Scholastic Group Taps Nine Frosh

Last Tuesday evening, Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary scholastic fraternity, pledged nine freshman women in a ceremony which took place in Kruson Lounge.

Those pledged were Gloria Bletter, Judith Douglass, Shirley Haskins, Ann Hauber, Maxine Neustadt, Marion Rothberg, Wendy Schoenbach, Kathryn Wirth, Linda Yablon and Alise Ogden.

St. Pat's Festival Comes to a Close As Beards, Leprechauns Fade Away

by Kathy O'Donnell

The leprechauns were tucked away for another year as Leroy Holmes and company played the strains of his closing theme and the last weary dancers drifted away.

Festivities got under way Friday afternoon as eleven floats of the Disneyland variety braved the drifts to produce one of the best St. Pat's parades in Alfred's history. Prizes this year were given in three classes. In the Ag. Tech division, first prize was given to Psi Delta Omega and second prize to Theta Gamma.

In the university women's division, first prize went to Pi Alpha Pi sorority and second prize to Sigma Chi Nu. In the men's division first prize went to Kappa Nu and second to Klan.

More prizes were announced Friday afternoon, as the results of the beard contest were given. Here too, judging was done in three categories. In the "most handsome" category the number one man, Steve Morris of Kappa Nu was presented with a Schick electric razor. Lou Germano of Kappa Psi, the second place man was given a free hair cut and shave at Matty's.

A $5.00 gift certificate at Murray Stevens and a cummerbund and tie set was presented to Jerry Pearlman of Kappa Nu for the "most novel" beard. Second place winner in this category was Al Gross of Lambda Chi.

The prize for the "longest" beard was given to Jeff Gross of Kappa Nu who received a $10.00 gift certificate at Rawady's.

Tuzzeo; women's vice president: Hilda Frischman.

Secretary: Doty Schwaegler, Bob Meltzer; treasurer, Ben Schneider, Tom Schulkind.

Juniors

President: Dick Gross, Marty Wasserstein, Ray Pardon; men's vice president: Jerry Pearlman, Trafalski, Freddy Grayson; women's vice president: Jeannie Ciprijanskas, Di Dolostowski.

Secretary: Pat Baker, Jeff Gross, Steve Elkin; treasurer: Mary Newton, Shelly Fagan, Jack L'Amoreaux, Ted Berghahn.

AUCA Sponsors Winter Retreat

"Science and Religion" is the theme of the winter retreat sponsored by the AUCA this weekend. Students will leave after classes on Friday the 20th for Camp Harley in Pleasant Valley, where the retreat is being held.

Speakers for the retreat will be Dr. Natasha Renner, assistant professor of physics, Dr. C. E. Rhodes, professor of mathematics, and Gaylord Rough, instructor in biology.

Friday evening and Saturday will be spent in listening to professors and worshipping. Group singing and various recreations are also being held during the retreat.

In past years the AUCA has sponsored two retreats a year, in the spring and fall. This is the first time a winter retreat has been held.

Hillel Seder

Students reserving Passover dinner seats should have their check ($3.50) made out to Hillel Seder in the hands of Dr. Bernstein (Box 931) not later than Friday, April 10.

The Seder will be held Wednesday, April 22.

New FIAT Staff Is Announced; Olyce Mitchell Named Editor

Olyce Mitchell, a junior from Alfred and a member of Pi Alpha Pi sorority will assume the position of editor in chief of the FIAT LUX with the next publication.

Miss Mitchell, a history and political science major, moves up from the position of managing editor and replaces Maxene Gorewitz in the editor's chair. Among her activities on campus, she is secretary treasurer of Pi Delta Epsilon and a member of the political science club and the Canterbury Club. She has also formerly held the position of news editor on the FIAT.

Sophomore Kathy O'Donnell will become managing editor, having been associate editor during the past year. Hailing from Allegheny, she is a member of Theta Theta Chi sorority and a major in the history and political science department. She is also a member of the Young Democrats and of the Spanish Club.

