

Dean of students backs Michigan mom's hazing worries

6/30/08

A mom from Goodrich, MI, upset about an unauthorized haircut her son received a football camp is being criticized for speaking out against the tradition, but one expert said she did it with good reason. "With the issue of hazing, consent doesn't matter, because in most states, hazing is against the law," says Norm Pollard, AU's dean of students in an article appearing in the Sunday, June 29, 2008 edition of The Flint (MI) Journal.
