PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

To the Trustees of Alfred University:

The President has the honor to submit his thirty-seventh annual report, namely, for the ninety-sixth year of Alfred University, beginning June 10, 1931, and ending June 14, 1932.

The year has been one of unusual good health both among the faculty and the students of the University. One member of the Board of Trustees has passed away during the year.

Necrology

Alpheus B. Kenyon was born in Potter, Rhode Island, in 1850, and died at his home in Alfred, September 15, 1931. He was graduated from Alfred University in 1874, and was immediately appointed instructor in mathematics and in Industrial Mechanics, and soon gained the rank of Professor. In 1890 he became Registrar of the college and served in this position for eighteen years, when he was appointed the first Dean of Alfred College.

After the death of President Allen in September, 1892, he served as Acting President until the election of Rev. Arthur E. Main as president in the spring of 1893. From that time until his retirement he continued as head of the Mathematics Department, and as Registrar, and then as Dean of the College.

In 1920, at the age of seventy, Dean Kenyon retired from active teaching and enjoyed through the remainder of his life a retiring allowance from the Carnegie Foundation. As Dean and Rhode Island Professor of Mathematics, Emeritus, during these eleven years he served on the Board of Trustees, and at the time of his death was president of the Corporation, and chairman of the Executive Committee. Alfred University conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Science in 1905.

Dean Kenyon was a man of superior quality in mind and character and served the community in many important offices, in addition to his long and distinguished career as professor in Alfred University. Professor Kenyon was married in 1873 to Mary Veola Babcock, who proved a companion of rare charm and personality, and contributed her full share to his career of education and public service. She preceded him in death by a little more than one year in June, 1930.

In the passing of Dean Kenyon, Alfred University and the community have lost a man whose career and whose wisdom, loyalty and devotion are an imperishable legacy. His name is held in appreciative memory by thousands of alumni, who have been his students, and by hundreds of others who have been his colleagues in college and community activities.

Registration

The registration in all departments of Alfred University for the academic year 1931-32, has been as follows:

College of Liberal Arts	328
Ceramic College	172
Agricultural School	77
Department of Music	109
(84 being college students)
Department of Theology and Religious Education	11
(1 being a college student and 3 being correspondence students)
Summer Session	161
(90 being college students)

Total 858

Of this total 175 are duplicates, leaving a total registration for the year of 683, which is a decrease of 6 compared with the total enrollment of the previous year.

Faculty of the College of Liberal Arts

Five new members constitute the changes in the college faculty personnel for the past year.

Harold Ormond Burdick, A. B., A. M., was appointed Associate Professor of Biology to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Flora E. Scherer.

Lester Raymond Polan, A. B., was appointed Instructor in Mathematics in place of Miss Elva E. Starr, resigned.

Marie Louise Cheval, A. B., A. M., was appointed Instructor in Romance Languages, and is an addition to the teaching staff of that department. Her time is about equally divided between French and Spanish.

Nathalie Marie Shepard was appointed Instructor in Physical Education for Women in place of Miss Margaret Myers.

Lloyd Raymond Watson, A. M., Ph. D., was appointed Director of Research for part-time service. Doctor Watson appointment has brought to the college a man of wide distinction as a research expert and has stimulated interest in research among the students of the college.

All these new members together with the entire teaching staff have rendered faithful and efficient service during the year.

Summer School

The summer session was held from July 6 to August 14, 1931. The total registration of 161 was a gain of 28 over the preceding session. The summer school continues to render a valuable service to the college and shows a growing interest and efficiency.

Department of Theology and Religious Education

No change has occurred in the staff of the Department of Theology and Religious Education during the past year, and the work of the Department has been carried on in accordance with the activities of former years.

The New York State College of Ceramics

During the past year the name of the New York State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics has been changed by Act of Legislature and the approval of the Governor to the New York State College of Ceramics. This change has marked a very distinct epoch in the life of the institution, and furnishes an opportunity for important phases of development not hitherto offered.

Dr. Charles F. Binns, who was appointed Director of the School in June, 1900, retired by statutory age limit on December 31, 1931. Doctor Binns has rendered a distinguished service in building up the enrollment which is the largest of any school of ceramics in the world. His retirement leaves a vacancy that is hard to fill, and calls forth from the trustees and friends of education everywhere the highest commendation for a long period of able, loyal and efficient leadership in a new field of education. The President recommends that Doctor Binns be made Director Emeritus of the New York State College of Ceramics.

With the retirement of Doctor Binns, Dr. Murray J. Rice, Professor of Chemistry in the Ceramic College, and Charles R.

Amberg, Professor of Ceramic Engineering, were made temporary co-directors, and the work of Doctor Binns has been divided up among different members of the faculty with Mr. Frank E. Lobaugh as temporary assistant.

With the change of the name to the New York State College of Ceramics, the Legislature has changed the name of the executive officer from that of Director to Dean. The Board of Managers has authorized the appointment of Dr. M. E. Holmes, Head of the Department of Ceramic Engineering in the School of Mines and Metallurgy of the University of Missouri, as Dean of the State College of Ceramics, to begin his duties on July 1, 1932.

Doctor Holmes is a graduate of Indiana University and of Cornell University. From the latter he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. He has had a wide experience in various ceramic industries, and for the past six years has served as Head of the Department of Ceramic Engineering of the University of Missouri. His training, his experience in the ceramic industries, and his teaching and executive experience in a State University, together with his unusual qualities of mind and character fit him admirably to succeed to the position which has been so long and so well filled by Doctor Binns.

Provision has been made by State appropriation for the establishment of a Department of Glass Technology with special laboratory equipment and a trained glass technologist in charge. Dr. Samuel R. Scholes, who received his Ph. D. degree from Yale University, and has had more than a dozen years experience in some of the largest glass industries in the country, has been appointed Glass Technologist and will begin his duties July 1, 1932.

The new ceramics building provided for by the Legislature of 1930, by an appropriation of $175,000 is now nearing completion. This building will be the most expensive building on the campus of the University and is in many respects a model of excellence in architecture and workmanship, particularly for the purpose for which it is designed. It will accommodate the offices of the Dean of the College and the Professor of Glass Technology, the Professor of Ceramic Engineering and the Professors of Drawing and Design, and will provide ample laboratory facilities for all these departments.

The new Glass Department to be organized and equipped with glass laboratory is the first college department of Glass

Technology with laboratory and technologist to be established in the United States. It marks a distinct epoch in technical education, and promises to become, not only the first college department of glass technology, but the graduate school, as well, for technical graduate work in glass in the United States.

The building will also contain on the top floor a large room which will serve as library and conference room for organizations and lectures connected with the College of Ceramics and the ceramic industries of the state.

Forty thousand dollars has been provided by the state and becomes available July 1, for the purchase of furniture and laboratory equipment for this building. It is expected that this building will be completed and ready for dedication and opening with the beginning of the next college year in September.

The New York State School of Agriculture

The activities of the New York State School of Agriculture have continued as usual during the past year with a slightly increased enrollment. The faculty of the school remains as formerly with the exception that Mr. Carl Furrer, B. S., and Mr. George Dinsmore, B. S., both graduates of Cornell University are added to the extension course teachers.

Provision has been made for the introduction of steam from the University heating plant into the building of the School of Agriculture, as well as into the building of the State College of Ceramics, and for the reconstruction of the greenhouse, which was removed from its location in order to clear the ground for the new building of the College of Ceramics.

Alfred University Contracts to Furnish Steam Heat for all the State Buildings

A contract has been executed between Alfred University and the State of New York whereby the State is to purchase steam from the University, to be supplied by the central heating plant at $1 per thousand pounds steam, metered in the several buildings; the State to make connections with the main steam line running to the north end of the campus. This is based upon the present price of coal per ton, and will be varied up or down in accordance with any fluctuation in price.

This contract will necessitate an additional boiler to be placed in the heating plant at an early date, in order to make provision for a reserve boiler, as both of the present boilers will have to be put into service in cold weather.

Health Service

The Clawson Infirmary has completed its fifth year of growing usefulness to the University. It has had a larger patronage than ever before from the students, although there has been no serious illness, and few cases of bed patients confined at the infirmary for a period of ten days.

With the increase of two dollars per year on the medical and infirmary fee, it has been impossible to complete the year without a deficit.

There is seldom a day that no patient is in the infirmary, and on a few occasions the nurses have been overworked for a few days. The superintendent of the infirmary, Miss Lydia Conover, was ill and absent from the infirmary for five weeks, and a substitute nurse was employed.

The Health Service Committee instructed the President at the end of the first semester to appoint a supervising committee for the infirmary with the hope of still further perfecting the health service. The President appointed as such committee, Mrs. B. S. Bassett, whose training and experience as a nurse admirably fitted her to render this service. Mrs. Bassett has given much time and thought to the infirmary service, and has accomplished very much in the way of improving the service during the second semester.

Director of Religious Activities

For the third year Rev. James C. McLeod has served as Director of Religious Activities, Chaplain, and pastor of the Union Church. There has been a gratifying growth in interest and a larger attendance at Chapel exercises and the Sunday morning service than for any previous year. Chaplain McLeod is performing a service on the campus which has become indispensable to our university organization and student life.