Assuming the position of news editor will be Howard Miller. Miller is a sophomore from Elmira. He is publicity chairman of the French Club.

Maxine Neustadt, freshman from Eastchester, will be associate news editor. She is a pledge of Pi Alpha Pi, a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Hillel, and the German Club. She intends to major in history and political science.

Moving up as co-sports editors are freshmen Neal Gantcher and Ira Rubenstein.

Gantcher, former cheerleader, hails from Yonkers and is pledging Kappa Nu fraternity. Rubenstein, from Queens, is a pre-med student.

Proof editor for the coming year will be Ruth Silverman, who retains the position she held during the past year. Miss Silverman is a sophomore biology major from Laurelton. She is treasurer of Hillel and the Castle and is a member of the Qwens.

On the business side of the paper, Richard Altman and Joel Wechsler remain in the positions of business manager and advertising manager.

Altman is a junior from Troy. He is president of the Young Democrats and is preparing for a legal career. He formerly served as circulation manager of the FIAT. Altman is pledging the RATS.

Wechsler, sophomore chemistry major is a member of Tau Delta Phi fraternity. He is also a member of Hillel, the German Club and Alpha Phi Omega. Wechsler hails from New York City.

Group to Represent Tunisia Picked For Model United Nations Assembly

by Helen Grey

Alfred will represent the country of Tunisia at the conference, which is sponsored by the college department of the American Association for the U.N. Fifty to sixty colleges will participate from Mid-Atlantic States.

Two of the delegation will serve on each committee. The committees are: Economic and Social, Trusteeship, Ad Hoc, and Political. Alfred, as Tunisia, will draft and sponsor a resolution on the Middle Eastern situation.

Bye Bye

This marks the last issue of the FIAT LUX before the coming Easter vacation. Publication will resume with the issue of April 14.

The editors and staff of the FIAT wish you a happy vacation and hope that they will be able to see you all again in April.

The make-up of the Model Assembly consists of three main types of meetings; plenary sessions composed of the entire body, the four agenda committees named above, and special bloc caucuses.

Alfred this year will be part of the Afro-Asian bloc and as such will act in accordance with Tunisian policy.

Model United Nations Assemblies, held throughout the country on the basis of various territorial areas, are sponsored by the college department of the American Association for the U.N.

The purpose of the model assemblies is to stimulate interest on the part of students in the workings and problems of the United Nations.

Student delegations, in order to represent their country successfully, must do sufficient research into the country's policies.

Tonight's Senior Dessert Held By University Women's Group

The Alfred-Hornell Branch of the American Association of University Women will sponsor a dessert for all senior women in the College of Liberal Arts tonight at 7 p.m., in Howell Hall.

The purpose of this gathering is to introduce these seniors to area members of AAUW.

The AAUW is an organization to which women who hold degrees from colleges and universities approved by the group may belong. Women have the opportunity to join groups in their local areas.

The organization fosters cultural pursuits such as emphasis on creative participation in theatre, literature or choral singing as well as political pursuits supporting a legislative program.

The program of the AAUW includes federal aid to education, support of the United Nations and other steps toward international cooperation.

The AAUW also aids gifted women scholars through graduate fellowships and brings women from other countries to the United States to study.

The original organization of the AAUW was founded in 1882 to be of particular interest to women in the field of education and to widen opportunities for women to use their training in education. There are more than 142,000 members of the organization today.

Selective Service

Applications and information bulletins for the April 30, 1959 administration of the Selective Service College Qualification Test are now available at Dean Gertz's office.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided to Selective Service Examining Section, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 586, Princeton, New Jersey.

Applications for the April 30 test must be postmarked no later than midnight, April 9, 1959.

St. Pat. crowns Queen Mary Cavanaugh

Friday night following the ceramic open house the forty-man Maritime Glee Club presented their program at the Men's Gym after which open house was held at the various fraternities.

Saturday night the weekend was climaxed at the ball when the queen candidates Nancy Cashimere, Mary Cavanaugh, Barbara Cohrsen, Lisa Finelli and Ann Gayle were escorted to the band stand by the new Knights of the Order of St. Pat.

