AU to offer programs at FLCC Victor campus

ALFRED—Beginning January 2011, Alfred University will offer a certificate of advanced study (CAS) in mental health counseling, master of business administration (MBA), and master of professional studies (MPS) in community services administration (public administration) programs at the Finger Lakes Community College (FLCC) Victor Extension Campus, 200 Victor Heights Parkway.

These programs are designed for non-traditional students who are employed full-time. Classes meet for full-day sessions each Saturday, with each course consisting of five consecutive sessions. The courses offered in Victor follow the same curricula as courses taught on the Alfred University campus. Instructors include regular Alfred University faculty and adjunct faculty who are experienced in the areas in which they are teaching.

The CAS in mental health counseling is designed to be a “bridge program” for individuals who have already earned a master’s degree in counseling but do not have the required coursework and experience for mental health counseling licensure. This would include master’s degrees in school counseling, community-agency counseling, and college counseling/college student development, or older general counseling degrees.

“This is the first certificate program approved by the State Education Department for mental health licensure,” said Jay Cerio, director of the Victor Extension Programs. “We’re very excited to be able to offer this program to working counseling professionals.”

Individuals who successfully complete this NYS Education Department-approved program will meet the requirements for eligibility for the licensed mental health counselor (LMHC) in New York State. There is an internship component to the course; 600 clock hours of experience across two semesters, 240 of which must involve direct counseling activities with clients.

The Alfred University MBA focuses on decision-making and emphasizes the use of technology in management. The curriculum puts a special focus on enterprise resource planning (ERP). Graduates will demonstrate effective leadership and teamwork skills, integrate their functional knowledge of business to make decisions, use a global perspective in decision-making and understand the need for ethical practices in business. The Association to Advance Collegiate School of Business-International accredits the AU College of Business programs. The MPS is designed for individuals interested in management, administration, and design and implementation of services in public and private not-for-profit health care, mental health and social service agencies, as well as local government administration.

“A unique feature of the program is that it offers individuals the opportunity to specialize in either health care or human service administration, as well as providing the foundation training in public administration,” said Robert Bitting, associate director of the Victor programs.

“We are delighted to offer these programs in Victor through FLCC,” said Cerio. “Alfred University’s graduate programs have been a strong presence in the Southern Tier, and have traditionally drawn students from the Rochester area. It’s nice to be able to bring these programs to the students for a change.”

For more information on any of the three programs, go to: <http://www.alfred.edu/grad-school/>. You may contact Cerio at fcerio@alfred.edu, or Bitting

UNION UNIVERSITY CHURCH Youth found that the “truck runneth over” and a second truck was used to deliver food donated for the Alfred Food Pantry. (Photo provided)

Two truckloads delivered

ALFRED--Thanks to the generosity of Union University Church members and the Alfred community, two pick-up truckloads of food were delivered to the Alfred Area Food Pantry on Sunday, Oct. 3.

Church youth started loading Larry Casey’s truck only to find that “the truck runneth over.” Luckily, Pete Finlay came to the rescue with his vehicle and all 106 boxes and bags of food were safely delivered and unloaded at the food pantry. It was estimated that at least 1,000 food items were included in the delivery. In addition, the church collected more than $350 during a special offering taken Sunday morning.

Following the food delivery, Donna Rogers met with church youth to explain the food pantry procedures and use. They calculated the number of food items given out every month, noting that a typical month might see an outgo of over 100 cans of vegetables alone.

While this brief food blitz was a double success—two truckloads instead of one—it is obvious that there is an ongoing need for food and money. In the words of the youth who wrote a special rap for the Truckin’ for Food blitz

“Oh every time we close our eyes
 We see the truck filled so high...
 Oh if that truck could only speak:
 Bring your food every week!”

The hope is that we all find a way to continue to contribute to the Food Pantry on a regular basis. Food donations can be brought to the Alfred Box of Books Library during open hours, or to the Union University Church Center, Mon., Wed., or Thurs. 10:30 – 1:30.

Monetary donations may be sent to the Alfred Station Seventh Day Baptist Church with Alfred Area Food Pantry designated on the memo line, PO Box 7777, Alfred Station, NY, 14803.

How sweet it is!

ALFRED—Mark your calendars for a “sweet celebration.” Honey Pot Chocolates is celebrating its 100 year old candy recipe by inviting the community to a party from 1 to 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 24 at the Alfred Fire Hall. There will be samples for everyone to enjoy of the very first candy recipe as well as all of the other flavors currently being made.

There will be a slide presentation showing how Honey Pot candy was and still is made today. If you’ve never had Honey Pot candy, here is your opportunity to taste the deliciousness of Honey Pot Chocolates honey sweetened, hand crafted and hand dipped candies.

The first recipe was created by Olive Watson in 1910 after the goldenrod honey harvest. Mrs. Watsons husband, Dr. Lloyd Watson, was a professor at Alfred University and a world renowned bee researcher with many hives throughout the hills of Alfred, thus creating a great deal of honey for which they needed to use up and the idea of making candy with honey seemed like a good fit. Through trial and error, Olive developed a recipe that was so delicious, it made your mouth water for more.

In 1954, Mrs. Watson asked her friend Virginia Bassett to come help her with the business and in 1977, Mrs. Bassett became the new owner of The Honey Pot. The business was moved from the Watson on South Main St. to Mrs. Bassett’s home on West University St. where the candy is still made today. Francelia McGraw, Virginia’s sister, joined in the fun to hand dip the candy in chocolate. In 1988, Connie McGraw took over the packing duties and started learning the process of boiling the honey to make the fabulous nougat centers. In 2006, Ms. McGraw became the new owner of this sweet business, made a slight name change to Honey Pot Chocolates and carries on the traditions that Olive Watson started 100 years ago.

Keep reading the Alfred Sun for more on this sweet business.

OBITUARIES

EDITH MILLER SIMPSON
Just misses 105th birthday
ELLCOTT CITY, MD – Edith M. Simpson, 104, passed away on Monday, August 2, 2010 at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Jay and Carol Simpson of Ellicott City, Maryland, just days before her 105th birthday.

Edith was born on August 13, 1905 in Sterling, Ohio, and was the daughter of the late Elmer and Laura Miller. She was the wife of the late Harold E. Simpson, professor of glass science at Alfred University the New York State College of Ceramics.

Edith attended The Ohio State University, majoring in commerce and journalism. While there, she joined the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority and maintained membership for 85 years. She said, “These friendships certainly helped me adjust from growing up on a dairy farm, graduating from a one-room schoolhouse with a class of eight to college life in the big city. My sisters in Columbus, Ohio, Pittsburgh, PA, Boston, MA and Washington, DC have been wonderful, sincere and lifelong.” She traveled with sorority sister, Gertrude Durr Calvert, to Boston, where she worked as a buyer at the Gilchrist Department Store and later worked at Christian Science Publishing House.

Meeting in 1928, Edith and Harold married on Sept. 21, 1931. They were married 47 years. They enjoyed a number of winters in Stuart, Florida until 1979 when Harold passed away. Edith continued to spend winters there for more than 10 years.

In 1946, at the invitation of Alfred University professor, Dr. Samuel Scholes, Sr., Edith and Harold came to Alfred from Pittsburgh, PA., and Harold joined the university staff as a professor and head of the department of glass technology. Harold remained at the University until his retirement in 1968. They initially lived at 31North Main Street where the new Collegiate Restaurant has been recently constructed. Later, they purchased the 105 North Main Street home of Dr. Nelson Norwood, former president of Alfred University in the mid-50s.

Edith was always interested in maintaining the Alfred tradition. For example, years after the purchase of this property, Dr. Norwood's son-in-law returned the barn clock handmade by Dr. Norwood. It was restored and reinstalled into the barn by her son, Jay. In recent years, this clock has been faithfully wound by Harold Snyder.

While in Alfred, Edith belonged to the Union University Church, The Garden Club, The Amandine Club and Forceythe Willson Club. She particularly enjoyed participation in Alfred University events.

Some memorable events for Edith were meeting Willard Scott, flying on a plane at the age of 103, attending 5 Maryland State Centenarian luncheons, and seeing her first great-granddaughter this past May. While living in Ellicott City, Maryland with Jay and Carol, her birthday celebrations became a major neighborhood annual event. Edith loved to socialize and in May of this year, hosted a sorority meeting at home.

Edith had a positive, cheerful personality and loved reading, baking and writing letters. Over the years, while not living in Alfred, Edith maintained her connection with Alfred in many ways including reading The Alfred Sun faithfully and discussing the contents in phone calls with family and friends.

Surviving are sons, H. Allan Simpson of Andover, MA, and Jay R. Simpson of Ellicott City, MD, grandchildren Katherine T. Parente of Tampa, FL, and Julia B. Machado of Hanover, MD, and great granddaughter Madeleine Simone Parente, and nephew Wallace Miller of Falmouth, MA. She was predeceased by her brother, Jay T. Miller.

A memorial service will be held at the Alfred Union University Church, Saturday, Oct. 30, 2010 at 2:30pm. Internment private.

Memorial contributions may be made to Gilchrist Hospice Care, 11311 McCormick Rd., Suite 350, Hunt Valley, MD 21031 or The Alpha Sigma Alpha Foundation, www.alphasigmaalpha.org/foundation/making-the-gift.

I Am Alfred: a look at the people who call it home

By ASHLEY KEHOE
*Alfred State College
Director, Civic Engagement and Student Leadership Programs*

As a new resident of Alfred and the Director of Civic Engagement and Student Leadership Programs at Alfred State College, it is my role to actively and intentionally engage students in community initiatives.