Through his leadership the Alfred University Christian Association and the Y. W. C. A. have supplied a considerable number of able speakers for our weekly Assembly programs.

From April 15th to 17th there was held on the campus for the first time a conference of representatives of various colleges under a strong leadership of religious workers, which was attended by a large number of our own students.

The Susan Howell Social Hall

The Susan Howell Social Hall opened and dedicated in the autumn of 1930, has fulfilled a second year of important service for Alfred University. We wonder how we ever got along without it. It is in daily use, with growing demands for social functions of the many student groups on the campus. The wisdom and vision of Mrs. Ames in making this beautiful gift to Alfred University is more and more evident, and sincerely appreciated. Mr. W. L. Ames presented to the University, during the year, and installed in this Hall, a beautiful oil painting of Mrs. Ames.

The Frank L. Bartlett Memorial Dormitory

With the opening of college last September, the Frank L. Bartlett Memorial Dormitory for freshman men was formally opened and dedicated. It was filled to capacity and about a half dozen freshman men were obliged to take rooms in Burdick Hall, because every room in the dormitory was occupied.

The organization and administration of its social life and dining department have required much thought and labor. Some experimenting had to be done, and the year has taught us some lessons of value in improving the management and operation of this building.

It is, however, a very important addition to the equipment of the University plant and gives excellent housing accommodations for ninety-six men. With the advantages gained from the first year's operation of the building, the second year will doubtless see still further improved service.

In this building Mrs. Nancy Bartlett Laughlin has made a beautiful memorial to her father, and one which is rendering a very great service to the young men who are entering Alfred University for a college course.

Mrs. Jennie L. Camp has served as housemother, and Mrs. Jessie Post has served as head of the boarding department. Six upper class students have served as freshman counsellors.

The Hall of Physics

In accordance with the vote of the Trustees at the autumn meeting the contract for the erection of the Hall of Physics was awarded to Mr. L. C. Whitford of Wellsville for a sum not to exceed $64,000. The contract provided that Mr. Whitford would begin the building last fall and would complete the erection during the present summer, provided funds were in hand for meeting building costs. Otherwise work was to be discontinued awaiting collection of adequate funds.

The continued financial depression has so retarded the collection of subscriptions to the Centennial Fund that it did not seem wise to renew building operations this spring. This necessary delay is much to be regretted, as the University is in great need of the building, both for better laboratory facilities in physics, and for more adequate classroom accommodations. It is to be hoped that at an early date provision can be made for completing this building, which is so urgently needed.

Plant Management and Operation

With the opening of Bartlett Memorial Dormitory and the task of feeding one hundred men in a separate dormitory in addition to the men in Burdick Hall, and the usual number of women students in Ladies Hall, we were faced with a larger and more diversified feeding problem than ever before.

Heretofore each one of our dormitories has been run as a separate unit, as each sorority and fraternity house on the campus has run as a separate unit. It soon appeared, however, that we were duplicating activities and costs in these three separate dormitories. There were also acute problems of administration, particularly in Bartlett Memorial Dormitory, which exacted more time and attention from the President, and Treasurer, who is Chairman of the Committee on Janitors and Supplies, than either of us could reasonably give. After much study and experimenting with the problem, aided by Mr. C. Loomis Allen, it was decided to ask Mr. Allen of this Board to serve for the remainder of the year as Subcommittee on Plant Management and Operation, and as representative of the Committee on Buildings and Grounds, and of the Committee on Janitors and Supplies. The following letter was sent to Mr. Allen offering this appointment, which he accepted as of January 1, 1932:

December 30, 1931

Mr. C. Loomis Allen,
Alfred, New York

My dear Mr. Allen:

Mr. Randolph, as chairman of the Committee on Janitors and Supplies, and I, as chairman of the Committee on Buildings and Grounds, have watched with interest and gratification the improvements in efficiency and costs which you have effected in Bartlett Dormitory, particularly the dining department, since you voluntarily took over the management a few weeks ago.

We are now asking you to try out the experiment for six months; viz, from January 1, 1932 to June 30, 1932, of taking over the management also of Ladies Hall and all other buildings of the University plant.

The temporary appointment is in the nature of special trustee sub-committee on Plant Management and Operation. One object of this experiment is to avail ourselves of your expert ability to prepare during this six months a detailed report on the efficiency management of the plant, including the dining halls, to be submitted by June 1.

This appointment is considered to be a part-time appointment and not to interfere with attention to your private business. As compensation for this part-time appointment we propose the sum of $150 per month for six months. It is expected that savings effected in the operation of the dining halls will more than cover this salary, so that no part of it will have to come from the general budget of the University. It is also our desire that this salary shall cover your services in making the above mentioned report. If this proposition is agreeable to you, please advise me to that effect by letter on or before January 1, 1932.

With deep appreciation of your many valuable services to Alfred University, and hoping for your favorable reply, I am

Very truly yours,

Boothe C. Davis,
President.

It was our desire to avail ourselves of Mr. Allen's experience and expert ability in surveying physical plants, to have a study made of our entire plant with reference to economy and efficiency.

Mr. Allen has rendered a very great service to the University as well as to the President and Treasurer, and at but little cost outside of that which is met by the boarding departments. He has systematized and improved the operation of these departments, including the purchase of supplies and the serving of meals. He has also made a comprehensive report of the physical plant, which is too lengthy and detailed to be included in the President's Report. It is a practical report on plant operation, which will be of much service to the committees on Buildings and Grounds, and Janitors and Supplies.

The President recommends that the Board of Trustees authorize the continuance of this appointment of Mr. Allen in charge of plant management and operation on the same basis for the next fiscal year. At a later point in the meeting I desire to discuss this matter more fully than I can do in this formal report.

Library

Alfred University has received during the past year an appropriation from the Carnegie Corporation of $6,000 for the purchase of books for the University library, this allotment to be paid at the rate of $2,000 per year. We have already received the books from the first allotment. This gift to the library raises anew the question of adequate stack room for our library. We now are approaching a collection of 50,000 volumes. The library building did not include when it was built, an adequate stackroom and the number of books has almost doubled in the twenty-two years since the library was built. Some provision should be made at a very early date for an adequate stackroom which would accommodate at least 50,000 volumes, so that only the reference books and books in current use need to be kept in the reading rooms of the library.

"Allen of Alfred"

Another notable gift of books to Alfred University deserves special comment. Dr. Edwin H. Lewis of the Class of 1887, has written a little volume entitled "Allen of Alfred" which has a very interesting and unique character sketch of the late Jonathan Allen, president of Alfred University from 1867 to 1892. To this character sketch is added a choice collection of the writings and sayings of Jonathan Allen through the years of his connection with Alfred University. Doctor Lewis has characterized these as "Steady candles in homeward windows". He has had an edition of 1000 volumes of this work printed and shipped to Alfred University as a gift with the hope that we may be able to sell them to alumni and friends of Alfred at $1 a volume, and use the fund so collected as a gift for any purpose for which the University may desire to devote the funds.

It is a generous gift financially from Doctor Lewis, but it is a particularly rich and beautiful gift in affectionate tribute to one of the great founders of Alfred University.

Department of Finance

At the autumn meeting the Finance Committee reported recommending as follows:

- (1) There shall be created by the Finance Committee the Department of Finance, with Dr. J. Wesley Miller as Director. The Director shall (1) cooperate with the Treasurer in the collection of subscriptions and gifts heretofore made to the University, (2) solicit new gifts and subscriptions and (3) establish and cultivate new contacts that will increase the college enrollment of students.

The Trustees voted to adopt this resolution "as a tentative working program subject to such necessary changes as time may dictate". The Finance Committee was empowered to take such action as may be necessary to carry out the Continuation Improvement Program.

Early in September Doctor Miller began active work as the Director of the Department of Finance. As time went on, however, experience showed that the continued financial depression made it inopportune to push the matter of new subscriptions, particularly so since the campaign of 1930 has left many unpaid pledges. Furthermore, it has been a difficult thing to press for payment of pledges as they come due, since many of the friends who have subscribed find themselves unable to make prompt payment. The Committee, therefore, wisely decided to ask the Director to use his principal efforts in the matter of contacts and activities for increasing the student body. This work has been vigorously pushed with the result that we have a fair prospect for an increased enrollment next fall, whereas many colleges are expecting a heavy loss in student enrollment.

It has occurred to the President many times during the year that it might be a better name for his new department if it had been called the Department of Promotion or Development, which, of course would include the soliciting of new pledges and assistance to the Treasurer in the collection of unpaid pledges.

The President would suggest that the Trustees consider the advisability of so changing the name of the department.

I wish, however, to take this opportunity to express my hearty approval of the work that is being done by Doctor Miller, and of the efficient way in which it is being done, even under circumstances of very great difficulty and discouragement.

The Suspension of Annual Salary Increases

At the autumn meeting the Trustees voted to instruct the Treasurer to advise the members of the Faculty that it might be necessary to suspend the program of annual increases in salary with the beginning of the next school year, unless financial conditions were greatly improved.

The President regrets deeply that it seems necessary to recommend this suspension, but there does not seem to be any way of escape from it. Indeed, we shall be fortunate if we can make our way through the next college year without a deficit.

The President further recommends that the appropriation of not to exceed $1,000 for the aid of members of the faculty in graduate study be suspended for the coming year in order to relieve the budget pressure.