The queen, Mary Cavanaugh of South Glens Falls was crowned by St. Pat, Dave Pye of Delta Sigma Phi.

From the Editors . . .

And this too . . .

The time has come when it is both necessary and proper for the editorial "we" to disappear for a few inches from the editorial page. For this marks the last issue the present editor will attempt to voice her views in these two columns.

Believing that no customary apology or masterwork of revenge is needed at this juncture, I will take this opportunity to reiterate a few items I consider to be of importance regarding the newspaper.

It has appeared that much of what goes on at Alfred is of a somewhat unique nature, unique in that, for me at least, matters that occur bearing the earmarks of something "hot" soon disappear into the cooling atmosphere which only time can produce. And so, many of the immediate functions of a newspaper become negated; indeed the operation of these functions seems at times ridiculous as well as fruitless.

But, perhaps all this is for the best. Perhaps it is a mark of that special brand of 'collegiate-ism' that Alfred manufactures.

Perhaps it is a symbol of some special type of maturity that is evidenced by a rapid "solution" to the most of the seeming-problems that arise. Or—could it perhaps be, on the contrary, a sign of indifference resulting in suppression and activities denoting the same.

Whatever the nature of the breezes that blow across the Alfred campus, they do form that which is "alfredian."

If I have digressed from any point which might possibly have made the barest of sense, I shall attempt to return.

It is, I believe, in the student body that the function of the newspaper rests. As I take leave to join the greater community my only wish is that there be evidenced on campus a true desire to appreciate—if not understand—the endeavors of a very small percentage of the student body—amateurs, yes, but still those who have elected to expend their time, effort and responsibility on behalf of the Alfred community.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In regard to the "Open Letter to the Students" in the 3 March edition, I would like to add my small weight to the opposition of the compulsory ROTC program here at Alfred as well as to point up what I feel to be errors in the reasoning of the Student Senate.

First, it is stated that ROTC "gives the student . . . discipline." If this were all it gave the student, there might well be justification in having such a program and even making participation in it compulsory; however, it goes far beyond the point of discipline to the point of teaching hatred. For example, to quote from Part IV of the ROTCM 145-30 manual of "Individual Weapons and Marksmanship," page 152, section 112, "A soldier ready for combat must be technically, physically and mentally trained . . . He must be mentally conditioned to close with and kill his opponent."

Moreover, ROTC training "also takes edge off cynicism and anti-militarism of college students . . ." according to the article. What is wrong with anti-militarism? As far as I know we do not claim to be a military state but rather peaceful citizens in a country dedicated to peace, and there is nothing more anti-militaristic than peace.

What then are posters such as the one showing a soldier with bayoneted rifle, entitled "I am a Fighting American; I owe this to my God, my Home, my Country," doing on a "friendly campus" in a peaceful country where Brotherhood Week has just been celebrated?

This is the nature of the program which the Student Senate feels obligated to uphold as rightfully part of Alfred University.

Sincerely,

John Richard Parrack

Dear Editor:

It appears to me that one important point of view was missing in last week's issue of the FIAT. By this, I mean the feminine opinion on the matter of ROTC.

For one, I wonder whether the three who so glibly wrote their views on the subject ever thought of the esthetic side of it all. Every girl admires a man in uniform, and the ROTC uniforms do enhance the landscape.

Also, since we of this generation are always being reminded of our romantic ideas, the ROTC affords us a convenient excuse for this.

Thirdly, in this time of world difficulties, it gives us some amount of comfort having people in uniforms walking around, spouting rules and regulations and military history.

I'm sure I could think of many other important reasons why ROTC should be kept as it is on campus, but I think these will do.

So, please remember the coeds on campus should be given a chance to say something, too.

Military Admirer

Dear Editor:

There is an effort on campus to make the Student Senate an important organization.