Some of our student leaders and I have been coordinating the “I Am Alfred” Campaign. We have been collecting photos and stories of Alfred residents, to demonstrate and celebrate the diversity of our community, which we are calling the “I am Alfred” campaign. Here is the next installment:

MARK AMMAN
Professor/Chair Physical and Health Sciences, ASC

I’ve lived/worked here for 28 years. The reason for moving to this area was a great job opportunity. I was teaching and doing research at Penn State prior to Alfred....lecture sizes of 500 and publish or perish were not in my cards. So when an Alfred teaching position opened where I could develop my own curriculum, teach classes with no more than 50 students and have labs available with research grade capabilities for students to use, I was all on it. What kept me here is that this is a great place to raise a family. You learn to make you own fun by engaging in the natural beauty of the area...sailing, biking, skiing....you’re not bombarded by overstimulating urban options. What kept me here is that one can get involved in a meaningful leadership role with a huge number community-based activities....scouts, soccer, t-ball, historic preservation, adult education....pick your passion. What kept me here is that my job is fun and extremely rewarding....only possible by this community allowing me to give and to take unconditionally...even allow me to bring my three chocolate labs to final exams. What kept me here is watching my students academically and personally develop into productive citizens....both here on campus and as alums scattered around the country...nothing more heartening than to watch your student receive the Orvis Award or made director of the Drug Enforcement Agency. What kept me here is how many hobbies I’ve developed. I have crazy nice digital camera equipment and love to snap a bunch of photos. My garden is a bounty of produce. There are many pieces of furniture that I’ve made in my and others’ home. And I love music....from being the advisor to the campus radio station to playing in bands covering genres of acoustic jazz, Dixieland and of course the blues. On occasion, a few students, faculty and administrators get together jam into the wee hours.

A recent favorite Alfred memory was with Alfred State students participating in Breakfast with Santa Claus as part of a Literacy Volunteers program in Allegany County. There were international students and students from NYC that ventured out to a very small area central school to get dressed up as a dancing Christmas tree or Santa’s helpers to serve breakfast and entertain/engage families with little or nothing in reading activities. To see the white’s of the eyes of the children when they could finally meet Santa was so meaningful for the students. The international students didn’t realize the impact Santa could have and the NYC students had always taken it for granted. A fabulous experience for all then....I wish the same for you soon.

Using those end-of-the-summer tomatoes

Here’s a totally different use for those sweet and juicy end-of-summer tomatoes. I found this recipe in a newspaper in Georgia several years ago. I filed it away and forgot about it, but rediscovered it last week. I didn’t mark which newspaper it was from, but it was developed by professional home economists Kathryn Moore and Roxanne Wyss.

Warm Tomato Crisp

- 3 c. cherry tomatoes
- 1 tsp. fresh thyme leaves
- 2 slices whole-wheat bread
- 2 cloves garlic
- 3 T. shredded Parmesan cheese
- 1 T. olive oil
- 3 T. Italian parsley leaves
- salt & ground pepper to taste

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Spray an 8” square baking dish with nonstick spray. Place 2½ c. tomatoes in a single layer in prepared baking dish. Place bread, Parmesan, parsley, thyme and garlic in work bowl of a food processor. Pulse quickly to coarsely chop the bread. Add olive oil and pulse quickly. Sprinkle mixture evenly over tomatoes. Top with remaining ½ cup tomatoes and tuck them into the crumb mixture. Bake 20-25 minutes or until crust is browned and tomatoes are tender. Makes 6 servings.

Quite frankly, we want to keep the Dream Alive!

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Alfred Sun that said, “Wanted, one thousand subscribers to the Sun.”

That goal suggested by Sun co-founder and legendary Editor and Publisher Frank A. Crumb, was met before the new millennium. But now we’d like to keep the dream alive. So we’ve set a goal of 125 new subscribers to mark the SUN’s 125th anniversary.

During Frank Crumb’s Dream Campaign, we offer new subscribers 13 months for the year’s subscription price of $27 ($30 outside of Allegany County). That’s $25 off the news stand price. And you’ll read hometown news and interesting stories found nowhere else!

If you would like to help keep Frank Crumb’s Dream alive, send your name and address or that of a loved one with check payable to “Alfred Sun” to: Frank Crumb’s Dream, c/o Alfred Sun, P.O. Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802. We thank you and Frank thanks you!

Allegany County Legislator

FAITHFULNESS AND SERVICE

A common theme ran through much of the agenda of the County Legislature's regular meeting on September 27th. That theme involved service and faithfulness. Former Army Corporal Keith Folts of Fillmore led those present in the Pledge of Allegiance. Keith served our country in the Army. In addition, he has served our County in many ways for many years. He serves on the Office For The Aging ("OFA") Advisory Council, and has participated in many programs offered by OFA. He was a founding member of the Allegany Senior Foundation. He is a good friend, and an outstanding citizen who has blessed our community in many ways.

John Tucker is retiring after serving in the Office of Emergency Services for 30 years. His service was recognized by Chairman Curt Crandall. John has helped our County weather many emergencies and crises over three decades. We owe John a debt of gratitude, and will miss his steady and capable service.

Chairman Crandall also recognized Wally Higgins, President of the Allegany Senior Foundation, and presented him a check for $500 as a donation from the Legislature's Flower Fund. These are non-tax dollars raised by the Legislature. Wally Higgins invited those present to attend the open house for the new home of OFA, Veterans Services Agency and New York Connects Agency on September 30th in Belvidere.

Chairman Crandall issued a Proclamation declaring October 2010 as Domestic Violence Awareness Month in Allegany County.

The Board then considered a variety of relatively routine resolutions. These resolutions consolidated various positions, adjusted salaries, accepted funding, moved funds between accounts, abandoned and sold parcels of unused land, approved agreements for bridge construction projects, approved contracts between the Probation Department and State Division of Criminal Justice Services, and renewed appropriations for various programs.

Special recognition is due to Ron Ellis of Alfred Station who gave a donation to the Office For the Aging for the Volunteer Transportation Program. This is a wonderful program that is staffed by volunteers who assist senior citizens with special transportation needs. Ron's generosity, as well as that of other volunteers is exemplary. Ron and all of the other volunteers in our communities are to be commended. We really appreciate all that you do.

During the Board meeting we received a letter from the Allegany County Area Foundation. That letter thanked the Board for its donation to the Area Foundation. I want to recognize and thank the Area Foundation and all those who donate time and resources to it. The programs and work of the Area Foundation is inspirational. We also received a plaque from the Allegany Cancer Services for another contribution made by the Legislature's Flower Fund. This is another volunteer based program that is making a difference in many lives.

Alfred needs a change

Dear Editor,

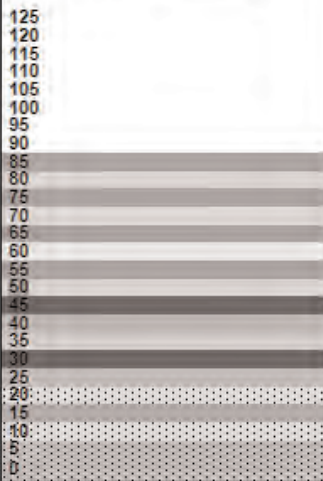

This letter is to address an article of two weeks ago concerning the village board meeting. This letter also will raise the question, "What is happening to our village?"

Firstly, Ms. Lewandowski misstated my public complaint. Our rental property had received a letter stating we were in violation of one of the local laws which briefly states that you are not allowed to store garbage or refuse containers on a front porch in the village. I was annoyed when we received this let-

Frank Crumb's Dream Subscription Campaign Update

87 down, 38 to go

Back in 1884, a simple item appeared in the Sun that said, "Wanted, one thousand subscribers to the Alfred Sun." It's been 125 years since legendary Sun Editor Frank A. Crumb, with the Sun from 1883 to 1951, set the millenary goal.

Not knowing of Frank Crumb's Dream, I, too, had set a goal of 1000 subscribers when I joined the paper in 1976. That goal was finally reached in January 1999. But we want to keep Frank's dream alive.

The late Eugene T. Van Horn, who owned the newspaper from 1951 until 1973, told us one time that circulation peaked in the 1960s at 700. It's now over 900. We've added 82 new subscribers since Jan. 1, 2009.

Get connected to this community. If you would like to contribute to Frank Crumb's Dream, send your name and address or that of a loved one together with your check payable to "Alfred Sun" to: Frank Crumb's Dream, c/o Alfred Sun, P.O. Box 811, Alfred, NY 14802. Thank you!

ter and sought to find the source of this complaint. It turns out that this complaint was generated by Trustee Rasmussen. This same Trustee followed up the initial email with instructions that if the situation had not been corrected then I would receive a summons. It is comical, laughable, and scary that in the Village of Alfred one person can assume (by self-appointment) all 3 duties of government. The creation of laws, the interpretation of laws, and the execution of laws.

My wife and I brought our children to the village meeting so they could see how democracy can be twisted by zealotry. The complaint was bupkis. There were and are no GARBAGE or REFUSE containers on the porch. I did bring along one of the coolers that was listed by the trustee as being a violating item. Thermos coolers I am quite sure are intended to be used outside, because inside most of us have refrigerators. If a public official cannot tell the difference between a cooler and a garbage can, they should not have anything to do with any sort of legal enforcement performed by the village. While not going into detail in this letter I also addressed what appears to be select harassment of certain individuals by certain village officials. Of course board members rolled their eyes and circled wagons and ignored what was printed in black and white. I can assure you that the people on the complaint list feel there is a bias based upon previous issues.