The Fiat Lux

The Dean's report to the President calls attention to certain criticisms that have been made of the conduct of the students' weekly paper, the "Fiat Lux".

There have been numerous criticisms of the management and conduct of the paper within the student group, and some criticism from without. On the whole I think the paper has been more satisfactorily conducted this year than in some previous years.

One of the criticisms that has been made is the large amount of space that has been occupied by objectionable cigarette advertisements. This criticism has been emphasized because of the effort of the college administration to prevent cigarette smoking among the women students.

The college faculty has had under consideration recommendations to require faculty participation in the business and financial management of the paper. It has been suggested by the Dean that if the Trustees are to continue collection of the price of the paper with tuition fees that the management agree to participation on the part of the faculty in the financial and editorial management.

It would seriously cripple the paper if the collection of fees were left to be voluntary, as many students would drop their subscriptions; probably fifty per cent of the students would do so.

The three-quarter page cigarette advertisement is said to be worth $12 per issue. This for thirty issues would be $360, which the paper's management claims is necessary to successfully finance the paper, particularly in recent months when good, paying advertisements are very difficult to obtain.

The President has felt very strongly that because of the fire hazard in a non-fireproof dormitory and in wooden sorority houses, as well as for other reasons, the habit of smoking cigarettes among young women students should be disapproved.

If this policy is to be continued it would seem desirable to eliminate the type of advertisement which so prominently promotes smoking among women.

The President would recommend that the Trustees authorize the Executive Committee to confer with the management of the paper with a view to eliminating some of these criticisms by arranging for faculty participation in the financial and editorial management, if the subscription fees are to continue to be collected through the Treasurer's office.

The Burning of the Sigma Chi Nu Sorority House

On March 17, the Sigma Chi Nu Sorority House caught fire and was nearly destroyed. Most of the furniture was removed, but some personal belongings of the students were lost. Fortunately no one was injured.

Insurance on the building and furniture has been collected aggregating something over $9,000, and the building is now being restored and will probably be a better adapted building for its use than before the fire.

Water Shortage

For a number of years there has been a serious shortage at various times in the village water supply. Last autumn this shortage was acute and created unrest on the campus, as well as in the village. Fortunately the village trustees were able to secure an excellent well which is giving an amply supply of water, and plans are under way for a larger reservoir and a more adequate water service. I confidently expect that there will be no repetition of this disturbing shortage of water.

Current Finances

For the twenty-second consecutive year Alfred University has been able to live within its income and to avoid an annual deficit. We have again remained throughout the year at almost the peak of our enrollment, notwithstanding the financial depression from which the country is suffering, and on account of which many colleges have had serious reduction in enrollment. Our students, however, have had much difficulty in making payment of tuitions and meeting their living expenses. The Treasurer has shown commendable sympathy and patience, as well as energy and persistence in the matter of collection of all fees wherever possible.

Acknowledgment of Gifts

The President's Retirement

As reported to the Trustees one year ago, it is the intention of the President to terminate his service as President of Alfred University with the attainment of his seventieth year, and to avail himself of the retiring allowance of the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America to which he is eligible.

I must, therefore, at this time present to the Trustees my resignation to take effect July 31, 1933, the month in which I become seventy years of age. The retiring allowance will be available beginning August 1. I am handing to the secretary of the Board a copy of my resignation, as follows, which I wish to have included in this annual report.

Letter of Resignation

June 14, 1932

To the Trustees of Alfred University:

With this, my thirty-seventh annual report, I must present my resignation as President of Alfred University, to take effect July 31, 1933, when I shall have reached my seventieth year.

It is with mingled happiness and regret that I present this resignation. It is a privilege rarely given to a man to serve his Alma Mater as President more than half his whole life up to the time of his retirement, and to have served his college for half of its chartered existence, when that chartered existence has exceeded three-quarters of a century, as will be my experience at the end of another year.

A happier comradeship with trustees, faculty, alumni and students through all this long period could not be anticipated in any college. A more encouraging growth and development could hardly have been hoped for than we have enjoyed. All these things add satisfaction to this resignation.

One cannot anticipate, however, the severance of such ties without regret that advanced years and human limitations must terminate the happiest relationships.

This resignation is offered now in the belief that the intervening year will enable the Trustees to make a careful and wise selection of a new president, and have his election completed before the resignation takes effect, so that there will be no gap or interregnum before the new president takes up his duties.

Mrs. Davis and I look forward to years of retired life in which we shall enjoy the esteem and love of the beloved Alfred which we have been so happy to serve. We bespeak for the next president the same loyalty and cooperation we have so richly enjoyed.

Respectfully submitted,

Boothe C. Davis,
President.

The reports of the Deans, the Registrar, the Librarian, the Curator of the Museum, the Dean of the Department of Theology and Religious Education, the Director of the Summer School, the Director of the State College of Ceramics, the Director of the State School of Agriculture, the Superintendent of the Clawson Infirmary, the University Physician, and the Director of Religious Activities, Chairman of Assembly Committee, are submitted herewith as a part of this report.

For the continued blessings of God upon the activities of Alfred University we are all sincerely thankful.

With appreciation and gratitude for the loyalty and cooperation of the Trustees, the Faculty, and the Student Body and alumni and friends, this ninety-sixth annual report is respectfully submitted.

BOOTHE C. DAVIS,
President.

June 14, 1932.

REPORT OF THE DEAN OF MEN

To the President of Alfred University:—

Dear President Davis:

I hereby present my report as Dean of the College of Liberal Arts for the year 1931-1932.

The detailed routine of the office as set forth in the opening paragraphs of the two preceding annual reports has been regularly attended to during the past year. An increasingly important feature of that routine is the fifteen-minute visit which I have with each freshman man early in the first semester. Much useful insight into student problems is thus gained.

Owing to the depression my office, as well as the business offices, has been bombarded with urgent requests for work, loans, extensions of the time for paying fees and other bills, and for scholarship aid. Doubtless next year the requests will be at least as numerous and as urgent as in the present year.

Two noteworthy happenings have taken place in the life of the Greek letter groups on our campus. The first was the destructive fire which so nearly destroyed the Sigma Chi Nu sorority house in March. While the young women lost considerable valuable personal property no one was injured. Through the efficient activity of Mr. Curtis Randolph and Mr. C. Loomis Allen, temporary quarters were soon available for the members in the Ida Rogers house on Main Street. The second event was the organizing and nationalizing of the Hebrew students as the Phi chapter of the Kappa Nu fraternity; and their contracting to lease (and later to buy) the "Castle", the C. D. Reynolds property on Reynolds Street. It is hoped that this development will help to select for us a desirable type of Hebrew student.

While on the whole the disciplinary problems of the past year have not been serious, one or two episodes should be chronicled. In November the student body, justly irritated at the critical water shortage, and led none too wisely perhaps by some of their own number, decided to go on strike. This was finally determined upon just as the water problem was permanently solved. Other student grievances, real or supposed, were canvassed with the result that college was closed for four days, which were made up later by shortening other vacations. In the later winter a near-strike of the freshmen against the upper classmen developed. This was due to a variety of causes. The earlier water strike gave the suggestion; the greater unity of the freshmen since so many lived in the new Bartlett Dormitory, was a factor; while the slowly rising tide of freshman resentment against upper class domination, noticeably increasing in recent years, perhaps, was also influential. Moderate counsels, however, prevailed and overt action was avoided. Some changes in the student regulations relating to freshmen for next year are now pending. (These remarks must not be thought to imply any doubt as to the great value of our new dormitory. It is a great asset in our scheme of education at Alfred. Doubtless Mr. C. Loomis Allen will have suggestions for all of us who are officially interested as to applying next year the experience gained this year in the management of the hall.)

There has been some friction in Burdick Hall during the year due, doubtless, chiefly to incompatible personalities. It became necessary in the spring to close the boarding club. Is it worth while to try to satisfy as heterogeneous a group as lives in that hall by running a boarding department for it?

An uncomfortable amount of petty thievery about the campus has pestered the administrative officers during the past year and appears not to be diminishing, to put it mildly. It is very difficult to deal with because so frequently the culprits go undetected. While in a body of nearly 500 students more or less drinking of intoxicants undoubtedly exists. Wherever cases have come definitely to our knowledge they have been dealt with in the spirit of the rule suggested by the University trustees last June.

Athletically the year's achievements were quite creditable to our teams. The outstanding successes were the winning of the Middle Atlantic Cross-Country Championship for the second consecutive time, and the winning of second place in the Little Ten Conference and three dual track meets with St. Lawrence, Hobart and Rochester.

For some time the gymnasium facilities available for women have been quite inadequate. The work of Miss Shepard, notable and fruitful as it has been, has suffered from this lack. It is hoped that the suggested use of Fireman's Hall for the women's physical training work next year may materialize. It is believed that such an advance step would go far toward solving the problem of effective physical training facilities for our women students.

As noted in the report of Acting Dean Conroe last year, the faculty acting on at least an implied request by the students, suspended the honor system in examinations. Under the leadership of Professor Cortelyou, a joint faculty-student committee has worked out a faculty proctoring system to take the place of the honor system. At the same time many students and faculty members hope that in due course a student-controlled honor system of some acceptable variety may be restored.