We are now faced with the election of officers for the next year. Unfortunately, I don't find a really wonderful candidate for presidency. One has shown his responsibility in student affairs by failing to do anything for clean-up of the Snow Ball after he was made chairman of the committee, and the other candidate has proven his justification for presidency by receiving a social probation from his fraternity house for misconduct and has shown other failings.

Perhaps the student body, including myself, are responsible for this state of affairs. Good student government needs good officers. It is

The problem . . .

Believing that those of the present must prepare for those who will come in the future, we wish to present the issues involved in the problem of sectarianism on campus in a pragmatic light.

Realizing that "everyone concerned is acutely aware of the problem," we will go on to objectively view the issues insofar as they come into active play.

We feel that most people, viewing this problem from a moral perspective, would agree that there can be but one possible solution: positive action, taken immediately.

However, ethical solutions, while ideally desirable, are by definition not necessarily practicable. Moral stands can and should be taken but these in themselves do not solve any problem.

Therefore, we feel it necessary to review the relevant issues of this problem from a realistic point of view.

That discriminatory clauses must be eliminated has been carefully stated in the administrative statement. However, this leaves much room for interpretation—and misinterpretation. Arising from this statement come various forms of problems, problems similar to those which have arisen in another section of our nation. Like those problems, there is, at hand, no clear-cut path to a viable solution.

It has become increasingly clear that Alfred in its growth, is developing from a homogeneous to a heterogeneous educational institution. With this development, "growing pains" naturally arise. One of these concerns fraternity discrimination clauses and thus the present matter.

Because of the growing heterogeneous character of AU, present facilities and opportunities are rapidly becoming obsolete. It is here, in our opinion, that we should center any discussion of the problem involved in the Administrative statement.

Let us for the moment look at a problem caused by the statement. How is the elimination of discriminatory clauses to be accomplished—and when? Two of the chief difficulties of this case are those caused by the existence of national charters having jurisdiction over local chapters and the existence of clauses in a local fraternity which stipulate that a certain percentage of alumni must approve any basic change in the fraternity's make-up.

These facts serve to obstruct immediate action which should certainly stem from the fraternities themselves. Thus, it can be seen that the elimination of these clauses may not be able to take place immediately; nevertheless, the foundations for future action must be laid now.

We realize that while these written clauses present a moral obstacle to social opportunities, the elimination of the same may not serve, for all practical purposes, as an impetus to social equalization so far as fraternities are concerned. However, a significant point to be remembered is that the crutch of legal sanction in this situation could no longer be relied upon. Thus, the matter would ultimately be determined by the discretion of everyone concerned.

M. G., O. M., K. O'D.

A.U.C.A. Officers' Statement Concerning Sectarian Clauses

As a result of the meeting of the Cabinet of the Alfred University Christian Association on March 12, the following was drawn up:

Inasmuch as the University Administration has published a statement concerning sectarian clauses in fraternities, and inasmuch as the problem involves moral issues, these officers of the Alfred University Christian Association would like to make clear their position.

We believe that such discriminatory clauses in social organizations are inconsistent with the Christian principles for which we stand. We fervently desire that positive action will be taken by all concerned to eliminate those practices which are inconsistent with the goals of an academic community in a democratic nation.

Israeli Consul David Rivlin Analyzes Peace Problems of the Middle East

by FIAT LUX Staff Member

"Israel and the Middle East" was the topic of a speech by Israeli Consul David Rivlin last Tuesday evening.

Rivlin, who was born in Jerusalem, gave a history of the Zionist movement and the first decade of the existence of the state of Israel. The Zionist Movement which began sixty years ago resulted in the establishment of the Israeli state on May 14, 1948. Within ten minutes after the state was formally proclaimed, seven of the Arab States declared war on Israel and fighting began.

As a result of conflicts with the Arabs and security tensions along the borders, the rebuilding of Israel was slowed down during the first decade. That the Israelis were able to hold out against the Arabs and accomplish as much was due to "will power, determination, and lack of choice," Rivlin stated.

