

Alfred University women's soccer team loses at Elmira College, 2-0

10/06/01

ELMIRA The Alfred University women's soccer team was shut out at Elmira College, 2-0, Saturday afternoon. Alfred (2-9, 0-5 Empire 8) has lost nine straight since opening the season with two victories. The Lady Saxons were outshot by the host team, 9-3. Senior goalkeeper Sara Stephens (Wayland/Wayland-Cohocton), made seven saves for Alfred. Elmira's Sandra Baldauf scored a pair of first-half goals and goalie Emily Merrill stopped two shots to secure the win. Alfred is in action next on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 7 p.m. at home against Keuka.