In February eleven students were dropped for poor scholarship. This compares with the totals of seventeen in 1931, fourteen in 1930 and twenty-two in 1928.

The campaign for increased enrollment for 1932-1933 seems to promise real fruit. Fortunately it seems to be agreed by all participating in its promotion,—urging present students to return and prospective freshmen to apply—that it must be carried through in such a way as to undermine discipline, and compromise scholastic standards as little as possible.

For some time there has been an undercurrent of dissatisfaction with the student weekly, the Fiat Lux. This has related both to its editorial policy and its business management, and has come from students, faculty, trustees and alumni. Hints have not been wanting that such discontent might result in the trustees refusing longer to authorize the collection of the Fiat subscription price with the tuition bills. How would it do to continue such collection on condition that some plan of joint faculty-student management be accepted?

In closing, I desire to testify to the complete cooperation which I have received during the year from my efficient secretary, Miss Ruth K. Titsworth, from the faculty, from students and student officers, from my ever useful Assistant Dean I. A. Conroe, the Dean of Women, Mrs. Dora K. Degen, the Registrar, W. A. Titsworth, and especially from yourself, President Davis.

Respectfully submitted,

June 1, 1932.

J. NELSON NORWOOD, Dean

REPORT OF THE DEAN OF WOMEN

To the President of Alfred University:—

My dear President Davis:

The report of the Dean of Women for the year 1931-32 is hereby submitted.

Following the regular plan the Dean of Women had an interview with each freshman girl early in the semester. The purpose of these visits is a better acquaintance resulting in a helpful knowledge of the personality and problems of each girl, on the part of the Dean, and on the part of the girls, a greater willingness to come voluntarily with questions upon which they need advice.

While the number of freshman girls entering in September was smaller than usual, only fifty, the quality of the class seemed to be rather more than usually good and the character, scholarship and cooperation of the girls of the class as a whole has been a source of satisfaction throughout the year.

Seven of these girls left before the second semester, one transferred, one because of homesickness, one to be married, and four for financial reasons at home. Entering in September we had two transfers from other colleges, one for the senior class and one for the sophomore class. During the year three former students returned to college, two to complete their work for graduation and one, an alumna, for work in preparation for teaching.

There has been considerable independence in thinking manifested during the year. The agitation of the question of freshman rules made by students among both men and women has resulted in a weighing of the value of them by the Senate and the Women's Student Government which will probably result in a modification of the rules. The freshman girls, for instance, expect next year to wear instead of the small green cap, the less objectionable beret, and that for a shorter season than before.

At the time when the agitation for the so-called water strike was at its height, in the student body, the girls of the dormitory had a meeting in their house to which the Dean of Women was asked to come to discuss the problem with them.

It was the suggestion of the girls at this meeting that a mass meeting of the entire student body be called in order that members of the administration might present facts to take the place of the distorted rumors going about.

Other group meetings have been held at the request of the girls to discuss the rule against smoking which is broken by a number of them. There was much expression of opinion and it was finally agreed that the girls themselves should send a letter to each parent in order to get the opinion of parents in the matter. The replies to these letters showed more parents to be against than for a change of the rule.

Two things are increasingly appreciated, the Clawson Infirmary and the Susan Howell Social Hall, the one invaluable in the health program and the other in the social program for the campus.

Whenever there is a condition other than one of good health a girl is at once referred to the infirmary for advice or necessary care. The prevention of real illness by this prompt attention has been as noticeable in its results as the cure of actual cases. This program for preventive work and for the improvement of general health conditions has been greatly assisted by the special interest and cooperation of the Superintendent of the Infirmary. There have been no deaths and no cases of serious accident or illness among the girls during the year.

In the social program Susan Howell Social Hall has been increasingly valuable for both faculty and students. Members of the faculty have regularly had its use one evening in the week besides for some special occasions when they have individually or collectively entertained there. Three musicals for students and faculty, ten student parties, two benefits given by student organizations, and a college tea are among the things for which it has been used, as well as for a regular meeting place for some department clubs, an open forum and a peace organization. An intercollegiate conference and dinner were also held there. The hall is open week days from four to five-thirty and from seven to eight, at which time the hostess is always in charge.

The attempt was made this year to have a better balanced social program. Each organization on the campus was asked at the beginning of the year to hand in a list of desired social dates. The committee, consisting of a student member of the Student Life Committee and the Dean of Women, then tried to arrange a balanced program for the entire year. With some slight changes this has been followed.

One of the gravest and most frequent problems of the year has been that of student aid. Many girls have been seriously troubled about funds necessary to finish the year and many have requested part-time employment for next year. Some of these will be unable to return unless they can earn part of their expenses. To find such aid is increasingly difficult.

The only serious misfortune of the year was that suffered by Sigma Chi Nu sorority in the partial destruction of their house by fire. Fortunately for them the University allowed them to move their possessions the next day into one of the University houses not occupied. The prompt and satisfactory adjustment of insurance has made it possible for them to begin rebuilding. The attitude toward them of friendly helpfulness on the part of all fraternal organizations on the campus and their own courageous efforts to make readjustments under difficult circumstances have brought their own rewards.

In closing I would like to express my appreciation to those members of the faculty and student body without whose aid any successful program would not be possible. I would like to mention particularly the cheerful and efficient cooperation of the heads of the houses, the nurses at the infirmary, the hostess of Social Hall and the president and other officers of Student Government organizations.

Respectfully submitted,

DORA K. DEGEN,

Dean of Women

IX. Miscellaneous

The regular routine of the Registrar's office has been carried out as usual. The work of sending catalogs and answering letters requesting them takes up a considerable part of the work of the office. This part of our work has increased very much during the past year. The number of applications for admission received before the high school commencements has also shown quite an increase during this year, which suggests that we should have a large freshman class in the fall of 1932. The work of recording the mid-semester and final grades has been accomplished as usual.

Since the last report four reports of grades have been sent to parents and four reports of grades to students. The tuition bills for the first and the second semesters have been made out and mailed. During the past year my office has issued 500 transcripts. This part of the work of the Registrar's office has increased many fold during the past few years, due to the fact that a student applying to medical and dental schools often applies to from five to ten different schools. This is due to the fact that in all of the medical and dental schools the number of applicants are four to five times the capacity of the institution. The medical schools require a transcript covering nearly two pages of information.

The drive for new students which was instituted this spring has also added considerable detail work to the routine of the office. This we were glad to do.

As I stated in last year's report, the most pressing need in the Registrar's office at the present time is fireproof protection for the permanent records of the graduates and students. We have no way to protect from fire the permanent records of the present college generation, which constitute the active file of the office. The other records are kept in a safe which, because of age, is not strictly fireproof and which is far too small to keep all the necessary valuable records which the office possesses. This fire proof protection should be furnished at once in the form of a modern safe cabinet.

Another need which is almost as pressing is adequate space in which to keep the files and do efficiently the work performed in the office of the Registrar. The small room which is now used as both an office and work room is unsuited for the amount of work which is done there. The building of Babcock Hall would have freed the Mathematics recitation room now used by the Registrar for this purpose. But it is hoped that some way may be found by which that room may still be available as part of the Registrar's office by finding some other location for Mathematics recitation rooms. The present room should be available as a private office for the Registrar.

During the past year it has been found necessary to hire considerable extra help. There is now sufficient work connected with the Registrar's and Deans' offices to require the full time services of two secretaries. As soon as the financial situation of the University makes it possible, such arrangements should be made. If this additional help were provided it would be quite possible for those offices to take over more of the work of the President's and Treasurer's offices than they have been able to do during the past year.

I want to take this opportunity to acknowledge the splendid cooperation which this office has received from President Davis, Treasurer Randolph, Dean Norwood and Doctor Miller. Cooperation of the sort that has existed this past year tends to simplify the procedures of the various offices. With very few exceptions, the cooperation of the faculty has been unusually satisfactory during the past year, and for this cooperation the Registrar is particularly grateful. I wish also to acknowledge the work of Miss Ruth K. Titsworth, my secretary, whose efficient service is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

WALDO A. TITSWORTH, Registrar

Alfred, New York, June 1, 1932.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN

To the President of Alfred University:

Dear Mr. President:

I hereby submit my 24th annual Library report for the college year 1931-1932.

Bound volumes at the beginning of the year	46,325
Number of volumes added by purchase	635
Number of volumes added by gift	1,965
Total number of volumes at close of year	48,925
Volumes of fiction lent for home use	2,594
Volumes of non-fiction lent for home use	9,408
Number of unbound magazines lent for home use	730
Total free circulation for home use	12,732

The above figures take no account of the thousands of books and magazines that are consulted in the library.

The following percentage figures will be of interest:

Volumes per capita of population served	71
Circulation per capita of population served	20
Total expenditures per capita of population	$13.59

Each library under the Regents of the State of New York is rated in respect to book stock, circulation, staff and income. Thus the total rating indicates the general quality of the library service. On the basis of 100 per cent as perfect our library received a very flattering rating on the basis of quality of service. Expressed in per cent the rating was 460.58 per cent efficient.

