Banner INB New Run-time Applet

As of Monday, March 3, the Banner INB j-initiator is no more!

There is a new Java applet (J2SE) that will need to be installed before you can access Banner INB on Monday, March 3.

There will be a number of message boxes that come up when you initially access Banner INB. Please follow these instructions to load the new applet.

There will be a pop-up message toward the top of the screen. 'This sight might require ActiveX J2SE Runtime Environment ... Click here to install' After you click - Follow these steps:

Install Active X > Install > Typical - Accept > Check the Always Trust box > Run

You will only need to do this setup once on your work station.

If you have any questions, please call the Helpdesk at 2222 or Denise Kirschner at 2602.

H.O. Burdick Memorial Lecture in Biology

Ethics in science leadership: when science & policy meet

Prof. JoAnn Burkholder
Director, Center for Applied Aquatic Ecology, North Carolina State University

Tuesday, March 4, 2008
8 p.m., Nevins Theater, Powell Campus Center, Alfred University

Free admission, public invited

JoAnn Burkholder is internationally known for her research on harmful algal blooms, particularly that of the toxic dinoflagellate Pfiesteria, a one-celled organism that occurs in agriculturally polluted coastal waters. Her research has earned her scholarly and environmental recognition, such as the Scientific Freedom and Responsibility Award of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and being named Conservationist of the Year (1998) by the National Wildlife Federation, the North Carolina Wildlife Federation, and the Governor of North Carolina.

The Burdick Lecture series is a memorial to Harold O. Burdick and supported by the H.O. Burdick Memorial Fund.

Faculty/Staff Responding to the Troubled Student

On Friday, March 7 from 3:15 until 4:30 p.m. in the Nevins Theater, representatives from Public Safety, Counseling and Student Development Center and the Office of the Dean of Students will present a program on how to respond to the dangerous, disruptive and distressed student. Participants will receive an overview of specific suggestions and techniques when responding to these types of stressful incidents.

This program will increase your knowledge and skills in managing student behavior, differentiating between different types of concerning behaviors and knowing the appropriate response. Also participants will learn about appropriate roles, personal safety issues and campus resources.

Intergenerational Workshop

Generation X Meets The Millennials - Can it Work at Work?

Wednesday, March 5, 4:30 p.m. at the WLC. Presented by VP Kathy Woughter with co-presenter Jessica Cabrera.

"Kids today don't have a clue what it means to put in a hard day's work." "A good boss should also be a friend."

Students, get ready for some generational workplace differences. Gen X-ers and Millennials are going to be your supervisors, your co-workers - maybe even your assistants and secretaries. This workshop will explore the values we place on workplace relationships and the ways people of all ages contribute to a diverse work environment.

For more information call extension 2971 or e-mail wlc@alfred.edu.

Women's Leadership Academy - Apply Today

Join Us on A Journey!

Leadership is a journey. Few of us are born leaders, and the Women's Leadership Academy is not intended for those few who have (or think they have) mastered the skills of leadership. The Academy is a learning community where through collaboration and common effort we explore the meaning of leadership, investigate ways in which gender may or may not influence leadership, and create opportunities to enhance our leadership skills.

Interested? First Year and Sophomores apply by Monday, April 7. Contact us at wlc@alfred.edu or 607.871.2971 if you have questions or would like an application. The application is also linked below.

WLA is more than a series of events, it's a network of women who help each other succeed!