An even greater question for the village is the trampling of first amendment rights by the village is the issue of 23 Sayles St. Simply put this is a property zoned as a boarding house which is allowed to have 12 tenants. Previously (when students were allowed first amendment rights) this building was approved to house more than 20. It appears that the current residents may be affiliated with a common group. Sports team – No. Ethnic group – No. Religious group – No. Greek Organization – perhaps. Wait, wait but officially we do not allow the existence of this free association except in zoning areas where it can be closely controlled. Trustee Rasmussen stated that they must apply to the ZBA for a variance. And a snowball should check its odds with Vegas of its survival rate in hell.

How can a tenant apply for a zoning change for a property they do not own? It was also stated that the landlord should not rent to such groups. The landlord in this case simply rented to 12 individuals. Is he supposed to question them on their group affiliations? How about religious, racial, or sexual orientation? A landlord cannot ask any of these questions due to Federal Fair Housing Laws. Yes Alfred Village officials, Federal laws actually have more power than yours.

If the individuals at this house are breaking noise and other ACTUAL laws, then they should be fined in a proper legal fashion. IN NO WAY should these individuals be treated differently because they have an affiliation with a group that is not favored by some individuals. The next rant is that this is an underground fraternity. I guess this is supposed to invoke greater fear in the populace. One wonders if fascist governments in fact started at a local level. I am an Alfred University alumnus and more proudly a member of Kappa Psi Upsilon fraternity. I am amazed at how 'liberals' so energetically work to deny the Constitutional personal freedoms of individuals associated with traditionally conservative groups.

The Village of Alfred is currently in a sad state for many reasons. When one witnesses the meetings and actions of groups such as our Village Board and Planning Board it is no surprise. Attending the last Planning Board meeting was one of my most comical events in the recent past. In my mind it appeared that they were performing a Monty Python parody as each board member tried to outdo the previous one in their level of detail and pettiness concerning a local business sign application. I guess many of the other signs in the historic district must have been put up when there was a small modicum of freedoms in this village.

Further ignorance was displayed when another property owner discussed changing windows in a historic property. Great concern was brought forward that some panes in these windows may be wavy float glass. Despite the fact that some of the windows are not even original the call for their protection was clear. I have performed historic preservation for over 20 years now and tell everyone that the number one thing to ensure the survival of a historic building is to make it functional. If the board does not give this individual the right to change his windows and improve the efficiency of his property because of a few pieces of float glass the solution is cheap and simple. A few well placed stones will solve the dilemma. Or perhaps the board members would relocate these rotted single pane fixtures to their home so they can enjoy their aesthetics and efficiency.

Alfred is in need of serious change in order to reverse the downward trend. With a non-existent tax base that has been gutted over the years and local business that has undergone attrition and failure rate, we must focus on rebuilding based upon our strengths and potentials. If our focus is on repainting the deck chairs as the boat sinks then our future is guaranteed in a negative way.

Best Regards,
Jason Rodd

Alfred State will host 'Taste of Wellsville'

WELLSVILLE—Local eateries will once again participate in Alfred State College's fifth annual "Taste of Wellsville" this year, Sunday, Oct. 17, from 12:30-3:30 p.m. This year, the event is being held the same day as the first of Alfred State's two fall open houses and the Wellsville Ridge Walk and Run. Restaurants and other food purveyors will showcase their tasty signature dishes in "miniature form" at stations around the Applied Technology Campus in Wellsville.

Participating eateries include: Case Catering, Hot Diggity Dogs, East Pearl Express, Giant Food, L'Italia, Ponderosa, Beef Haus, Tops Markets, Short's Grocery/Deli, Truly Scrumptious, and Papa Louie's—others may be added up until the day of the event. Tickets for the food (50 cents each—food costs may range from one ticket to several although no food item will exceed $3.50) may be purchased on the day of the event. Ten percent of the food ticket sales go to a local charity or organization. This year's designated organization is the Wellsville Volunteer Ambulance Corp.

In addition to the yummy "eats," the day will feature interactive curriculum demonstrations by Alfred State students who will introduce visitors to the programs and projects underway on the Applied Technology Campus. Last year's event included activities such as Excavator Bowling, Egg Scramble, Backhoe Softball, Tire Rolling, Robotic Control, Pumpkin Shooter, and much more! Tours of the campus also will be conducted.

Blood pressure testing will be performed by Alfred State nursing students throughout the day. ACCORD Corp. technicians will be on site performing car safety seat checks to make sure the safety seat 1) fits the child properly, 2) does not have a recall, 3) isn't too old to be used, and 4) is properly installed in the parent's vehicle. Walk-ins are always welcomed; however, appointments for this testing are appreciated. (Appointments may be made in advance by calling Allison Mosher at (585) 593-0792 ext. 1217.)

Immediately following the event at 3:30 p.m., drawings will be held for various raffle items. Proceeds from the drawings will benefit a scholarship fund for Applied Technology students. Raffle tickets will be available at the event; cost is $1 each. You need not be present to win. Additionally, the ASC Admissions Office will host its Open House program that day, beginning with registration at 8:30 a.m. in the Orvis Activities Center on the Alfred campus.

Prospective students and their families are invited to participate in a variety of programs, both formal and informal, designed to provide flexibility in visiting any area of interest to the student. Information tables and representatives from ACES (Auxiliary Campus Enterprises and Services) the campus food service/vending provider, Admissions, Athletics, Residential Life, Student Activities, the Center for Community Education and Training, Information Technology, Counseling Services, Career Development, Student Records and Financial Services, the Honors Program, and the Learning Center will be available.

Campus tours of both campuses will also be offered. Representatives from all academic areas will be present to provide tours and answer questions. Reservations are not necessary.

For additional information, contact the Alfred State College Admissions Office at 1-800-4-ALFRED or (607) 587-4215, or visit www.alfredstate.edu and click on "visit us" at the top of the page.

Alfred State College invites you to attend this local family-friendly activity where everyone can enjoy food and fun and gather information about the college through user-friendly demonstrations!

LIONS SCHOLARSHIPS--On September 23rd the Alfred Lions met their scholarship recipients from the 2010 Alfred-Almond senior class. Each year the Alfred Lions award two $750 scholarships to students attending either Alfred State College or Alfred University. This year Robert George and Beth Acker were honored. Lions Rich Calkins, scholarship committee chair and President Rob Riber offer congratulations.

Meals on Wheels CEO speaking at University

ALFRED—Enid Borden, president and CEO of Meals on Wheels of America and Alfred University alumna, class of 1972, will speak at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 7 in the Women's Leadership Center on campus.

Borden is the second speaker for this year's Women's Leadership Center's "Women of Influence" series. The series is open to the public free of charge.

Borden heads the oldest and largest organization in the United States representing those who provide meal service to people in need. During her 19-year tenure, Borden has been responsible for the dramatic growth of the organization, leading it from a little known trade group to a major national not-for-profit association and increasing its budget over tenfold.

Her discussion, "Advocacy and Activism for a Changing World," will include a look at causes and social ramifications of poverty and hunger around the world. Borden will also discuss her recent involvement working with former President Bill Clinton on a task force addressing poverty in America.

Borden currently serves as a member of Sesame Street Food Insecurity Advisory Committee, on the American Society of Association Executive's Key Philanthropic Organizations Committee, and on the board of directors of the Visiting Nurse Associations of America.

Borden earned her bachelor's degree from AU and a master's degree from Adelphi University, Garden City.

"Be careful now!" The voice of the mysterious person behind the black curtain at the Recreation Center in our local town gave me a stern warning. Before I placed my hands in the pile of peeled grapes and supposedly the eyeballs of some dear departed individual, I grimaced at the very idea.

The Recreation hall was decorated in the traditional Halloween colors, and string (probably a product of the Line and Twine Company which was the local industry where I grew up) was strewn horizontally from one side of the building to another to support the apples that were hung vertically by more of the same. This was especially created for the apple eating contest, which we were always eager to partake in, only there was a caveat, in that we had to accomplish the task with our hands secured behind our backs! I quickly learned that if I could lodge the apple between my shoulder and my chin, it would make the job much easier and the chance of winning first prize more likely.

The costume parade followed, which required the masqueraded participants to march around the block after dark and then enjoy doughnuts and cider when the journey was completed, back at the Center.

After this event, we proceeded home to hand out candied corn and apples, boxed raisins, or chocolates shaped in the form of everything from mummies to witches, to those costumed trick or treaters who happened upon our doorstep during the early evening hours.

This was the day that we waited for each October, along with the opportunity to carve out pumpkins and to see the light eerily emanating through their open oracles and wide smiles that gave the impression that every tooth was missing except one!

I'm not sure if it was the thought of dressing up, or the idea that we could manipulate our way into handfuls of candy at the same time, but it was sure fun knowing that we could pretend to be someone else, for just a couple of hours!

Potters galore in Open Studio Tour

By SUE JOHNSON of the Allegany Artisans

ALLEGANY COUNTY--With the colorful fall leaves comes a colorful cultural event - the 23rd Annual Allegany Artisans Open Studio Tour.

This year the tour will be held on Saturday and Sunday, October 16 & 17 from 10 am to 5 pm both days. Instead of traveling to display their work at art shows, the 47 artisans stay home and invite the public into their studios.

With 38 sites sprinkled throughout Allegany County, the Tour provides an opportunity for you to see how the art is created and maybe shop for that unique handmade Christmas present.

Some of the potters on the tour from the Alfred area are: Dick Lang, who always has new and different work; Mary Lu Wells, with her simple practical pottery for everyday use; and Bruce Greene, whose flower arrangers are a specialty.

