

NYU Tournament tip off times change

11/18/03

The times for the NYU men's basketball tournament first round games on Saturday, Nov. 22, have been changed to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. The Alfred University men's basketball team was slated to play their first round game against Polytechnic University at 3 p.m., but will now play at 1 p.m. The times were changed because NYU is hosting an evening NCAA volleyball match that day.
