

AU men's lacrosse team whips Cazenovia

4/22/07

LIVERPOOL, NY -- The Alfred University men's lacrosse team scored the game's first 10 goals en route to a 26-3 victory over host Cazenovia College Saturday evening. Alfred (5-7, 0-6 Empire 8) led 13-1 at halftime and outscored the Wildcats 13-2 over the final two periods. Senior attack Jeff Andrews (Horseheads, NY/Horseheads) had four goals and four assists, while freshman midfielder Mark Pincelli (Rochester, NY/Aquinas) and sophomore midfielder Liam Glover (Savona, NY/Bath Haverling) each had four goals and one assist. Junior attack Ben Coburn (Liverpool, NY/Liverpool) had three goals and an assist; freshman midfielder Mike Russo (Mattydale, NY/Cicero-North Syracuse) had three goals; and senior attack Andy Aylward (Oswego, NY/Oswego) had a pair of goals and three assists. Senior Drew Foster (Pittsford, NY/Pittsford-Sutherland) played the first half in goal for Alfred and made four saves while allowing one goal. Freshman Kevin Fountain (Manlius, NY/Fayetteville-Manlius) played the second half in net, made six saves and allowed two goals. Saturday's game was played at Liverpool High School due to poor field conditions at Cazenovia caused by recent inclement weather. Alfred will play its season finale Tuesday, April 24, at 4 p.m. at home against Empire 8 Conference rival Elmira College.