Angelica boasts three unique potters: Terri Ross, whose has functional & fun pieces; Linda Ross's pottery goes from earth to hearth with no two pieces alike and Staci Curry whose pieces will uplift the spirit.

Kay Brooks, halfway between Scio & Belmont creates dinnerware sets and much more, and from Fillmore, Pam Delyannis & Greg Ricciardiello will show you some fine handcrafted stoneware pottery. Marsha Van Vlack from Whitesville makes one of a kind handmade stoneware tiles which show paintings of area landscapes done with glazes.

Rounding out the potters on the tour from Wellsville are, Elaine Hardman, who does a variety of items like, bowls, Story Jars, and animal banks; and Peter Midgley who makes unique sculptural vessels.

Along with potters on the tour you will find 7 painters who range from landscapes to abstract work; 3 woodcarvers with celtic pieces and more; 2 using metal in their art - even tin cans; 2 wood turners and 4 furniture makers - one makes miniature furniture. There are many jewelers, 10 in fact with a variety of styles from chainmaille to ceramics, even funky pins. The fiber artists (9 in all) cover a wide area including knitting, quilting, weaving, animal hats, lampshades and more.

So now you know that there is a lot to see on the Studio Tour, plan your stops by going on-line to the website at www.alleganyartisan.com and enjoy all the colors!

AU to open theater with Brian Brooks dance

ALFRED – Alfred University will present a new piece by The Brian Brooks Moving Company for the opening of the new Miller Theater, part of the Miller Performing Arts Center.

The new theater will be dedicated Oct. 15, and the first performance open to the public will be held at 8 p.m. Oct. 16. The event is free of charge, but reservations are required; they may be made through the Performing Arts Division web site at <http://las.alfred.edu/performing-arts/events/> or by calling the Division of Performing Arts box office at 607.871.2828.

The New York City-based contemporary dance group will perform choreographer Brian Brooks' latest work, "MOTOR," an hour-long piece for seven dancers, set to an original score by composer Jonathan Pratt.

The Brian Brooks Moving Company was selected for the opening performance of the new theater because of an enduring relationship with the dance company, which D. Chase Angier, director of AU's dance program, first brought to campus in 2004, appropriately enough through the Marlin and Ginger Miller Dance Residency Program.

Marlin and Ginger Miller are the benefactors whose gifts have created the Miller Performing Arts Center at the University.

The first phase of the center was opened in 1995. The second phase is the new $23 million building, which provides Alfred University's Division of Performing Arts with a state-of-the-art theater.

The production of "MOTOR" will make full use of the new theater's technical capabilities, Angier noted. Over two miles of cables will be stretched from the back of the stage to the farthest walls of the theater, creating a tunnel-like space that will encompass both audience and performers. Within the space, dancers will wrestle with themselves and one another in sequences that amplify the audience's linear perceptions of time and experience, Angier explained.

Structuring informal movement in a formal way, Brooks builds each of the dancers' movements off the previous one, creating a chain reaction that continues until the show's end. Pratt, who is an acclaimed composer in the dance community, explores the same notions of continuum and perpetual motion that represent computer/neurological mechanics, and the larger sequence of space time, according to Angier.

New York Times reviewer Gia Kourlas called "MOTOR" "po-tent... as if the dancers were somehow the light at the end of a tunnel." The Times noted "Mr. Brooks is intrigued by the way repetition grows to create a machine of bodies," and that "Pointing their elbows, the dancers etched ornate patterns onto the air with their arms and, later, hopped from one leg to the other in hypnotic shifts of weight."

"MOTOR" was created, in part, with sponsorship of The Field, with support and funding from the New York State Council on the Arts, and the Dianne and Daniel Vapnek Family Fund, as well as through residencies at Colorado's Green Box Festival and the Mt. Tremper Arts Festival.

After its first successful residency at AU in 2004, Brian Brooks Moving Company returned in 2005, deepening the students' connection to the company's work through performances, workshops and dialogue. In 2008, the dance company came back to Alfred, this time for an intensive two-week residency program that inspired Brooks to create his first dance film, "Rapid Still," which catches the choreographer in an illusion of flight. The stop-motion video premiered at the Brooklyn Museum before being launched on YouTube, offering free and unlimited access to a dance work. "Rapid Still" has recently been licensed to the Lincoln Center Institute for the Arts in Education as a work-of-art under study for national and international educators.

The Brian Brooks Moving Company will open Miller Theater.

A LUCKY BOOK

Recently I had the outside of my house painted. When I was not present, one of the workers wandered through the downstairs to locate electrical outlets and places to stash equipment overnight. During his last day on the job he said, “You have a lot of books.” Startled, I agreed, all the while wondering what measure he was using.

Actually, I have far more tomes upstairs than downstairs. Initially I wished that I had asked if he had noticed any groupings by subject matter, such as travel, feminism, and etiquette, or by types of fiction, such as children’s literature, and mysteries. Then I decided it was only quantity, and not content, which caught his attention.

My acquisitions are frequent and random. I rarely shelve a book with its brethren immediately. Most land in piles or other types of “temporary” locations. My ambition is to leaf through one a day and then unite it with its rightful family. In actuality, most books only get such attention when accidentally knocked off an insubstantial perch. This happens about once a fortnight.

The current lucky book is “The Jones Readers by Grades; Book Five,” copyright dates 1903, 1904, by Ginn & Company. On the title page its compiler is given as “L. H. Jones, A.M., President of the Michigan State Normal College, Formerly Superintendent of Schools in Indianapolis, Indiana, and Cleveland, Ohio.”

I wonder if his observations in the Preface would be applicable to children today. “In the fifth grade pupils have the power to appreciate more fully than before connected discourse. The reading matter may therefore be chosen with a closer regard for its place in literature.” “Attention is called to the fact that nearly all the selections used are organic parts of larger literary wholes, to which the notice and interest of pupils will naturally be directed through the reading of these selected parts.” “This book has a distinctly moral bearing, assisting the young to form right ideas of life and conduct.”

Did these selections ever work as intended? My guess is that they often did, depending on the availability of the “literary wholes.” I read some of this book’s contents in school as late as the 1940’s, but not necessarily in the fifth grade.

The first item in the reader is an extract from “A Dog of Flanders” by Louise de la Ramee (1839-1908), better known as Ouida. As a dog loving child, I innocently plucked this short volume from a shelf in a grade school classroom which held books for individual student reading. It is one of the two most painful dog stories I have ever read. Exhibiting my “right ideas of life and conduct,” I now dodge such books and hug dogs.

The reader’s second item is a poem. By English author Robert Southey (1774-1843), “After Blenheim” directs one’s thoughts to the ramifications and contradictions of wartime heroics. As a footnote mentions, the subject is “a battle fought in 1704 at Blenheim, in Bavaria,” in which 30,000 were killed or wounded.

In the poem when a skull is found at Blenheim by a grandchild, Kaspar tells the boy and his sister what happened there. His family dwelling was burned to the ground. The family fled. Alternate verses end with the same two words as those of the last verse. The children ask Kaspar what good came of the horrors. “Why that I cannot tell,” said he, “But ‘t was a famous victory.”

The poem appeared in my eighth grade literature textbook under its more familiar title, “The Battle of Blenheim.” In addition to the assumptions about fifth graders’ development, I am struck by another feature of the Jones Reader. It includes approximately one poem for every three prose extracts. I understand from a local teacher that poetry is not formally part of classroom study for that age group today. L. H. Jones strewed verse by Leigh Hunt, James Russell Lowell, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, John Keats, William Wordsworth, John Greenleaf Whittier, Mrs. Felicia Hemans, Thomas Love Peacock, Sidney Lanier, William Vaughan Moody, Celia Thaxter, Alfred, Lord Tennyson, William Shakespeare, and others throughout his book.

Besides missing out on these poets, do fifth graders now read extracts from Oliver Goldsmith’s “The Vicar of Wakefield,” or Nathaniel Hawthorne’s version of the King Midas legend? Or, three pages on “The Taking of Edinburgh Castle” by Sir Walter Scott?

Excuse me... I must stop writing and return to filling the literary gaps in my own fifth grade education.

Jah Witness will perform

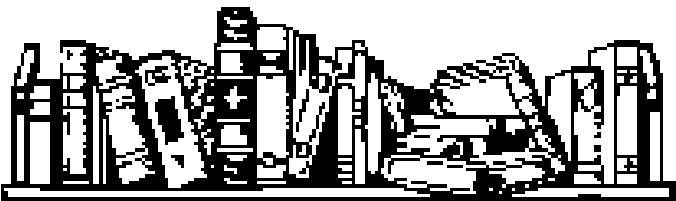

WELLSVILLE--Jah Witness and The Mystic Rebels will be perform at 8 p.m.Saturday, Oct. 16, at the Wellsville Creative Arts Center. Come early for dinner (served 5:00 pm-9:00 pm). Tickets are $12 advance purchase/$14 at door. Member tickets are $10 advance purchase /$12 at door. Tickets may be purchased online at www.WellsvilleCreativeArtsCenter.com or at the Art Center Coffee House. For more information visit the website or call 585-593-3000.

If some are leafs, and some are branches, Jah Witness would without doubt fall into the category of Roots...

From parts unknown, Jah Witness travels the earth as a messenger, spreading the word, sound, and power of reggae culture. Highly skilled as a vocalist, guitarist, songwriter, binghi drumsmith, craftsman, farmer, and philosopher it seems he shall never grow weary of his life's work. He can be found as far north as Vermont, and as far south as the Florida Keys.