"Israel was not formed to be just another state. Its purpose was the restoration of a people unto their forefathers' land." These people came from seventy nations and during the ten years became molded into one people. The population during this time tripled.

Rivlin concluded by expressing hope that the Arabs will soon recognize Israel and there may be peace. "We hope it doesn't get worse and we can make our second decade even better than our first."

Rivlin is a member of the Israel Office of Information at the Israel Consulate in New York. His visit to Alfred was sponsored by the Hillel Group.

At A.U., St. Pat's is the time for sportin' the green, building flower floats, crownin' queens, and in general, celebratin'.

Theta Chi welcomed back Mary Ellen Keyes '60, and from the class of '61—Carol Africano, Anne Clift, Nancy Howes, Carol Loveland, Marion Lyon and Margaret Roters.

Sigma Chi's Mary Cavanaugh was crowned queen of the St. Pat's weekend and their float received second prize. Visiting were Linda Bufe and Alice Roll.

Pi Alpha's big celebration was in honor of the girls who designed their winning float. That distinction goes to Grace Vaccaro '60, and Sandy Zimmerman '60.

Omicron's weekend guests were Judy Dryer '58 and Barb Foreman '60.

Delta Sig's weekend fare consisted of a cocktail party on Saturday with parties preceding and following the Ball.

There was a cocktail party at Lambda Chi on Friday night. On Saturday a buffet and a party following the dance.

Kappa Nu had a party on Friday night to celebrate the occasion of their winning first prize in the float contest.

