Important ITS Announcement

Please be advised that ITS has been made aware of a recent Phishing email that uses a very authentic replica of our AU Webmail Logon page. If you have responded to this phishing email, please change your password immediately.

The link has been blocked for all on-campus users, however if you are off campus you will still be able to navigate to this page.

ITS will NEVER email you with a link requesting your logon credentials.

Thank you,
ITS, Network Services

Nominations Sought for 2016 Spirit of Service Awards

Spirit of Service Awards recognize those in the greater Alfred community who demonstrate a strong commitment to serving others. These awards honor those who are actively living out the principles that Martin Luther King Jr. stood for, including equality, social justice, community, and service.

Eligible nominees include students, faculty, and staff at Alfred State and Alfred University as well as community members.

Submit a nomination to celebrate someone you know who is engaged in the community. The nomination deadline is Wednesday, Jan. 20. Nominees and award winners will be honored at the Celebration of Service at 5 P.M. Thursday, Jan. 28 at the Alfred Village Hall.

Questions? Contact Corey Fecteau, Alfred University's Service Learning Coordinator, at fecteauc@alfred.edu.

Foreign Film Series: 'Amelie' (2001) R

Friday, Jan. 15 at 6:45 p.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

This clever 2001 comedy from France and Germany is about a sheltered young woman who decides to manipulate the people around her to make their lives happier. When she encounters a young man who is attracted to her, she can't easily deal with the situation. Star Audrey Tautou makes this a charming film a winner! Rated R.

The Auditorium will show a variety of foreign films on the third Friday of each month at 6:45 p.m. starting in January.

The library-sponsored film is free and open to the general public.