The Carnegie Corporation sent a representative some months ago to look over our library with a view to placing it upon their approved list of libraries. Dr. Robert L. Kelly, Executive Secretary of the Association of American Colleges, was sent here for that purpose. Largely as a result of his visit and of the condition of our library, we were placed on the approved list of college libraries and were granted an appropriation of $6,000 or $2,000 per year for a period of three years for the purchase of books. This appropriation became available in October, 1931, or the year ending September 30, 1932. About 900 books have been purchased from this appropriation, catalogued and placed on the shelves. This has been a great help in providing for the library many books that our previous small appropriation was unable to accomplish.

Since my last report the library has published two bulletins, namely: "The Susan Howell Social Hall," January, 1931, and the "Frank L. Bartlett Memorial Dormitory Dedication", November, 1931.

Among those who have contributed books during the year the following may be mentioned: Representative D. A. Reed, Miss Annette Clifford, Mrs. Alberti and C. D. Cottrell. Many states and organizations have also made contributions, the greatest number coming from our own state, the State of New York.

It is gratifying to note that the library is steadily growing not only in number of books, which within a year will reach the 50,000 mark; but it is being appreciated more and more by both townspeople and students. This is evidenced by the many calls for help by our own people, as well as by many from out of town. The students are more and more coming to realize the benefits derived from a knowledge of the correct use of a well-stocked library.

Respectfully submitted,

C. R. CLAWSON, Librarian

REPORT OF THE CURATOR OF THE ALLEN STEINHEIM MUSEUM

To the President of Alfred University:

During the year just ended nineteen hundred visitors have inspected the Allen Steinheim Museum, some three hundred more than in the preceding year. Among the visitors were considerable groups of students from grade schools, high schools, art schools and colleges. To mention a particular group, the director of the University of Rochester museum came with a class of museum students and made a thorough study of the Steinheim.

The artistic phase of the museum also has been well patronized. During the past semester the entire freshman class of Ceramic students, as well as many advanced students, studied and sketched here.

Many friends have, as usual, been mindful of the museum. The following are among the contributors for the past year:

John Wolfe, W. R. Clarke, Lester D. Burdick, Milo Travis, Hannah Stillman Gamble, David S. Clark, Madam Alberti, Professor Waldo Titsworth, Dante Vezzoli, Charles Alfred Howe, Mrs. T. D. Holmes, Miss Lammechiena Bakker, Estate of Mrs. Sue Crandall Sherman.

During the summer the curator collected rocks and biological materials throughout New England. These have been classified and added to the exhibits.

Botanical materials have also been procured, particularly fruits and materials illustrating dendrology. It is the purpose to stress such collections in the future.

To further call the attention of the public to the Steinheim a booklet has been prepared setting forth the leading aspects of the museum. Five hundred copies of the booklet have been ordered for distribution at this time.

The following museums have been visited and studied by the curator with a view to improvement in the Steinheim.

Peabody Museum at Harvard, Peabody Museum at Yale, Albany State Museum, Humbolt Museum at Buffalo, Municipal Museum at Rochester, University of Rochester Museum and Senate House at Kingston, N. Y.

The Steinheim has continued in the care of Miss Arta Place who has, as ever before, rendered valuable services in the conduct of the exhibitions.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

To the President of Alfred University:

My dear President Davis:

As Director of Religious Activities, College Chaplain, and Pastor of the Union University Church, I beg to submit the following report:

A marked increase of attendance at the daily chapel services, and at the Union services on Sunday indicates that the third year of our experiment in centralized religious activity is worth while. There has been a marked change of attitude on the part of the student body as a whole toward these two worthy institutions. The general attendance at each service of the daily chapel has been consistently higher than the attendance at most institutions where voluntary chapel is held. The Lenten period, during which unified chapel talks were presented, was the high water mark in attendance and interest. From general comment the talks on: "Our Growing Knowledge of God"; "The Meaning of Life"; "Does God Ever Take the Initiative?" and "Modern Question About Prayer" have provoked the greatest interest. The Third Annual Senior Chapel Service filled Kenyon Hall. During the year, Doctor Norwood, Doctor Binns, Professors Conroe and Bennett, as well as several visiting speakers, have supplemented the talks given by the Chaplain.

The Union University Church has prospered in attendance and it is expected will meet its financial obligations. The Executive Committee of the Union Church made up of student and faculty members, wishes to express its sincere appreciation to the congregation of the Seventh Day Baptist Church for their courtesy in permitting our congregation to use the building. The Union Church Choir, augmented by several new voices, has a membership of thirty-five students. Under the able direction of Mrs. Ramon Reynolds this splendid group has added much to our services. Services have been held each Sunday during the college year with the exception of one Sunday during the Christmas recess. The general attendance has greatly exceeded that of last year and a greater majority of the entering class affiliated with the Union Church than in previous years. The high lights of the church year in both attendance and influence were the Christmas Carol service under the direction of Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Santee, at which the attendance was in excess of four hundred; and the Communion service preceding the Christmas holidays, and the Mother's Day service.

The Christian Associations have had the best years in recent history. The Y. W. C. A., under the leadership of Miss Lois Brown as president, had an active membership of nearly one hundred. They held a retreat at the beginning of the year for the freshman girls, a series of teas to which the faculty was invited, regular Sunday evening services, and a spring retreat for the new and old cabinets. In addition they refurnished their rooms in the Ladies Hall, installed a ping pong table, and were instrumental in improving the attendance at the daily chapel services. Much credit for their successful year must be given to their Faculty Counsellors: Miss Ford and Miss Harris. The A. U. C. A. (formerly the Y. M. C. A.) have held several meetings of genuine interest during the year and through the cooperation of Mr. Ray Sweetman of the State Staff have brought several fine speakers to the campus. Perhaps the outstanding achievement of the year by these two groups was the holding of Alfred's first Conference. This was held over the week-end of April 15-17. The committee in charge was made up of men and women from both the Y. W. C. A. and the A. U. C. A. and chose as the theme of the conference: "What Should Be the Significance of the College Experience?" As visiting leaders, we had Professor John Bennett of Auburn Theological Seminary; and Paul Harris, Jr., Consultant to the National Council for the Prevention of War". The two main topics of discussion were "Building One's Philosophy of Life" and "Becoming a World Citizen". Several students from Elmira College, Buffalo State Teachers College and University of Rochester attended. More than one hundred fifty of the students in Alfred participated in this fine Conference, showing a great interest in the whole project. Mr. Harris addressed both the Seventh Day and the Union Church congregations.

Continued interest was manifested in the course in "A Philosophy of Life" taught by the Chaplain, many students attending various sessions of the class without taking the course for credit.

Last in the report, but by no means least, has been the making of many personal contacts with the students. Pastoral calling in the usual sense of the word is not practical in college work. Calling at the new Bartlett Hall, Burdick Hall, and the various fraternity houses, and mingling with the students in their various athletic activities has brought its returns in the forming of valuable friendships. Mrs. McLeod entertained in groups all of the women of the freshman class, and many have been the informal evening gatherings in our home.

In retrospect the year has proven very worth while and there is positive indication that the church-centered religious life on the Alfred campus is proving a valuable asset to the student body as a whole. There is little question but what the leaven of the Spirit is working and that the whole student body is benefiting from the various religious activities on the campus. In concluding this report may I express to you my appreciation for your interest, encouragement, help and advice in many of the problems of the program and personnel which have arisen.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES C. McLEOD,

Director of Religious Activities

June 1, 1932.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Dear President Davis:

I am sending herewith my report for the year 1931-1932:

Eleven students have taken work in the Seminary, eight in residence, and three by correspondence. One of these three is eligible to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

The instructors have been: Arthur E. Main, B. A., B. D., D. D., L. H. D.; Rev. Walter L. Greene, B. A., B. D.; Rev. Edgar D. Van Horn, B. A., M. A., B. D., D. D.

Instruction has been given in the following subjects: Christian Theology; Worship; Church Administration; New Testament Greek; Homiletics; Theological Survey; English Bible; History of Religions; Religious Education; Christian Ethics; Psychology of Religion; Philosophy of Religion; O. T. Theology and Christian Sociology.

Professor Greene attended the annual meeting of the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Among the new students expected for next year are two seniors of Milton College, Milton, Wisconsin. There are still open doors of usefulness for well prepared preachers of the Gospel.

Yours respectfully,

May 23, 1932.

ARTHUR E. MAIN

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE SUMMER SCHOOL

To the President of Alfred University:-

My dear President Davis:

The Eighteenth Annual Summer Session, held from July 6th to August 14th, 1931, was a decided success. Its enrollment about equalled that of the largest summer session at the time when more than fifty per cent of the enrollment consisted of high school graduates preparing to teach in the rural schools. The enrollment this past summer consisted of bonafide students of collegiate grade as no high school subjects were taught.

A summary of the enrollment follows:

Men	97
Women	64
Total	161

Of this number ninety were regular students in the University during the years 1930-31 or the present year, 1931-32, which is an indication of the extent to which the summer session serves the Alfred student.

The geographical distribution was as follows:

New York	131	Connecticut	2
New Jersey	8	Louisiana	1
Pennsylvania	7	Massachusetts	1
Illinois	3	Washington	1
Ohio	3	Porto Rico	1
Virginia	3	<hr/>
		Total	161

Thirty-nine of the total enrollment were already in the teaching profession or about to enter upon it in September. About twenty-five were enrolled in the Summer School of Pottery and Industrial Arts.

