Coffee Tasting in Powell Cafe - Wednesday, April 5 from 7:30am-1:30pm

AU Fresh is considering changing coffee roasters in Art's Spot, stop by for a taste and place your vote! Dalahäst Roasting Company was purchased in the fall of 2016 by Kaitlyn Bentley Whalen (AU '12) and is co-operated with Kristen Kovatch Bentley (AU '10). Dalahäst's motto is "great coffee makes better people" and to support that mission, each small batch is profile-roasted in Jamestown, Chautauqua County, NY -- we believe the best things are still made slowly by hand. All beans are 100% Fair Trade certified.

WGST Riley Lecture: Fighting For Global Women's Rights

World renowned activist and Rutgers professor Charlotte Bunch will discuss April 4 how she has helped advance global women's rights and the challenges ahead, including fighting the backlash against feminism in the U.S. and abroad.

Bunch, engaged in the '60s civil rights, anti-war, and gay rights movements, works via a feminist human rights framework. She will explain this framework, how the United Nations fits in, and how feminism continues to influence international human rights concepts and strategies.

The Women's and Gender Studies lecture is free, with delicious food and conversation to follow. It will take place at 5:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 4, at Nevins Theater.

Bios and a documentary of her life's work are in links below.

Peer Review Board Recruitment

We are currently recruiting students to serve on our Peer Review and University Conduct boards. Our system is designed to hold students accountable for the Student Code of Conduct, change problematic behavior through a structured educational process, and protect the University community. The conduct system enables the campus community to take an active role in the hearing process.

Board members need to possess strong interpersonal and communication skills, sound judgement, personal integrity, and demonstrate respect for others.

Hearings are scheduled on as-needed basis, with the majority of them being held on Thursdays from 6 to 8 pm.

Serving depends on your schedule and availability.

If you are interested, please contact studentconduct@alfred.edu or x2132 and information about our next training will be provided.

ICU looking for presenters on cultural awareness workshops

Alfred University's Institute for Cultural Unity is looking for professionals interested in presenting twenty-minute talks on relevant topics as part of our "Wednesday Talk & Response" series. The institute is a source of diversity education and multicultural programming. The institute is a resource center that develops self-awareness and respect for others through the sharing of experiences and cultures. Through this, we hope to create a stronger community here at Alfred and expand our educational philosophy even further.

We would like to invite anyone who would be interested, to hold a short talk of no more than twenty minutes followed by small group discussion based on three questions of your choosing. Our focus areas include diversity, inclusion, tolerance, social justice or any topic that helps unites a community rather than divide. Topics will range from the timely "What is a Sanctuary Campus?" to the lighter "Why Beyoncé's Lemonade Matters?" (right before the GRAMMY Awards).

If you are interested in presenting a topic, or have any questions, you can contact me by e-mail at ic3@alfred.edu.

Thank you for your consideration.

Alfred University Online Photo Library - Gallery Server Pro

AU's faculty/staff photo library, Gallery Server Pro (<http://gsp.alfred.edu>) has expanded over the past year!

Hundreds of images have been added since Gallery Server Pro (GSP) was originally launched in the fall of 2015, and new ones continue to be added almost daily.

Below is a refresher for all faculty/staff.

This searchable photo library contains a wide variety of downloadable AU images ranging from seasonal campus scenics, to classrooms/labs, selected campus events, official AU Faculty/Staff portraits, and much more.

GSP images are in folders cataloged by semester, by month and by topic, and as new photo assignments are completed, selected images are cataloged and posted on a regular basis. The photos are extensively tagged to assist in searches for specific subjects.

WHO CAN ACCESS GALLERY SERVER PRO?

GSP is accessible to any faculty or staff member who has been provided access by ITS. It is NOT accessible to students, or to the public.

TO ACCESS GALLERY SERVER PRO

1. Go to our alfred.edu and hover over the left-hand side menu item "Faculty/Staff." The Gallery Server link is the 13th item listed in the fly-out menu.
2. Type in <http://gsp.alfred.edu> in your browser

Once GSP launches in your browser, you will need to enter your AU username (not full email) and email password.

IF YOU HAVE TROUBLE ACCESSING GSP

Those who haven't yet accessed GSP, must email Steven Bucklaew of ITS (bucklaew@alfred.edu) who will provide access and confirm it via email soon after he receives the request. It usually happens within minutes!

BEFORE YOU DOWNLOAD

The primary use of many of these images is for Admissions and University Relations marketing efforts in both printed and web formats. In order to keep track of downloads (except for faculty/staff portraits), we recommend you email Rick McLay (mclay@alfred.edu) or Judy Linza (linza@alfred.edu) with a brief description of which image(s) you are downloading, and where it is going to be used.

DOWNLOADING AN IMAGE

There are two recommended downloadable formats:

1. Web optimized (low resolution but full size), and 2. Original (high resolution). To download the image of your choice, use the download/share icon, which is the one on the left in the icon grouping above each image, and follow the directions.

ATHLETICS PHOTOS

Please contact Mark Whitehouse, AU's Sports Information director (whitehouse.alfred.edu) if you have any questions regarding access to and usage of athletics images.

If you have any questions about GSP, or if you have images that you would like to be considered for inclusion, please contact Rick McLay at mclay@alfred.edu or Ext. 2736.

The Orientation Guides Want You!

Alfred University's Orientation program is designed to assist new students in becoming part of the AU community and to help them feel comfortable with academic and student life on campus.

In order to accomplish this, we rely on Orientation Guides (OG), a team of enthusiastic and knowledgeable AU students who want to make a difference for their peers. Being an OG is a volunteer position involving participation in training Aug. 21-23 and the Orientation program itself, Aug. 24-27.

Applications are due in the Center for Student Involvement, Powell Campus Center, by 4:30 p.m., Friday, April 7.