“Jah Witness was formed in Santa Cruz California in 1991-92. Jahwit had been traveling the country with a band called Grass or Grasstafari (as some knew them). From Philadelphia, PA, they made their way across the country only to have the van the band was traveling in blow the motor. Jahwit ended up living out of a cave in Santa Cruz, with only his Bible, a bass (which he played at the time) and some clothes. It was here that Jah Witness was formed.”

Jah Witness, now backed by the Mystic Rebels, are an explosive mix of roots, rock and reggae out of ancient times but with a vibe that is right up to the present and moving forward to the future. Members of this roots reggae band have played along side or with some of the best reggae acts in the world--from Jamaica to Africa. Now hailing out of Ithaca, they look to sow more seed of the reggae and Rastafari culture. Clean vibes, they rock their venues.

NOTES from the BOX OF BOOKS

By AMANDA BURNS

*Public Computing Center Director and Lead Trainer
Alfred Box of Books Library*

As the Director of the new Public Computing Center (PCC) at the Box of Books Library I’m excited about offering computer classes, workshops and individual lessons to members of our community who wish to take advantage of them. However, in order to be truly successful, we want to be sure that we offer the types of classes that will be helpful to our community.

We want to hear from each of you as we continue to plan and develop the workshops and one-on-one lessons for the new PCC; therefore, beginning this week you can stop by the Box of Books to pick up a survey. This survey should only take a few moments to complete and the information you provide will be extremely helpful as we continue to work through the planning phase. In the survey you can share with us if you would like to learn how to use email, how to search for a job on-line, how to utilize Skype, or get acquainted with software programs like Microsoft Word.

So spread the word! Pick up a few extra surveys for your friends to complete. The greater the response, the better job I can do to provide the type of computer workshops that will best serve this community. It’s very important to me to have the surveys completed and returned to the library by October 20, 2010.

CLAY WORKING CLASSES at BoB

Beginning on Oct. 20, The Box of Books Library will hold clay classes for ages 10 to Adult, on Wednesdays at 6 p.m. The classes will be taught by Ariel Abeltin, a student from Alfred University. All materials will be provided, the lessons will be based on what you can do with the clay and all ideas are welcome. This class is meant to teach and build awareness and knowledge of clay. You will be able to take home what you make, so come join us for a fun filled Wednesday night of clay time!

Good Chicken, Gone Bad - an educational display showing some of the calamities that happen in a kiln is included in Elaine Hardman's exhibit that opens with a reception from 4 to 6 p.m. today (Thursday, Oct. 7) at Steuben Trust Company in Hornell. Below, Elaine with the SUN.

Elaine Hardman exhibit at Steuben Trust

HORNELL--Birds and Bowls: works in clay and tin by Elaine Hardman will be on display at the Hornell branch of Steuben Trust Bank for the month of October. The opening reception will be 4 to 6 pm on Thursday, Oct. 7 with refreshments and an opportunity to meet the potter/tin smith.

Elaine Hardman has proudly been a potter making kitchen ware and quirky banks for decades but recently expanded her avocation of creating chickens and roosters with work in tin. As a potter, her work is gray until it is fired but, she said, with tin the color is always there from start to finish and the medium feels "happy" as long as she avoids sharp edges.

Hardman will also participate in the 23rd Annual Allegany Artisans Studio Tour on October 16

& 17 in her studio at 3180 Riverside Drive in Wellsville. Pottery and tin folk art will be at one end of the house while Jim Horn and HM Bateman will have their plastic pins and funky mirrors at the other end. The Studio Tour is held from 10 am to 5 pm each day. Find information at Stone-FlowerPottery.com or at AlleganyArtisans.com where all 48 Allegany Artisans are listed.

Maria Gillard will perform to Black-Eyed Susan Cafe

ANGELICA — “Extraordinarily clever songwriting, a torch carrier with an easy going style.”
-Jeff Spevak
Democrat & Chronicle,
Rochester

“She dives into what she sings, communicating every word with conviction.”
-Rich Warren, WFMT, Chicago
“Steadfast and committed to her craft, Gillard's songs consistently face each angel and demon with laughter and courage and bring us into her heart.”

-Duncan Walls, Naples Record
MARIA GILLARD is a talented singer, songwriter, and educator from the Finger Lakes region. She has been composing and performing for 25 years. Her compelling voice draws you into the lyrics which, when combined with memorable melodies, head straight for the heart. Her music has been described as soul stirring, evocative, contagious, lively and energizing. She has a down-home flair that makes you feel like you are in her living room; charming, warm and inviting.

Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café is pleased to present Ms. Gillard beginning at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 9. Her music is rooted squarely in the folk and swing categories with a sound that evokes the styles of Carole King, James Taylor, Joni Mitchell and Joan Baez.

She has performed as a solo songwriter and folk musician since 1986, but has also lent her talents to such groups as Deep Water and The Black Turtle Band. As an educator, she has sung in schools, nursing homes and conducted many workshops in songwriting, voice and guitar. She works as a music professor at Finger Lakes Community College in Canandaigua, and directs a vocal jazz ensemble of 15 students.

Don Ash of Black-Eyed Susan Acoustic Café comments, “Music making is essentially a social art. Although many good songs are created in private, they are meant to be shared. Maria is a songwriter and performer who engages her audience as she shares her music. And although we'll have her solo in Angelica, she has also been in her 'social' element when collaborating with musicians in several bands. Listen for the fine swing groove in some of Maria's songs. You'll be charmed by the sound.”

Black-Eyed Susan is open all day Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. for lunch, dinner, specialty coffees and desserts. If you come early, you'll be treated to ballads, folk songs and standards by guitarist Jim Schwartz, who opens each Saturday night from 6-7:30 p.m. There is no cover charge, but guests are expected to contribute to the musician's tip jar. Reservations for dinner - while never necessary -- are strongly encouraged.

Coming Events at Black-Eyed Susan:
SATURDAY, Oct. 16--Singer-Songwriter JED CURRAN brings his brand of Americana to Black-Eyed Susan from 7:30 – 9:30. A prolific and talented songwriter, Jed “never lets the truth get in the way of a good story.”

SATURDAY, Oct. 23--We're pleased to welcome back bluesman GORDON MUNDING whose bottleneck slide and fingerstyle guitar work keeps his audience in the palm of his hand. Of his show Gordon says simply: “Preserving Delta blues... taking names later.” Think Robert Johnson, Doc Watson and Keb Mo.

Black-Eyed Susan is located at 22 West Main Street in Angelica's Park Circle National Historic District. Menus are posted on-line. For more information, call 585-466-3399 or visit www.black-eyed-susan.com.

Houghton College offers 'a full day' in Allegany County

HOUGHTON—Houghton College Homecoming and Family Weekend 2010 took place the first weekend of October and featured a number of events that welcomed alumni back to campus and allowed students and their families to enjoy a fall day in Allegany County.

The Homecoming festivities began at 10:10 a.m. on Friday, Oct. 1 with the Founders' Day Convocation featuring speaker, Richard J. Mouw '61. Mouw has served as president of Fuller Theological Seminary since 1993, after having served the seminary for four years as provost and senior vice president. A philosopher, scholar, and author, Mouw joined the faculty of Fuller Theological Seminary as professor of Christian philosophy and ethics in September 1985.

Alumnus Of The Year – Dr. Joseph Hupp '79

This year's alumnus of the year recipient, Dr. Joseph Hupp, came to Houghton in 1975 from his home in Cuba, N.Y. He discovered a love for scientific research at Houghton under Dr. Bernie Piersma, a chemistry professor who was conducting research on the properties of candidate materials for heart pace-maker electrodes. Through his work with Dr. Piersma, Hupp developed an interest in electrochemistry – choosing this field for his doctoral research at Michigan State University. He still draws on remnants of his work with Dr. Piersma in his current research on "artificial leaf" solar cells for sunlight-to-electrical energy conversion. Dr. Piersma remembers him as a student who showed distinct improvement each year he was at Houghton and described Dr. Hupp's senior research project as easily a master's level endeavor.

Dr. Hupp received his Ph.D. in chemistry in 1983, and his Post-doctoral journey included research at Purdue and at the University of North Carolina where he studied photo-chemistry.

In 1986 he joined the faculty of Northwestern University and built a research program in materials chemistry – specializing in materials used for alternative energy. In his own words, his research group "makes and studies molecular materials and supramolecular assemblies. Some are designed to help us understand fundamental aspects of molecular recognition, directed assembly, light harvesting and directional energy transport, and electron transfer reactivity. Others are designed to exploit these phenomena to solve problems involving solar energy conversion, chemical fuel storage and release, chemical sensing, molecular transport and chemical separations, or selective catalysis."

His work is described in more than 350 research articles, and he currently holds the title of Morrison Professor of Chemistry at Northwestern University. He also holds an appointment as a senior science fellow in the Materials Science Division at Argonne National Lab. He has been an invited speaker at technical conferences and universities throughout the United States and in over 15 countries around the world and has been the recipient of many awards for his work in chemistry, among them the Carl Wagner Memorial Award and the Inter-American Photochemical Society Award in Photochemistry.

Dr. Hupp lives in Chicago with his wife, Elizabeth (Tryon '81) Hupp and their two sons, John and David.

Hall Of Honor Induction

The 2010 Hall of Honor induction class included Roger Rozendal and Jamie Wellington – both of whom were inducted on October 2, 2010, and Jacki (Carlson) Ortega and Jodi (Carlson) Hess, who will be inducted at the Annual Athletics Department Recognition Banquet during the spring semester.

Science Celebration

Houghton College marked the beginning of construction on the Paine Science Center and thanked donors whose gifts funded the first phase of a crucial project that will have an immediate benefit to the college's continued commitment to excellence in the sciences.