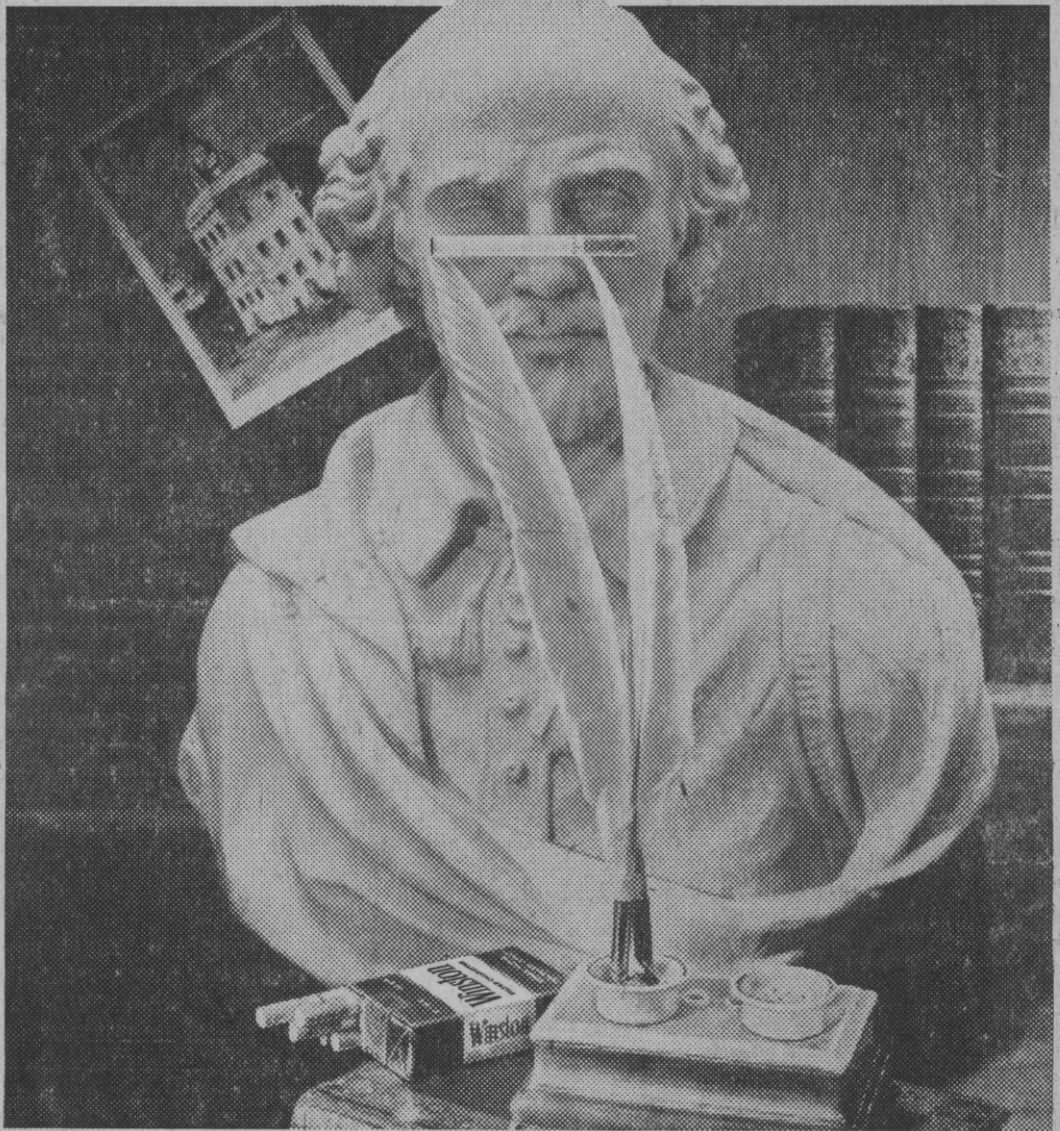

Kappa Psi had a cocktail party and buffet before the dance and an intermission party later. Steve Saunders '58 and his wife, Barbara Potter were guests.

At Klan Alpine, the weekend began with a casual party on Friday night. On Saturday, there was a champagne party preceding and following the ball.

On Friday night, Tau Delt had a lively "roaring twenties" party. Bruce Shuter '61 pinned Marsha Ellen '61 of Russell Sage.

Lederberg 2nd in 4I Tourney at Cleveland

Herman Lederberg, Alfred University's unlimited division wrestler, placed second in his class in the 4I wrestling championships that took place last Friday and Saturday. Wrestlers from forty colleges and universities competed in this annual event that was held at the Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, Ohio.

Dave Frey, who wrestles in the 137 pound division, also represented Alfred at the championship matches.

Lederberg qualified for the finals by first defeating Finley College's LaFrance. The Alfred Mauler pinned LaFrance in 2:38 of the first period. Lederberg then met his second opponent in the elimination tourney, Ed Duke of Cincinnati University, and also pinned him. The time of the pin was 6 minutes, 25 seconds.

Varsity Tops Frosh, 78-55

by Charlie Williams

Last Tuesday night in the Men's Gym the upperclassmen swept a double header from the freshmen, winning the girls' game 20-12 and the mens' game 78-55.

The upperclass girls, lead by the slick floor work of Joan Cutter, showed a smooth offense and a tough defense in moving out to a commanding lead in the first half. Pat Gregory and Carol Sloan did most of the scoring. For the freshmen, Carolyn Lum was high. In the second half, the freshmen came back, led by some fine defensive work by Mary Newton, but were never able to close the gap.

Roger Ohstrom put on an impressive show of second half fireworks to lead the Varsity to a 78-55 trimming of the freshmen. Rog scored 21 of his 27 points in the final twenty minutes as Coach Gary Girmindl's charges built up their lead from a 36-24 halftime score. The Varsity showed balance throughout the contest.

After a slow start, the Varsity picked up the lead and were never headed, gradually building up a 12 point lead. Al Walker kept the freshmen in the game with a twelve point splurge in the second part of the half. However, it was not enough, but his fine play against the varsity showed that he will be an important part of next year's Alfred squad.

In the second half, sparked by Ohstrom, the varsity steadily increased its lead, despite fine efforts by Joe Green and Phil Redstone.

Steve Steinberg, high-scoring freshman, was the victim of one of the best defensive efforts of the season by Joe McLarney who allowed Steve only one good shot all night.

