

Alfred University, Alfred State students to host 15th annual AIDS Charity Basketball Game

10/29/10

Alfred University (UMOJA organization) and Alfred State (BSU, Black Student Union) will host their annual AIDS Charity Basketball Game vs. the Harlem Wizards on Saturday Nov. 6, at 7 p.m. in McLane Gym on the Alfred University campus. Admission is $5, $20 for a family five-pack. Additional donations will be appreciated. All proceeds go towards supporting AIDS research. Students from both institutions will join forces to take on the Harlem Wizards, a group of players entertaining with "tricks," stunts, and enthusiastic personalities. It will be a fun-filled event with snacks and beverages provided. There will also be half time performances by both students and the Harlem Wizards.