The faculty of the summer school is a very congenial group of earnest and hard workers. Their classes are small but they give unstintingly of their energy and services.

The financial report of the summer school, as prepared by the treasurer, Curtis F. Randolph, shows that again the summer session was a successful one from a financial point of view also. One thousand dollars profit was turned over to the University out of the surplus.

It is hoped that in the summer of 1932 more use may be made of Social Hall and that talking moving pictures may be given in Alumni Hall.

The Director wishes at this time to acknowledge the hearty cooperation of President Davis and Treasurer Randolph as well as that of all the faculty members.

Respectfully submitted,

WALDO A. TITSWORTH, Director

HONORARY DEGREES

JOSEPH CHARLES PARK, introduced by Professor Clifford M. Potter.

Professor Potter said:

Mr. President: I wish to present for an honorary degree a man who ranks high in the field of vocational education and is also a distinguished author and lecturer. He received his Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from Syracuse University and has done considerable graduate work at Cornell University. His teaching experience includes teaching in elementary and secondary schools. He has been a member of the summer school faculties of the University of Illinois and the University of Missouri. He was director of the Oswego Student's Army Training Corps during the World War. He spent several months in 1927 visiting and studying various types of schools in foreign countries. He is now Director of Industrial Teacher Training at Oswego State Normal School.

Among his writings, are included, Educational Woodworking for School and Home, Industrial Arts Problems, Some Facts Regarding Industrial Arts in 156 Cities in the United States, and various magazine articles. He has lectured extensively on Palestine and Egypt. He was included in the list of one hundred outstanding Industrial Arts leaders in the United States, who were selected in 1932 by a consensus of opinion of college professors and state directors through a nation-wide survey.

I believe Alfred University will be honored in granting a degree to so distinguished a gentleman. I take pleasure, therefore, in presenting Joseph Charles Park, Director of Industrial Teacher Training at Oswego State Normal School, for the honorary degree of Doctor of Science.

President Davis said:

Son of Syracuse University, expert in the science of Industrial Arts Education, traveler, lecturer, author, teacher and promoter of vocational education, Alfred welcomes you to a place among her honorary alumni.

By the authority of the Trustees of Alfred University, I gladly admit you, Joseph Charles Park, to the degree of Doctor of Science, honoris causa, in this University, with all the rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, and in token thereof I cause you to be invested with the hood of this degree and present you with this diploma.

PERCY FULLINWIDER, introduced by Professor Ray W. Wingate.

Professor Wingate said:

Mr. President: Alfred University has granted three honorary degrees of Doctor of Music in its history and these were most worthy. No less worthy than these is the man whose name it is my pleasure to present to you this morning, a concert artist, a symphonic conductor, a composer, a man of high standing in the music education field.

May I present the name of Percy Fullinwider, Professor of Violin at Lawrence Conservatory, Appleton, Wisconsin, for the honorary degree of Doctor of Music.

President Davis said:

Son of Cincinnati College of Music, student, artist, teacher, composer, entertainer, and interpreter of the beautiful in music, Alfred thanks you for the joy you have given us, and through your splendid art clasps hands with our friends in Lawrence College; we adopt you.

By the authority of the Trustees of Alfred University, I gladly admit you, Percy Fullinwider, to the degree of Doctor of Music, honoris causa, in this University, with all the rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, and in token thereof I cause you to be invested with the hood of this degree and present you with this diploma.

EDGAR G. LANTMAN, introduced by Professor Irwin A. Conroe.

Professor Conroe said:

Mr. President: In conferring an honorary degree upon the candidate whom I have the privilege of presenting, Alfred University recognizes the same spirit of progress in education which has been her own happy portion. She honors a man whose career in the field of pedagogy has been one of steady rise through the ranks to high position.

He resides in Albany and from that vantage point has had opportunity to experience more phases of work in the field of education than is the privilege of most educators. He taught for three years in rural and village schools in New York state. He was graduated from the State Normal School at Cortland, New York, and since graduation has served ably in the following positions: For ten years principal of a grammar school in Binghamton; for fifteen years, Superintendent of Public Schools, Port Chester, New York; for ten years Executive Secretary of the old State Teachers' Retirement System; since the law became effective on August 1, 1921, he has been and now is the Executive Secretary of the present State Teachers' Retirement System.

In June, 1900, he earned through study and examination the degree of Master of Arts from Mt. Hope College, Rogers, Ohio. In recognition of his splendid services the New York State Teachers College at Albany conferred upon him the honorary degree of Master of Pedagogy, in June, 1928.

Because of his long and distinguished career of service and ministry in the field of education, I now recommend to you Edgar G. Lantman for the honorary degree of Doctor of Pedagogy.

President Davis said:

Son of the Public Schools and of the Normal School system of New York state, beloved teacher, principal, superintendent and executive officer, honorary alumnus of New York's oldest State College of Teachers, guardian of teachers who grow old in the service; Alfred asks your care and your fellowship.

By the authority of the Trustees of Alfred University, I gladly admit you, Edgar G. Lantman, to the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy, honoris causa, in this University, with all rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, and in token thereof I cause you to be invested with the hood of this degree and present you with this diploma.

JAY WILLIAM CROFOOT, introduced by Dean J. Nelson Norwood.

Dean Norwood said:

President Davis: The next candidate for an honorary degree is a native of this (Allegany) county. He prepared for college in the Wellsville High School and was graduated from Alfred University with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the class of 1895. Six years later his Alma Mater conferred on him the degree of Master of Arts. For four years he engaged in educational work in the public schools. During three out of those years he was principal of the Alfred public school.

In 1899 he offered himself to the Seventh Day Baptist denomination as a foreign missionary and for some thirty years he was busy in various related missionary and educational lines in and near Shanghai, China. He was outstanding as an educator, being principal of the Grace High School in that city; he was also outstanding as a master of the Chinese language. He conducted classes in Chinese for newly arrived missionaries of various denominations and excelled as an editor and translator.

Last summer he entered upon his duties as President of Milton College and has just completed a successful year in that high office. While he was principal of the local public school, I was a student in his classes. I was just at the hero-worshipping period of youth. He was the hero and has never entirely outlived the role.

For this reason, President Davis, as well as for his more substantial achievements, I count it a personal privilege to nominate Jay William Crofoot, President of Milton College, for the honorary degree of Doctor of Pedagogy.

President Davis said:

Son of Alfred and grandson of Alfred, father of a son and daughter of Alfred, scholar, teacher, missionary, and college president, Alfred welcomes you back with love and esteem after thirty-seven eventful years of service. We rejoice in your achievements as an educator in the great land of China, and in your recent promotion to the place of executive head of a sister college. Alfred greets you and renews its blessing.

By the authority of the Trustees of Alfred University, I gladly admit you, Jay William Crofoot, to the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy, honoris causa, in this University, with all the rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, and in token thereof I cause you to be invested with the hood of this degree and present you with this diploma.

JOHN CAYCE MORRISON, introduced by Dr. Charles F. Binns.

Doctor Binns said:

Mr. President: It has been said that the University of the State of New York is an institution which has neither faculty, matriculates nor graduates, that it is a soul without a body. But while this may be a better condition than a body without a soul there is evidence before us today that, at least as far as the State Education Department is concerned, it has both.

The orator of the day is a native of Illinois and he laid the foundation of a long educational experience when, at eighteen years of age he took charge of a one-room school. Seven years of teaching were followed by graduation from Valparaiso University and this, successively, by a Master's degree and a Doctor's degree, both from Columbia University.

He became a member of the faculty of Ohio State University in 1923, and three years later was appointed to the position which he now holds, that of Assistant Commissioner for Elementary Education in the State of New York.

I have the honor, Mr. President, of presenting the name of John Cayce Morrison to receive the degree of Doctor of Laws.

President Davis said:

Son of Valparaiso and Columbia, scholar, teacher of youth, research specialist, friend of children, teacher of teachers, orator, and beloved executive in whose care the millions of children of this State are entrusted; Alfred is honored by your presence, and by the masterly address of today in which you have made the problems and tasks of our education take on a new significance. Alfred welcomes you, sir, to leadership in its great body of teaching alumni.

By the authority of the Trustees of Alfred University, I gladly admit you, John Cayce Morrison, to the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, in this University, with all the rights and privileges thereunto appertaining, and in token thereof I cause you to be invested with the hood of this degree and present you with this diploma.

A SURPRISE HONORARY DEGREE ESTELLE HOFFMAN DAVIS

As a surprise to both President and Mrs. Davis, the Board of Trustees voted to authorize the conferring of an honorary degree on Mrs. Boothe C. Davis.

At the close of the conferring of honorary degrees by the President, as scheduled on the Commencement program, Orra S. Rogers, LL. D., President of the Board of Trustees, arose and requested to make an announcement; he then asked Mrs. Boothe C. Davis to come to the platform, and said: "I recognize Professor Beulah N. Ellis."

Mrs. Ellis said:

Doctor Rogers, President of the Board of Trustees: I consider it a great honor and a highly esteemed privilege to present as a candidate for an honorary degree, a woman beloved by the faculty of Alfred University and by hundreds of its graduates who came under her influence— Mrs. Estelle Hoffman Davis.

