

AU men's soccer team falls on the road 3-0

10/05/08

HOBOKEN, NJ The Alfred University men's soccer team dropped its' 12th straight game, 3-0, to host and conference opponent Stevens Tech on Sunday afternoon. Stevens (10-1-1, 3-0 E8) opened the scoring in the 14th minute as Nolan Sandberg scored unassisted to give the Ducks an early 1-0 lead. Stevens controlled the ball throughout, outshooting the Saxons 35-3 (16-1 on goal). Jeremy Lippel and Todd Sheridan also scored goals for the Ducks. Freshman goalie Elliot Thorpe (Highlands Ranch, CO/Thunder Ridge) went the distance in net for the Saxons making 13 saves. Zach Carr was only required to make one save, earning the shutout. Alfred will be in action next on Wednesday, October 15 against visiting D'Youville College at 7 p.m. on Merrill Field.