Movie Extras Needed!

Alfred University will be used as the location for shooting "Indiana Jones and the Legend of Bimini," a "fan film" that is supposed to be another chapter of the Indiana Jones legend. The shoot is scheduled for Saturday, July 16, on campus, and the production company is looking for extras to play the roles of faculty, administrators, and students.

Only requirement is that you provide your own costume - 1940s style garb. If you want to claim your six seconds of fame, or if you know of students who may want to claim their fame, find more details at: <http://www.legendofbimini...>
