

Choreographer Miguel Gutierrez to Zoom with AU

4/16/20

Choreographer Miguel Gutierrez will speak with students of Maureen Weiss, Associate Professor of Performance Design in Alfred University Division of Performing Arts, through a Zoom teleconference at 11am on April 23

The streaming is open to the public. Anyone interested in joining is asked to email Weiss at weissme@alfred.edu.

Miguel Gutierrez is a choreographer, composer, performer, singer, writer, educator and advocate who has lived in New York for over twenty years. His work concerns the time-based nature of performance and how it creates an ideal frame for phenomenological questions around presence and meaning-making. His work proposes an immersive state, for performer and audience alike, where attention itself becomes an elastic material. In recent years he has explored negotiations between his queer Latinx identity and the traditions of the white avant-garde.