Mrs. Davis has been associated with this University for many years. As Miss Hoffman she came here from Shiloh, New Jersey, and matriculated in 1883. In 1888 she received the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy from Alfred University. After a period of teaching in her native state she returned to Alfred University and taught English from 1891 to 1892.

As a student and teacher she was much interested in the literary societies of the college and was a very active member of the Alfredian Lyceum. She was an inspiring teacher. Only last year a mother of two of our graduates, who in her youth was a student in Miss Hoffman's classes, spoke of the great inspiration and help she had received from her, and paid tribute to the lasting impression her influence had left.

In 1893 Miss Hoffman married Rev. Boothe C. Davis. In 1895, when Doctor Davis became president of Alfred University, Mrs. Davis cheerfully assumed all the duties and responsibilities incumbent upon the wife of a college president, and from that time to the present the welfare of this University has been uppermost in her thoughts.

In those early days there was no social life in the college and Mrs. Davis wisely met that need. Year after year she frequently entertained groups of students in her home, gave parties to the lonely freshmen, established that delightful social function, the senior breakfast, a custom she has observed to the present day, and in various ways lent her influence to the development of the social side of the college.

She made the students feel she was their friend. For many years before Alfred had a dean of women, the college girls often went to Mrs. Davis with their problems and never failed to receive help and guidance.

As wife of the president she had taken a keen interest in all that pertains to the University; she has shared his worries, his anxieties, his problems, likewise his hopes, his ambitions, and has with her sympathetic understanding and sound judgment inspired him with stronger courage and greater zeal.

In consideration, then, of her varied service to Alfred University, the trustees desire, sir, that you confer upon Mrs. Estelle Hoffman Davis the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters.

Mr. Rogers said:

Estelle Hoffman Davis, daughter of Alfred, teacher in Alfred University, with whom I, myself, studied English, Christian mother, advisor to, and beloved by many students. We sing of "Alfred, the mother of men", but you have been a mother to thousands of students, both men and women, and most of all the great right arm of your revered husband in meeting the problems of the presidency of Alfred University for thirty-seven years. In recognition of these and many other services you have rendered, Alfred University delights to express to you her confidence and her love. I commission Dr. Frank P. Graves, President of the University of the State of New York, to confer the degree.

Doctor Graves said:

Estelle Hoffman Davis, inspiring and efficient teacher, wise Christian mother, beloved philosopher, guide, and friend to the students of Alfred University for more than a generation, by virtue of the authority committed to my by the Trustees of Alfred University and with the approval of the University of the State of New York, I gladly admit you to the degree of Doctor of Letters, honoris causa, with all the rights, privileges, and honors appertaining thereto, and in token thereof I cause you to be invested with the appropriate academic hood and present you with this diploma, signed and sealed by the Board of Trustees of Alfred University and to be signed eventually, it is hoped, by the President of the same University.

Schedule 5

THE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Scholarship Fund consists of money and securities given or bequeathed to the University, to be invested and kept invested, the income only to be applied toward the payment of the tuition fees of worthy students in Alfred University, or for some other specially designated purpose.

A Scholarship may be established conditionally on the payment of $100; if a payment of less than $100 is made as an initial payment for this purpose, it is classified as a "prospective Scholarship" and the income from such payments will be used for the general purposes of the University until such time as the payments aggregate at least $100.

The income only of the special funds is used for the purposes designated by the founders of the funds.

The word "Dormant" indicates that the fund is subject to an "Income Gift Agreement."

The column below at the left shows the amount credited to the several funds on June 30, 1931, the column at the right the amounts credited on June 30, 1932, the column in the middle the names of the funds.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

(Formerly Alfred Theological Seminary)

Endowment Report

The Theological Fund

By action of the Board of Trustees of Alfred University at the meeting held October 15, 1926, the name of "The Alfred Theological Seminary" was changed to the "Department of Theology and Religious Education."

This fund consists of money or securities given, bequeathed or devised to Alfred University, to be invested and kept invested, the income alone to be used, either for the maintenance of the Theological Department generally, or for some specific department of it. Prior to the fiscal year 1921-22, the investments of the Theological Fund were included in the University Fund report, Schedule 3, but beginning with the Treasurer's Report for 1921-22, the investments are reported separately, and the income from such investments credited direct on the Theological Department records, Schedule 27.

THE ROSEBUSH FOUNDATION

The Rosebush Foundation consists of securities contributed to Alfred University by Judson G. Rosebush of Appleton, Wisconsin, in accordance with the terms of an agreement dated November 9, 1930,

The income from such securities, together with the income from such other securities as may hereafter be contributed to, or purchased with income from, the Foundation, is to be used in accordance with the terms of said agreement, of which the following is a summary statement, and in the order named, that is to say:

Sect. 1. $3,000 per year for the support of the George W. Rosebush Professorship of Economics.

Sect. 2. $1,500 per year as a part of the general income of the University.

Sect. 3. In the purchase of bonds or other securities which conform to the Standard Endowment Investment Rules of the University until the principal amount of $40,000 in value at cost has been so accumulated.

Sect. 4. After the securities mentioned in Section 3, shall have been purchased, surplus income remaining after compliance with the terms of Section 1 and 2, shall be used for one or more of the following purposes in the discretion of the Trustees of the University:

(P. 1) For extraordinary or most unusual expenses of the University.

(P. 2) For extraordinary and/or non-recurring expenditures of the University.

(P. 3) For additions to the principal of the Rosebush Foundation by the purchase of stocks, preferably well known dividend paying common stocks.

(P. 4) For the purchase of bonds and/or other securities which conform to the Standard Requirements of the Endowment Investment Rules of the University.

The Principal of the Rosebush Foundation must be kept intact for at least 99 years from January 1, 1930, except, that any part of the principal not invested in bonds and/or other securities which conform to the then current rules for Endowment Investments may be used at any time for any of the purposes set forth in Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Section 4; but only upon the unanimous recommendation of the entire Investment Committee made in writing, and the adoption of said recommendation by a majority of at least $\frac{3}{4}$ ths of the entire membership of the Board of Trustees.

BOARDING CLUBS

BURDICK HALL BOARDING CLUB REPORT

(Organized September, 1919)

The boarding club, formerly located at Burdick Hall, known as the "Klan Alpine" having removed to a "Fraternity House", a new club was organized at Burdick Hall under the name "Burdick Hall Boarding Club". This club was operated on the cooperative or cost plan from September 1919 to June 1930, the books and other records being kept by the University Treasurer, who is responsible for figuring the costs of board, making out and collecting the board bills, and for the payment of the expenses of the club. Beginning with September 1930, board has been charged to each member of the club at the rate of $6.00 per week, a deposit of $10.00 being required, this deposit being refunded when a member leaves the club. During this entire period, board bills have been rendered each week and expenses paid weekly. The University receives ten cents per day per member as rental of dining hall and equipment. The average cost of board in this club for the year 1931-32 was 83 cents per day or $5.81 per week.

The total costs for the year were as follows:

Labor	$ 972 94
Rent	397 90

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Chapter 292, Laws of 1913

Became a law April 16, 1913

State Scholarships were established by act of the legislature of the State of New York, by Chapter 292, Laws of 1913, became a law April 16, 1913, taking effect August 1, 1913.

Five such scholarships shall be awarded each county annually for each assembly district therein.

Each such scholarship entitles the holder thereof to the sum of One Hundred dollars ($100) for each year during which he is in attendance upon an approved college in New York state during a period of four years.

Alfred is on the list of such approved colleges.

Colleges are required, in February and September of each year, to submit to the Commissioner of Education a list of their pupils who are holders of State Scholarships. Payment is made by the State Treasurer to the Treasurer of the college, to be applied for the benefit of holders of State Scholarships who are in attendance, as follows:

1. So far as needed to pay his tuition for the current semester.
2. To reimburse the college for his other indebtedness thereto.
3. To pay the remainder of his installment to such pupil, or as he shall direct.

INSURANCE

Your Committee has been trying, since the appraisal of the University physical properties was completed, to obtain fire insurance that, in the event of a loss, would provide funds to replace that which had been destroyed by fire.

The University properties are now insured in a Blanket Policy that, we believe, accomplishes this purpose.

Attached herewith are the details of values and the amounts of insurance carried.

List of Fire Insurance in force on Buildings and Contents on June 30, 1932.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of Alfred University:

Gentlemen:

I have examined the accounts and vouchers of our Treasurer for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, and the securities held by him on June 30, 1932. This report does not include the accounts of the State Schools, nor the various Clubs.

I have verified the cash in bank by evidence of desposit; the income from securities by an examination of such securities, the income from students by an examination of the record of bills rendered by the Registrar and the scholarship allowances granted them.

I have verified the Report of our Treasurer for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, to which this report is annexed consisting of the Endowment Report, Schedules 1 to 12, inclusive, and the Income Report, Schedules 15 to 26 inclusive, Schedule 27 and also Schedules 28, 29, and 30 by comparison with his accounts, and find such report correct in all respects.

The diligent efforts of our Treasurer in the collection of income, as well as the manner in which his accounts have been kept and his other duties performed are worthy of commendation.

Respectfully submitted,

HERBERT G. WHIPPLE, Auditor.

Dated, September 26, 1932.