This approximately 18,000 sq. ft. enhancement of the Paine

Science Center will significantly impact the teaching of the sciences at Houghton through the creation of additional spaces for collaborative research, through the transformation of traditional classrooms into spaces designed for new teaching pedagogies that utilize integrated labs and lectures, and through the addition of space for the study of Biology, Biochemistry, Math, Computer Science and Physics, among many other improvements. Work will be underway in the spring of 2011 and be completed in time for the start of classes in the fall.

Why I sell Holland Grills....

Last summer my wife and I attended a friend's party. I noticed how moist and tasty the meats were. I said "Carl, you've become a better chef!" Carl's said "It's not my cooking it's the Holland Grill!" "What's a Holland Grill?" I asked. The rest is history!

After talking to the demo and sales rep for Holland Grills - I thought they all got way too excited about them! We got our first shipment sent to us in February. Anyone who saw them at Cy's and owned one themselves got all excited as well as telling me that they would never own another grill!

Finally I purchased one myself and my wife and I have been grilling and smoking on ours for the past two months. We've done chicken, steaks, roasts, burgers, pizza, vegetables, you name it - I just can't believe how simply delicious everything comes out! Just one knob with one setting and we're off grilling! No flare-ups and the indirect cooking method leaves all our food moist and mouthwatering. No more burnt or dried out meats! You just won't believe it until you cook on the Holland Grill! It will change your outdoor grilling forever!

ALFRED—Smoke still pours from the smoldering ruins of the demolished dairy barn at State University Agricultural and Technical Institute here. The three story, 50-year-old structure on Alfred Tech’s lower campus was completely destroyed by a spectacular fire Sunday morning. Institute officials place the loss at $250,000. The fire was discovered shortly before nine o’clock by a student, Warren Cowen, of Conewango Valley. Cowen was feeding cattle in a nearby pature when he noticed smoke coming out of the third floor cupolas of the barn. He shouted to a fellow student to call the fire department and he and other agricultural students on barn duty at the time safely evacuated the Institute’s heard of 50 purebred Holstein cattle According to Alfred Fire Chief Harold Dickinson, the blaze apparently broke out on the second floor of the barn. The flames spread rapidly to the third floor where 300 tons of hay valued at $8,000 were stored... “The thing that impressed me,” said Professor (Charles) Cameron, “was the number of local farmers that volunteered their barns and services to us for the herd.”

THE GLORY OF AMERICA

Thursday, October 7

On this day in 1918, during the Meuse-Argonne offensive, Corporal Alvin York, a devout young Christian from the hills of Tennessee, who after much prayer had been convinced by his pastor to bear arms in the defense of his country, found himself and his battalion pinned down by heavy machine-gun fire. His patrol worked its way behind the German lines. Ignoring the order to surrender, the Germans opened fire, killing a number of York’s comrades. York took shelter and began picking off one German after another--until finally the German commander simply surrendered his unit. Singlehanded, York rounded up more than 130 prisoners!

Special to the Alfred Sun
ALMOND--Once again Michelle O. Serra had a very interesting message---starting with the Children's Message. Hmmm, a box of 64 crayons.....oo, look at all the colors! Why that box is just brimming with wondrous colors... there are broken crayons, good crayons, worn down crayons, BUT....they are all in the box

TOGETHER! Why, that little box has plenty of space for all those crayons, no matter what they look like. Are you getting this yet? The moral of the story? I thought so. But just in case you need more hints, imagine your photo albums (or those boxes of pics not yet in place...). For instance, a Wedding Album. Photos of people you hadn't seen in a very long time..and haven't seem them since either. Or how about those people you never knew until that day? Then there are all the families and close friends you see regularly. The people you work with, etc. What a wonderful collection of photos to share the memories of that day! And isn't it sweet they all fit in the same book... there's room for all of them! They are 'united' in your memory. Let's not forget Family Reunions here...talk about a collection of people!

Once again, some you see often, some you never see except for once a year, some are new to the family (and isn't that nice....opening your family up to new people?) We share photos sometimes just to see if someone knows who this or that person is in the photo.

So, here's a question for you...how many photo albums does God have for all His people? LOL. Do you think He has one very big book or several smaller ones? One thing for sure is there are different people of every race, size, age, health---we are all brothers and sisters --we are part of the same family--God's family.

But some of God's people have moved away from Him. He waits for them to return and renew their connection with Him. We are all a part and made joint heirs to Christ. How? Just confess with the lips that Jesus is Lord and Savior and 'believe in your heart that Christ died for you'.

Who is it that did the song "red and yellow, black and white, we are precious in His sight. Jesus loves the little children of the world"? Simple and elegant belief. What should we do? Seek Justice, Love Mercy and Walk Humbly with God. Simple, elegant. Stand with Christians all over the world... united in Christ. And remember, there is a place for everyone at the table.

Or, in words of an old spiritual: "All God's chillun got a place in the choir"!!

Alfredians lead workshop in Catskills

By CAROL CLARKE
Special to the Alfred Sun
KERHONKSON--Carol Margaret Clarke and Barbara (Tripp) Crumb were presenters at the recent New York Association for Psychiatric Rehabilitation Services (NYAPRS) annual conference held Sept. 22-24, at the Hudson Valley Resort & Spa in Kerhonkson.

The theme of the conference was “Whole Self – Whole Health – Whole Lives”. The title of their workshop was “Healing Through Expression” based on an art class they taught for consumers at Lakeview Mental Health Services, Inc. in their “Club 620” in Geneva.

Participants had the opportunity to sample an abbreviated version of the art therapy techniques used in the class, combining guided visualizations with artwork. The technique is meant to complement talk therapy in healing past/present traumas that interfere with health and functionality.

The class and the workshop are based on a book titled Art and Healing: Using Expressive Arts to Heal Body, Mind, and Spirit by Barbara Ganim. The art therapy methodology can be used in groups or individually by following the exercises in the book. Carol and Barb adapted the exercises for use by consumers of mental health services at Lakeview.

NYAPRS conference is held annually in the Catskills for consumers of psychiatric services along with professionals of agencies that provide support services, exhibitors, etc. Topics included mental health, religion/spirituality, the arts, complimentary medicine, criminal justice relating to those incarcerated with mental health problems, transportation and housing issues, addiction recovery, administration of mental hospitals, peer-to-peer teaching, political

Influenza Clinics underway throughout various Allegany County locations

BELMONT--The Allegany County Department of Health will be holding Seasonal Influenza Clinics starting Tuesday, Sept. 28 at various sites throughout Allegany County. Remember you cannot get influenza from the flu shot. The vaccine is made from killed or inactivated influenza viruses, which render it incapable of causing infection.

- WHO: All people 6 months of age and older should get the influenza vaccine. It is important to REMEMBER that:
- Influenza is spread by coughing, sneezing, direct physical contact (e.g., handshakes), contact with objects such as doorknobs, hand rails, and telephones.
 - Individuals are contagious for 1-4 days before the onset of symptoms and about 5 days after the first symptoms.
 - About 50% of infected individuals do not have any symptoms but are still contagious.
 - Good health habits are extremely important in the prevention of respiratory illnesses.
 - If you are moderately or severely ill when you are scheduled to receive the vaccine, your health care provider may suggest that you delay receiving the flu vaccine. Should this happen, do not forget to get your vaccine as soon as you are healthy.
 - The fee for the vaccine this year will remain at thirty three dollars ($33.00) per person. However, for those who are eligible, Medicare – Part B will cover this cost.
 - All insurances will be billed (please bring insurance cards); sliding scale available if uninsured or underinsured

‘Our Common Ground’ opens in Houghton

HOUGHTON–Quietly opened on Earth Day 2010, Houghton College’s Our Common Ground (9676 Route 19) has offered a series of classes, workshops and events to residents of Allegany County during the summer months in order to build community awareness of issues surrounding sustainability.

The excitement was building and this community resource center opened its doors during a public celebration on Friday, Sept. 10.

Our Common Ground was established with three broad objectives in mind: (1) To celebrate Allegany County by focusing on educational activities that promote the overall sustainability of our community; (2) To serve as a bridge between the community and the college – offering a space where community members and organizations can bring their expertise to the college and where students, faculty and staff can share their expertise with community members; and (3) To offer Houghton College, and students in particular, opportunities to put faith into action and move learning from theory to practice.

While Sept. 10 marked the official opening of Our Common Ground, the summer of 2010 was a busy time for the center. Members of the community were invited to participate in workshops that included topics such as family nutrition, composting 101, backyard poultry production, wildcrafting (medicinal herbs) and family bread baking. The center also organized Belfast Toy Library toy drops, children’s story hours, and offered a professional clothing closet for those entering or re-entering the work force.

“Our Common Ground aims to provide resources, services and educational opportunities to the residents of Allegany County,” states Ginny Routh, sustainability coordinator for Houghton College and project organizer. “Our hope is that by having these resources available to the surrounding community, we will nurture our local economy while positively impacting human and environmental health in the area.”

Our Common Ground is supported by a number of community partners that include the American Red Cross, Allegany Artisans, Allegany Water & Soil District, Belfast Toy Library, CORE, Cornell Cooperative Extension, Literacy West NY and United Way. Additional support is given through on-campus partners such as Allegany County Outreach, Creation Care Committee, Evangelicals for Social Action, Houghton Environmental Club, Houghton Community Garden, Student Senate and Upward Bound.

For more information, please contact Our Common Ground by phone at 585.567.9624 or via e-mail at ocg@houghton.edu.

Science center to be enhanced

HOUGHTON–Houghton College Homecoming and Family Weekend 2010 was the perfect opportunity to welcome science alumni and donors back to campus for a celebration to introduce them to the changes that will take place within the Paine Science Center over the next ten months.

