecture on the history of the Holocaust, its roots in historical anti-Semitism, the unfolding of the tragedy in Europe, and the failure of leaders in America and elsewhere to stop the destruction (one of the most controversial issues of the Holocaust today). A question and answer session will conclude the lecture, and a reception will follow where students can talk to Dr. Berk about the lecture, about the Holocaust, and about how our responsibility for the memory of the event affects our responses to ongoing crimes against humanity. Sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

Visiting Artist: Keith Sanborn

"Disparates and The Disasters of War - Screening and Presentation by Media Artist, Keith Sanborn"

5:15 p.m., Monday, October 23 in Holmes Auditorium, Harder Hall

Cost: Free

Sponsored by: Division of Expanded Media of the School of Art and Design

Media artist Keith Sanborn, presents a survey of his critically-incisive media work, in an event hosted by the Division of Expanded Media. This tour through some of Sanborn's labors over the past several decades includes videos, media installations and translation work in media - obsessions, archaeology, anthropologies, politics and pillaging.

Keith Sanborn is a media artist, theorist and translator based in New York. His work has been the subject of numerous one-person shows and has been included in major survey exhibitions including the Whitney Biennial, the American Century, and Monter/Sampler (the Centre Pompidou) and festivals such as EMAF, OVNI, and The Rotterdam International Film Festival.

Sanborn's theoretical work has appeared in journals, books, and museum catalogues. He has translated into English the work of Debord, Vinet, Wolman, Bataille, Napoleon, Gioli, Brecht, Farocki, Kuleshov and Shub.

Keith Sanborn has also acted as an independent curator for the Oberhausen Short Film Festival, Exit Art, Artists Space, the Pacific Film Archive, and CinemaTexas. He is a collaborator with Peggy Ahwesh on Ediciones La Calavera, a small press given to eccentricities.

Sanborn currently teaches at The New School, New York and at the Milton Avery Graduate School in the Arts of Bard College.

The Hiring Process Training

This is the first training in an 8 month series targeted at any AU employee who has supervisory roles in their department. This training can also be especially helpful for any staff who support the supervisors in their department.

This training will encompass: preparing the job description, filling out the recruitment requisition form, interview tips for success, filling out the personnel action form, filling out student/summer payroll authorization forms, and documentation from students that is necessary before they visit Human Resources.

Supervisors who may be new in their rolls or need a refresher are encouraged to come. This is also open to anyone in the department who helps fill out new hire paperwork.

This training will be held from 12:15 p.m. - 1:00 p.m., Wednesday, October 11 and from 12:15 p.m. - 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, October 24 both located in the Kenyon/Allen Room. This is the same training both days, you will only need to attend one session.

Please, feel free to bring your lunch, and learn with Human Resources.

Bergren Forum - Diana Maguire

The Bergren Forum sponsored by the Division of Human Studies, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the Provost's Office will be meeting at 12:10 p.m., Thursday, October 26 in the Nevins Theatre, Powell Campus Center.

Bring a brown bag lunch, coffee and tea will be provided.

Speaker: Diana Maguire

Topic: "First Year Students' Business Practicum: Impacts of Early Experiential Learning"

In 2015, Alfred University's School of Business adjusted its curriculum to add a required practicum for first-year students in their second-semester. The hands-on course, requiring students to create real business projects, is more typically offered to students in the final stages of their business course sequence. Maguire will share the findings of her two-year study (2016-2017) that measured students' perceptions of the impact of the course on their understanding of their major and potential careers.