The balanced attack with Bresnick, Sutton and Ohstrom in double figures was the main factor in the victory. For the frosh, Joe Green, Al Walker, Phil Redstone, Bob MacDonald and in spots Paul Trivelpiece and Mike Benedict, played well and showed promise of being a lot of help to the varsity next year.

A total of $28.40 was collected for the Basketball Hall of Fame.

Sutton Honored

Warren Sutton, Saxon hoop star, has been named to the Brockport State Teachers College's All-Opponent Squad. "Suts" was named to the first team in the center slot.

With these two victories, Lederberg qualified to compete in the finals. His opponent, Bob Marella of Ithaca College, was last year's 4I unlimited division champion. Earlier this year when Alfred met Ithaca, Marella pinned Lederberg in the second period. This time it was a slightly different story. Although the Ithaca strongman was the victor, it was via a decision. "Big Herm" went the full nine minutes, losing by a 7-3 score. 320 pound Marella had a 70 pound edge on Lederberg and that proved to be the decisive difference between the two behemoths.

Frey was eliminated from the tournament early as he lost his match by a 7-3 decision to Rog Ace to of R.I.T.. As a result of his first year of competition for Alfred, Frey has shown that he will be an important part of the Saxon wrestling picture next year.

Saxon Records For Basketball

The final Saxon basketball statistics, released last week, reveal several team and individual records broken. The team record of 11 wins and nine losses was the best record posted since the 1952-1953 season.

The total of 513 field goals is a new mark, as is the season's point total of 1319. Warren Sutton, 6'3" sophomore, set a new rebounding record, snaring a total of 433 for an average of 21.65 per game. Gary Girmindl, backcourt ace who was sidelined, after playing in six games, due to a fractured arm, had the team's best scoring average with 16.2 per game. Warren Sutton, playing in all 20 games, poured in a total of 318 points to lead the Saxons in this department. Sutton also paced the squad in field goals, as he poured in 129 two-pointers. Art Bresnick and Rog Ohstrom followed in the scoring department, averaging 13.9 and 10.5 points respectively.

Junior Art Bresnick led the team in free throws as he cashed in on 66 bonus shots. Sutton, followed Bresnick as he made good on 60 foul shots.

A.U. All-Opponent Team Chosen; Four Repeaters

The Athletic Department has released an Alfred Varsity All-Opponent team. Hartwick and Upsala College, lead the field with two representatives from the first and second teams.

Also honored was Fred Wiebold, coach of Upsala College, who was selected as mentor for the All-Opponent squad.

On the first team are Dick Slomkowski, Ithaca College; Bill Yantz, University of Rochester; Barry Lewis, Hartwick College; Joe Tontillo, University of Buffalo and Haganah of Colgate University. Slomkowski, Yantz, Lewis and Tontillo are repeaters from last year's first team all-opponent squad.

The Warriors outscored their opponents 1319 to 1278; the per-game average was 65.9.

The University freshman squad was paced in the scoring department by Bob MacDonald, who rang up 186 points for a 15.5 average. Paul Trivelpiece was next with an average of 10.2 points a game, and was followed by Mike Benedict, who averaged 8.8 points.

Slomkowski, who assistant coach Al Siegel thinks is one of the best players he has seen in the last five years, sank 16 field goals and 3 fouls for a 34 point performance against Alfred. The Bombers won that contest 93-74.

Yantz scored a total of 39 points in Rochester's double loss to Alfred this season. He hit for 23 points on the U. of R. court earlier in the season and 16 on the Alfred hardwood when Alfred won the game 77-71.

Tontillo and Lewis, the other two repeaters from 1957-58 squad showed very well against the Warriors. Their teams, University of Buffalo and Upsala College, proved too much for the Saxons as they each defeated the Purple and Gold once during the season.

Haganah rounds out the first team. He led the Colgate five to a close victory over the Warriors on the Colgate court.

Members of the second team are as follows:

Hercerk, Upsala College; Gaffney, Clarkson Tech; Cardillo, R. I. T.; Jackowitz, Upsala; Lambros, Hartwick College.