The college marked the beginning of construction on the Paine Science Center and thanked donors whose gifts funded the first phase of a crucial project that will have an immediate benefit to the college’s continued commitment to excellence in the sciences. Remarks on the improvements being made to the Paine Science Center were given by President Shirley A. Mullen ’76, Associate Dean of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, Dr. Keith Horn ’75, Dr. Alan Johnson ’53, and Principal Architect, Payette Associates, Mr. George Marsh.

“Today we are celebrating the generosity of our donors as they have made our dreams come true,” stated Dr. Keith Horn ’75. “It has been 41 years since the Paine Science Center was originally built. With more than 250 students currently majoring in the sciences at Houghton College, we must provide them resources and training so that they are equipped to manage the difficult moral and ethical issues faced within the sciences today.”

This approximately 18,000 sq. ft. enhancement of the Paine Science Center will significantly impact the teaching of the sciences at Houghton through the creation of additional spaces for collaborative research, through the transformation of traditional classrooms into spaces designed for new teaching pedagogies that utilize integrated labs and lectures, and through the addition of space for the study of Biology, Biochemistry, Math, Computer Science and Physics, among many other improvements. Work will be underway in the spring of 2011 and be completed in time for the start of classes in the fall.

Kruckeberg earned a bachelor of arts degree cum laude in history and political science and master of arts degree in history from the University of North Texas, and a Ph. D. from the University of Michigan. AU rolls to 49-24 Homecoming win over Frostburg

ALFRED--The 25th-ranked Alfred University football team (4-0, 1-0 Empire 8) rolled up 464 yards of offense in a 49-24 victory over visiting Frostburg (MD) State Saturday afternoon before a Homecoming crowd of 3,439 at Merrill Field.

The Saxons, currently ranked 21st in the D3football.com weekly Top 25 poll, hope to continue their winning ways when they kick off against E8 foe Hartwick Saturday, Oct. 9 at Wright Stadium in Oneonta.

Junior quarterback Tom Secky (Bemus Point/Maple Grove) threw for 262 yards and sophomore tailback Chris Lopez (Rochester/Pittsford Sutherland) ran for three touchdowns for the Saxons, who improved to 4-0 with the non-conference win.

AU scored touchdowns on all five of its possessions of the first half and led 35-17 at intermission. The Saxons took the opening kickoff and drove 72 yards in just five plays, with Secky hitting sophomore tight end Adam Schutz (Geneva) with a 49-yard scoring pass 2:02 into the contest.

After a Frostburg field goal made it 7-3, Alfred scored two straight touchdowns to go up 21-3. Junior Nick Clark (Canisteo-Greenwood) bulled in from a yard out to cap a four-play 58-yard drive midway through the first. Alfred got the ball back when junior cornerback Roland

O'Brien (Hoosick Falls) intercepted a pass near midfield. O'Brien's pick six was called back by an AU penalty. But five plays and 58 yards later, Lopez scored from a yard out to make it 21-3, Alfred.

Frostburg closed to within 11, at 21-10, connecting with on a 15-yard scoring pass with 10:49 left in the second to cap an 11-play 71-yard drive. AU answered on its next possession, driving 49 yards in six plays, with Lopez scoring on a one-yard run with 8:06 left in the quarter. Frostburg converted a 17-yard scoring pass from with 2:02 left before intermission, but AU came right back, marching 64 yards in four plays over 1:03, with senior wide receiver Ryan Thon (Victor) grabbing a 19-yard scoring toss from Secky.

Alfred made it 42-17 with 3:38 left in the third. Lopez capped a six-play 46-yard drive with his third one-yard TD run of the afternoon. Freshman tailback Austin Dwyer (Hornell) pushed the Saxons' lead to 49-17 on Alfred's next possession, scoring on a three-yard run 1:07 into the fourth to end an eight-play 39-yard drive. Frostburg closed out the scoring with 6:40 left in regulation on a three-yard TD run.

Dwyer finished with 97 yards on just 10 carries (9.7 yards per attempt) and Lopez ran for 70 yards on 14 carries. Alfred Rugby beats Fisher, 46-5

Special to the Alfred Sun

ALFRED--On Saturday, Oct. 2nd, the Alfred Rugby Club won an important victory in league play as they beat division rival St. John Fisher by the score of 46-5. This was the first time in recent memory that ALFRED RUGBY has won any kind of NYRC league game. Alfred competes in the West Division III of the New York Rugby Conference (www.nysrugby.org) with Fisher, Canisius, SUNY Brockport and SUNY Buffalo.

Alfred played St. John Fisher during Alfred University's homecoming weekend on its home turf atop Jericho Hill in the Town of Alfred. Following the tropical storm downpour the previous Thursday, the field was in good shape and had a good track. The referee said that it was the largest rugby pitch that he had ever officiated on.

The young Alfred team came out strong early in the 1st half with a score (try) from "8 man" Lester Binion. The kick after failed and was followed by a try scored by Fisher. Like Alfred, Fisher's kick after failed. In rugby, a "try" is similar to a touchdown in football and is worth 5 points, the conversion kick is worth 2 points.

Alfred followed Fisher's score with another try in the 1st half by center Tyler Peguero, one of Alfred's "veterans" (his second semester of playing) and one of the club's hardest hitters. The score at the half was Alfred 10 Fisher 5.

Alfred got stronger in the 2d half after some personnel changes. Alfred showed their dominance and superior conditioning as the club put up 6 more tries in the 2d half, plus another 3 conversion kicks for total second half scoring of 36 unanswered points.

Scoring tries for Alfred in the 2d half were Steve Dahar, Steve Gould (2 scores), Tim Casper, Mike

Harris and Peguero also punched in his second score of the day. It was the 4th game ever played by Gould, Casper and Harris, the 3d ever for Dahar. All 3 conversion kicks for a total of 6 points were put up by Captain Ken Pixley.

Afterward, Coach Bill Pulos said: "I'm extremely happy for all the guys on the club. Today for the 1st time they came together as one on the field and it showed. This win puts ALFRED RUGBY on the New York State scoreboard and gives everyone notice that ALFRED RUGBY is a force to be contended with. We have an extremely young, inexperienced club, we make a lot of mistakes but the guys are coming together. These are good guys and the Alfred community has responded well to the club's efforts. Once people see these guys in action, they become believers in this club and this great, world-wide sport."

Pulos continued: "None of this could happen as it has without the support of many departments within ALFRED UNIVERSITY including Student Affairs (Dan Napolitano and staff), Grounds crew (Rick Walker and staff), Equipment (Jeff Grover and staff) and Public Safety (John Dougherty and staff), in addition to many others. The club is very grateful for the University and Community support."

Alfred Rugby's next game is this Saturday, October 9 at 1:00 pm atop Jericho Hill against NYRC division rival Canisius College. A win for Alfred over Canisius would set the stage for Alfred to carry a strong position into the NYRC Division III cross-over playoffs with a game the following week (Oct. 16th) against one of the playoff teams from the NYRC East Division III.

Just back from a most interesting vacation with a trip that took me from Webster, after a couple of soccer games in Geneseo, to Burlington (Vt.) and onward thru the Adirondack's of NYS. Then pushing south to Whitesboro-Utica, Oneonta, New Paltz-Newburgh, zipping off to Ithaca and the Cornell campus before arriving back in Webster weary from a Saturday of travel. Good overall trip, one very similar that I took last fall, with one glitch and a lousy day of rain in the middle.

Backing up to events that were in this space last week it was a couple of soccer games at SUNY Geneseo to kick-off my (richly deserved) vacation as I planned a route and was hoping to take in six soccer games and hit the links four times. Did get too all the games I wanted to but rain washed out golf outings in Utica and Oneonta. Yuk. A win for Geneseo over a weak Potsdam team on the Friday I started my time off. Dom Masotti and I toured the golf course in Geneseo, Livingston CC on Saturday am prior to the Plattsburgh-Geneseo conference contest. Excellent time and we were joined by a Geneseo alum named, Mike Gates for the back nine. Played soccer at the school, didn't remember Bakes (but Bakes remembered him!) and is a friend of Marty Estruch whom I know from Mt. Morris. Good guy, solid golfer. Masotti and I enjoyed a fine, fine sub from Aunt Cookies after golf and before soccer. Plattsburgh-Geneseo was a great game and now there might be some controversy involved with the SUNYAC's and NCAA soccer. Great.

Sunday (9/26) it was off to Burlington bright and early as I wanted to see the UVM play their game versus UMBC. Jess Herbst (Webster) and Haley Marks (Penfield) play for the Catamounts in Division I womens' soccer. Sat with Brian Marks and Joe Herbst at ancient Centennial Field and watched the Maryland team emerge with a 2-0 victory. Not exactly an inspiring Vermont squad this day. Good seeing Herbst (ankle) and Marks play though. After a post-game gathering it was off to spend some time with the Laramee's in Burlington. Friends of my parents I met years ago at Molokai Park in Leesburg, FL. Sylvia had a dinner ready virtually upon arrival, her homemade mac & cheese is awesome and we got caught up on this and that.

Monday (9/27) - Andy Laramee and were able to play 18-holes at a place called Catamount CC in Williston, a links-style course. Most enjoyable! Last year we played at nearby Williston CC. Shaky first three holes for me but settled in for a decent (95) this day. Only third time out since Florida adventures in March. Dinner that nite at a place called the Texas Roadhouse, just down the street from the UVM campus. Invited Jess Herbst to join us but she had a lab that nite. Ouch. Excellent meal at place we went to last year when I was in Burlington.

