How to ensure that supplier/contractor invoices are received and processed

Due to the Governor's order, the only people permitted on campus are those deemed as essential personnel. Based on that, we understand that the majority of people are not able to go to campus and retrieve their mail. We ask that anyone expecting invoices from suppliers reach out to those suppliers and ask that they email copies of invoices to businessofc@alfred.edu to ensure that they are processed.

Please contact Amanda Azzi or Melissa Badeau if you have questions or need additional information.

Invitation: Art Walk in the Age of Social Distancing

Still in Alfred? Join us! make art for your community. Brighten your sidewalk and windows.

Thursday, April 16, 5-8pm
Art Walk in the Age of Social Distancing

Alfred Art Walk is shifting gears!
The galleries are closed but we don't have to be.
Turn Alfred's front windows and walkways into a gallery!

We invite the community to keep the Art Walk going with two projects. All of Alfred is invited to be both artist and viewer. Brighten up your home, then walk around the village--practicing social distancing--to see the works of art your neighbors created.

Participate in one or both projects!

Chalk Drawing: Make a chalk drawing on your driveway or the sidewalk in front of your house. We hope for drawings from all ages! The only qualification needed is to be able to get down to the ground to chalk and then be able to stand up again! Two weeks to garner chalk, make a plan and DRAW! Then a day (or more) to walk and enjoy the sidewalk art. (Snow/Rain date April 18.)

Window Wishes: Use what you have at hand to create some art! Then hang well wishes in the form of paintings, drawings, sculptures or origami (a symbol of hope and healing in challenging times) in your front windows. Send messages to your neighbors. Line our empty streets with Alfred's famous creativity

Register your home or business art project to be included on the Art Walk interactive map. Email submit.alfredartwalk@gmail.com with your name and address by April 12 for inclusion on the website! Can't decide? Don't worry- join as you like. Visit <http://www.alfredartwalk....> for details
