

Visiting Hartwick tops Alfred University women's lacrosse team, 17-5

4/07/07

ALFRED, NY - The visiting Hartwick College women's lacrosse team defeated host Alfred University, 17-5, Saturday afternoon on Merrill Field. Hartwick (2-6, 1-1 Empire 8) led 9-4 at the half before outscoring Alfred (1-3, 0-2 Empire 8) 8-1 after intermission. Freshmen Bailey Hebert (Heuvelton, NY/Heuvelton) scored twice and freshman Abbey Schaffnit (Bemus Point, NY/Maple Grove) and seniors Molly Ambrogi-Yanson (Pittsford, NY/Pittsford-Mendon) and Jessica Dupuis Chapel Hill, NC/Chapel Hill) each added one goal for Alfred. Jenev Schilling had four goals and two assists to pace Hartwick. Jamie Boulton added two goals and Julie Duffy and Jessica DiBrita had two goals and two assists. Freshman Shauna Carroll (Babylon, NY/West Babylon) made seven saves in goal for Alfred. Emily Follit played the first half in net for Hartwick and made three saves. DiBrita played the second half in goal for the Hawks and stopped nine shots. Alfred is in action next on Wednesday, April 11, at 7 p.m. at home against St. John Fisher.