Tuesday (9/28) - time to depart and head thru the Adirondack's. Up first though was a trip across Lake Champlain via the Charlotte (VT) to Essex (NY) ferry. Took boat ride last year as well but from different location. Pretty wild on overcast but calm day. No set plans this day other than I wanted to tour around Lake Placed-Saranac Lake-Tupper Lake. Mission accomplished! Placid was the best, by far, seeing as though it is an "Olympic town." The huge ski jumps greet you on the road like something extending above the trees in a sci-fi movie. Impressive and the sheer size is breathtaking. Walked past the Olympic Stadium, the skating area and around the town itself. It was bustling with people on the streets this day. Saranac was just the opposite. Depressing. Tupper only slightly better. Stopped in Tupper Lake at the Wild Center Nature Museum. Called my Uncle Butch before entering for a referral as I figured he and my Aunt Cass had been there. Not bad. After that it was a journey thru Long Lake, Blue Mt. Lake and to Indian Lake for the evening. The Lone Birch Motel. Great colors along the way but not as sunny as I would've liked. Boarded up or closed businesses galore in all towns except Lake Placed.

Wednesday (9/29) - a lazy day with some tentative plans. Tried to find Sprague Pond again, to no avail. A-A classmates Smitty, Higgins and I camped there the summer after we graduated. In Indian Lake but could not find a sign for it. Found path that I thought might be it but wasn't about to hike in woods by myself. Briefly thought of golfing at the Cedar River course but chilly, windy and two outings were supposedly ahead so vetoed that. Pushed on to Inlet, stopping at the Tamarak Cafe for lunch, wandering around the vacant park area and chatting with a couple from Syracuse. Best friend of their daughter is a frosh at Geneseo. A stop in Old Forge, called 3L as I finally had cell phone service and then headed to Whitesboro to see the Springer's. Bob busy that nite so Doris and I had solid dinner at Cavallero's in New Hartford.

Thursday (9/30) - Bob and I were originally supposed to golf in his league at a place called Hidden Valley but an all-day rain halted that idea. "Lovely" day. Got better as I was heading to Oneonta and my windshield wipers decided it would be a good time to quit. Minor details on this day. Found a "AAA" shop but couldn't

Haunted House hosts dice run

ANDOVER--The Andover Haunted Attraction will host its second charity fundraiser of the year this Saturday Oct. 9. A motorcycle dice run for ALS, which will start and end at "The Brick" with registration starting at 10:30 a.m. There is a $10 driver and $5 rider fee. The 110 mile beautiful foliage route takes you into Steuben, Livingston, and Allegany Counties. There are 5 stops and each participants roll the dice with award being given to the top 3 scores and last place.

There will be a chicken and biscuit dinner for $7.50 for adults and $5 for Children. The dinner is open to the public from 4-6 pm with discounts for dice run participants.

Just what is ALS? Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) is a motor neuron disease, first described in 1869 by the noted French neurologist Jean-Martin Charcot. Although the cause of ALS is not completely understood, the last decade has brought a wealth of new understanding about the disease that provides hope for the future.

Lou Gehrig first brought national and international attention to the disease in 1939 when he abruptly retired from baseball after being diagnosed with ALS. Most commonly, the disease strikes people between the ages of 40 and 70, and as many as 30,000 Americans have the disease at any given time.

ALS is a neurodegenerative disease that usually attacks both upper and lower motor neurons and causes degeneration throughout the brain and spinal cord. A common first symptom is a painless weakness in a hand, foot, arm or leg, which occurs in more than half of all cases. Other early symptoms include speech swallowing or walking difficulty.

The biological mechanisms that cause ALS are only partially understood. The only known cause of ALS is a mutation of a specific gene: the SOD1 gene. This mutation is believed to make a defective protein that is toxic to motor nerve cells. The SOD1 mutation, however, accounts for only 1 or 2 percent of ALS cases, or 20 percent of the familial (inherited) cases.

Familial ALS represents between five to 10 percent of all cases. The rest arise spontaneously and mysteriously, making seemingly random attacks on previously healthy adults. ALS can strike anyone, anytime. Physicians have limited choices for treating ALS, and the options that do exist have come into use within the last 10 years.

Stem cell and gene therapy are promising areas of research. In a variety of studies, ALS mouse models are being used to develop treatments that may someday lead to similar human clinical trials. Gene therapy is one field of research where The ALS Association is concentrating support for more study.

More significant advances of research into ALS have occurred in the last decade than all of the time since Charcot identified the disease. Advances in technology and the genetic revolution are aiding researchers in unlocking the ALS mystery. As more scientists focus on this perplexing disease, the outlook for new understanding brightens each day.

get part for wiper until Friday. Yuk. Another nite at the Springer's house, no trip to Oneonta to see the Coyle's and it was still raining! Excellent dinner at Elks Club that evening with Bob and good seeing both of them again. We were each at LPGA in Rochester this summer but didn't connect.

Friday (10/1) - finally able to depart Whitesboro and it was off to Oneonta as SUNY Geneseo was taking on the host school in women's play at the Hall of Fame Fields. Nothing in the 'Hall but the fields still in great shape. Oneonta blasted Geneseo this day, 3-0. Team and most parents there off to Bergin's in Middletown afterwards. I departed for New Paltz and the McDrip household! Dark route 28E thru the Catskills, at nite, but got there ok. Kevin and Tina McDonald's home and a place out in the middle of nowhere but what a place! Love their house. Time to catch-up there as well. Fun evening chatting.

Saturday (10/2) - with Drippins at the Newburgh Fire Hall, Tina gave me a tour of the area which included the Orange County Choppers building. Very impressive. Bikes galore with various themes/logo's. One for the New York Yankees. Drippins went to the game with me and it was a disappointing 3-1 defeat at the hands of New Paltz for Geneseo. A "lost" weekend on the soccer fields for them. Beautiful, sunny, fall afternoon. Just not a great outcome. A relatively quick departure after as it was off to Ithaca to see Stephen Baker play for his UPenn team against Cornell. Been to the Ithaca campus numerous times but never at Cornell. Hooked up with at the Baker's and friends in the stands and settled in for some DI men's soccer action. UPenn prevailed, 1-0 as they scored with 62-seconds left in the game. Whew. Talked to Stephen briefly afterwards and trucked off to Webster. Long day on the highway especially with cluster of cars getting out of the town of New Paltz. Parents weekend.

Some great fall foliage, lots of miles, seeing friends, golfing and watching Geneseo soccer. Pretty decent vacation!

HITS AND MISSES:

The Alfred Saxons (4-0) football team kept their unblemished season going with a solid, 49-24 thumping of Frostburg State at Merrill Field last Saturday on a Homecoming weekend, a Hall of Fame weekend.

In Division III gridiron action of note it was SJ Fisher topping Utica in a game of unbeaten, RPI blanking UR, Cortland zapping College of NJ, Union nipping WPI, St. Lawrence stunning Hobart, Ithaca over Hartwick, Rowan blasting a hapless Buffalo State squad and in the stunner of the week ... Morrisville shocked Brockport, 48-41.

The Hornell Red Raiders demolished Bishop Kearney of Rochester, 62-20 over the weekend to keep a perfect slate going at 5-0. Coach Gene Mastin's team is currently ranked #1 in NYS in class "B." Jordan Schwartz recorded two TD's for the winners.

The Buffalo/Toronto Bills are the only winless team in the AFC as the visiting NJ Jets smoked them, 38-14 at Ralph Wilson Stadium on Sunday past. Easily the worst team in the entire NFL.

"Congrats" to Jeff Long as he was enshrined in the Ithaca College Hall of Fame last Friday evening. Long has long been the head coach for the men's lacrosse program and is also the assistant coach/goalkeepers for the women's soccer squad.

Tim Mead's (Andover) Walsh Cavs men's soccer team in Ohio is currently (6-5) on the year after splitting games against Kentucky schools last week. Walsh lost to the University of the Cumberlands ... seriously, and beat Georgetown College.

The Western Carolina Catamounts women's soccer team is (3-7-2) on the year with Christy Kaznowski leading the team in scoring while the Vermont Catamounts women's soccer program recorded win #2 this year by beating Binghamton, 1-0. Goal by Marks!

Stephen Baker and his UPenn team is at (7-2) with their win over Cornell at Berman Field, an Ivy League opener. Saw Hayley Lindahl at game. A Cornell student and Webster Schroeder graduate.

The Team USA women won the World Basketball Championships.

Team Europe beat Team USA to reclaim the Ryder Cup in golf, 14.5 to 13.5.

Austin Rivers commits to the Duke basketball program. Yes! Vanity plates aplenty spotted of late: KANDOLI, WITETAIL, PLACID, T DALTON ... 007, ADK TR, DR SK8, KRONIES, 1REDFOX, OUTCASTS, BLUE YS1, KUZMICKI ... no relation to Kaznowski, GO NPLCS from NC, GOOBER AND KITCHNZ with Vermont tags, CLEARLK from Michigan and INLET in Inlet with Tennessee plates,

A-A grads Jake Taft and Our Man Frank will take in the Texas-Tampa Bay baseball playoff games this week along with Mike "Mac" and ex-mayor, Jamie Bennett.

With the MLB playoffs set, in the NL: Phillies over Reds in three, Giants over Braves in five and Philadelphia the NLCS winners. Over in the AL, much tougher as I really think all four teams are about equal. Yanks over Twins but their staff scares me. Rays to top the Rangers. Yanks to nip Rays in seven. Phillies WS champs.

While on vacation, spotted yard signs all over the place for upcoming election candidates. One was just scary, in NYS near Vermont: "Another family for Farley."