NEW YORK STATE COLLEGE OF CERAMICSDIRECTOR'S REPORT

M. J. Rice and C. R. Amberg, Co-Directors

For the year ending June 30, 1932

To the President of Alfred University,
Alfred, New York

Sir: We have the honor of submitting to you the 31st annual report of the New York State College of Ceramics.

During the past year the school has suffered the loss of one who has been director since its inception. After thirty years of service, Director Charles F. Binns retired on December 31, 1931. Though he has maintained an active interest in the school, his loss has been keenly felt. Pending the appointment of a successor for Doctor Binns, M. J. Rice and C. R. Amberg were put in temporary charge as Co-Directors.

During the year several important events have occurred. The name of the school has been changed from The New York State School of Clay-Working and Ceramics to The New York State College of Ceramics, and the title of its head has been changed from director to dean. The legislature has also passed a bill providing forty thousand dollars for equipment for the new building, the latter is well on the way to completion. It is hoped that the equipment may be installed in time for the building to be occupied next fall. An addition to the staff has been provided for by legislative appropriation, and Dr. S. R. Scholes has been appointed as glass technologist, to assume office July 1, 1932.

In addition the legislature has reappropriated the surplus from the one hundred seventy-five thousand dollar building appropriation for the purpose of connecting the old ceramic building with the central heating system of the University and for replacing the greenhouse which was torn down to make way for the new building.

It is planned that all work in drawing and design shall be conducted in the new building and the top floor of the Agricultural School building, used for this purpose at present, shall be vacated. The new building will also house the departments of ceramic engineering and glass technology.

Due, no doubt, to the general depression, total registration has dropped slightly, from one hundred eighty-eight last year to one hundred and sixty-eight for the current year, divided as follows: Applied Art, sixty; Ceramic Engineering, one hundred eight.

The annual convention of the American Ceramic Society was held in Washington, D. C., February 8th to 11th, 1932. It was attended by five faculty members and a number of students. Hazel Mott (student) read a paper written by Myrtle Klem (student) and Doctor Binns. An exhibition of pottery from all over the country was arranged by Marion L. Fosdick. Charles M. Harder was re-elected Chairman of the program committee of the Art Division.

During the year members of the staff served on juries at two exhibitions of ceramic art. At the exhibit sponsored by W. and J. Sloane at New York in November, Doctor Binns was chairman of the jury. For the Annual Robineau Memorial Exhibit at Syracuse, Doctor Binns was chairman of the jury of admittance and Mr. Harder was a member. Pottery from the school has gone to exhibits at Richmond, Va., W. and J. Sloane at New York, and Syracuse, New York. Several prizes and honorable mentions were awarded to members of the school.

At the Convention at Washington arrangements were completed for the union of the two honorary ceramic fraternities, Keramos and Beta Pi Kappa, under the name of Keramos. An active chapter exists in the school, and Doctor Binns has been elected national treasurer of the organization.

The seniors have made inspection trips to Corning and Buffalo. Nine plants were visited. Both juniors and seniors made a three-day trip to the Ohio Valley district, inspecting seven plants. Professor Amberg was in charge.

The school has been fortunate in obtaining two outstanding speakers this year: R. Guy Cowan of Cleveland, consultant with Ferro Enamel Company and Dr. Louis Navias of Schenectady, Research Director in Ceramics for General Electric. Both speakers were enthusiastically received.

The Charles F. Binns medal for excellence in ceramic art for the year 1931, was awarded to R. Guy Cowan.

During the year clays have been tested for individuals in the state and out and advice has been given to many concerns requesting it.

The co-operation of the other members of the staff has been very much appreciated. Doctor Binns' retirement has made it necessary for them to carry an added burden of work, and this has been done very efficiently.

We have the honor to remain,

Yours very respectfully,

M. J. RICE,

C. R. AMBERG,

Co-Directors

Extension Work

The activities under this head are many and varied. There are such unorganized activities as answers to mail inquiries for information, visits to farms by members of the staff, and talks before numerous organizations and community groups.

Last year the Board of Supervisors appointed Mr. Myers Dairy Inspector for Allegany County. Mr. Myers inspects the barns, milk utensils and surroundings of all dairymen and the condition of all milk plants selling to Allegany County consumers. Samples for bacteria count must also be taken of all this milk, six or eight times per year.

Because of the appointment of the Director as Chairman of the County and Regional Emergency Milk Committees, and a member of the State Committee, a large amount of work has been done in presenting to dairymen the advantages to them of one cooperative milk marketing organization. A farm to farm survey has been made in Allegany County of every dairyman, as to size of dairy, and disposition of milk. This survey was for the purpose of bringing home to the dairymen the added expense of duplication of plants and hauling of milk.

During the year judges were furnished for the following fairs: Angelica, Caledonia, Little Valley, Lockport, Naples, Bath, Penn Yan, Dunkirk, Hamburg, and Jamestown Poultry Show.

Mr. Orvis has spent the past year in the capacity of supervisor of agricultural departments in the high schools of western New York. Because of his ability and fine personality he has been able to render a real service to the teachers of high school departments, and at the same time has made some very worth while contacts for the State School.

Itinerant Courses

This year has been an experiment in carrying this work at the expense of the high schools. In general it has worked out fairly well. There is a probability, however, that in a few cases when the number of farm boys is small that some changes will need to be made for another year.

At the same time, a change is being made in the use of the teacher's time. Instead of going to a school for two double periods a week, he will go for two full half days per week. While this will curtail the number of schools he can meet, it should increase his service to the school. In addition to the two periods of Agriculture at the school the itinerant teacher will give some work in industrial arts, economic citizenship or such other services as the principal wishes.

For this year there has been an enrollment of 141 students in twelve schools.

EVENTS AT THE SCHOOL

Annual Potato, Poultry and Fruit Judging Contests

These fall judging contests were held on Friday, November 20th. There were thirty-three schools competing in the Potato and thirty-four in the Poultry contests. In the Fruit

Judging contest there were twenty-one contestants. In the Potato Judging, first place went to Sodus in Class A, and Hemlock in Class B. In the Poultry, first place was won by Sodus in Class A, and Canaseraga in Class B. The first three places in the Fruit Contest were taken by Richard Little of Horseheads, Carl Valva of Forestville, and Fudala of Odessa, respectively.

Annual Stock Judging Contest

On May 6, the 19th annual Stock Judging Contest was held at the School farm. Forty schools were represented. First place in Class A went to Cherry Creek, and in Class B to Angelica. The school banners for second places were awarded to Almond and Friendship, respectively.

Ayrshire Picnic

The annual Allegany-Steuben Ayrshire picnic was held at the school on July 29. At this time the members of the Ayrshire 4-H calf clubs brought in their calves and cash prizes were awarded to the owners of the best animals. In the afternoon an address was given by the Secretary of the National Ayrshire Breeders Association. About two hundred were present.

Alumni Picnic

On Labor Day, nearly one hundred alumni gathered at the School for the annual picnic.

On February 11, thirty-nine boys from surrounding high schools came into Alfred and were initiated into the Society of Future Farmers of America, by the school degree team.

Rural Teacher Training

Seventeen girls are enrolled this year in the training class.

We have been fortunate in placing a better percentage of them this year than a year ago, although a number are still without positions.

The Farm

On May 19, bids were opened in Albany for painting the farm buildings. The low bidder was the Alliance Construction Company, Inc., of New York City. Their bid was $1,194. This includes the house of the manager and the tenant house.

Two Ayrshire cows of excellent dairy type and breeding were added to the school herd by purchase this spring. Holsteins, Jersey and Ayrshires are now represented in the school herd by animals of good quality.

For the last ten or twelve years an experiment has been in progress in the poultry department in breeding for large sized eggs. During that time no eggs have been incubated that weighed less than two ounces. We now have a flock that lays almost entirely large eggs, which of course bring a premium on the market. This feature adds to our sale of day-old chicks. This spring our chicks sold for 14c when many were being offered for even as low as 5c.

Permanent Improvements

Through a re-appropriation of unexpended balances of the Ceramic building appropriation the greenhouse will be rebuilt, and steam heat from the central heating plant of the University installed.

N. Y. S. A. Judging Teams

A judging team from the School participated at Syracuse State Fair, and at the Cornell Farmers' Week contests.

Russel Woodworth '34, and Clarence Bossard '33, won a cup in the cattle judging contest at Cornell.

Annual Commencement

The 22d annual Commencement exercises were held on Sunday, April 3, and Monday and Tuesday, April 4th and 5th.

On Sunday, April 3, at 11 A. M., the Baccalaureate Sermon was preached at the Union University Church by Chaplain James McLeod.

On Monday evening, April 4, the class play "Pandora Lifts the Lid", and other class exercises were given at Alumni Hall.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 5, the graduation exercises were held in Agricultural Hall. The Commencement address was delivered by Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, School of Education, Pennsylvania State College. The diplomas were presented to the class by President Boothe C. Davis.

The cup for the highest class average for the year went to the class of 1933.

Milton D. Cole of the class of 1933, won the distinction of having his name engraved on the Alumni Cup by attaining the highest scholastic standing in agriculture. Miss Mary Ellen Whitford '32, secured the same honor in Rural Teacher Training.

School Enrollment

The enrollment for the year exceeded that of last year, and a larger enrollment is expected for the coming year.

A list of graduates, with summary of students for the year is appended.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. CHAMPLIN, Director
