Seminar for landlords and tenants

Alfred University and Alfred State College are offering a seminar called "How to have a party without getting arrested" this Friday, April 13, from 4:00 - 5:30 p.m. in the Carnegie Conference Room (Main Street across from Hair Care and Main Street Video). The seminar is geared toward off-campus students but property owners are welcome to participate. Presenters Norm Pollard (Dean of Students at AU) and Steve Tyrell (VP Student Affairs at Alfred State College) will review some of the current NYS laws governing hosting an event and will teach students how to make smart choices about potentially high-risk situations. Students will learn how to host a party without ending up with fines, tickets, or ambulance transports for their guests.

For more information please call 2132 or email studentaffairs@alfred.edu.
